

WHEN WE HAD MILD WINTERS.

In a letter which Mr. David Krape, of Haines township, recently wrote to the Daily News we find some remarkable cases of years in which exceptionally mild winters were experienced in the past.

January, 1819, was very mild and warm. On the 23rd James Monks was executed, in Bellefonte, and when our people crossed the mountain for their homes in Brush and Penns Valleys, the toads were hopping around quite lively.

In January, 1840, there was mild weather. However a six-foot snowfall one day, but in three days and nights it was all gone and in February farmers began ploughing and making garden.

JUSTICE FOR MANY.—The special term of court last week had about rounded up its work when the WATCHMAN went to press. We gave a full account of the suit which Carrie Wilson had brought against Harry McCauley for breach of promise, but the jury did not return its verdict until late Thursday evening.

Argument in the Orphan's Court was held before Judge McPherson, of Harrisburg, on exceptions filed to the trustee's annual report on the Thomas estate. The exceptions were filed to the payment of a credit of $4,000 to the estates of the former trustees, the late Judge Irvin, and Daniel Rhoads and to the payment of $500 to E. R. Chambers for auditing the report.

The last case taken up last week was that of W. F. Peters vs. Willis Weaver and L. C. Bullock to recover a horse and buggy on a writ of replevin. A verdict of $50 was awarded to the plaintiff.

The cases that came up and were continued were those of the Munson Glass Co., vs. McCalmont & Co. Wm. C. Sheesly vs. J. R. Wolf. Sarah M. Richards vs. Mattern Bros. B. E. V. and N. V. Turnpike and R. R. Co., vs. Centre county.

The regular term began on Wednesday morning and thus far has considered the following cases. Commonwealth vs Jack Watson, charged with malicious mischief, by William Hosband, who claimed that defendant had shot his turkeys for wild ones. Verdict, not guilty, and costs divided between litigants.

Commonwealth vs William Gummo, F. and B. Martha J. Merritt prosecutrix. True bill. Commonwealth vs Mrs. George Catchart and Harry Catchart charged with assault and battery and malicious mischief by Lemuel Hampton. Defendant had been acting the part of a common scold in the various parts of Bellefonte in which she lived and was proven to be a chronic disturber of her neighbor's peace. A verdict of guilty was returned and Mrs. Catchart was sentenced to pay costs of prosecution, a fine of one dollar and enter bail in the sum of $900 to keep the peace for a period of one year.

Commonwealth vs John Snyder charged with larceny by Luther Musser. Litigants are both from the vicinity of Penn Hall, but the jury declared defendant not guilty. He was charged with stealing turkeys. Commonwealth vs Carl Voitto charged with assault and battery and discharging fire arms by P. F. Garbrick. This was the case which we mentioned as having occurred on Half moon hill, near this place, several weeks ago, when a gang of drunken foreigners are supposed to have attacked Phil Garbrick and his wife, residents of Coleville. A verdict of guilty was returned and Voitto was sentenced to costs of prosecution, $50 fine and imprisonment in the county jail for a period of thirty days.

being refused kicked over a stove filled with live coals thereby nearly burning the stable. The count of attempted arson was ignored, but he was found guilty of malicious mischief. Not sentenced.

Commonwealth vs John R. Walker, charged with resisting officers in discharge of their duty by Joshua Foulk. Case arose from a fight between Foulk and Walker while the former was searching for Bob Watkins who had escaped from jail. Not guilty.

Commonwealth vs Charles Brown charged with violating liquor laws. The old man keeps a little grocery out on Pike street and had some cider which he sold. He was dragged into court upon the complaint that he had mixed liquors with the cider and made it an intoxicant. The bill was ignored and the county will pay costs.

Commonwealth vs John River, David Beightol, Morris Fitzgerald, Matthew Fitzgerald and Charles Lynn charged with larceny by Christian Sharer. This was another turkey scrape and had its rise in Taylor township. It appears that some time ago there was a party at the home of Levi Reese and defendants got Charles Lynn to drive them out to the Reese home. On their way out they stopped at Sharer's home and returning they were charged with having stopped at Sharer's again and stolen two turkeys. Sharer was aroused by the noise and on getting up he saw the tracks in the mud, which he recognized to have been made by a horse and mule and spring wagon. Knowing that Lynn was the only man in that community who drove such a team he took a near cut to Sandy Ridge and arriving there before the return of the spring wagon, he waited. Presently it came along and when the party got out he claimed they had the two turkeys wrapped up in a robe. A verdict of guilty was returned. John River was sentenced to pay $40 fine and imprisonment for 30 days. The others were left off with the costs and a promise never to drink any more.

Commonwealth vs Samuel Shady charged with F. and B. by Kate Wasen. Guilty and sentenced to pay $25 fine, $30 lying in expenses and $1 per week for a period of seven years.

Commonwealth vs Chas. H. Bradford charged with misdemeanor by J. R. Keller. Case settled.

Commonwealth vs Harvey W. Hampton charged by Nora Young with F. and B. Bill ignored and county pay costs.

Commonwealth vs Boyd Garrett charged with assault and battery and resisting an officer by H. H. Montgomery. The suit had its rise in a street fight near the court house some time ago and when Garrett was arrested for participation he resisted the officer. Defendant plead guilty and was sentenced to pay costs and a fine of $5.

Commonwealth vs Al. S. Garman, proprietor of the Garman, house, charged with selling liquor to minors and persons of intemperate habits, by John Bowers, of Julian. This case was entered at the November session when Gottlieb Haag was sued on the same charge by Bowers. Haag settled his, but Garman determined to stand suit. Bowers, who is a one legged boy, has rather an unsavory reputation and he claimed to have purchased liquor at both Haag's and Garman's on the fourth of July last. He is supposed to have gotten drunk on the rum and was brought to court at the August term on a charge of surety of the peace and threats. He plead guilty and was sentenced. The suit against Garman was the outcome of it. His case was weak in that he claimed to have purchased the whiskey from Al Garman who at that time was not in the bar and easily proved an alibi. A verdict of not guilty was rendered and Bowers must pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs Robert Watkins, charged with breaking jail by W. A. Ishler, Sheriff. Defendant plead guilty and was sentenced to pay costs and undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for one year, sentence to take effect immediately upon the expiration of sentence imposed in August, 1893, which was for one year and of which he had only served two months when he broke jail. He was then up for keeping a bawdy house in Curtin township.

Commonwealth vs Horace Steel charged with false pretense by Oscar W. Stover. Defendant collected money in Harris township for a man, whom he said had been burned out of house and home near Potter's Mills, and in Potter Twp and Centre Hall he worked the same dodge, claiming to be collecting for a fire victim named Wolf, near Boalsburg. As no such persons had suffered fire loss in the respective communities he was arrested. He was found guilty.

Commonwealth vs Harvey Searson charged with forgery by J. V. Parks. It appears that Searson was agent to sell farm machinery for Aultman, Miller & Co., of Akron, Ohio, and in settling up his accounts he paid a balance due the firm with a note for about $150 which he signed himself, as Harvey Searson, and then endorsed it with the signature of J. H. Searson, his full name, making it appear as though it was a regular endorsement. The note went to protest and Searson skipped to Ohio, where he was working in a livery stable when he was apprehended and brought back. The jury found him guilty.

CENTRE COUNTY PRIZE WINNERS AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.—The part that many Centre county gentlemen took in the organization and direction of the great World's Columbian Exposition is well known, but there is another feature, the outcome of the Fair, which brings even more gratification to us than the honors bestowed on the men from this county, who had a prominent executive part to play in the World's Fair. It is the matter of awards to which our attention has been called and those in which our farmers are directly interested.

In Department A. Group, in the great Agricultural building, was the exhibit of grains and seeds made by the different States in the Union and foreign countries. Pennsylvania carried off one hundred and fifteen awards in that department alone. And of that number Centre county farmers captured six, as follows:

S. H. Bension, Marion Twp., for wheat and corn. P. F. Bottorf, Pine Grove Mills, for corn. Isaac S. Frain, Marion Twp., for wheat. Dr. H. K. Hoy, Bellefonte, for wheat. David Rothrock, Benner Twp., for wheat.

The Pennsylvania State College, for wheat, corn and oats. The Pennsylvania State College was awarded a prize for an exhibit of butter from its own creamery. It will receive one of the magnificent medals issued by act of congress and the others will receive a handsome diploma. Both are now being made and will be ready for issuance by the first of July.

The two gentlemen who so ably represented this county on the Board of Managers were Hon. John A. Woodward, who was Deputy Executive Commissioner for Pennsylvania, and Prof. Louis E. Reber, head of the Mechanical Engineering Department of the Pennsylvania State College, who was Pennsylvania's Commissioner in charge of the Mines and Mining exhibit. He was also a member of the committee on awards for the electrical building on which were many of the leading electricians of the world.

Pine Grove Mentions.—Mrs. V. L. Swartz nee Krumrine is the guest of Mrs. D. G. Meek this week. Comrade D. W. Miller whose pension was some time ago suspended, has had it restored.

Our farmers are busy preparing the soil for the spring crops. Many are doing ploughing, ground in mid-winter. Mrs. Matilda Rumberger is slowly recovering from a fall, that resulted in a badly bruised face and a sprained ankle. That might be chargeable to the Wilson tariff bill.

Rev. John Houseman, of Altoona in his usual pleasant manner, is this week tarrying with his host of friends here; but giving most of his time to his aged mother, who is seriously ill with dropsy.

The venerable Robert Glenn one of our oldest citizens is quite ill from a stroke of paralysis. As his physical health is strong and vigorous yet, his medical attendant entertains some hope that his life may be spared many days.

F. E. Saunserman Esq., who so skillfully handles the motive power lever in the Mountain City, spent Sunday with his aged mother here. He looks as though the fresh breezes of that city agreed with his big handsome self.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lutz are mourning the sudden death of their darling baby Ralph, who died of enlargement of the heart quite suddenly on the 20th inst. Interment was made on Sunday afternoon at the Pine Hall cemetery, Rev. Black officiating.

Rev. W. W. Illingworth is conducting a protracted meeting at Fairbrook church. The services are well attended and much interest is taken. It is hoped that a goodly number will present themselves at the altar to take the vows ever to be kept sacred, and to prepare themselves for the great eternity.

On the night of the 17th inst burglars entered the Washington Grange P. O. H. were properly installed by Hon. J. T. McCormick, Master, H. B. Hartwick; Overseer, W. N. Bloom; Sect. D. I. Johnson; Steward, Israel Cori; Asst. Std., N. E. Hoy; Lady Aest. Steward Miss Cronoble; Ceres, Mrs. Kate Young, Pomona, Mrs. Albert Hoy; Insurance Agent, J. T. McCormick. The meeting was public and was well attended and much interest taken. The Washington band was present and played its best music.

On the night of the 17th inst burglars entered the home of Isaac Woomer's mill, and by the use of powder that they found in the mill, succeeded in blowing up the safe. They found, however, only papers that were of no value to them, a five dollar pen and holder, and a lot of tobacco and cigars which they did not molest. The explosion was heard some miles away. The doors and windows of the mill were badly damaged and the crackmen were probably frightened away by a clue to the burglars.

Ex-County Treasurer Goss by some stratagem means obtained leave of absence for a few days from his desk in the Alcona R. R. Shop to come down to explain to the G. O. P. here the Wilson Tariff bill, and to add his little say to our "Dan's" gubernatorial boom. As a matter of course, Cyrus expects a fair appointment. We would suggest Adjutant Gen. Greenland's place. Gen. Goss would be gratified by his Centre County friends.

George B. McWilliams accompanied by his intended Miss Nora Woomer took the day break train on the 18th inst. for Philadelphia. It did not require much guessing by the passengers that a marriage was in prospect. But their sudden trip across the Alleghenies was a surprise and the fact was only realized when they returned the day following as man and wife to receive the usual blessing. A pleasant dinner was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Woomer, and the following day the usual reception supper was served at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. W. B. McWilliams, this like the previous one was strictly a family affair. The bride is the oldest daughter of Isaac Woomer, and is a model young lady, she possesses all the good qualities and undoubtedly will make an excellent wife. The groom the youngest son of the late W. B. McWilliams, is a young man of good principles with an irreproachable character, and is one of Ramey's, Clearfield county, state business men. Just why he got in the face of the pending Wilson bill undertook so great a responsibility as to provide for a wife all through life, is a problem yet unsolved. At all events the Watchman's best wishes are for them and their future happiness and welfare.

Installation and Campfire of Dr. Geo. L. Potter. Post No. 261, Dep. Pa., G. A. R. on Jan. 20.

The installation was public and as usual the hall was full to overflowing. Gen. J. I. Curtin, of Post 95, was the installing officer. The following is a list of officers for 1894: commander, Austin Curtin; S. V. P., Samuel Zimmerman; J. V. C., William Emmeberger; chaplain, Thomas Wilson; sergeant, S. H. Orris; Q. M., W. H. Musser; adjutant, A. G. Rager; O. D., James Krep; O. H., Thomas Watson; trustee, James McMullen. After the installation post commander Jos. A. Green was detailed to take charge of campfire, which he did by introducing the Milesburg Glee Club, who rendered "Marching through Georgia" with good effect.

The retiring officers were then given the opportunity to say their little speeches, adjutant Baldrige for a comrade not given to speech making, made the speech of the evening, full of patriotic sentiment and advice to the youth of the nation. After the past officers had all talked, the choir rendered, "Keep the Campfire Burning Bright." The incoming officers were then given a chance to tell what they intend to do for the G. A. R. the coming year. Commander Curtin and chaplain Wilson responded as they never lack for something to say at a campfire, "How did you know it was Jonah," was sung by the glee club, as they alone can sing it, which was loudly applauded. Miss Madge Orris followed in a recitation entitled, "Golden Hair." Prof. A. R. Rutt was introduced and gave quite a patriotic address followed by music by choir. Rev. G. W. Warren being present was called on and responded in a happy speech, the audience was then favored by the "Privates Glory," by Miss Ella C. Musser, Miss Mabel Bathurst, followed with "Corporal Johnston," the next was a cor. net solo, by Frank Wetzel, ably assisted by Will Essington on the organ. The Ladies of W. R. C. No. 3 were then called on and of course responded, Comrade Pleasant, and also Comrade Brown from Post 262, were called on but declined, comrade on the platform know the reason why Comrade Pleasant did not make a speech, the following named comrades from Post 95 each contributed their rail, Gen. J. I. Curtin, S. B. Miller, Frank I. Wallace, Anny Lutes, John H. Bryon and W. H. Taylor. The thanks of the post are hereby tendered to all who assisted in making the campfire a success.

Diad.—At Fillmore, Jan. 11, 1894, age 12 years, 4 months and 19 days, of diphtheria, W. Hubert L. Gray, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. P. Gray.

God in his great wisdom has seen fit to call from our midst, one who was greatly beloved, gentle, kind and affectionate. Just in the morning of life, where so much needed by the united household, was he taken. As he was the only son left at home, the parents had learned to look to him for help in the daily associations of life. He was always ready to lend the helping hand and spare his parents wherever he could do so. The affliction seems heavy for the present, but God wills it so or He would have ordered it otherwise. There is one consoling thought, though he cannot come to us, we can go to him, leaving the assurance behind of a home in the sweet rest "that remains for the people of God." His last words were, when asked by his sister "Hubert you are not afraid to die, are you?" he said, "No I am not afraid if Jesus goes with me. As a scholar he was beloved by all his schoolmates. He was also a faithful scholar in the Sabbath school; his place was seldom vacant in the class, but, alas it is vacant now. But we mourn not as one who has no hope. To the sorrowing friends we would say, trust in God, though the clouds seem dark they will break and the silver lining will shine through.

"Do not tell us that our loved ones Lose their earthly memories quite, When they sing among the angels In the heavenly mansions bright. Oh, I know that we shall know them Tho' the angel robes they wear, When they bid us welcome over, We shall know our loved ones there.

Yes we'll meet them in the city That is just across the strand, And our hearts shall leap with rapture When we take them by the hand. Oh, how sweet shall be the meeting Earthly words can never declare, We shall know the bliss of heaven, When we meet each other there." A. FRIEND.

BLAINE'S HANDY MANUAL OF USEFUL INFORMATION.—There has just been published in Chicago a most valuable book with the above title, compiled by Prof. Wm. H. Blaine, of Lancaster University. Its 500 pages are full of just what its name implies—useful information—and we fully advise all our Readers to send for a copy of it. It is a compendium of things worth knowing, things difficult to remember, and tables of reference of great value to everybody, that it has never before been our good fortune to possess in such compact shape. Our wonder is how it can be published at so low a price as is asked for it. It is handsomely bound in flexible cloth covers, and will be sent to any address, post paid, on receipt of 25 cents in postage stamps, by the publishers, G. W. Ogilvie & Co., 276 & 278 Franklin St., Chicago, Ill.

ONE DAY ONLY. EXAMINATION AND CONSULTATION FREE TO EVERY BODY. UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIALS I HAVE BEEN TOTALLY BLIND DR. SALM CURED ME

I have been totally blind in my right eye for some years, no matter how good I consulted Dr. Salm who visits Johnstown every 4 weeks. The Dr. made a fine and successful operation so that I can see once more very well. Any one wishing to see the catarrh can do so by calling on me at my home in Wilmore, Pa. I was 74 years old last year. Johnstown, Pa. MARY LITZNER.

WE ENTRUSTED OUR BOY CHEERFULLY TO HIS CARE Our little boy has been cross-eyed for some years, and was gradually getting worse. We knew of some splendid work of Dr. Salm's in Ohio, so we entrusted him to his care. The operation was done in 1 minute's time and without pain and now the eyes are straight as you can see by pictures above. Mrs. C. A. YINKEY. Johnstown, Pa. 188 Morris St.

CLOSURE OF THE TEARDUCT CURED BY DR. SALM. I have had a good deal of trouble with my eyes for the last 5 years. Tears running over my cheeks continually. Dr. Salm called it closure of the tearduct and operated on the same and now I can keep my hands dry and my pocket instead of wiping my eyes continually. Indiana, Pa. Mrs. MARTHA CARNEY

A VERY SORE EYE CURED BY DR. SALM AFTER OTHER DRs. HAD ADVISED REMOVAL OF SAME. My son Clement, now 9 years old, has had very sore eyes for 4 years; so many so that the Drs. advised the removal of one of them. We didn't decide to have the eye taken out, so we brought him to Dr. Salm and today there isn't the least sign of an inflammation and he can see as well as ever. Just think of it after only two months treatment and without any operation. Centre Hall, Pa Mrs. MAGGIE LOVE. Centre Co.

CATARH AND EAR TROUBLE CURED AFTER 7 YEARS STANDING BY DR. SALM. For 6 or 7 years I have been suffering with a bad case of catarrh gradually becoming worse and worse. The last two years my ears began to trouble me a good deal and became rather hard of hearing; they ached a good deal and began to discharge a lot of very offensive matter. Now after a course of treatment I must confess that I am highly pleased; for a can hear as well as ever and have no more aches nor pains nor running of ears. Pindilton, Pa. L. A. REESE. Cambria Co.

82 YEARS OLD AND MADE TO SEE AFTER TOTAL BLINDNESS BY DR. SALM. I have been blind in my right eye for some years with Senile Cataract. I had heard a good deal of Dr. Salm. So I went to him 2 years ago last June and he operated on me without pain and the cataract was removed with fine success and to-day I can see just as well as 4 weeks after the operation. I can safely recommend the Dr. to suffering humanity. I am now 82 years old. Roaring Villages, Pa. DANIEL COGLY. Armstrong Co.

WAS REDUCED TO A WRECK AFTER 10 YEARS FEARFUL RAVAGES OF CATARRH AND CHRONIC BRONCHITIS. DR. SALM CURED ME. For 10 years I have suffered terribly with Catarrh or Bronchitis. The disease gradually extended to every other organ in my body, I became a physical and mental wreck. Have tried our best Drs. in the county, but I grew worse and worse until as a last resort I gave my case to Dr. Salm and I am glad to say that under his treatment I began to improve from the very first month. That distressing cough and fearful pain in my chest has left me, I need not gasp for breath any more and feel as strong as ever. The most wonderful of all is that I have not taken a single cold since the first month. JACOB VOGEL 54 years old. Cambria Co.

SUFFERED UNTOLD AGONIES FOR 15 YEARS, TALES 7 DIFFERENT DRs. BUT GREW WORSE UNTIL TREATED BY DR. SALM. For the last 15 years I have been suffering very much, have been treated by 7 different Drs., nearly all of them gave my ailment a different name and gave the medicine accordingly. The result was that I became worse and worse, until at last I went to Dr. Salm who pronounced my disease to be the Bladder Kidneys and Stomach and treated me accordingly with the most splendid result, he has done me more good in one month than I do others for 15 years, and feel once more like I did 16 years ago no feeling of tiredness and fatigue as heretofore, I can do my work and enjoy what was an impossibility heretofore.
