DISEASE GERMS IN MILK. - The es tablishment of a new department in The Pennsylvania State College Dairy School, especially for creamerymen, recognizes the existence of disease germa in the milk of infected cows. The q estion as to the danger of tuberculosis and consumption, diphtheria, typhoid and scarlet fever and allied diseases being disseminated through the milk and butter made from the milk of cows that are infected has become more than mere conjecture. The fact that such transmission of diseases are not only possible, but actually occurring every day has made a great demand for milk and dairy products that are known to be absolutely free from these death dealing germs. Always leading in matters of such vital import the experiment station has sent out a report that heating milk to a temperature of 165° to 185° will effectually destroy all disease germs that effectually destroy all disease germs that may be contained in it, and at the same time the flavor of the milk or cream will not be affected in the least. There will be a tendency for such milk to keep pure be a tendency for such milk to keep pure and sweet much longer than milk that has not been thus treated.

In connection with the dairy school at the college, which begins its regular mession January 2nd and closes February 13th there has been established a course geived. of instruction in the pasteurization of milk under such an eminent instructor as Mr. H. B. Gurler. The study of dairy bacteriology will be taken up also, so that there will be given an opportunity for all to get some valuable information on the subject. The necessary apparatus has been ordered and when the term opens everything will be in readiness for a careful and practical study of the subject. It ought to be taken advantage of by every dairyman in the State. Since the matter is of such vital im-portance to the health of the people, a thorough comprehension of it should be had by all who make a business of sell-ing butter or milk. In truth we are al-most persuaded that a State enactment should be passed requiring all such dealers to adopt some process of sterilizing their milk before it is sold or churned into butter.

Any information on the subject that may be wanted can be had by addressing Prof. H. J. Waters, Professor of Agriculture, at State College.

DUNDAY. - On Sunday Rev. H. A. Grant, pastor of St. Paul's church, will have three preaching services at each one of which Rev. W. H. Brown, the presiding elder, will preach. Morning service at 10:30; in the afternoon at 3 o'clock, in commemoration of the Lord's supper, and evening service at 7 o'clock.

GRATITUDE.

M. V. THOMAS. Oh, Father, Thou hast led us on our way;

We blindly following, where we could not see,

Through all life's changing scene from day to day;

And, thou hast kept us always close to Thee For Thy great care and kindly guidance, we Lift up our hearts in gratitude to Thee.

How oft, the dark clouds, that hang over us Are but to draw us nearer to Thy side ? Oft in the sunlight, far away we rove ;

But from life's tempests close to Thee we hide

Oh, for the shelter of Thy strong arm, we Lift up our hearts in gratitude to Thee,

If thou tak'st, from us, some valued treasure, It may be one we love, alas ! too well. It may be some, too fondly treas ured idol, Thou takest for our good. We cannot tell. Oh, for Thy tender love and mercy, we Lift up our hearts in gratitude to Thee:

If sometimes, in the pride of strength and power,

We stride forth, trusting in our human arm But to return with heart sore, bruised and bleeding. It is to keep us out of greater harm, Oh, for Thy tender care uuceasing, we

Lift up our hearts in gratitude to Thee

Books, Magazines Etc.

The Christmas number of The Art Interchange is a delightful one, and carries the spirit of the holiday season through its pages. The number opens with an engraving of John La Farge's scene of the Nativity at Bethlehem, followed by the second part showing the Arrival of the Magi, from the double mural painting in the Church of the Incarnation, New York, accompanied by a Christmas Hymn, by Richard Watson Gilder, which seems almost to have been written for these pictures. An Appreciation on Mr. La Farge follows, which recognizes him as a gen ius of no common order.

A full index of the year's number accompanies the issue, which shows the wide field covered by this popular magazine. The cover for the month is printed in gold and has a festal appearance. Altogether it is a fitting crown for a brilliant year in the life of this popular monthly.
