Senator Voorhees is entitled to a high degree of credit for the passage of the repeal bill by the senate. His leadership required great tact in keeping united the friends of repeal without unduly aggravating its opponents. He was diplomatic and conciliatory, and brought the Democratic side of the senate out of the conflict without feuds or dissensions that will interfere with important matters at the coming session.

Glanders Near Wilkesbarre.

WILKESBARRE, Pa. November 6 .--The presence of the contagious disease known as glanders among a number of horses in this city and vicinity to-day has caused considerable excitement among local horsemen and farmers. Several fully developed cases have been discovered and were immediately quarantined, and nine suspicious cases tonight are under detention in other isolated stables just outside of this city. The state authorities will be urged to investigate and stamp out the disease.

of the master. In the early hours of the morning of the first inst, death came gently and suddenly to the venerable John Homan. In the moment of dissolution only a heavy sigh indicated that his soul had taken its departure from it enfeebled body. The last moments of that life which for years had been so full of pain were restful and peaceful. The transition from apparent sleep to death was so sudden that for some time after the supreme momont none of the family were aware that he had died. Mr. Homan one of our solid citi zens, was born of German parents at Duncan's mill, near Millheim, this county, August 25th. 1817, where he spent his early life. Oct. 6th. 1842 the Rev. Philip Fisher united him in holy wedlock to Hannah Moser, to them 10 children were boin, 3 having died young. His wife with seven children survive him. Mrs Cyrus Brumgart, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Jacob Roush, George W., John M., Frank and Henry with two brothers Samuel and Daniel and one half sister, and one half brother Howard and a large number of grand children survive to call him blessed. In 1851 he became a citizen of this township as a renter on the farm which he afterwards purchased by his persistent energy and industry. He beautified it and made it one of the most productive farms in the valley. he was ever watchful and laborious, seeking the very best interests of his entire family to each of which he has left a farm. He was one of the building committee to erect the Lutheran church at Pine Hall, ontributing $500 toward i's erection. The late Thomas Strouse was also one of that committee. The church will miss his counsel as an majority that the Republican vote in the county cannot overcome. Indicatically he was a staunch Democrat not know tions at present are that Gary, (Republing what it was to kick or scratch a ticket lican) candidate for supreme judge, is beaten, although he has run far ahead withstanding the inclemency of the weather a large funeral cortege followed to the church where the remains lay in front of the pulpit in a most costly and beautiful casket. Rev. Houshour, of Bellefonte, assisted by Rev. Black conducted the religious services. Basing his remarks on "I have fought a good fight I have finished my course." He paid a most pleas ing tribute to the deceased, who deserves to be held in gra eful re membrance by the en tire community. Loving agriculture it was his agreeable occupation, living frugally and peacefully he prospered abundately even beyond the three score years and ten allotted to man to labor as strength permits After the religious services many took a parting look at the familiar face and remembered that only a few more years shall roll a few more seasons come and all shall be with them that rest . asleep within the

> A magazine is usually satisfied with the strong feature for the month. The Cosmopolitan, however, presents for November no less than five very unusual ones. William Dean Howells gives the first of the letters of the traveller, who has been visiting this country we have read Mr. Howells important of the place of John Barrianus to the place of John Ba strong feature for the month. The Cosmopolifrom Altruria. We have read Mr. Howells' impression of the Altrurian; but in this first letter we have the the Altrurian's impression of New York, with some comments upon our government and society, calculated to awaken the most conservative mind. The second feature of The Cosmopolitan is the portion of the magazine given up to color 'work, no less than ten superb color illustrations being presented for the first time in magazine history, accompanying an article, by Mrs. Roger A. Pryor on "Changes in Women's Costumes." The third feature is "American Notes," by Walter Besant, who was recently in America and is doing the United States for The Cosmopolitan and an analysis wife. pression of the Altrurian; but in this first leting the United States for The Cosmopilitan a la Dickens. The fourth feature is an article la Dickens. The fourth feature is an article by General Badeau on "The Forms of Invitation Used by the English Nobility." The article is illustrated by the facsimile of cards to the Queen's drawing-room, to dinner at the Princess of Wales, and to many leading houses of England. Finally we have a new and very curious story by Mark Twain, called "The Esquimau Maiden's Romance." It is in his happiest yein and is illustrated by Dan Beard on erected a good two story dwelling house. The November number presents the work of many artists, among whom are: C. S.
