THE CENTURY — IN 1895.

Taking advantage of the general revival of interest in the Great Emperor, The Century will print during 1895

NEW LIFE OF NAPOLEON, Magnificently Illustrated.

The Century is famous for its great historical serials, and never in its history has a greater one been projected than this new "Life of Napoleon," written by Prof. William M. Sloane, of Princeton, who has spent many years in preparation for his work. Thus far no biography of the man of destiny has appeared in either English or French that is free from rancor and attentive to the laws of historical criticism. No matter how much you already know of Napoleon, you will want to read this; here is the concentration of all the best memoirs. The illustrations will be magnificent—the wealth of The Century's art department will be lavished upon them. Two members of the staff have just returned from Paris, where they have been securing all that is best of Napoleonic material. New portraits have been printed. Great historical paintings reproduced, and Castaigne and other modern artists have drawn anew some of the great scenes of Napoleon's life for this history.

In addition to this there will be A NEW NOVEL BY MARION CRAWFORD.

The title is "Casa Braccio," and it is a romance novel, full of human passion and exciting episode.

A NEW NOVEL BY MRS. BURTON HARRISON—will be published during the year. It is called "An Errant Wooing," and is a tale of east and west (and love) among new scenes of travel in Northern Africa and Southern Spain.

OTHER FEATURES—

will be several familiar papers on "Washington in Lincoln's Time," by Noah Brooks, who was on terms of intimate intimacy with the War President; "The Cathedral of France," by Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer, with illustrations by Joseph Pennell. Many more serials will be announced later.

RUDYARD KIPLING—

contributes his First American Story to the December number of The Century.

THE PRICE of The Century is $4.00 a year. "No home is complete without it." Begin subscriptions with November number. Whatever other magazines you may take, you must have The Century. All agents and dealers take subscriptions, or remittance may be made directly to

ST. NICHOLAS — FOR YOUNG FOLKS—

Edited by MARY MAPES DODGE. IN 1895.

The greatest year in the history of this magazine now without a rival in its field, is the one just closing. Plans for the coming year assure even greater success than in the past.

RUDYARD KIPLING wrote his famous "JUNGLE STORIES" for St. Nicholas, and it is a welcome announcement that these will be continued in 1895.

NAPOLEON — FOR YOUNG READERS—

While The Century will have for its leading feature the new Life of the French Emperor by Prof. Sloane, one of the most popular of St. Nicholas writers takes the same character for his inspiration.

A BOY OF THE FIRST EMPIRE, by ELIZABETH S. BARKER, is the story of a little lad from the streets of Paris (but of good family), who renders a service to Napoleon, and becomes one of his pages—and finally with him at the most critical times of his life,—at the departure for Elba, in the glories of the life at Fontainebleau, and finally at Waterloo. The story grows with pageantry, and is a truthful and accurate account, based upon the best authorities and derived by the latest information of the life of "the man of destiny." It is really a delightful story-history of Napoleon.

WEST POINT AND MAN-OF-WAR LIFE will receive attention, Lieutenant Putnam writing of cadet life at the military academy, while Ensign Elliott, of the Frigate "Chicago," will describe the experiences of our hardy seamen on the modern ships of war.

INSPIRING TALES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

Theodore Roosevelt will write a series to be called "Heroes Tales from American History," recounting famous deeds of heroism about which young people ought to know. Prof. Brande Matthews will include in his entertaining papers on "The Great American Authors," Longfellow, Hawthorne, Whittier, Poe and Lowell. Stories of the Famous Heroes in history and mythology—Bucephalus, King Leon and Sheridan's horses, etc.—will be told by James Baldwin, author of "Stories from the Northern Mythic." City Fire Departments will be treated, and there will be two or three papers on "The Boys' Brigade." The Serial Stories are many. One called "Chris and the Wonderful Lamp" recounts the marvelous adventures of a modern boy who became the accidental purchaser of a magic lamp, and summoned the jinn while cleaning it. A delightful story of college girls, "The Three Freshmen," will appeal to every girl; and "Teddy and Carrots," James Otis's serial of new-boy life, will be read by every boy. A serial story by Frances Courtenay Taylor is one of the features.

PRICE of St. Nicholas is 25 cents a number or $3.00 a year. New subscriptions should begin with November, the first issue of the year. Subscribers through dealers, or remit by check, draft, or money order to
