

Democratic Watchman

Bellefonte, Pa., March 16, 1894.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—To-morrow will be St. Patrick's day.

—"The Dazzler" at Garman's next Thursday night.

—Aaronsburg gardens are planted with onions and lettuce already.

—It is to be hoped that high constable, Michael Berger, will enforce the new ordinance rigidly.

—Melinda, wife of Absalom Confer, of Aaronsburg, died on Tuesday, March 6th, in her 73rd year.

—Ploughing was going on in full blast down through Penns valley during the early part of the week.

—Mr. T. N. Magee, formerly of this county, has received an appointment in the pension department at Washington.

—Don't be fooled into making hasty changes of clothing. There is danger of pneumonia in these gentle spring zephyrs.

—The German Reformed parsonage at Aaronsburg is being overhauled for the reception of the new pastor, Rev. Brown.

—Edward Smith, of Snow Shoe, has purchased the Krom hotel, opposite the P. R. R. station at Lock Haven, and will move into it soon.

—The Bellefonte Central trains were delayed five hours, on Tuesday afternoon, because fire in the Barrens had burned across the tracks.

—Mrs. L. B. Stover has men at work clearing away the rubbish from the site of her burned buildings in Madisonburg and will soon start to rebuild.

—Irresponsible boys who are given horses to race them through the streets, jeopardizing the lives of others, should be taken care of by officers of the law.

—Every-one should begin cleaning up the rubbish about the premises. Germs of all kinds of disease lurk in the filth that should be scraped up at once.

—"The Dazzler" comes to Garman's, on the 22nd, with a record of having captivated a Bellefonte audience on a former visit and the bright comedy should be greeted with a full house.

—The family of J. M. Bunnell, formerly of the firm of Bunnell & Aikens, music dealers of this place, will move from their present home at Millroy to Philipsburg, where Mr Bunnell is in business.

—The Schuman Lady Quartett, with Miss Jennie D. Shoemaker, as impersonator, easily the finest company of the kind that has ever appeared in this place sang to a twenty-five dollar house, at Garman's, Saturday night.

—As pastor of the Pleasant Gap circuit of the Methodist church Rev. J. C. Young effected 125 conversions during the past conference year; 81 converts having joined the church. All of his collections were increased.

—Henry Robb, aged 53 years, late proprietor of the hotel at Nuttany, died in that place last Thursday evening, after a two week's illness with paralysis. A widow and ten children mourn his death. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

—The Valentine Iron Co. is getting ready to resume operations. The stock house is already being filled with coke and ore and the furnace will be put in blast within a very short time. This will be glorious news to many of our citizens who have had nothing to do since it closed down.

—When Prothonotary W. F. Smith went home to Millheim last Saturday, he, with his wife and some friends, drove over to visit William Bowers near Aaronsburg. Upon their return home they found their house besieged by a party of twenty-four ladies and gentlemen who were waiting their coming. A feast table had already been set and it is needless to state that the party had a royal good time.

—Jenkins and Lingle, foundrymen of this place, are manufacturing a miniature Ferris wheel for parties in New York state. It will be used as a pleasure venture and will be forty feet in diameter. The promoters of the Granger picnic at Centre Hall would do well to consider the purchase of one of these wheels. Such an attraction on the picnic grounds would be a great drawing card and a sure money maker.

—Miss Sallie H. Lucas, daughter of Renben Lucas, of Howard, was very pleasantly surprised this week upon receiving a thoroughbred St. Bernard puppy from Chicago, a present from her brother, Mr. T. A. Lucas, of that city. The saucy little fellow has been universally admired by Miss Lucas' numerous friends and by those who know anything about the canine tribe, is pronounced the most magnificent specimen of the St. Bernard in this section.

A RAINBOW CHASER.—A good joke found many believers on our streets Wednesday morning. A story had been sent out that workmen, who were digging in the cellar of the old Conrad House, had found an old tin can in which there was hidden $762 in coin and bank notes. Soon the vicinity of the building was crowded with people, all curious to see the pot of gold which workman Anthony Tonner's pick had luckily turned up. To the many inquiries as to "where is it?" "where was it when you found it?" and the like, Vice Bauer, the foreman of the work, directed every one to Cunningham's Palace cigar store. There they were shown a few blackened half-dollars, some old silver dimes, and a "shin plaster," worth twenty-five cents, which were said to have been a few specimens of the booty that was then safely laid up in the safe in Brockerhoff's wholesale grocery establishment on Bishop street.

A rusty old tin bucket, with a tin covering, and a wire were shown as the receptacles of the hidden treasure that had been found. Credulous ones stood with open mouths and gazed at the old tin can, then ran across the street to see the hole in which it had been found. Then they ran back to ask more questions about it, but they all met the same, frank response.

There was one bad point in the story, however, for in among the blackened coins dated along in the 30s there was that twenty-five cent "shin plaster," bearing date of 1874. It was as nice and straight as if it had been in some one's pocket-book instead of hidden away in the cellar of the Conrad House. Then the date was against the story, for sensible people of such late days as '74 don't hide money in their cellars.

Imbued with an idea that the whole thing was a "fake," and wanting to get even for having been fooled up town a WATCHMAN reporter soon proved his idea by showing money under every one's nose, who dared to say that the story was correct, and when no one would bet, there was evidence of weakness somewhere. So a visit to the Brockerhoff office, where the rest of the booty was supposed to have been, revealed the truth that the whole thing was a lie.

However the story was well worked up and afforded amusement for half the town, until it was discovered.

EX COUNTY TREASURER GRAMLEY HAS FAILED.—The assignment of ex-county Treasurer James J. Gramley, who since his retirement from office last January has conducted a grocery business on South Allegheny street, in this place, caused no little comment on our streets yesterday morning, when it became known that sheriff Condo had closed his place of business.

On Wednesday afternoon judgments aggregating $10,458.36 had been entered against him, on several of which executions were issued, causing the suspension. They were as follows: Isaac Kauffman $800, L. W. Wian $667, John Wagner $1,000, Oliver Wolf and H. G. Royer $530, Andrew J. Gramley, $460 and Mary A. Gramley et al $700.1-36. Besides these judgments there are two small mortgages against Mr. Gramley, one a dower, together aggregating $2,386.67 raising his total liabilities to $12,845.03. To offset this he has his store in this place and two fine farms one in Brush Valley, the other near Nuttany, together with considerable farm stock, equipments and other valuable personal effects.

Just what precipitated the failure is rather hard to tell as Mr. Gramley's credit had never been questioned and his business here was paying nicely. In conversation with a prominent banker here on the matter, he said, "I would have trusted Mr. Gramley for most any amount and feel that he will come out all right."—It was unfortunate that he was unable to disillusion the mind of the one man who issued on him for his business will be materially injured now, and if the thing had not been hurried on so thoughtlessly there would have been no trouble whatever.

SPECIAL THEATRE TRAIN.—The Central R. R. of Pa., will on Tuesday evening, March 20th run a special train to and from Williamsport to accommodate those desiring to attend the performance. Fare one way rate for the round trip or $1.52 from Bellefonte, which also includes a lunch to be served on the train returning, by the railroad Co. The train leaves Bellefonte at 5.25 p. m., and Williamsport immediately after the play. Some of the most desirable seats have been reserved for our people and will be placed on sale at Parrish's drug store on Saturday, March 17th.

The circulation of the local country weekly is generally larger than that of its competitive daily. Nearly every copy of the local weekly paper enters the household of probable buyers, and each copy is undoubtedly read by four to a dozen different persons, raising the printers circulation to many times the actual number printed. There is nothing equal to the local weekly as an advertising medium.—Printer's Ink.

The colored brethren of Tyrone have begun the erection of a new church.

—"Don't miss 'The Dazzler.'" We all know it will be good and if you want to laugh, go and see it.

Argument court was held in the Court House on Tuesday. All three judges were on the bench.

Suits made to order at from $15 to $18. All new spring goods, at Montgomery & Co's., tailors.

W. H. Roush and Aaron Lutz, both farmers in the vicinity of Lemont have moved to new homes near Pine Grove Mills.

The Falls Creek Herald was burned out of its home the other day. All that editor Bangert saved was his books. He will issue his paper from the DuBois Courier office until he rebuilds.

The Lancaster county tobacco growers, who visited the Pennsylvania State College recently, were delighted with the institution and went home brimful of tales of the interesting things they saw and heard.

Three thousand dollars are yet needed to build the electric rail-road from Lock Haven to Mill Hall. The Clinton county metropolis seems to be great on beginning subscriptions, but usually falls in the windup. The branch rail-road from Castanea to that city failed for want of a final thousand dollar subscription.

The Dazzler is back again at Rich and Harris' up town theatre, brighter, better, and more pleasing than ever. Few comedies of its class are so entertaining. It was constructed for the sole purpose of driving dull care away, and deep-rooted indeed, must be an attack of the blues which it cannot cure. The company is one of unusual excellence.—Philadelphia Times.

A colored barber of Altoona recently robbed a store in that place. While sampling the things about him he took a bite off a cheese, leaving the impress of his teeth thereon. Later suspicion fastened on him and his arrest followed. When a dentist took a cast of his mouth it proved identical with the impression on the cheese, emphasized by a missing front tooth. He confessed.

Armstrong Askey, who in 1852, was seized with the gold fever and left his boyhood's home, at Howard, for the Golden Gate, died on the 7th inst. at Jackson, Amador county, California, after a lingering illness with consumption. He leaves to mourn his death one brother and three sisters—Ellis Askey, who lives in Illinois; Mrs. Rachael Snaveley, who is 84 years old, residing at Nuttany; Mrs. Eliza McKibben, of Cedar Springs, Pa., and Mrs. Orpha Pletcher, of Howard, Pa., all but the latter named have passed the period of eighty years.

We have seen quite a number of watch chains about town ornamented with a neat little charm, in the shape of a watch case opener, which obviates the use of a knife or finger-nail to open the watch. We have just received one, and would advise you to send for one, too. They are sent free on request by the Keystone Watch Case Company, of Philadelphia, Pa., the largest watch case manufacturing concern in the world. They are the makers of the celebrated Jas. Boss cases, the only filled cases which are fitted with the world-famed Non-pull-out bow (ring). The Company does not sell at retail, but its goods are sold by our local jewelers.

A RELIC OF STAGE LINE DAYS.—Our veteran editorial friend, H. J. Walters, Esq., hands us a document which takes us back 83 years, to the days when the stage coach was the public carrier along the newly made roads in this region, which not many years before that was known as "the wilderness." It is an original "Way-bill from Harrisburg to Alexandria," dated "May 22, 1810." The passengers, destinations, etc., are noted thus:

Mr. Galbreth, 1 seat, Wainesburg, $4.00
Henry McBecht, 1 seat, to Alexandria, $3.00
William Speare, 1 seat, Huntingdon, $3.50.
Mrs. Lookart, 1 seat to Lewistown, $3.50.
Mrs. Marten, 1 seat, " " 3.50.
Wm. Powers, 1/2 seat, " " 1.75.

The following baggage notes we find on the margin of the way bill:

A trunk for William Starr to be sent to Bellefonte $1 to pay Mr. Mulholland.
A pair of saddle-bags for James Sherrod, Lewistown 25¢ to pay Mr. Mulholland.
2 Broncho ropes for Mr. Cochran 0.25 to pay Mr. Cochran.
3 roles tobacco for Mr. Irwen 0.37 1/2 to pay Mr. Clark.

One barrel shutes for Joseph Patton 0.50 to pay Mr. Walker.
A trunk for Mr. Polick sent on in a mistake in the stage place to send it back to Harrisburg and oblige your friend Andrew Berryhill.

The reader will observe the careless spelling and the absence of punctuation as features of that early period when schools were few and far between.—Lewistown Free Press.

Think of it! $7 buys an all-wool black chevot suit for men. See them at Fauble's.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CONCERT.—The concert last Friday night that was given by the effort and under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Aikens, in the Presbyterian church, was a social event as well as a special musical occasion. The talent was mostly from New York and Philadelphia, but Bellefonte did its best in furnishing an appreciative and fashionable audience.

In respect of pure vocal excellence the star of the evening was Miss Mamie Keim, whose voice is a smooth, sweet and full soprano that well deserves the high praise that has been given it. Mr. Ford sang just as well, but his selections failed to meet the popular fancy, as they did last year at the "Organ Recital." Miss Jennie Gillan the violinist and Miss Doran the pianist, both played with a mastery technique and a pleasing interpretation to the evident satisfaction of the audience, for they were applauded with enthusiasm. Indeed the applause—continued and extravagant, was the only objectionable feature of the evening, not that we object to enthusiasm but we always have mercy for the performers and the unappreciative, when the program is unusually long and the house is seven times hotter than it needs be.

THE KENDALS.—The announcement that the accomplished English artists, Mr. and Mrs. Kendal, and their London company under the direction of Daniel Frohman, will visit Williamsport the first time and present one of their leading plays, will be received with unusual interest by our theatre-goers. They will make their appearance at the Lycoming opera house, in Williamsport, Tuesday evening March 20th, in "The Ironmaster." Mr. and Mrs. Kendal have earned the applause of the two great centers of English dramatic art and the public favor that was obtained by the Kendals' during three American tours in the principal cities of the country is well known to all observers of the stage. It may well be said that performances such as given by Mr. and Mrs. Kendal form red letters in the history of the stage and show to what point of enjoyment acting can be brought, when entrusted to those who regard their profession as something intended for the edification and instruction of their patrons.

The Central Rail-road Co., of Pennsylvania will run an excursion train from this place to Williamsport on the evening of the entertainment which will stop at all stations along the line and return immediately after the entertainment.

IMPORANT RAILROAD MEETING.—We are informed that a public meeting will be held at the academy at Pine Grove Mills, on Tuesday evening, the 20th inst., for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the right of way can be secured for the extension of the Bellefonte Central railroad from its present terminus at Struble's to Pine Grove Mills.

This is a most important movement for the community and for the people of the county and we hope it will meet with entire success. The people of Pine Grove have been without railroad and telephone facilities and ought to manifest sufficient interest in the development of their region to make this meeting and the results which flow from it entirely successful.

We have no doubt whatever that the citizens of Pine Grove and of Ferguson township will turn out and do all that is in their power to help the rail-road in securing the desired rights. It has long been the cry of the people of that end of the county "give us a rail-road." Now that they have one within their reach let us see what they will make of the opportunity.

WALTER BUTTS' HOTEL BURNED.—Houtzdale had a large fire last Tuesday afternoon and to-day the Arlington, one of the leading hotels in the town, the office of the Houtz heirs and several adjoining buildings are in ruins. The fire started in an attic, over the kitchen of the Arlington hotel, at about four o'clock in the evening and fanned by its high wind progressed rapidly on its work of destruction. The Philipsburg and Osceola fire departments were called upon and responded promptly, but before their arrival the buildings had all been burned, so they gave their attention to saving adjoining property.

The Arlington was under the management of Walter G. Butts, of this place, who leased it last Fall and had built up a nice trade for it. He left the employ of Joel J. Bailey & Co. of Philadelphia, to enter the hotel business and was on a fair road to success until this misfortune overtook him. He had refitted the hotel since taking charge and having failed to increase his insurance accordingly, his loss will doubtless be quite heavy. The hotel was owned by Michael Burns, of Brisban.

You can make your dollars do double duty by buying your clothing at Fauble's.

Think of it! $7 buys an all-wool black chevot suit for men. See them at Fauble's.

Proprietor Westcott hopes to open the "University Inn," at State College, by April 1st.

New Spring clothing just opened, at Fauble's.

You can make your dollars do double duty by buying your clothing at Fauble's.

The small-pox is supposed to have been entirely eradicated from Tyrone Forge and quarantine has been raised on that village.

Spring clothing, all new things, big bargains. See them at Fauble's.

Think of it! $7 buys an all-wool black chevot suit for men. See them at Fauble's.

Phillipsburg is moving to organize a board of trade. There is one thing certain it will not be as much of an effort to disorganize it again if Bellefonte's experience counts for anything.

New Spring clothing just opened, at Fauble's.

Clearfield and Snyder counties have, during the past week, instructed their delegates to the Republican State convention to vote for Hastings for Governor.

You can make your dollars do double duty by buying your clothing at Fauble's.

That laughable farce "The Dazzler" will be at the opera house, Thursday evening, March 22nd. Its former visit here this season pleased all who saw it and we have no hesitancy in assuring you that you will see a good entertainment if you go.

You can make your dollars do double duty by buying your clothing at Fauble's.

WM. H. DILL VINDICATES HIMSELF.—Some two years ago the Journal stated, by implication, that the failure of Wm. H. Dill had rendered the estate of A. H. Dill, of Philadelphia, insolvent because A. H. Dill was a heavy creditor. On February 2nd the account of Mrs. A. H. Dill, executrix of A. H. Dill, deceased, was filed in the Orphans' Court of Philadelphia county and duly audited. Counsel here for Wm. H. Dill have shown us a copy of that report, in which it appears that Wm. H. Dill was a creditor in the sum of $3,000, regularly probated, and $40,000 on a note not secured and not presented to the auditor. Jona. Boynton cited the Executrix in the sum of $8,000. The estate was in an insolvent condition and paid but five per cent. of the claims, which aggregated over $50,000. Wm. H. Dill and Jona. Boynton, creditors, lost the sums aforesaid. We make this correction as it is not the desire of the Journal to state anything but facts. The account shows just the reverse of what was intimated in the Journal of Sept. 30th, 1891.—Clearfield Raftsmen's Journal.

THE WATCHMAN is pleased to learn that the final settlement of this trouble has entirely vindicated Mr. A. H. Dill. It was loath to believe the many charges brought against him when he failed and did not hesitate to say so at the time.

New Spring clothing just opened at Fauble's.

News Purely Personal.

Hon. John A. Woodward of Howard, was seen on our streets yesterday afternoon.

Miss Emily Harris entertained Miss E. M. Hamilton, of Tyrone, and Miss Miller, of Bloomsburg, during Sunday last.

Chas. T. Noll, manager of the Clearfield telephone district, with a friend Mr. Denning, spent Sunday at his home in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cook, of Woodland, after a pleasant visit to friends in this place, returned home Monday evening. Harry is extensively interested in the Clearfield coal fields.

A. Scott Harris, of Gallatin, came down from that mountain coal town to spend last Sunday with his parents here. John P. Harris, Jr., of Tyrone, his brother, was home for that day also.

J. A. Hockendorfer, a Karlsruhe merchant and coal operator, was in town Wednesday evening attending to some business here. He is a very pleasant gentleman and one who will make friends wherever he goes.

Mrs. Henry P. Harris and her son Hardman are in Massillon, Ohio, where they went to attend the funeral of J. A. McClain, Mrs. Harris' brother-in-law and one of the prominent business men of Stark county.

Mayor and Mrs. Cassidy, after a short visit to relatives here, returned to their home in Canton, Ohio, this week. "Bob" might be called the praying mayor but as he tries as hard as a Republican can, to do as he preaches, the good mayor of Cayton would possibly be more appropriate.

Hon. John F. Maginnes, of Williamsport, who is known to the literary world as "John of Lunenburg" and among historical people as "the historian of Lycoming," was in town on Wednesday hob-nobbing with his friend Hon. John Blair Linn. When two such men get together the dust that obscures the past must surely fly for both are great antiquarians.

Among our pleasant callers on Wednesday were Mr. G. W. Homan, one of Ferguson township's representative farmers, Levi Hesse Esq., of Port Matilda, than whom there are few better known men in the Bald Eagle valley, and Mr. Samuel Hoover, that jolly, good fellow who comes down from Hannah Furnace once in awhile just to show Bellefonte folks that kind of good men Centre county does claim as citizen.

You can make your dollars do double duty by buying your clothing at Fauble's.

Think of it! $7 buys an all-wool black chevot suit for men. See them at Fauble's.

WELCOME, BROTHER HARTER.—We are pleased to learn that T. H. Harter, who has made the Middleburg Post a widely read and reputable journal, has decided to join the Centre county fraternity. On Tuesday he purchased the Gazette of this place and next week will assume editorial control of that paper. While working in a bad field we, nevertheless, trust that he will be able to make something out of the lost cause he will espouse in this county.

Think of it! $7 buys an all-wool black chevot suit for men. See them at Fauble's.

Spring clothing, all new things, big bargains. See them at Fauble's.

DIED IN SAN FRANCISCO.—We have just received the sad news that the venerable Dr. M. A. Henderson, of 634 Golden Gate Ave. San Francisco, Cal. died on Wednesday, March 7th, in the 81st year of his age. He will be remembered as a former resident of Berksburg this county. His son, A. Boyd Henderson, is managing editor of the San Francisco Examiner the most influential paper on the coast.

New Spring clothing just opened, at Fauble's.

Spring clothing, all new things, big bargains. See them at Fauble's.

On Monday morning little Winifred Morris, of Brisban, who was visiting with her mother at the home of mine-inspector, D. H. Thomas, in Philipsburg, together with Mr. Morris' five year old son, Silas, started out into the back yard to play. They had secured some matches and setting themselves in an out-house they set fire to a bundle of straw. The smoke and flames burned them in a horrible manner. The little girl recovered, though she is still in a precarious condition, while the boy worked in convulsions all day and died shortly before mid-night.

New Spring clothing just opened, at Fauble's.

You can make your dollars do double duty by buying your clothing at Fauble's.

Two TO ONE.—You are complaining about hard times. We all had to suffer—but, brace up, Spring is here—and we have the right goods at hard time prices to make you more than happy.

MONTGOMERY & Co.

Salvage Register.

MARCH 21st.—A residence of David McCoskey, half a mile west of Romola, horses, cows, thr-shing machine, implements, harness and household goods. Sale at 1 o'clock p. m.

MARCH 22.—At the residence of Ephraim Gleason, on Buffalo Run, two miles west of Williamsport, horses, sheep, hogs, cows, young cattle, implements and household furniture. Sale at 10 o'clock a. m.

MARCH 23.—On the John Q. Miles farm, 1 1/2 miles east of Martins Furnace, horses, cows, young cattle, sheep, good implements, harness and other articles. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock a. m.

MARCH 24th.—At the residence of John Sliker, 3 miles north of Milesburg, five horses, cows, young cattle, sheep, hogs, and all kinds of farm implements. Sale at 1 o'clock p. m.

MARCH 24.—At State College, Pa., all the furniture, bedding, carpets, stoves, and household articles belonging to the State College Hotel, together with harness, buggies and stable fixtures. Sale at 9 a. m.

MARCH 27th.—At the residence of William Foster, at State College, horses, cows, sheep, hogs, and all kinds of farm implements. Sale at 1 o'clock, a. m.

MARCH 27.—At the residence of Thomas Beightol near Hecla, Horse, cattle, sheep, hogs, farm implements. Household goods &c. Sale at 1 p. m.

MARCH 29.—At the residence of T. Wilson Way in Half moon township, 90 grade, Shop, harness, sheep, horses, and other articles too numerous to mention. Sale at 1 o'clock p. m.

MARCH 30.—At the Mountain farm, of Jacob Garbriek, 3 miles west of Jacksonville, horses, 1, m implements and household goods. Sale at 1 o'clock p. m.

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by Geo. W. JACKSON & Co. The following are the quotations up to six o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press:

White wheat.....	57
Red wheat.....	57
Rye, per bushel.....	49
Corn, ears, per bushel.....	22 1/2
Corn, shelled, per bushel.....	48
Oats—new, per bushel.....	30
Barley, per bushel.....	48
Ground Plaster, per ton.....	9 50
Buckwheat per bushel.....	65
Cloverseed, per bushel.....	$6 00 to $7 00

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

Potatoes per bushel.....	50
Eggs, per dozen.....	25
Lard, per pound.....	10
Country shoulders.....	10
Sides.....	12
Hams.....	14
Fallow, per pound.....	4
Butter, per pound.....	25

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $2 per annum (if paid strictly in advance); $2.50, when not paid in advance, and $3.00 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows:

SPACE OCCUPIED.	3m	6m	1y
One inch (12 lines) this type.....	$5	$8	$11
Two inches.....	7	10	15
Three inches.....	10	15	20
Quarter Column (3 1/2 inches).....	12	20	30
Half Column (9 inches).....	20	35	55
One Column (19 inches).....	35	55	100

Advertisements in special column, 25 per cent additional.

Transient ads, per line, 3 insertions.....20 cts. Each additional insertion, per line.....5 cts. Local notices, per line.....10 cts. Business notices, per line.....10 cts. Job Printing of every kind done with neatness and dispatch. The Watchman office has been refitted with Power Presses and New type, and everything in the printing line can be executed in the most artistic manner and at the lowest rates. Terms—CASH.

All letters should be addressed to P. GRAY WHEE, Proprietor