THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—These are May-days sure.

—Spring Mills has measles as an epidemic.

—Haines township farmers have begun planting corn.

—The oyster is on his annual four months vacation.

—A party of Bellefonte wheelmen will ride to Lock Haven on Sunday.

—The curb market at this place will open tomorrow morning, May 5th.

—The first day of May was certainly an ideal one.

—Work at court has been very slow this week. The cases have all been drawn out.

—Mrs. Catharine Woleslagie died at her home in Unionville on last Thursday.

—Only one coal train ran over the Bald Eagle valley on Monday and none on Tuesday.

—All of Bellefonte's last season baseball players are doing good work in their new positions.

—Telegraph instruments are being put in stations along the line of the Central R. R. of Pa.

—A training table has been introduced to promote the ability of the Pennsylvania State College athletes.

—The Reformed church sociable was held at the parsonage last evening. Rev. and Mrs. Miles O. Noll were hosts.

—Robert Cole & Co. of this place, will be the architects of three new business houses to be erected in Lock Haven this summer.

—Lilly May, infant daughter of Dr. W. S. Harter, at State College, died on Friday evening, April 20th. Measles and lung fever were the cause of death.

—Potter township has a new post-office. The name of it is Colyer and Jacob Smith holds forth as post-master at the office, about two miles south of Tusseyville.

—A Central R. R. of Pa. freight train killed a valuable cow owned by Harry Hockenbury, on Tuesday morning. The accident occurred at Garbers crossing, near Nigh bank.

—Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Haupt, of West High street, attended the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Reeder, of Tyrone. Mrs. Reeder is a sister of Mr. Haupt.

—Mr. Harry From, who was formerly assistant passenger agent for the P. R. R. here, is now carrying the mails from the station to the post-office, illness having incapacitated Jacob Barlett for the time being.

—The recent handicap field meeting of the Pennsylvania State College athletic association was intended to stir the men up to good work on the 19th, when the State Inter-Collegiate Association meets there.

—Mrs. Susan Harter, of Millheim, died suddenly from apoplexy last Friday morning. Deceased was the wife of Jonathan Harter and leaves two children, Mrs. Kurtzenknebe, of Harrisburg, and Adam Harter, of Millheim.

—Owing to the failure of the regularly elected tax collector of Curtin township to file a bond and serve the duties of his office the citizens of that township petitioned the court to appoint Zara S. Welch. The petition was granted on Saturday.

—In another column we publish an interesting comparison of the cost of raising wheat with the ruling price on the market; also the possible profit in milling. The statement was prepared for presentation at a meeting of Progress grand in Centre Hall.

—A double band, two topsets, two marks, and a large company will appear in Uncle Tom's Cabin at Garman's, Saturday afternoon and night. The matinee performance will be given for children. At night "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" will be added to the bill.

—Two former Bellefonte ministers officiated in our churches on Sunday. They were the Rev. Dr. D. S. Monroe, who delivered an eloquent sermon in the Methodist church at the morning service and Rev. John Hewitt, of Lincoln, Neb., whose two services in the Episcopal church were crowded with friends who have pleasant memories of his work as rector of St. John's.

—The annual out-door meet of the State Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association will be held on Beaver field, at State College, on Saturday, May 19th. This promises to be the most interesting event that has ever transpired in athletics at our big institution and a great crowd is looked for. Lehigh, Lafayette, Dickinson, Pennsylvania, Haverford, Swarthmore and Western University will send entries.

COURT CONTINUES IN SESSION.—

In the proceedings of last week's court session published in this paper we gave every case tried in detail and closed with the Thursday session. At that time the case of Sara Furl vs Ed. Rowe, F. and B. was on trial. On Friday morning the jury returned a verdict of guilty. Defendant immediately moved for a new trial, but the court has not yet rendered its decision. Other cases Friday were:

Commonwealth vs Jacob Hazel, assault and battery. Verdict of guilty, but recommended to the mercy of the court. He was sentenced to pay costs and a fine of $100.

Commonwealth vs Radolph Watkins charged with adultery with Mrs. John Watkins. Guilty, but defendant left town while the jury was deliberating and has not been heard of since.

The sentence of Wm. Hanna to two years in the Western penitentiary was reduced to one year in the county jail. This cleared up the criminal list and civil cases were taken up in the following order:

M. Shires vs W. H. Musser, an action to recover $3 per cent of premium on two insurance policies. Verdict for defendant.

John W. Cook vs I. N. Huff & Co. an action to recover the price of a car load of coal. The jury, under direction of the court, returned a verdict for the plaintiff, subject to hearing of testimony of defendants which, if judged sufficient, would be deemed cause for the granting of a new trial.

The first case called on Monday was that of Jacob Garbrick vs David Harter, of Marion Twp. It was a suit in trespass arising from a disputed line fence between litigants farm. Verdict for defendant.

Franklin Reese vs Executors of Valentine Reese. Verdict of $88.10 for plaintiff, but a new trial was granted.

The Thompson Houston Motor Co. vs the Arp Coal Cutting Machine Co. a suit on a writ of replevin to recover an electric motor. Verdict for plaintiff.

The case of the Bald Eagle and Nittany valley pike and rail-road company vs Centre county is now on trial. It arose out of a mutual dispute over the damages assessed by the viewers appointed by the court to condemn the pike. The court appointed viewers upon petition of citizens of Howard and Marion townships who wanted the pike, which extends from a stone house just west of the village of Jacksonville through the mountain gap to the iron bridge that crosses Bald Eagle Creek east of Howard, condemned and made a public road. The viewers laid damages and both plaintiff and defendant appealed from their report.

No sentences of convicts have been pronounced as yet.

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

To the honorable, the Judges of the Quarter Sessions of the Peace of Centre county.

The grand inquest inquiring in and for said county, respectfully reports:

We had presented to us thirty bills of indictment for our consideration and true bills were returned on all. It is the opinion of this body that a number of these cases should have been settled by the justices of the peace, and should not have been brought before this inquest.

Having thoroughly examined the public buildings and grounds surrounding the same we recommend:

1st. That the outside of the court house and jail be repainted.

2nd. That the plastering in different parts of the jail has fallen off and needs repairing; that the joists under the floors of the Sheriff's office and jail are in a decayed condition and should be repaired; that the platform or gallery in front of the cells of the second story is weak and unsafe and should be better supported.

3rd. That a suitable shaft should be procured for the sheriff's office for the proper keeping of the books and records of the office; and, having been informed by the sheriff that the kitchen range is worn out and worthless, that upon examination of the same we find this correct and that we recommend the purchase of a new one.

4th. That the iron and wooden guards around the shade trees be removed, and that the county commissioners require the electric light and telephone companies to paint their poles located on and around the public grounds.

5th. That we find the lightning rods on the court house and jail in an unsafe condition and should be repaired.

6th. We desire to congratulate the board of commissioners of Centre county in the tasteful improvements of the grounds in front of the court house.

W. H. MESSER, Foreman.

It is amusing to note that the Grand Jury censures the justices throughout the county for returning so many petty cases, when in the same paragraph it reports having found true bills on every one of the thirty indictments returned for its consideration.

A SUICIDE IN PATTON TOWNSHIP.—

On last Sunday morning the lifeless body of John McMullen was found hanging from the rafters in the little shanty, he called home, at Benore. He had been employed in the Scotio ore mines and was an intelligent, industrious workman, but falling a victim to dyspepsia, he was seized with melancholia and soon became an invalid. His malady incapacitated him for work and the overseers were called upon to take care of him. It is supposed to have been the brooding over his illness and deplorable condition that suited his mind to such a sad action.

He was well known in that community and a note, left behind, told that the suicide had been planned for some time.

—John Bower and family have moved from Lewisburg to Aaronburg.

—The foundation walls for a new colored church have been finished in Tyrone.

—Furniture in the latest styles, woods and prices to suit the times at Naginey's.

—The town of Flemington, a suburb of Lock Haven, has been incorporated a borough. Officers will be elected on May 21st.

—The south side of the Bald Eagle or Muncy mountains have presented a beautiful sight for a few nights past. Mountain fires have been raging.

—Miss Annie Hazel died in Williamsport, on Saturday. Her remains were brought here and taken up Buffalo Run for interment on Monday morning.

—While playing a son of M. L. Riegel, of Farmers Mills, fell from the loft of his father's barn the other day and striking a grain drill, in his descent, broke his leg.

—Lambert Knox, a twenty-six year old Clinton county stud, was kicked in the side and died at Mill Hall on Sunday. He had a record of 2.31 and was valued at $1,000.

—The body of Denton Pickles, a log driver employed on the Flynn drive, was recently recovered from its watery grave at Cataract. He fell off a log at Karthaus and was drowned.

—Saturday, June 9th, from 3 o'clock until 7 o'clock p. m. will be the time for holding the Democratic primaries in Centre county hereafter. The county convention, under the change of rules made Tuesday night, will be held on the second Tuesday in June, the 12th.

—The marriage of Miss Margaret I. Potter, of Lacrosse, Wisconsin, to Charles Steinman Foltz, of Lancaster, Pa., was celebrated at the bride's home, on April 25th. Bellefonters will remember her as the beautiful daughter of Capt. Irvin W. Potter, who was born at Potter's Mills, this county. She visited her relatives here during the summer of 1892. Her husband is one of the proprietors of the Lancaster Intelligencer.

—The death of Julius Seigworth occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Alois Kohlbeker, in Central City, on Sunday morning. Deceased had been suffering with paralysis and his death was daily expected. He was the first proprietor of Kohlbeker's hotel, but fifteen years ago moved to Pittsburg, where he lived for a number of years, returning afterwards to Milesburg. Deceased was in his sixty-eighth year and leaves a widow with several children.

—Jacob Mock Jr., a son of Jacob Mock Sr., an ex-Clearfield county Commissioner, who lived with his parents in Decatur township that county, a few miles from Philipsburg, mysteriously disappeared a few days ago. He left home with a horse and buggy on a little trip and was not seen nor heard of for several days, notwithstanding the fact that his conveyance was returned home the day after his departure. He turned up lately, saying that he had been visiting an uncle near Morrisdale.

—At a regular meeting of the Board of Trade on Tuesday night, the WATCHMAN's suggestion as to the advisability of helping Wm. B. Matland, in his endeavor to enlarge his boiler works, was acted upon. The board will attempt to organize a stock company for the manufacture of Mr. Matland's boiler, a description of which we gave last week. It will require $12,000 and the projector thinks with a paid up capital of half that amount he will be enabled to enlarge his plant and equip it for the new enterprise. Stock will be sold at $50 per share.

—The Pennsylvania State College baseball team was away on a southern trip last week. The boys returned home Monday after having played the University of Virginia where they were beaten 14 to 4 but they evened things up by defeating the Washington and Lee University 10 to 5. On Saturday they played with the Franklin and Marshall team at Lancaster for the first time. The game resulted in a score of 4 to 3 in favor of the Lancaster college boys, though had it not been for the disastrous errors of Reed, their coach, they would have won.

—While riding a young horse home from Zion, last Thursday, David Wise sustained injuries that proved quite serious. He lives about a mile from Zion and had gone to that place on business. While returning a dog that was lying by the road-side jumped out and scared his horse, causing it to stumble. Mr. Wise was thrown over the animal's head and had several ribs broken and was otherwise severely hurt. J. G. Royer and son Joel, who were working in a field near by, ran to his assistance and after getting him home summoned Dr. Fisher.

THE UNIVERSITY INN FORMALLY OPENED.—

The new hotel at State College was a scene of unusual attractiveness last Friday evening. It was the occasion of the formal opening of the Inn and the large corridors of the pretty hotel were crowded all afternoon with guests arriving for the banquet and dance. Mr. A. L. Westcott, the young proprietor, was kept busy showing parties of visitors through the well appointed house, a complete description of which we have published in a former issue, and the stock-holders were all there helping to do the honors in entertainment.

The great porches of the hotel presented a pretty spectacle, they were fairly alive with gay promenaders and the place seemed a whole town in itself so large and complete is its arrangement. It had been open for several weeks for the entertainment of guests, but the public had not received a general invitation to inspect it until Friday.

A banquet was given in the dining hall, at which many people were served and as the debris of the last course had been cleared toasts were responded to by various prominent men present. All of the remarks were of a congratulatory nature on the enterprise that gave State College such a fine hotel and were happily received by the persons at table. After the banquet a dance was enjoyed by the young folks.

A special train carried Bellefonters to the opening and all who went were thoroughly delighted with the hotel and the courteous treatment of the proprietor, Mr. Westcott.

THE NEW POST-MASTER IN CHARGE.—

On Tuesday morning, May 1st, Bellefonte's new post-master, David F. Fortney Esq., succeeded to the control of the office. His predecessor, J. A. Feidler, had come up from Williamsport, where he now lives, to make the formal transfer of the accounts. It was made on Monday evening so when morning came Mr. Fortney and Thomas Howley, his first assistant, were on hand to begin learning the routine of the office.

G. W. Reese, who has served in the capacity of assistant during the past administration and who has really been the post-master for the latter half of that time will remain in the office to give his successors the necessary instructions. Mr. Reese retires with the best wishes of all. He has been a faithful, attentive, thoroughly efficient official and none but ill grounded complaint could possibly have been made of his administration.

The assistant is the only change that will be made at present. There are six other appointments to fill in the Bellefonte office. We trust that the new officials will find their work pleasant and profitable. We are confident they will give public satisfaction.

THE JUNIOR ORATORICAL CONTEST TO-NIGHT.—

The annual oratorical contest of the Bellefonte High School will be held in Garman's opera house to-night. The Reynolds prize of $15 in gold will be contested for. The entertainment will be interesting and worth your while hearing. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged to defray expenses. Following is the program as it will be rendered:

Music.....Orchestra.
Invocation.....Orchestra.
Recitation, "There is but one pair of stockings to mend to-night, Katherine Heylman."
Recitation, "Coming home from Town," Mary Underwood.
Recitation, "The Mother's vacant Chair," Frances Elmire.
Music.....Orchestra.
Recitation, "Resisting a Mother's Love," Lena Baum.
Recitation, "The Village Bell," Mollie Crotty.
Music.....Orchestra.
Declaration, "A Century of American Growth," Gray Hastings.
Declaration, "The Battle of Gettysburg," Will McCullough.
Recitation, "The Fate of Virginia," Harriet Stott.
Music.....Orchestra.

DECISION OF JUDGES.

CUNNINGHAM—GROSS.—The wedding of J. Mitchell Cunningham to Miss Annie Gross was solemnized in St. John's Catholic church, in this place, on Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock. The ceremony having been performed by Rev. Fleming, assisted by Rev. McArdle.

The bride and groom were attended by Miss Carrie Gross, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Harry Taylor; the party making a very pretty appearance at the altar. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother and then the bride and groom departed on a morning train for a tour in eastern cities.

J. M. Cunningham is a popular young tobaccoist of this place and owns the palace cigar store in the Brockerhoff house. He was manager of last season's baseball team and is well known in this community. His bride is a daughter of Mrs. Philip Gross, of this place, and is an accomplished young woman who will make him a charming wife.

They will go to house-keeping on east Bishop street on their return.

—There will be communion services in the Methodist church in this place on Sunday morning.

—Robert M. Bailey, of Williamsport has been elected president of the Central Pennsylvania Telephone Co. to succeed H. R. Rhoades, deceased.

—Remember that Naginey's furniture store in the Reynolds building is stocked, throughout, with new goods. His furniture is up to date in style and price.

—It is said that the general office of the Beech Creek rail-road is to be moved back to Jersey Shore. Phillipsburg has been found to be an undesirable location.

—Barnum & Baileys "greatest show on earth" opened in Philadelphia on Monday. It will tour this State, but Sanbury will be the nearest it will get to Bellefonte.

—After the nickel-in-the-slot machines had about outlived their usefulness as a means of affording a mild form of gambling for patrons of cigar stores, pool-rooms and other public places, the authorities discovered that their existence was contrary to law and ordered their operation stopped.

—Uncle Tom's Cabin at the opera house Saturday matinee and night. At the matinee only the slavery day drama will be presented, but at the night performance a double bill, Uncle Tom's Cabin and Ten Nights in a Bar Room, will be put on. Both are popular old time plays. If your children have never seen them let them go to the matinee. These plays will not be on the road very long and everyone should see them while the opportunity lasts. See bills for prices.

BASE-BALL AT THE PARK TO-MORROW.—

The opening of the base ball season here will be made at Hunter's park to-morrow afternoon, when the Bellefonte aggregation meets the strong Lock Haven Normal school team. A special train will leave the P. R. R. station at 1:30 p. m. and return immediately, after the game. Admission 15 cents. The game will be interesting since it will be the second of a series, the Bellefonte team having won the first.

News Purely Personal.

—C. B. Williams, of this place, was a Lock Haven visitor on Monday night.

—Miss Eva Rich, who has been visiting in Richmond, Ind., since the close of the World's Fair returned to Bellefonte on Monday afternoon.

—Dave Martin, the Philadelphia politician and Col. James Lambert of the Phila. Press staff, spent Monday night in town, the guests of Gen. D. H. Hastings.

—Messrs. Wesley Biddle, of Buffalo Run and Michael Grove Esq., of Lemont, are pleasant gentlemen who spent a few moments in our office during the week.

—Mrs. Mary Davidson and Miss Bella Bell left Tuesday morning for Atlantic City, where they will spend the summer with Mrs. Davidson's daughter, Mrs. Nolan.

—Joseph Rodgers, of Osceola Mills, is attending court here this week. It looks quite natural to see him on our streets as a few years ago he was a clerk in the Pennsylvania freight station here.

—Dr. Geo. W. Atherton, President of The Pennsylvania State College, passed through town on Tuesday morning on his way home from an extended tour in Mexico. He looked much benefited in health by the trip.

—J. Miles Kephart and wife, of this place, left for Philadelphia on the early train on Monday. Miles has secured an appointment in the U. S. Mint and will reside in the Quaker city in the future. His absence from town will be quite marked, for he was one of the best known residents in the place.

—Daniel M. Musser, of Putnam county, Ohio, was an arrival in town on Tuesday morning. He left Centre county in March 1881 and has been a resident of the Buckeye state ever since, with the exception of the period served with the 60th Reg. U. Vol. When a resident of this county he lived near Pine Grove Mills. He is now visiting his aged parents at Millheim.

—Rev. John Hewitt, after a week's stay in Bellefonte seeing old friends, and noting new improvements (?) left for his home in Lincoln, Neb., last night. Nine years of progressive western life have changed him very little physically; but his work and his world are as vastly different as conservative Bellefonte and growing Lincoln, with its 60,000 people, where he has charge of one of the largest Episcopal parishes in the state of Nebraska.

—Henry Stone, who twenty-years ago was the proprietor of a restaurant under the old Bush Arcade in this place, but who has since been in the West and South, following the real estate business, is in town looking over his old haunts. He has been quite successful in business since leaving here and now presents the appearance of a man of affluence. Bellefonte is his boyhood's home, and both of his parents are buried here the attachment to the town is still very strong. "Chippy" Stone, that is what the boys used to call him, was one of the jokers of the town along in the early seventies and his visit here now recalls a joke that he played on old Mr. Samuel Van Triesman dead. One day he met the old gentleman on the street and said: "Mr. Van Triesman I have a nice string of fish I'd like to sell you?" "How much do you want for them?" came the query from Mr. Van Tries, who had been longed for by a mess of good Spring Creek suckers. "Well, I'll give them to you for 50cts. as they are over the money." "You'll have to come down to the saloon for them." He told him so; that evening he sent down for them and the boy returned to Mr. Van Tries with the information that he had bought them "as they run" and he'd have to come down to the creek and catch them. This was only one of "Chippy's" enjoyments for another one that he was wont to revel in was to send a bucket full of beer over to his office every press night. And as the WATCHMAN was worked off by hand on old lever press, in those days, there was usually a pretty well-jollied crowd about this house when morning came and work was done.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—

Issued during the past week—Taken from the docket.

J. Orvis Peters, and Laura Scholl, both of Union township.

Irvin B. Showers, and Catherine Hubler, both of Penn Hall.

Frank P. Hoffman, and Laura M. Kauffman, both of Bellefonte.

Wm. F. Whiteman, and Lucy R. Conoway, both of Snow Shoe.

Milton H. Snyder, and Ida M. Durst, both of Centre Hall.

Dorsey H. Northamer, and Jennie Kellogg, both of Phillipsburg.

Charles Miller, and Maude Irvin, both of Spring township.

Julius Lermieraux, of Phillipsburg, and Julia Parents, of Hawk Run.

William L. Rippa, and Mary Jane Bottori, both of Tusseyville.

J. M. Cunningham, and Annie M. Gross, both of Bellefonte.

Charles R. Eckenroth, of Union township, and Jodie L. Erhard, of Unionville.

—Mr. Michael Kelley, of Snow Shoe, a member of the firm of Kelley Bros. coal miners, recently had occasion to examine an abandoned drift. Being a practical miner he took a lamp and entered the mines, but he became so much interested in his work that he did not notice his lamp burning out, until he was almost in darkness. Then it dawned upon him that he had forgotten to take a supply of oil in along. In the inky blackness of the abandoned mine he groped about all night, trying to find his way out. His wife being alarmed at his absence sent a party to look for him when he was found wet and hungry, though not at all injured by his experience.

A FREE SCHOLARSHIP.—

A free scholarship has been awarded to Centre County by the Marlyn College of Oratory, Washington, D. C. Said position is open to both sexes, and may be secured through the County Superintendent. The choice must be made during the month of May. For more information call on or address Supt. C. L. Gramley, Rebersburg, Pa.

—The Ward house at Tyrone has passed from the management of Mrs. C. S. McOmber to that of John T. Rawley, of Johnstown. The change was made conditional upon a decree of the court transferring the license.

—The indestructible claywork company of New York has written the Bellefonte Board of Trade with a view to locating here. The company only wants $50,000.

—We fully appreciate the large trade we are now doing in our Tailoring department and also in Ready Made Clothing. By comparison and personal observation—we feel perfectly confident in informing our friends that we are selling clothing far below any tailor or clothier in middle Pennsylvania—or in any of the larger towns and cities—taking quality style and fit into consideration. Come and be convinced quickly. MONTGOMERY & Co. Clothing.

—The following letters remain uncalled for in the Bellefonte P. O. April 30th, 1894.

James Enigh, Frank Fisher, Annie Fulgar, Grace Garbrick, Miss Hoover, Mrs. W. E. Owen, De Nicola Paolo, Mrs. Ike Sager, Bessie Swartz, James Walker, F. D. Young.

When called for please say advertised.
