Obituary.

GEORGE F. GRAY, Was born in Half Moon, Centre county, April 10, 1827, and died near Fillmore, Centre county, Feb. 3. 1894 aged 66 years 9 months and 23 days. His father, John L. Gray, was for many years, a prominent and influential man in this section, as were also his brothers, Rev. Peter and Jacob Gray. The subject of the present notice was prevented, in later years, by protracted ill health, from taking a very active part in public affairs, and, in the last twenty years, has had frequent intervals of great feebleness and prostration. He had previously been an active and successful farmer. His last illness was so severel and admittedly hope the hearty sympathy of the whole community and especially in view of the fact that they are doubly bereaved, the youngest son and brother, Hubert, aged twelve years, having passed away about three weeks previously. Mr. Gray had been for many years a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, faithful and tender in domestic life, a thoroughly honorable man in every way.

HENRY. L BARNHART. On Monday the 6th inst. Henry L. Barnhart, resident of Boggs township for almost his entire lifetime, after a brief period of suffering of only five or six days, from the time he took his bed, passed peacefully away. So gently and softly entered third interest in the property, and the the death angel that his immediate family circle and others who witnessed regretfully, purchase that interest from Mrs. Childs and sorrowfully his demise, could not tell its precise moment.

Deceased was the second son of the late well known citizen, Judge and Legislator Hon. Henry Barnhart, one of the very earlist settlers of Boggs township. His mother being a member of the Centre county Holt family, a daughter of Col. John Holt, of Revolutionary fame. His brothers and sisters now living are Philip W. Barnhart, Esq. resident near Roland; Mrs. Mary Davis, wife of G. Irvin Davis, of Hollidaysburg; Mrs. Katherine Kimport, residing at Raunceverte W. Va. Two sisters have died in recent years, Mrs. Julian Curtin wife of John Curtin Esq., of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Sarah Sellers wife of Thos. R. Sellers, late of Buffalo Run, formerly bookeeper at

Eagle Iron Works. In early life the deceased was a resident in Crawford county, where he worked at the carpenter trade and married Sept. 10th 1851, the stimable lady who now mourns his loss. Mrs. Barnhart is of French extraction, her grandfather, who was a soldier in the French contingent to aid the cause of freedom in America, came to this country with the Marquis de La Fayette and served in the Revolutionary war with distinction. He was born in

The children who with their mother are left to bear the burden of their loss are . Alfonzo Kimport Barnhart, now in Michigan, John Curtin Barnhart, residing near the homestead; William Wallace and Irvin Davis Barnhart, both residents near home. Of those deceased Kate Elizabeth, well remembered in the past was the wife of Dr. H. K. Hoy; Mary Anna

Barnhart died in childhood. Services were held at 10:30 o'clock a. m. Wednesday 8th inst. over the remains of the deceased in the Evangelical church, Pleasant Hill, but a step from his late residence. The Presiding Elder Rev. Hurtzel, of the district delivered an able funeral sermon, with evident | 39.7-3t. good effect being followed with an address by the Pastor Rev. Armand. Interment was

He was indeed a remarkable man and a most conspicuous type spite of his innate modesty, of the American citizen, the public spirited untiring, self sacrificing patrictic loyal sort. Earnest, sincere and devoted (Centre Co., Pa. H. C. QUIGLEY. had almost reached the allotted three score otic loyal sort. Earnest, sincere and devoted in everything he undertook, he was never im- | 39-6-3t. pulsive or rash. though his generosity and confidence often led him to overestimate the possibilities of human transactions and thereby to give more than he received; or to be the loser in a bargain, when he himself was the par- BROOKLYN LIFE . . . . ty of one part, but never when another's interests were in his hands or a public trust involved. A man whose sympathies entered into every neighbor's cares, he must have born more than his own burden. It has been remarked by friends time and again: "Henry L. Barnhart should have been rich." Though a man that in old time would have been called a man of parts, he had no part in wealth. No, he was one of those who constitute the sinews, the basis of wealth, for he took delight chiefly in the patriotic spirit that glories in his country's growing wealth. He even delighted in seeing those about him grow rich, if such were possi. ble in the general retrogression of values following upon the late war, in which farm land has fallen so far behind as to almost impoverish the free-holder who is taxed for the same.

For some years past a farmer, Mr. Barnhart kept in closest touch with the farmers in his community, but much of his life was spent at Iron Works, having been out-door manager (1867-73) at Eagle Iron Work, for a period of years under the firm of R. C. & I. Curtin rendering valuable service.

Of the deceased it might be said he died in the harness, having just completed the fencing of the Central Railroad of Penna for which he had the contract. Perhaps the strain of this his last work was too great for even the yet active body which held his energetic spirit, for some life-link seemed to have snapped some tie that held him in the coil of life.

As Mr. Barnhart was a good ex ampler of American citizenship he neglected no hing which pertained to his soverign rights. In politics much work, as it were, was deferred to him, but little, if any pay. Nothing daunted he was always in the fore-front of the battle and no man understood the political and per sonal features of an issue at the ballot better

With this strong man who bore the burden o' others with charity, who believed Christ died for all, whose revential spirit was ever impressed with the revelations of the Scrip tures, there must have grown a faith commensurable with, even paramount to other lead ing elements of his nature, a faith engendered by charity for all, "for charity beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all endureth all things charity things, never faileth." In his last conscious moment he said awakening, to his oldest son," "It's you Jack." It's all right. "That was the end of his earthly cares." "And whosoever will, let him drink of the water of life freely." The amily of the departed desire to express publicly their heartfelt appreciation for the kindness of those neighbors who rendered their services at the house, extending the same to the entire community in which they dwell, for the manifest sympathy which prevailed.

Mr. Child's Wealth

It may Amount to $5,000,000. No Endowment.

PHILADELPHIA, February 8 -- A gentleman qualified to speak regarding Mr. Child's wealth and plans said this evening: "Mr. Childs made his gifts while he lived, as he desired to have personal gratification in the expenditures. He gave thousands yearly. His estate will probably figure about $5,000, 000 It may be less because of his princely gifts. While Mrs. Childs has full knowledge of the desired plans of her husband, nothing definite has been arranged, and will be many months beless, that death came to him doubtless as a fore anything is done. The plans do welcome discharge. His family, consisting of a wife, four daughters and three sons, have a wife, four daughters and three sons, have or endowment. Mr. Childs was educative approaches the hearty approaches of the whole community. ting at his own expense some sixty young girls and women, and these wil be cared for. Three months ago Mr. Childs remarked: "Should I die tomorrow, every arrangement has been made for carrying out my wishes, and there will be no tangle anywhere."

"The Public Ledger property from this time forward is controlled by the A. J. Drexel estate. George W. Childs Drexel is in absolute charge to-day, under the direction of the trustees of A. J. Drexel's will. The Ledger has earned trustees will in a few days arrange to under an agreement between Messrs. Childs and Drexel, made in 1885."

Cured by Dr. Salm After Having Suffered for Years With Stomach, Bladder and Kidney Trouble.

Trouble.

1 have been suffering with very severe stomach, bladder and kidney trouble, and on account of that felt all broke up. Couldn't follow my daily labors on account of great pains, weakness and headache; but now, after a course of treatment with Dr. Salm, can once more attend to my daily labors with pleasure and consider myself hale and hearty again.

For more than twelve years I suffered tortures with liver, stomach and kidney trouble Occasionally I had to go to bed for a week at a time and was unable to work for years; but now, after only a few months' treatment with Dr. Salm, I feel so well, as I never did before. I used piles of patent medicines and had seven different physicians but gradually grew worse. However, since I put myself under Dr. Salm's treatment I improved gradually and now can do as good a day's work as any one.

Dr. Salm's treatment I improved gradually and now can do as good a day's work as any one. I can certainly recommend the doctor to those suffering from chronic diseases of any kind.

Many Others Have Failed.

For quite a time I have been almost totally deaf from catarrh, particularly in my left ear, which seemed dead, and the right one got worse daily. I was very despondent and almost desperate on account of not being able to hear what went on around me; felt always tired and lost all energy. Now I am quite a different man and feel happy once more, all this thanks to Dr. Salm's skillful treatment. I have been to three other doctors. No one can imagine how good and young I feel since I can understand once more without an effort.

For more than ten years I have had a bad case of eatarrh. My ears gradually became affected to such a degree that the hearing in one year was almost totally gone and bad in the other one. I became very much alarmed, so I went to Dr. Salm for treatment and improvement was rapid from the beginning. It's now very seldom that I take a cold and it must be a very faint sound that I cannot hear with either ear. I feel better all around and confess myself satisfied with the treatment. Ebensburg, Pa. For more than eighteen years I have been totally blind in my right eye, caused by a piece of wood striking the same. I was told I could never be made to see again out of the eye, but Dr. Salm told me that the injury had produced cataract and that he would guarantee to make me see. I gave him my case, and bless my stars that I did so, for to-day, although it is wonderful to relate, I can see once more out of the heretofore blind eye after more than 18 years darkness. Friends and those who know me will bear witness to the above and think there is no discount on Dr Salm's wonderful skill.

For more than seven years I have had a bad case of Catarrh which affected my head. Throat and Chest very much and on a short space or time lost over twenty pounds in weight, became weaker daily and felt stupid and good for nothing. Was treated by several of our best Dr's and took a good deal of patent medicines, but gradually grew worse and worse. Then I heard of Dr. Salm's wonderful cures. I gave him a trial and from the very first month I began to steadily improve and the result to-day is that I have gained what weight I had lost heretofore and feel like enjoying life once more.
