THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—George Charles, of Aaronburg, died Tuesday morning. He had been ill for two years.

—W. T. Meyer has moved his cash bazaar from Spring street to a room in Bush Arcade on High street.

—It is said that Penn township assessors contemplate building a poor house in which to keep their paupers.

—George Baldwin the florist has a new ad in this issue. Read it for there may be something of interest in it for you.

—Peter Vonada came into town Saturday evening after a day's hunt and two big wild turkey's were hanging over his shoulder.

—The Bellefonte Odd Fellows went to Lock Haven last night to attend a lecture on Odd Fellowship. They had a good turnout and an enjoyable time.

—Lyon & Co's great store in this place is becoming so popular a resort for buyers who are economical that it requires sixteen clerks to wait on their trade.

—December 14th, has been set as the date on which Co. B's new armory will be dedicated. Of course it is subject to unforeseen delay in the completion of the building.

—Don't forget the Boston Aerial concert company in the opera house this evening. The benefit will be for the High school library and is worthy a crowded house.

—Don't lose any time in making your preparation for winter. The weather is so pleasant now that any outside work that is yet to be done had better be finished up before it gets rough.

—Mrs. C. W. Atherton, of Philipsburg, died of cancer of the stomach at her home in that place last Sunday morning. She was a daughter of the late O. P. Wilson, of Unionville.

—In Co. B. 5th, Reg. N. G. P. Bellefonte, there are fourteen sharpshooters and forty marksmen. The company is third in the number of sharpshooters among the companies of the regiment.

—George E. Leister, proprietor of the Potter house at Philipsburg, is displaying a 200lb deer, thirteen rabbits and a pheasant all the result of a recent hunting expedition and the victims of his unerring aim.

—The annual Thanksgiving eve ball of the Udine fire company of this place will be held this year in finer style than ever before. Unusual efforts are being made to make it attractive in every way. Buy a ticket.

—Bellefonte bakers have reduced the price of bread from ten cents a loaf to seven cents or four loaves for a quarter. The loaves heretofore sold for five cents cost only four cents now and can be purchased at the rate of seven loaves for a quarter.

—The Clearfield amateurs sang Planquette's opera "The Chimes of Normandy" in that place last night. Chas. T. Noll, a son of Mr. John Noll, of Bellefonte, had the role of Gaspard, while George N. Brandon, formerly of this place had the direction of the work.

—The ladies aid society of the United Brethren church will hold a sociable at the parsonage, on Willowbank street on Thursday evening, Nov. 22nd to which every one is cordially invited. Chicken corn soup, ice cream and cakes will be some of the good things served.

—Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bullock, of north Allegheny street, are receiving the congratulations of their many friends over the arrival of a new daughter at their home. Both parents are very proud of this their second born because she is a great, hearty looking babe. The mother is as well as could be hoped.

—General Hastings is already being besieged by applicants for office from all parts of the State. Every day a score or more of strangers appear at the home of the Governor to be, on Allegheny street, with a petition for some office or other. He will find before he gets through that his lot will not be a very happy one.

—Rev. Dr. Monroe, presiding elder of this district, preached a masterly sermon in the Methodist church of this place Sunday evening. His visits here are always looked forward to with pleasurable anticipation by the friends who admire his work while in charge of the Bellefonte church. A crowded house evinced their number.

—Admirers of Wilbur F. Reeder's work as chairman of the Republican county committee met in his office, on north Allegheny street, on Saturday evening, and presented him with a royal svening clock. W. F. Gray Esq., made the presentation remarks to which Mr. Reeder responded in a happy manner. Let us see—it was a clock that Bardsley presented to Wm. Lively who has never been heard of since.

HE CARRIED THE BULLET THIRTY YEARS.—The following story of a singular deliverance which Jacob Dunkle, of Aaronburg, this county, recently experienced is going the rounds of the press. It is really a remarkable case and will create no little surprise in the medical world.

—Mr. Dunkle was a soldier in the late war and it was during one of the battles that he lost an eye. The surgeons at the time merely washed his eye, saying the eye had been burst by a ball passing close to it, without striking him, and no effort was made to probe for a bullet.

Mr. Dunkle has felt a pain down the left side of his face ever since, and his eye always ran with water and matter. There was no supposition that a spent ball had entered his eye and lodged back of it, for that was the opinion of the army surgeons.

Remarkable to tell, last week one day, while Mr. Dunkle was at Millheim he took a coughing spell, which was a common thing with him, but upon this occasion it was more violent than usual and during the spasm a few friends stood near him, and observed something drop from his mouth on the pavement. It was picked up and found to be a minnie ball which had been imbedded in the back part of the mouth, having found its way down from the eye, which it had entered thirty years before. The bullet is now in the possession of Dr. Frank, of Millheim.

This is a remarkable circumstance, and it is to be hoped the soldier will now find relief. It is a rare relic, and the case deserves a place in medical periodicals.

Whether the army surgeons did their duty at the time Mr. Dunkle was shot in the eye in passing his injuries over without investigation, is not for us to say.

—A spirited Methodist revival service has been in progress at Waddle during this week and last. A number of conversions were made.

SCHAD-LEITZEL.—On Monday evening at 8 o'clock a pleasant wedding ceremony was performed at the home of Rev. Hoshour, pastor of the Lutheran church, on east High street. It was the marriage of Mr. Albert Schad, junior member of the firm of R. J. Schad & Bro. plumbers and steam fitters of this place, to Miss Esther Leitzel, of Coleville.

After the nuptials a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride, a reception following, at which their many friends had an opportunity of congratulation. The happy pair went immediately to their future home, the groom having had the house already furnished for the reception of his bride.

Mr. Schad is an industrious and intelligent young man whose energy has already done much toward giving his firm the profitable trade it enjoys. He is in every way fitted for a husband who should make any home a happy one, while his bride is a clever young woman who will make him a loving and helpful wife.

PHILIPSBURG'S ELECTRIC RAILWAY PROPOSED BUILDINGS.—Through the courtesy of Mr. C. W. Hess, resident engineer of the Clearfield Traction company, we were shown the plans for the power house and car barns, which are at the company's office in Duncan & Barnes' building. The car barn will be 50x125 feet square and 35 feet high. Adjoining it is the station building, 30x50 feet, two stories high. It will contain on the ground floor, men's waiting room, women's waiting room, trainmen's room and office. On the second floor will be a dining room, kitchen, two sleeping rooms, meeting room, parlor and bath room. The engine house is 40x100 feet square, 35 feet high. It will contain the engines, dynamos, etc. The boiler house is 50x100. All the buildings are to be of brick and iron. The station will be a very ornamental building, handsomely finished inside and out and elegantly furnished. The letting is already advertised and there are numerous bidders. The award will be made the first week in December. The work is to begin immediately after the contract is signed, and the contractor has to give bonds to have the buildings completed in sixty working days, which looks like business.—Ledger.

THE MILL HALL BRICK WORKS TO BE REBUILT.—The action of the directors of the Mill Hall brick works in deciding to rebuild the plant destroyed by fire a week or more ago will be a source of much pleasure to the residents of the town in which it is located and to whose business it contributed so much energy while in operation. The new buildings will probably be made of brick, two stories high and practically fire proof. Bids will be advertised for at an early date and the work of reconstruction will be begun at once.

ATTENTION, COMRADES!—At the meeting to be held Saturday, Nov. 17, 1894, at 7:30 p. m., officers for the ensuing year are to be nominated and the yearly inspection be held. All members of the Post are requested to be present in uniform.

THOS. DONACHY, Commander, F. FEEBLES GREEN, Adjutant.

—M. W. Irvin will build a three story brick cased hotel on the site of the burned Wilt house in Mill Hall.

—To-day the unveiling of the Cherry tree monument will be made. It is probable that ex-Gov. Beaver, Governor Pattison and Governor-elect Hastings will all be there.

—Abel and John Meyers have been held in $500 bail for their appearance at the next session of the U. S. court in Scranton for robbing the Roaring Springs post office. Frank and George Lear, arrested for complicity in the robbery, have been discharged.

—The Boslough triplets, three cute little girl babies just fifteen months old, still prove an attraction at the home of their parents on east Bishop street. They are well and seem to be enjoying life as well as any of the other five children in the household.

—A. J. Graham Esq., the Simon pure Philipsburg Democrat would like to know where he "can go for a few weeks until it blows over." The WATCHMAN is happy that it can recommend two good Democratic retreats right here in Centre county. Fly to Penn township or the west precinct or Gregg.

—The Philipsburg papers speak in the highest praise of Rev. H. A. Grant, who has lately been called to the pastorate of St. Paul's A. M. E. church in this place. He is an able preacher, a forcible writer and a man worthy the confidence of our people. He succeeds Rev. Honesty, who left for his new charge last week.

—Dr. Dorman, who lectured before the Young Men's Christian Association of this place on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday on subjects relating to man's weakness had the pleasure of talking to crowded houses at every lecture. His subjects were all well handled and evinced a knowledge of the frailties of the sterner sex that had a most astounding effect on his hearers.

—M. S. Patterson has been elected general manager of the Lock Haven electric railway company. He will begin selecting employees for the road at once. Already several hundred applications for positions are on file. A number of them being from men out side of Lock Haven, but only residents of the town will be employed. The road will be opened for public service as soon as it can be done.

—The foot-ball game that was played here last Saturday afternoon between the Preps. of The Pennsylvania State College and the Bellefonte Academy eleven resulted in a victory for the former by the score of 10 to 0. The game was immensely entertaining from start to finish as the visitors had not anticipated much trouble in defeating the academicians. They had all they could handle and it was only their superior training and heavier weight that won the day for them.

—George S. Good, of Lock Haven, and Hon. James Kerr, of Clearfield, now in the rail-road connecting business, have secured a contract to build 122 miles of road in the Indian Territory. The road must be completed within six months from the date of the contract and will necessitate the employment of three or four thousand men. The cost at which it is to be done will range from $1,500,000 to $2,000,000. The road will supply coal from the South McAlistler fields and is being pushed by Philadelphia capitalists.

—The need of an extended library to which the scholars in our public schools might have access becomes more and more urgent to those who have been giving the matter any attention. For the most part the students who attend our public schools do not have even the ordinary reference books at home which are so essential to a thorough study of the advanced work they are required to take before the completion of their course. A school library is designed to fill this want. In fact no school above a primary grade should be without access to a well selected library and we trust our people will appreciate this need of the Bellefonte High school and lend their assistance to supplying it by attending the Aerial concert company's entertainment in the opera house this evening.

—David B. Hall, a young son of the late Aaron Hall, who lived on the Hall farm on the foot hills of the Allegheny mountain, about three miles north of Unionville, died suddenly at his home last Thursday morning. He had gone to bed with his brother on Tuesday evening, apparently in the best of health, but about three o'clock in the morning his condition alarmed his brother who tried to wake him. Alas, the spirit had flown and the young man was dead. He was buried Saturday by the side of his father in the Upper cemetery. Being a Hall he was a young man who commanded the respect of all who knew him. A probationary member of the Methodist church he was trying at least to live a life in Christ. We sympathize with the family since we know a good son is lost to it.

PRINCETON HAS BACKED OUT.—On Wednesday manager Spence of The Pennsylvania State College foot-ball eleven received a telegram from Princeton cancelling the game. State was scheduled to play there tomorrow. The reason being given that the champions are badly crippled from last Saturday's contest and in no condition to meet such a strong team as State would line up against them.

Though our team did not accomplish their intention of defeating the United States Naval cadets at Annapolis, Md., last Saturday it was not because the thing was an impossibility but rather because of the "horse play" the boys indulged in the first half when they had the chance to win. The final score was a tie.

State will play Bucknell University at Williamsport tomorrow afternoon, the contest being on neutral grounds and between old time rivals will doubtless be an exciting one. The winner will take 75 per cent of the receipts, the loser the balance. Bucknell has been playing very strong foot-ball this season and those who think she will not give State a stiff game will be disappointed tomorrow when they come together. Excursion tickets will be sold over the Central R. R. of Penna. good for any train going and coming at $1.52 the round trip from Bellefonte. Passengers can leave here at 7 o'clock in the morning or wait until 8:50 a special that will make direct connections for Williamsport and returning leave Williamsport at 8:30 arriving here at 10:50. The Bellefonte Central R. R. will run a special back to the College on Saturday night and excursion rates on that road will be 50cts the round trip from State College to Bellefonte.

ANDREW COOK'S PROMOTION.—The tentative quality in man is sure to find its recognition at some time or other, the latest verification of this being the recent promotion of Mr. Andrew Cook, of this place, to the superintendency of the extensive coal operations of the Berwind-White Co. in the vicinity of Punksu-tawney. Mr. Thos. Fisher, the company's former superintendant being called to a desk in the general office in Philadelphia, Mr. Cook will succeed him as director of the mines.

This promotion must certainly be a source of gratification to Mr. Cook, who has for years been faithfully looking after the Berwind White Co's interests in the Snow Shoe and Karibaue region. His headquarters heretofore have been at Bellefonte and it will be a cause of regret if his new position will require his absence from our town. In this recognition of a careful attaché the large coal company has displayed the idea of mutual advancement which should always exist between employer and employee.

Mr. Cook will have charge of the new shaft of the Berwind-White Co. which is nearly completed. It is one of the largest coal shafts in the Central Pennsylvania coal fields. When in operation it will have a capacity of from two to three thousand tons daily, and it is estimated it will take fifty years to exhaust the supply at that place. The vein is from six to nine feet in thickness, and the coal of the best quality.

FROM KANSAS IN A WAGON.—One day last week a big covered wagon drawn by two fine looking mules passed through the streets of Bellefonte and wended its way, dust covered and tired looking, on to Zion. In it were comfortably ensconced Elwin Gephart, his wife and four children. They had journeyed all the way from Elk county, Kansas, a distance of over fourteen hundred miles.

They started overland on the 9th of September and just forty-seven days later reached the home of Mr. Philip Gephart at Zion, who is the father of the traveler. The trip was said to be a very delightful one, fraught with very little discomfort. The family slept in the wagon and ate wherever they could find a suitable camping ground. The trip cost them $35. In the future they will reside in Centre county as they had all their goods shipped here.

Celebrated Their Ruby Wedding.—Forty years of married life found Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Haag, happy and contented in their hotel on Bishop street, on Tuesday, and in the evening the anniversary of their marriage two score years ago was happily celebrated. A number of their intimate friends dropped in to wish them well and the merry party was no longer young in years yet it spirit they all were joyful as if in the rise instead of the decline of life. Mr. and Mrs. Haag are among our best residents and the WATCHMAN heartily congratulates them, wishing at the same time that they may live pleasantly and in good health for many years to come.

Among those who were there and partook of the elegant supper that was spread were: Mrs. Mosher, of Williamsport; A. A. Kohlbecker and Mr. Curt Stonerode, of Milesburg; Mr. A. Baum, Architect Robert Cole, J. H. Sands, Mr. John Anderson, Chas. Smith, Wm. C. Heins Esq., and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schoof and Mr. N. Bauer.

—An epidemic of typhoid fever is raging at Glen Campbell.

—Just received a big lot of men's and boy's yacht caps at 20c. Actual value 50c. Lyon & Co.

—The North Wales, Pa., Record is the first paper that has come to our desk with a boom for General Hastings for President in 1896.

—Three lime kilns owned by A. G. Morris, at Johnsonburg, will be torn out and one of them erected at Salona. The other two will be rebuilt near Tyrone.

—No matter how critical a judge of values you may be. No matter how intense your desire to economize, our stock makes you its firm friend, by the power of honest quality, perfect assortment and low prices.—Samuel Lewin.

—The drillers still go deeper at the prospective gas well at Salt Lick, Clearfield county. They are down thirteen hundred feet and more hopeful than ever.

—Best calicos 5c, best gingham 5c, canton flannels 5c, and best oil cloths 14 to 16c. Lyon & Co.

—A team owned by Wm. Bechtel, of Eagleville, ran away in Lock Haven, on Tuesday, scattering a load of straw, to which it was hitched, all along the streets of that place.

—Contrary to his former determination Judge A. O. Furst will not resign before his term expires. He had announced his intention of doing this, but when he learned that a movement would be made to have Gov. Pattison appoint some good Democrat to serve out the unexpired term he said "No!" and will hold on now himself.

—Just received 240 pairs of men's strictly all wool, extra heavy pantaloons warranted not to rip at $1.25 a pair. Actual value $3.00. Lyon & Co.

—General Hastings has invited the cadet corps of The Pennsylvania State College to act as his escort at his inauguration in January. As the U. S. government furnishes arms to each State College for only one hundred and fifty men application will be made to the State government for enough arms to supply the corps.

—Mens good heavy substantial overcoats reduced from $4.50 to $2.50 Mens strictly all wool suits $5. Gents' four-in-hands, neck scarfs reduced from 50c to 25c and 24c, and from 75c to 45c. Mens' heavy all wool winter caps reduced from 50c and 60c. to 25c. Mens' heavy undershirts and drawers reduced from 40c to 25c, better ones from 65c to 45c. And so the good work for those needing goods goes on.—Lyon & Co.

—All but two of the practitioners at the Centre county bar petitioned Judge Furst yesterday to continue on the bench until the expiration of his term of office. Acting on their petition he has decided not to resign and so notified the signers yesterday. The avoidance of complications that would naturally arise in the appointment of a successor to serve until Mr. Love is sworn in is given as the cause.

News Purely Personal

—Geo. T. Bush, of this place, left Monday evening for a ten day's business trip to North Carolina.

—Fred Blanchard, of Linn St. spent Tuesday in Philadelphia. He went down Monday evening and returned Wednesday.

—Postmaster N. H. Yearick, of Walker, is just home from a trip to Philadelphia, where he was laying in a stock of goods for his store. —Tom Givan, of State College, started Tuesday evening to Cincinnati Ohio, for his third and last year's work at the Medical School of the University.

—Sherman Spotts, of Unionville, is in Philadelphia where he hopes to find relief from an injury which he sustained sometime ago that threatens to cost him his sight.

—Miss Valeria Shissler who was the recipient of much attention during her six weeks stay with her relative Mrs. Louisa Bush left last Friday for her home in Detroit, Mich.

—Mrs. Sarah Kelley, of east Bishop street, left Saturday for Philadelphia, where she expects to spend the winter with her son Dave, who in addition to his duties at the Custom Ground Plaster, per ton..... 9 50 Barley, per bushel..... 48 Corn, per bushel..... 20 Buckwheat, per bushel..... 50 Cloverseed, per bushel..... $6 00 to $7 00

—Gen Hastings left his home here Tuesday morning for a trip to nobody knows where. He went ostensibly to rest from the fatigue of the recent campaign but truly to escape the horde of office seekers that has besieged him ever since the day of his election.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Brew, of Brew Mawr, Md., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Brew's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Jackson, on east Linn street. As their guest they brought with them the hospitality of the Jackson home.

—Two very pleasant gentlemen who had business at this office yesterday were W. H. Noll Sr. of Pleasant Gap, who was in town taking out letters of administration on his father's estate. Mr. Cyrus Brumgard was up from his home in Millinist, Pa. looking as ever, dropped in to see if we were any the worse for the election.

—Howard B. Hartswick Esq., of Clearfield, was in town on Tuesday. He represented his county as a return judge for this Senatorial district which met here to declare the election of Mr. M. L. McQuown. He is a relative of the Centre county Hartwicks and a young man of most pleasing address. He spent a few days with his uncle Col. J. P. Caburn, at Aaronburg.

—Mr. W. A. Stierrett drove over the mountains from his home near Milroy, on Tuesday evening, to pay Bellefonte friends the first visit he has made them in a decade. He is a very pleasant gentleman who looks on the cheerful side of the recent Democratic defeat and thinks the party will be all the stronger for it in 1896. He is a full cousin of Robert McCalmont of McCalmont & Co. of this place.

THE LAW ON BILL POSTING.—If any of our readers are annoyed with bill posters who plaster their barns, fences and out-buildings with flaming bills of one sort or another the following extract from the law relating to such action will be a good one to bear in mind.

It was passed June 8, 1881, and is as follows: "If any person or persons shall, without the consent of the owner or owners thereof, wilfully daub, paint advertisements or post placards upon, or otherwise deface the walls of any buildings, house or houses, or the fences around the yard or yards connected therewith, or any fence surrounding or enclosing any vacant inlots, farm or farms, or shall cause the same to be done by others, such offenders shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding $25 and undergo an imprisonment not exceeding 30 days, or both, at the discretion of the court." The best way for advertisers to reach the people is through the newspapers.

—The latest styles and the best qualities at the lowest prices you have ever known. Samuel Lewin's.

—Boys overcoats from $1 and $1.25 up.—Lyon & Co.

—The hole in rocks up in Patton township which a number of Bellefonte news making correspondents have described as a beautiful cave, filled with bewildering calcareous formations should be seen to be appreciated. It is on the farm of Mr. Wesley Gray, on what is called the old Julian pike, and is really nothing more than a hole that was uncovered by some people from the Bald Eagle valley who were quarrying stone for a lime pit. The opening goes straight down between two rocks and is about 2 feet square. It ends in a chamber about 6x15 from which place the ripple of an underground stream can be heard. So far as its having been frescoed with hieroglyphics and pictures and littered with wooden and stone instruments of ancient construction such a story is all the product of Bellefonte newsmakers who are humbugging city papers for the money they get out of it. A WATCHMAN correspondent explored it last Saturday and found it to be nothing more than an unusual crevice in a naturally open strata of lime stone rock.

—A half hour spent in looking over our assortment will give you a fair idea of the popular styles and we can only hope that it will be as much pleasure for you to see as for us to show our goods.—Samuel Lewin's.

—John H. Reed, conductor, and S. H. Blake, brakeman, of a Beech Creek freight train were run over and killed at Gordon Heights last Wednesday. Reed's train was side tracked to await another train's passing and the two unfortunate men were sitting on the track behind when it suddenly backed up killing them both. Reed was originally a resident of Philipsburg, but lately lived at the V. aduct. Blake's home was at Columbia Cross Roads.

—A fine assortment, a fine grade of goods, a fair price to all at Lewin's

—A big lot of men's heavy grey underwear actual value 50c at 37c. Another lot actual 45c, our price 25c. Lyon & Co.

—We have been unanimously elected to fill the office, (for an indefinite period) of supplying the people with clothing, hats and gentlemen's furnishing goods. Don't take newspaper prices, but come here and handle the clothing and get our prices. This is merchandising, and this is the proper way to do business. Any other way may suit some people—but
