THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—On Monday morning the Central rail-road will begin carrying the mail through Nittany Valley.

—The Y. M. C. A. gymnasium in this place is doing good work among the young men of the town.

—The musical convention at Boalsburg will open on Monday evening, Feb. 26th, and continue until the Friday evening following.

—Last Saturday morning was the coldest of the year. Thermometers in various parts of the county registered from 0° to 14° below.

—Mr. Harvey Royer has been appointed to carry the mail from Zion post-office to and from the C. R. R. of Pa., station a mile distant.

—There were three hundred and twenty-eight Bellefonters who took advantage of the various excursions over the C. R. R. of Pa. on Tuesday.

—It is said that B. Weber and his son William, of Howard, have been so sick since Tuesday that the one has taken to smoking a pipe and the other is breaking stone.

—Funeral services over the remains of the late Nancy Woodring, aged 84 years and 2 months, of Port Matilda, were held last Saturday. Interment was made in the cemetery near her late home.

—Mrs. Edward Barry, of this place, whose husband died about a year ago, has been granted a pension of $16 per month—$8 for herself and $8 for her children. She will receive about $225 back pay.

—Lock Haven is pushing to secure an electric line from Mill Hill to that place. The principal idea is to attract the trade of the Nittany valley to Lock Haven via the Central railroad of Pa.

—The new Methodist Episcopal church at Millington will be dedicated on next Sunday, Feb. 25th. Bishop Cyrus D. Foss and Rev. Dr. Gray, of the Williamsport Dickinson seminary will have charge of the services.

—An enjoyable gathering of friends surprised Mr. Cheyney Hecklin, a book-keeper in the First National bank of this place, last Saturday evening. It was the 30th anniversary of his birth and the party was a complete surprise to him.

—From six o'clock last Thursday evening until six o'clock the following Friday evening the fires under the boilers that furnish steam for The Pennsylvania State College consumed just twenty-five tons, eight hundred and forty pounds of coal.

—The Epworth League, of Gray's church in Half Moon, are going to give their pastor, Rev. A. P. Wharton, a "farewell" reception this evening at the M. E. parsonage in Stormstown. Mr. Wharton has been on the circuit for five years and is universally liked and admired.

—The beautiful Amaryllis in the window of this office that is attracting so much attention just now was grown from a bulb that came from the White house hot house in Washington. At present it has four monstrous blooms on it and in the course of a few days there will be three more out.

—Last Saturday was "Nittany Valley" day on the Central rail-road of Pennsylvania and very nearly one thousand people along the line took advantage of the cheap rate of 25 cents to come to town for the day. Tuesday the people of Bellefonte were given an opportunity to ride over the line and many took advantage of it.

—Joshua Foulk's drum corps enlivened the things with martial airs yesterday afternoon. They paraded the streets of the town and serenaded many citizens. The WATCHMAN office was favored with "the girl I left behind me." We don't know whether Josh, selected this particular piece for us or not, but it seemed to have some connection with last Tuesday.

—There were 939 excursionists on the Central Railroad of Penna. last Saturday, "Nittany valley" day. The following number of tickets were sold at the different stations: From Mill Hill, 124; Salona, 134; Mackeyville, 67; Clintondale and Kriders, 85; Lamart, 124; Huston, 36; Nittany, 75; Hubersburg, 100; Zion, 74; Snyderstown, Hecla and Nigh, 120, a total of 939.

—A very merry party of young people from this place journeyed to the home of that popular photographer Mr. Edw. Berkstresser, in Hubersburg, last Tuesday evening and there met a party of young folks from that community. Together they spent the evening most enjoyably in dancing and games, not returning until about dawn. All speak in the highest terms of the hospitable family who were their entertainers.

THE RESULT OF THE ELECTION IN THE COUNTY.—Below we give the result of the election in the various precincts of Centre county. We have named only those candidates who were successful and have given the majority of Messrs. Grow or Hancock in each township.

Some of the reports are doubtless incorrect but the unsatisfactory manner in which many of the return sheets are made out renders an intelligible count impossible.

We trust that the men elected are all honorable citizens and that they will make careful and conscientious officials.

A REVISED VERSION.—Knowing that the school children are always hard pressed for good declamations when the literary entertainment day comes round and with full appreciation of the chestnutty condition of the Mary and her lamb poem we have clipped the following revised version for our young readers who want a laughable little speech to memorize.

"Mollie had a little ram as black as a rubber shoe, and everywhere that Mollie went he emigrated too. He went with her to church one day, the folks hilarious row, to see him walk demurely into Deacon Allen's pew. The worthy deacon quickly let his angry passions rise, and gave it an unchristian kick between the sad brown eyes.

This landed rammy in the aisle; and the deacon followed fast, and raised his foot again, alas! that first kick was his last. For Mr. Shep walked slowly back, about a rod 'tis said, and ere the deacon could retreat, he stood him on his head.

The congregation then arose and went for that 'ere sheep; several well directed butts just placed them in a heap. Then rushed they straightway for the door, with curses long and loud, while rammy struck the hindmost man, and shoved him through the crowd.

The minister had often heard that kindness would subdue the fiercest beast. "Aha," he said, "I'll try that game on you." And so he kindly, gently called: "Come, rammy, rammy, ram; to see the folks abuse you so I grieved and sorry am."

The ram quite dropped his humble air, and dropped from off his feet, and when the parson landed, he was near the hind most seat. And as he shot out of the door and closed it with a slam, he named a California town, I think 'twas "Yuba Dam."

THE ADVENTISTS HAVE COME TO STAY. So Mr. Wheeler says.—Since Mr. Wheeler the Advent evangelist, closed his services several months ago, the Adventist cause has been gathering strength under his earnest effort. He has labored from house to house, opening the Bible to such as would hear him, and has distributed much religious reading matter at his own expense, and visited and preached to the prisoners in the jail.

Mr. Wheeler is a graduate of the leading Adventist college in the land at Battle Creek, Michigan, and is now employed by the Pennsylvania conference of that denomination. His followers, have now established quarters in the old Methodist church, on jail hill, which is being prepared by them for sabbath school and other religious services. It is expected that the chapel will be ready this week and that Mr. Wheeler will open services there Saturday evening next. He says he has come to stay for "Truth crushed to the earth shall rise again" the eternal years of God are hers.

THE DEATH OF EX-COUNTY TREASURER CYRUS GOSS.—A telegram from Altoona, at an early hour yesterday morning, informed the Centre county friends of Mr. Cyrus Goss that he had died after a short illness with pneumonia, at his home in that place, at 4 o'clock in the morning. It was known here that he had been ill, but nothing serious was looked for and the announcement of his death was a decided shock to his many friends. Mr. Goss leaves a widow with thirteen children, most of whom are young, to mourn his death. He was a man very popular among men and was one of the few Republicans who have ever held a Centre county office. As a public official he proved a success and was liked by all who knew him.

His remains will be brought to Pine Grove Mills where interment will be made on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

HE SHOT AT THE BOYS.—August Carp, a legged Fin who works for McCalmont & Co., was up before Justice Foster, yesterday noon, charged with discharging deadly weapons. On Wednesday evening, while drunk, he was being taken home by some countrymen, and when they reached the vicinity of the C. R. R. Pa. passenger station, on Lamb street, some boys began teasing them, whereupon Carp pulled out a revolver and fired.

—Clinton county gave Grow about 200 of a plurality.

—Three Clearfield families who visited the World's Fair are now being cared for by the poor overseers.

—The Renovo base ball club has organized for the season of 1894. Last year the River league club from that place cleared $800.

—A Williamsport mechanic thinks that by placing a large turbine water wheel in the Susquehanna river and conducting water to it through a conduit that he can get from 30,000 to 50,000 horse power. Enough to run all the machinery of the Lumber city.

—The death of William Green, colored, occurred at his home on Logan street, on Monday evening, after a continued illness with pneumonia. He was one of Bellefonte's best known colored men and had been a porter at the Brockerhoff house for thirty-five years, a position which he filled with a faithfulness that had often been remarked. During the war he served with Company K. 6th Reg. U. S. Colored troops and is said to have been an exceptional good soldier.

Decased is survived by a widow and large family of children. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon.

CHANGE OF TIME-TABLE OF THE CENTRAL R. R. OF PENNA.—On Monday, February 26th, the time of all passenger trains will be changed as follows: Morning train will leave Bellefonte at 7 a. m.

Afternoon train will arrive at Bellefonte at 8.15 p. m.

Detailed time tables can be procured at stations on Feb. 24, and will be published next week.

J. W. GEHART, Gen'l Supt. THE OLD COUNCIL CONCLUDES ITS WORK.—The regular session of council last Monday evening was attended by every member except Mr. Bush, of the South ward, and his being away from town explained his absence. It was the last regular meeting of the old council and all the business preparatory to the formal re-organization by the newly elected members was transacted.

Many bills were read and approved, the Street, Water, Market and Finance committees had no reports to make and the Fire committee reported that the bursted hose sent away for repairs had returned in good condition and that the Logan steam engine company had assumed control of the disbanded Coronet hook and ladder company's property. General Superintendent J. W. Gehart of the C. R. R. of Pa. appeared and asked council for permission to run a siding across Lamb street to reach the electric light coal house. It was granted, as was also permission to run a siding up Lamb street to the steam heat works. Several nuisances that were reported were referred to the proper committee and after the regular routine council adjourned.

News Purely Personal. —Matt Savage, the Clearfield politician and the forcible editor of the Public Spirit, was in town on Monday night.

—G. W. Williams and daughters, of Fairbrook spent last Friday and Saturday with friends in this place.

—Mrs. F. P. Green and her sister Miss Harris are in Williamsport visiting Mrs. Green's daughter, Mrs. Clevean Dines.

—Prof. John Hamilton financial agent of the Pennsylvania State College was transacting business in town on Wednesday.

—James Cook, who is a freshman at Lafayette College, is home for a short vacation on account of ill health, the result of the grip.

—Geo. T. Bush spent Monday and Tuesday in Louisville, Ky., whither he journeyed as a State delegate to the L. A. W. convention held in that city.

—During a visit to Philadelphia last week Wilbur F. Reeder Esq., of this place, addressed the Clover club, a conservative social organization of the Quaker city.

—Miss Sallie Baum, the pleasant and courteous clerk in Garman's store, has gone to Princeton, Ind. to take a like position in a store which her brother-in-law, N. R. Risman, has opened.

—Hon. Harry Alvan Hall, United States district attorney for the Western district of Pennsylvania, spent Monday night in Bellefonte on his way to Altoona to prepare a case against the counterfeiters under arrest there.

—Dr. George W. Atherton, President of the Pennsylvania State College, passed through town last evening for New York whence he will sail for Galveston, Texas, and thence he will go to Mexico by rail. His trip is purely for recreation and will last several months.

—After a brief stay in Bellefonte, R. M. Magee and son returned to their home in Philadelphia on Friday evening. Mr. Magee takes much pride in the annual statement of the Brooklyn Life Insurance Co. of which he is the Pennsylvania manager.

—Mr. Samuel B. Haupt, formerly of Bellefonte but now of Lewisburg, with his wife and several friends tarried in town between sleighs a few hours last week. It is years since Bellefonte had a right to elate him, and in that time the world has given him, what he deserves, success. Only recently, on account of his health, did he resign his position as superintendent of Motive Power on the Norfolk and Western railroad, with headquarters at Roanoke, Va. and is now making his home in Lewisburg where he is interested in business.

GRAND ARMY DAY.—Yesterday Gregg Post, G. A. R. No. 95, of this place, entertained many people of the town in a number of ways. A turkey dinner was served in the Post rooms in the Harris block and in the evening an oyster supper was advertised. At half past seven o'clock in the evening the assembly room was prepared for a literary entertainment which was presided over by General James A. Beaver, the program being as follows:

Overture, "Tancred,".....Meyer's Orchestra
"Our National Emblem,".....Fred Blair
"The Responsibility of American Citizens,".....Maurice Kelly
"America," (National Airs),.....Orchestra
