

Cut and Dried Primaries.
Philadelphia Republicans Renominate All the Incumbents.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—The Republican primaries were held to-day in Philadelphia. All four congressmen and four state senators and nearly all their 36 representatives were renominated. Judges Wilson and Hanna were also renominated. Moyer Sultzberger was the third nominee for judge. City ticket is: City treasurer, R. G. Oellers, and register of wills, E. P. Smithers.

The Democrats renominated Congressman McAleer in the third district, where the Republicans to-day nominated Martin's benchman, ex-Councilman Fred Halterman.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

—The granger's picnic will be continued until Tuesday of next week.

—$50,000.00 were paid the miners in the Phillipsburg regions, on last Saturday, pay day.

—Robert Wadsworth, a Keating blacksmith, attempted suicide, on Monday by cutting his throat from ear to ear, but as no large arteries are severed he will probably recover.

—The ninth annual convention of the missionary society of the West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church was held at Aaronsburg last week. There was a good attendance. Next year the convention will meet at Rebersburg.

WANTED-HOMES FOR CHILDREN.—The Children's Aid Society of Bellefonte, would like to find good homes for boys—ages from 4 to 13 years—and for a girl whose age is 14 years. Call on or address J. Emily Natt, Bellefonte, Pa.

Phillipsburg is to have a new passenger station at last. The Pennsylvania rail-road company has decided to replace the old structure with a new one that will be 65 ft long and 35 ft wide. The Ledger says it will be very pretty, convenient and commodious.

—Dan. Difenbaugh, a Tyrone man, went out to watch his grapes the other night and a little later his wife, bent on the same errand, and not knowing he was there, nearly ended his life with a club, before she discovered that he was her husband and not a grape thief.

—The patrons of the Standard were regaled with an uncommonly interesting drama, made up of the comedy romance, "Killarney and the Rhine." Its plot very successfully commingles Irish and German ideas and characters with the result of at once making a neat and most entertaining combination. There is plenty of good acting, fine scenery, song and music in it. J. E. Toole and Alida Cortelyou lead a cast that is thoroughly capable throughout. —Times, Philadelphia, Sept. 12, 1893. This company will play a one night engagement at Garman's, Thursday evening, Sept. 27th.

—At the regular meeting of council on Monday night two bills of costs were presented that will draw heavily on the borough treasury, viz: Costs in the injunction case of Rob't. McCalmont vs Bellefonte borough, which the borough has to pay by decree of court, and $1,000 damage awarded Jas. Solt for injuries sustained on a bad board walk, which must be paid since the court refused a new trial of the case. The question of the advisability of erecting a public building on the borough's Howard street lot was laid before a committee which will report at the next meeting. The present council chamber is out of repair and its owner refuses to fix it up unless a lease for three years is signed. Some minor business was transacted and council adjourned.

TO DRIVERS.—It has often come within the notice of the writer that there are some people who, when driving along a public highway, will never allow another conveyance to pass them. Now, as it sometimes happens, one person wants to drive faster than another and it is extremely provoking for him to find himself behind some selfish driver, who will neither get out of the way nor go faster than he is doing.

Under such circumstances it is but natural that the person in the rear should want to pass the slower driver ahead of him, but when he undertakes it the leader invariably whips his horse up just fast enough to prevent passing and after the attempt has been given up settles down to his slow pace again. The court holds that any accident that befalls one man while attempting to pass another, under such circumstances, is chargeable to the person who does not pull out and give the other half the road.

There is no sense in people acting as some do in this matter. The roads are public highways and one person has as much right as another while traveling over them. It certainly shows a contemptible disposition in any one who will not leave another, who desires to drive faster, ahead of him. Of course it is understood that one person should not expect to pass another unless he intends driving fast.

—R. B. Wigton & Son's, of Phillipsburg, have brought suit against the Pennsylvania railroad company to recover $360,000 in freight discrimination. They are coal miners and brick makers.

—"Killarney and the Rhine," a comedy-drama bristling with strong situations and stirring lines, will be the next attraction at the Garman opera house, on Thursday evening, September 27th.

—The opening of the foot ball season at The Pennsylvania State College will be made on next Saturday, Sept. 29th, when the Washington and Jefferson college eleven, for two years champions of western Pennsylvania, will line up against State's team. The game will be called at 1 o'clock p. m. and will be looked upon with much interest as it will afford the first practical evidence of what P. S. C. may be expected to do with the pig-skin during the season.

THE PENNSY IMPROVING.—The Pennsylvania railroad company is preparing to improve its property here by paving around the passenger station. Some time ago the WATCHMAN called the attention of the authorities to the dilapidated condition in which the place is and a move was straight-way made to fix it up. An order for 52,000 brick has been placed with the Mill Hill brick works. They will be used to improve the property here.

UNION COUNTY FAIR.—The Pennsylvania railroad company will sell excursion tickets to Brook Park, September 25th to 28th, good for return passage, until September 29th, 1894, inclusive, at reduced rates account Union county fair to be held at Brook Park, near Lewisburg, September 25th, 26th, 27th, and 28th, 1894. Special trains will be run between Coburn and Brook Park and between Lewisburg and Brook Park. Ticket agents will furnish information as to rates, trains, &c.

EDITOR WILLIAM'S IS FUNNY.—The Clearfield Traction company will have a float in the parade tomorrow. It will be drawn by oxen, indicating the rapid speed being made in the building of the road, and will contain the justly celebrated "curved" rails, about which so much has been said and heard, a model of the four-acre power house, a copy of the proposed ordinance exempting the company from taxation for ten years and a flashlight photograph of the board of trade banquet to the traction company at the Potter House last July. As the float meanders round the corner of Front and Spruce streets the band will play "In the Sweet By-and-by."—Phillipsburg Ledger.

SUCCESSFUL TRUCK FARMING.—It has only been within the last few years that owners of suitable land in this vicinity have paid any attention to produce gardening. It is certainly a very profitable investment if properly handled. Mr. J. A. Woodcock, recognizing the advantage to be derived from a departure of this sort, has utilized the flat lands of his Bald Eagle farm, below Milesburg, this season, and notwithstanding the May flood that completely inundated his fields, now has about ten thousand cantaloupes and twice as many heads of cabbage ready for shipment. The melons are a superior variety and will find ready sale, while the cabbage and other produce of the farm will command good prices at any time.

DANIEL HERRING'S OLD COW.—Several years ago a WATCHMAN correspondent found what proved to be the oldest horse living in the United States, on a farm near Pine Grove Mills in this county, and now another writer tells us of a cow which is possibly one of the oldest, if not the very oldest, of her kind in existence.

Daniel Herring, who lives near the railroad station at Eagleville, is the owner of this old bovine and according to his sworn statement she was born in the spring of 1861, thus being more than thirty three years old. Notwithstanding she gave milk to soldiers, before they started to the war, she is still supplying the lactical fluid to Mr. Herring's family and there is every indication that she will continue the work for some time to come. Old as she is there is every appearance of healthfulness, as she eats good and looks sleek.

A BEAUTIFUL CABINET.—In a window in Joseph's carpet store, on Allegheny street, stands a beautiful cabinet and escriptorie, the handiwork of Mr. Louis Fabian, an employe in Lewin's clothing store.

It is 79 inches high, 45 inches wide and 15 inches deep; is made entirely of walnut, there being nearly 400 sq. ft. of material in it. There is a combination of drawers, shelves, niches and a writing desk in it, all worked together to perfect the general design.

Most of the work was done with a scroll saw, though there is considerable evidence that the lathe had much to do with producing the beauty of the cabinet. It took Mr. Fabian nearly seven months to complete it and then, when he had put all that time and trouble on it, he presented the whole thing to the Undine Fire Co. No. 2 to be disposed of as the company sees fit.

The firemen want to get new uniforms and to that end they are now selling the cabinet. When you pass along Allegheny street stop and take a look at it, then when one of the committee visits you to see if you care to invest in it you will be prepared to reap the benefit of the bargain offered.

FOSTER'S TALK OF THE WEATHER.—My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from Sept. 14 to 18, and the next will reach the Pacific coast about the 19th, cross the western mountains by close of 20th, the great central valleys from 21st to 23d, and the eastern states about the 24th. Marked indications of wind and rain may be expected from this disturbance, but not much rainfall. The severe storms of the month with greatest rainfall were calculated for near the 4th, 16th, and 28th. This disturbance, 20th to 24th, occurs at the earth's autumnal equinox, the date on which the equinoctial storms are usually expected, but planetary positions this year indicate that the equinoctial storms will occur from 14th to 18th, and 25th to 28th. The warm wave will cross the western mountains about the 19th, the great central valleys about the 21st and the eastern states about the 23d. The cool wave will cross the western mountains about the 23d, the great central valleys about the 24th, and the eastern states about the 26th.

Pine Grove Mentions.
We are sorry to note the illness of Miss Minnie Kline who is so seriously ill with typhoid fever that her life is despaired of. Our jolly townsman J. B. Piper, accompanied by his interesting little family, are in attendance at the Alexander reunion of citizens present and past.

Miss Anna Brett, youngest daughter of the late Robert Brett, started on Tuesday of this week for Kansas where she expects to make her home in the future.

Our granger friends assert that the rain is on the free. List the letter r is a prominent factor in rain and rheumatism as in September and oysters, so say the picnicers.

Mr. J. Emmett Brett has gone to Bellwood, Blair county, where he will be engaged for the next six months instructing the minds of young Americans. We expect to hear a glowing report of his work.
