Bellefonte, Pa., Jan. 4, 1895.

THE THREE WORK DAYS.

So much to do, so little done! In sleepless eyes I saw the sun; His beamless disk in darkness lay, The dreadful ghost of Yesterday!

THE VAN DECKER PARTY.

It was on the last evening of '92 that the Van Decker girls gave their leap-year party. At 8 o'clock that evening Miss Margaret Van Decker stood before the glass in the front chamber of the old Van Decker house buttoning her gloves.

Every Town Has A liar. A sponger. A smart Aleck. A blatherskite. Its richest man. Some pretty girls. A girl who giggles. A west'er prophet. A neighborhood feud. Half a dozen lunatics. A woman who tattles. A justice of the peace. A man who knows it all. One Jacksonian Democrat. More loafers than it needs. Men who see every dog fight. A boy who cuts up in church. A few middle-class old women. "Thing" that starts at women. A stock law that is not enforced. A widower that is gay for his age. Some men who make remarks about women.

A young man who laughs every time he says anything. A few who know how to run the affairs of the country. A girl who goes to the postoffice every time the mail comes in. A legion of smart Alecks who can tell the editor how to run his paper. Scores of men with the caboose of their trousers worn smooth as glass. A man who grins when he says talk and laughs out loud after he has said something.—Ez.

Paintings and designs by Bartram Hiles, an armless artist, are now on exhibition in London, Mr. Hiles lost his arms, close to the shoulder, when a child in being run over by a horse car, and is obliged to paint holding the brush between his lips. He won, nevertheless, in open competition, the national scholarship of $500 a year at South Kensington, and at the same time obtained a first prize for modeling in clay. He paints landscapes.—New York Herald.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure. For sale by F. P. Green.

The existence of a horse with a large toe attached to each hoof has been announced from Frankfort, Kent, Eng. This seems to be a reversion to a primitive type, the toe being a feature of the extinct animals discovered by Marsh and pronounced by Huxley the progenitors of our horses.

Dr. Shields, an eminent physician of Tennessee, says: "I regard Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood-purifier known, and I know of many wonderful cures effected by its use." Physicians all over the land have made similar statements.

Knowledge is never power unless one has wisdom enough to rightly employ it.

Hood's Pills cures liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

Tourists.

It is the Leader. The new map time table or "folder" (as it is known in railroad parlance) issued by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Co., gives the time of trains to and from Chicago and all the principal cities in the West; contains a new geographical correct map of the United States, as well as some valuable information for persons that are contemplating a trip West. It will be sent free to any address upon application to J. R. POTT, District Passenger Agent, Williamsport, Pa. Write for one of them.
