THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

Singerly and His Party to be in Bellefonte.

On Saturday morning, October 27th, the Democratic candidate for Governor, Wm. M. Singerly and his party will visit Bellefonte. They will arrive here from Lyone at 8:20 in the morning and depart an hour later. It will be impossible to hold anything but an impromptu meeting and speeches will be made from the car.

Let every Democrat who can be in town that morning to give the party a hearty welcome. Let us show that right here at Hastings home we are active and aggressive.

All the Democratic candidates on the State ticket will be here, as well as many other distinguished Democrats.

—It snowed in Millheim on Sunday.

—Early Smithtown farmers are done husking corn.

—Twenty-two persons are now confined in the county jail here.

—Coburn dealers have shipped several carloads of potatoes to distant markets.

—Mrs. J. F. Harter and Miss Sadie Hartman are Millheim's delegates to the Epworth League convention in Altoona.

—The remains of Martha E. Sparr were taken to Eagleville, from Lock Haven, on Tuesday morning, and buried there.

—There will be a meeting of the Wm. M. Singerly club in the rooms to-night. Ira C. Mitchell Esq., will speak. Everybody is invited.

—From twelve acres of ground Lumber Wian, who farms the Beaver farm east of town, will gather fifteen hundred bushels of corn this fall.

—There will be a soiree at the home of Mrs. Jas. L. Rote, near Coleville, next Thursday evening to which everyone is invited. Chicken corn soup and ice cream and cake will be served.

—Workmen have begun to replace the board platforms at the Pennsylvania passenger station here with a vitrified brick pavement. Heavy white sandstone curbs are being set in place now.

—Mark Brown, a stocker on P. B. Crider & Son's saw mill on the Gates farm, had his collar bone broken and his left shoulder crushed by a log rolling on him. His home is at Franklinville.

—Joseph Bros. & Co., of this place are going to enlarge their store in the spring. They intend converting their present dwelling house into a salesroom also and will then conduct a large department store.

—The Howard Hornet is authority for the statement that is Mrs. Berger, who lives near Curtin's Works, is 102 years old. She is a widow of a soldier of the war of 1812 and has a son living who is 80 years old.

—The Democratic meeting at Centre Hall on Wednesday night, attracted a big and enthusiastic crowd of Democrats to the capital of Potter township. Hon. Jas. Kerr, chief clerk of the National House of Representatives, was the principal speaker.

—Reports from all parts of the county, wherever Democratic meetings have been held, are to the effect that surprisingly large crowds are attending. This is gratifying. It shows that Democrats are alive to the urgency of polling a big vote this fall.

—Bellefonters and others will have an opportunity to buy some household furniture cheap if they attend Edward Rupp's sale, on south Pine Street, this afternoon at 1 o'clock. He expects to move to New Jersey and will sell his furniture before departing for his new home.

—Business is increasing so rapidly at Lyon & Co's big store in Bellefonte that it has become necessary to employ three new clerks. Frank Musser, the Demorest ball player, formerly of State College, Evan Goodfellow and Edward Gillan are the new men who can be found behind Lyon & Co's counters. These additions run the number of clerks up to ten.

—The rankest aggregation of traveling barn stormers that has ever visited Bellefonte, played at Garman's opera house on Monday and Tuesday night under the head of Hergleroths minstrel and specialty company. The gods in the gallery were disgusted themselves, and one of the so-called actors was greeted with a shower of turnips and cabbage heads that drove him from the stage.

OBITUARY.—Wm. Faucet Bathurst, for the last forty-five years a resident of Mt. Eagle, passed peacefully away on the morning of the 11th inst., the next day following the funeral of our distinguished fellow-citizen the late ex-Gov. Andrew G. Curtin, with whom a friend and school mate he had in early youth he had been intimately associated at Curtin's Works.

About nine years ago while going from his work to the shanty or dormitory of the forge, he fell from the plank which spanned the tail-race as a foot bridge. The outgrowth of the severe hurt inflicted by the accident was a cancer, which caused untold suffering with little relief through the years which followed, till death, for which he was ready and waiting, claimed him. He passed away peacefully as one who had gone to rest.

If the inoffensive and evanescent habitude and temper of the man suggests one characteristic above another it would surely be in the beatitude of the "peacemaker." He never argued and consequently never quarreled. For the many years he worked at Eagle Forge, he made no personal enemies although he was, during a great part of the time, the only Democrat in the forge. As he lived he voted, peacefully and quietly, always with a pleasant smile on his countenance. No wonder Andy Curtin liked him, nor that he liked Andy in the old days.

During his entire life, till disabled, the deceased had worked at Eagle Forge (Curtin) except for a period of about three years when he worked at Spruce Creek, Blair county, where he married November 25th, 1839, Miss Catharine Rue Barry. He was born at Curtin's Iron Works, August 9th, 1811, being at the date of his death 83 years, 2 months and 2 days old. His sons and daughters are in the order of the several births as follows: James F. Bathurst, of Philadelphia; William F., of Huntingdon; Jennie S., wife of R. C. Leathers, Esq., deceased, of Mt. Eagle; Mrs. Precilla M. Allison, of Titusville; Francis M. Bathurst deceased; Mrs. Ettie R. Leathers, wife of Wm. Leathers, Mt. Eagle; Almada L. Reeder, wife of Jas. Reeder, Mt. Eagle; George E. Bathurst, Olean, N. Y. The widow of deceased will remain at the old homestead at Mt. Eagle.

MONDAY EVENING'S COUNCIL MEETING.—At the regular meeting of council, on Monday evening, there was a little of all kind of business to come up for consideration.

Under the miscellaneous head J. C. Meyer, representing McCallmont and Co., presented a bill of costs in the injunction suit against the borough and asked immediate payment. He also presented a bill of $571 costs in the Solt case. John Blanchard, representing the Bellefonte Gas Co., protested against the cutting down of Curtin street which leaves gas mains on that street on top of ground. He thought that the borough should stand the extra expense of relaying the pipes. The Treasurer was directed to pay the balance of $1,100 due on the purchase of the Curtin lot, on Howard street. Permission was granted Mr. Corman, the blind man, to build a stand at the corner of the High street bridge.

Committees reported as follows: Street, repairs to race bridge on High street, the grading of Curtin street, a new crossing over Allegheny street at Cherry alley, and that a number of propositions to light the streets have been received and one of them will be acted upon ere long. The Water committee reported its work in good shape. The Market committee reported $5.40 fees for two weeks. The Finance committee reported a balance in the hands of the treasurer of $1,703.74.

Other business that came up was a discussion of the botch that has been made on west Lamb street, but as no one knew exactly how council can undo the mistakes that have been made in the attempt to tickle everyone at the same time, some one, equal to the emergency, moved for adjournment and it carried.

KEYSTONE MARCH.—Mr. Loe B. Woodcock, Bellefonte's young composer, has just published another of his instrumental compositions. It is entitled "Keystone March" and is respectfully dedicated to Gen. D. H. Hastings, the Republican candidate for Governor. Like all of his work it is full of harmony and a piece that should become very popular because of its nice swinging time and ease of execution.

The music is on sale at Bash's stationery store in the Arcade and sells for 35 cents per sheet. It is printed on an excellent quality of paper and the caption is very prettily lithographed on the title page; the Keystone being worked in the design to give the names' significance.

"Keystone March" is both simple and pretty and will make a "winner" with bands all over the State as well as being a good two-step for the piano.

—Lock Haven sportsmen are very much excited because a covey of quail can be seen daily within the borough limits of their town. They will hardly remain there until the 1st of November, when the season opens.

—A five weeks old calf recently sold to a Tyrone butcher weighed 217 pounds.

—Malignant diphtheria is prevalent in Houtzdale. The public schools have been closed on account of it.

—The seventeenth reunion of the 7th Pennsylvania cavalry will be held in Lock Haven, October 23rd and 24th.

—The Hand-in-hand hose company of Lock Haven will next week. It will be of brick and stone.

—The fastest horse ever owned in Pennsylvania was the pacing stallion Crawford, record 2:06 1-3. The valuable animal died at DuBoise on Saturday. He had been taken there from the stud to enter the races but was unable to go in them. R. A. Stratton owned him.

—On Monday morning the remains of Mrs. Mary Barlet were brought to this place from Altoona, where she had died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ellen Lucas. Deceased was 74 years of age and a devout member of the United Brethren church. Mr. David Barlet, of this place, is a son.

—Alex Whitehill, the last season's Tyrone base ball pitcher, who played with the Omaha, Neb., Western League club during the season just closed, won fifty-six out of seventy games played. He is the young man who refused to sign a contract that would make it necessary for him to play in Sunday games.

—At about 11 o'clock on last Saturday morning Harvey Paul, the adopted child of Mr. S. C. Cowden, of Tyrone, was horribly burned, in fact so bad that he died next day. The clothes of the little one became ignited from a match which was set afire by the action of the child's rocking horse which it was riding at the time.

—Edward Hartley, a resident of Altoona, who ran a tailor shop in Bellefonte and had been missing from home nearly a week, was found in a partly decomposed condition in his shop Saturday morning. An empty bottle that had contained laudanum was lying at his side to tell of the manner in which he had met death. Family trouble is supposed to have caused the suicide.

—Phillipsburg experienced quite a fall of snow on Sunday. The thermometer dropped to 35° and about five o'clock in the evening the rain and sleet that had been falling at intervals during the day turned to snow. In a very short time the ground was covered with an inch or more that remained until late Monday morning. This seems remarkably early for a fall of snow, but it is not unprecedented for on October 5th, 1835 there was such a heavy snow in that vicinity as to break down spruce and pine trees with its weight.

—The Adelphi club of The Pennsylvania State College, will hold a reception in Bush's Arcade, Bellefonte, on Friday evening, October 26th. Sopper & Fisk's Williamsport orchestra will furnish the music for dancing. The patronesses will be Mrs. Geo. W. Atherton, Mrs. Jas. A. Beaver, Mrs. J. O. Dreisbach, Mrs. R. M. Foster, Mrs. G. S. Good, Mrs. D. H. Hastings, Mrs. T. W. Kinkaid, Mrs. W. F. Reeder, Mrs. J. F. Wilson and Miss Alice Wilson. The committee in charge is composed of H. J. Waters, T. R. Boyer, R. B. Greer, J. E. Snyder, J. M. Wolfe, D. L. Patterson Jr., and H. G. Fleck.

—The Wm. M. Singerly club of Bellefonte, forty strong, with Meyer's full band attended the State convention of Democratic clubs at Altoona on last Friday and returned in the evening reporting having had a fine time. The club carried green hickory canes and wore white ribbon badges and made a good appearance while on the march. The organization of a Singerly club here is going to be of material good to the party. It will have a tendency to enthuse the Democrats and waken them up. Then there will be an excellent opportunity, through it, to dispel the idea that Hastings is going to carry Centre county.

—The lower end of Lamb street is the worst torn up thoroughfare we have seen in this town for a long time. To suit the new armory council authorized the raising of the grade at Lamb and Spring streets nearly four feet. After having given the Central R. R. Co., of Pa. the privilege of running a siding up the street to the Bellefonte Gas Co's plant. It was thought that the change of grade would keep the siding off the street, but the railroad people went to work last Wednesday and laid their track right up to Spring street.

It looks like an elevated road now and by the time council grades up to a level with the rails it will have cost several thousand dollars. When the borough is so continually in need of money we are at a loss to know what kind of business this is called. Doing such things to suit private parties and then having to spend the people's money to cover up their mistakes.

LAFAYETTE VS THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE.—The most interesting foot-ball game that will be played at State College this season will be at attraction on Beaver field tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Lafayette college eleven will line up against the blue and white players of State and a fine game will undoubtedly result.

There was no game between these teams last year, but in '91 and '92 State clearly out classed her former superior and left the Easton collegians behind in the struggle for supremacy in athletics. The fact that our home institution has been represented in former years by a heavy team leaves it a question as to the outcome of tomorrow's game. Both times that State won from Lafayette she had a far heavier line than represents her this year. Lafayette in undeniably stronger than last year, but no comparison can be drawn from this because the elevens did not play that season. However she was weaker last than the preceding year so conceding that she is as strong this season as in 1892, when State won from her 18 to 0, the result of the game tomorrow is a matter of much doubt. State is not as strong either in the line or the backs as she was in '91-'92 or '93, but the snappy game she put up against Gettysburg last Saturday has led to the belief that she will surprise those who are counting on a very material weakness. State defeated Gettysburg by the score of 60 to 0, while Lafayette only succeeded in beating Gettysburg, two weeks ago, by the score of 34 to 0. But in the latter game only 20 minute halves were played and then Lafayette made eight touch downs.

A special train will be run over the Bellefonte Central, leaving here a 1 p. m. and returning immediately after the game. A good crowd should turn out for this will undoubtedly be the best game that will be played at State College this year. It is the most important one thus far scheduled for the home grounds.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTY.—Democratic mass meetings will be held in this county at the following places and times:

- Friday Oct. 19.—At Ripka's school house in Gregg township and at Shiloh-gle-town in Harris township.
- Sat. Oct. 20.—At Jacksonville, in Marion township, and the Loop, in South Potter township.
- Mon. Oct. 22.—At Moshannon, in Snow Shoe township, and at Penn Hall in Gregg township.
- Tues. Oct. 23.—At Snow Shoe town and at Potters Mills.
- Wed. Oct. 24.—At Woodward in Haines township.
- Thur. Oct. 25.—At Brungars school house, in Miles township, and at the town of Coburn.
- Friday Oct. 26.—At Poe Mills, in Haines township.
- Sat. Oct. 27.—At Rock school house, in Benner township and at the town of Hublersburg.
- Mon. Oct. 29.—At Tusseyville in Potter township.
- Tues. Oct. 30.—At Linden Hall and at Murray's school house in Gregg township.
- Wed. Oct. 31.—At Rettersburg and at Polk Hill school house in Gregg township.
- Thur. Nov. 1.—At Pine Creek, in Haines township.
- Fri. Nov. 2.—At Millheim.
- Sat. Nov. 3.—At Hoys school house in Benner township.

All of these meetings will be held on the nights given and will be addressed by speakers who will discuss the political issues of the campaign. Everybody is earnestly invited to attend them. Republicans as well as Democrats should turn out and hear the Democratic side of the story.

GAS HAS BEEN STRUCK AT KARTHAUSE.—The stock-holders of the Salt Lick Oil and Gas company, which is prospecting for oil and gas in the vicinity of Salt Lick, Clearfield county, are happy because at a depth of 430 feet a strong flow of gas has been struck, also a flow of salt water that has necessitated the casing off of both. The gas was in sufficient quantities to be used in the boiler, but the salt water affected it. The drillers are now working in a medium hard grey rock and are making about 60 ft a day. They are confident of striking either oil or gas in paying quantities. At a depth of 500 feet another gas flow was struck.

CHURCH TO BE REOPENED.—The Lutheran church at Pine Hall, near State College, will be re-opened for worship on Sunday, October 28th. The preaching service will be held in the morning at 10 o'clock, when Rev. C. Luther McCannell will officiate. A general invitation is extended to the public to be present.

—Two year old Bessie Gingar, of Curtin's Works, was badly hooked by a cow last Friday morning. The little girl was playing in a field in which the cows were pasturing when one of the brutes ran her horn into the child's mouth and gored her clear through the cheek. Dr. Subert of this place, dressed the wound.

—Miss Georgine, the pleasant and accomplished daughter of Mr. James H. Lambert of the Philadelphia Press, was married on last Tuesday to Mr. Edward H. Eckel of New York. Miss Lambert has visited here a number of times, the guest of Mrs. D. H. Hastings.

News Purely Personal.

—Miss Sallie Tyson, of Phillipsburg, is visiting Miss Ida Gerberich.

—Mrs. George T. Brew, of Brew Maw, Md., is home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Jackson.

—Col. James Milliken arrived in Bellefonte from Leaville, Col. on Monday looking as healthy as ever. His snow white hair and ruddy face impart to him a look that is not only distinguished but attractive.

—Miss Sue J. Eck, of Washington, D. C., who has been spending a few days at the Bush House, is now visiting Miss Jeannette McFarlane, near Bousburg, her old home. She expects to spend the winter in Macon, Ga.

—Sam. Nevling, a former Bellefonte boy, has been in town for a few days visiting. He was at one time a book keeper in the first National bank of this place, but is now employed in a bank in Buffalo, N. Y.

—Two Lewisburg gentlemen, Messrs. Quigley and Reeder, drove over the mountains to this place on Monday and after spending the night here returned home next day. They reported the roads in excellent condition.

—Joe W. Furey, the veteran editor whose health has been so precarious for several years, is in town with Mrs. Furey, visiting friends. He looks very much better than he has for some time and we are glad to say is on a fair way to recovery.

—Miss Emma Holliday, Miss Amanda Eckley, and Mr. J. Smith of this place, Miss Nora Gray and John L. Hartsock of Buffalo Run, and W. S. Sweeter and Harold Glenn of State College are some of the delegates who are attending the Epworth League convention now in session in Altoona.

—S. Cameron Burnside and Mrs. Burnside moved from Howard to Philadelphia last week. It was thought for a while that they intended becoming residents of Bellefonte and would occupy the McFarlane property on east Linn street, but they are now residing in their new home 4120 Chester Avenue.

Pine Grove Mentions.

Mr. Wm. Musser is so seriously ill that his friends are alarmed at his condition.

H. F. Meyers one of Alexandria's hustling business men came over to the flag raising, last Saturday.

Wm. Sausserman, of Altoona, with his interesting family are, this week, tarrying with friends here.

Lost, last Saturday while attending the flag raising at this place, a young lady lost her gold watch chain. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at the store of D. H. Weaver.

On the 9th of September a black and red plaid woolen blanket was lost near H. C. Campbell's. The finder will confer a great favor by returning it to W. F. Fry.

Mr. G. W. McWilliams is suffering with a bad eye caused by a spawl penetrating the sight. This is the third accident of the kind in this vicinity this summer. We hope the hurt will not cause the loss of the sight.

Last Saturday, Jacob Markle age 76 went to Roopburg to participate in the celebration of his mother's 96th birthday. Old Mrs. Markle who has made her home for years with her son John is exceptionally bright and brisk and from her health now gives promise of living to be a centenarian.

Postmaster Miller has recently come into the possession of two books, the one titled Soldier's Home and the other the soldier's pocket book which he carried while in the service dating back to 1862. On his return home his mother took charge of the books and not until recently did he discover that they had been lost.

On last Friday evening a committee from the G. A. R. called on our old Mexican veteran to present to him a souvenir emblem, in token of the high esteem in which he is held. He responded in a brief speech which was so touching that tears showed themselves in the eyes of all present.

Last week while threshing at the Robert Merk farm Albert Garbrich met with quite a serious accident. He threw his fork down out of the mow, and sliding down himself he fell on the end of the handle which almost disemboweled him. Dr. Houser dressed the wound and the lad is doing as well as could be expected.

OUR CELEBRATION.—Last Saturday was observed as Columbus day in our town, and in honor of it Old Glory was hoisted to the top of a huge pole, which was furnished by J. B. Ard, and that loomed away above the spires of the town.

The occasion was under the auspices of the J. O. U. A. M. Although the weather man did not smile propitiously in the early part of the day, about ten o'clock the first golden sunbeams came peeping shyly over the crest of lofty Old Tussey illuminating Penns and Spruce Creek valleys and resting lovingly upon our beautifully decorated town.

It was an inspiring scene, one which will not fade from the memory of the beholder. Standing on the principal thoroughfare beautiful arches and decorations in red white and blue met the eye in every direction. Hundreds of flags, banners and streamers waved in the morning breeze. Never in the history of our town has it been so resplendent nor did old glory so proudly wave. All the morning teams could be seen coming in over every road leading into town bearing loads of jolly and enthusiastic people bent on seeing Pine Grove in all its glory, which has slowly but surely been moving onward for one hundred and twenty three years. By one o'clock the side walks were thronged with people and different organizations awaiting to be assigned a position in the parade.

At 2 o'clock the various commands were formed at the Town Hall and while standing in parade rest with heads uncovered Brother J. H. Homan said the Divine blessing. Rev. C. T. Aikens in a neat patriotic speech made every one welcome, and then Rev. J. C. Hartman, of Altoona, gave the benediction. Their object in organizing their aims and especially what part religious tolerance would have in the future of this great country. Brother Hartman was listened to with patience and was rewarded by abundant applause. While the choir sang "Hail to the Flag" and amid cannonading and musketry firing Old Glory was raised to the top of the pole by Samuel Randall Danbury and Geo. B. McClellan Fry. After the cheering and music that greeted the stars and stripes Prof. E. E. Sparks of the Penna. State College was introduced, his subject was "American Citizenship." For thirty minutes he attracted the attention of the entire audience. With rare eloquence, he related the landing of the Pilgrims on the rock bound coast of New England, their privations and perils, their successes and achievements. The necessity and result of the Revolutionary war, the constant struggle for liberty, the war with the South and the onward march of civilization. He reminded his hearers that their duty was to guard and defend the institutions and rights founded by liberty and independence from the assiduous foes anarchism and socialism, which already hung threateningly over the rights of the citizen. He rejoiced that the heroic deeds of our brave soldiers had been recorded in history and that the flag which they had carried to victory waved over a country united and at peace. His tribute to the bravery of the men who fought for the Union was most glowing and his remarks on the duties of the American citizen were so inspiring that his hearers would gladly have listened to him forty minutes longer.

After the band played "Rally Round the Flag," the parade was formed and moved in the following order:

Members of the G. A. R. and the Lemont drum corps.

Good Will council of Tyrone.

Penn. State College band and the P. S. of A. of the State College.

P. S. of A. Penna. Furnace.

200 school children bearing flags.

Pine Grove band and Tussey council No. 515 J. O. U. A. M.

Cheer after cheer went up as the orders marched to the patriotic airs, even the dark over-hanging clouds could not dampen the enthusiasm. The old Mexican vet with Gabriel Lucas and E. T. Livingston reviewed the marching columns from a carriage, and when suddenly the rain came down in torrents Gabriel blew his trumpet and the marchers broke ranks and scattered to dry quarters. The social life in the evening which was well attended netted the treasury $70. The Good Will boys were especially generous, and we doubt not but they broke the Fourth commandment for it was well on to midnight when they started home.

In the absence of D. D. G. Master Weber of the I. O. O. F., W. J. Meyers was deputized to install the officers elect of Penna. Valley Lodge 277 I. O. O. F. at this place last Saturday evening. A number of strangers took part in the exercises and the following officers were installed: J. B. Krebs, N. G.; W. H. Goss, V. G.; A. J. Tate as-1. secy.; J. G. Heberling, Treas.

—Next Friday night, October 20th, that funny little Irish comedian, Herbert Cathorne, will come to Garman's with his new play "a cork man."

—The latest styles and the best qualities at the lowest prices you have ever known. Samuel Lewis's.

—Millheim and Howard have both organized for the purpose of holding farmer's institutes during the winter.

—A half hour spent in looking over our assortment will give you a fair idea of the popular styles and we can only hope that it will be as much pleasure for you to see as for us to show our goods.—Samuel Lewis's.

—Aged Mrs. Kessler, of Robersburg, while out in her garden the other day made a mis-step and broke her leg.

—A fine assortment, a fine grade of goods, a fair price to all at Lewis's.

—A trestle work gave way at Barnesboro, last Wednesday, and four men fell with it a distance of twenty-eight feet. They were seriously hurt.

GREAT BARGAINS IN SUSPENDERS.—Lyon & Co., of this place, closed out the entire stock of a manufacturer's declining business, at one fourth values, and are now offering high grade suspenders at remarkably low figures. $2. suspenders at 75 cts. $1. suspenders at 50 cts. 50c. suspenders at 25c. 25c. suspenders at 10c. and 20c. suspenders at 9c.

—We have a grand opening each day, as the cases of Clothing, Hats Etc., come rolling in. You will be astonished at the extremely low prices named for good goods—in every department. Do not fail to keep posted on prices—styles and qualities, as it is money to each customer. MONTGOMERY & Co. Tailors and Clothiers.
