

FOSTER WATHER TO COME.—My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from 2d to 7th and from 8th to 12th. The next will reach the Pacific coast about 13th, cross the western mountain country by close of 14th, the great central valley from 15 to 17th and the eastern states about the 18th. Rainfall accompanying this disturbance will be about average and the temperature will average below that of the week previous. The last ten days of this month will average colder and bring more rainfall than the ten days preceding. Severe weather, a western blizzard and other severe storms may be expected from 21st to 31st. The warm wave will cross the western mountain country about 13th, the great central valleys about the 15th and the eastern states about 17th. The cool wave will cross the western mountain country about 16th the great central valleys about 18th and the eastern states about 20th.

WINCHESTER ON TRIAL.—The trial of Amasa Winchester for the murder of William Reeder began in Lock Haven Tuesday morning. The murderer appeared in court and seemed very little affected by the gravity of his crime and when the clerk asked him "guilty or not guilty" he stood straight as an arrow and in a firm voice answered: "not guilty."

Beside him sat his father and cousin, Miss Shaffer. The preliminaries being hurried through with the work of empanelling a jury began. This took some time, for thirty two names were called before twelve that were satisfactory could be selected. The jury men are these: C. Herman, Noyes township, laborer; H. C. Chatham, Crawford township, huckster; Ellery Tobias, Woolrich, clerk; George W. Bower, Mill Hall, axe maker; John Arnold, North Bend, laborer; Irvin I. Fergus, Dunstons, laborer; David Hahn, Sugar Valley, farmer; William A. Hanna, Woodward, farmer; Saul Kryder, Bald Eagle township, laborer; A. B. Sperring, Bald Eagle township, farmer; Joseph W. Hubbard, Beech Creek township, farmer; David Baird, Dunstable township, farmer.

The crime for which they are trying Winchester was committed on September 5th, '94. Winchester had become involved in altercation with Joseph Moore in Peck's pool room and had cut Moore in the back. William Reeder stepped up to Winchester and attempted to have him put away his knife. Winchester turned on Reeder, stabbed him in the neck and inflicted several cuts on his head and neck. Reeder staggered back through the room, fell to the floor and soon breathed his last. Winchester was arrested shortly after.

A LETTER FROM THE LAND OF THE MORMONS.—Many of our readers will remember Larry Curtin, who lived in the Bald Eagle Valley a few years ago and who left this country to become an attaché of the Ouray Indian reservation service away in Utah. From time to time the WATCHMAN received entertaining letters from him, after he had gone, but we had heard nothing of him for a long time until the following which he had written to a friend was mailed us. He says:

"I am still among the Utes, but have never been able to get my old place back which I lost at the incoming of the present administration, in connection with the Ouray Agency. There was a man sent out to Ouray to take charge there who is a personal friend of Armstrong's the Commissioner's clerk for Indian settlements, in place of Col. Byrnes who was appointed one of the Commissioners to settle the Indians. I was very sorry to hear of Uncle Andrew's death. Happening to be at Ouray at the time the news reached there, Col. Byrnes who is a Pennsylvanian, sent for me on Sunday, had all the employees of the Agency gathered in the office and read to us Col. McClure's eulogy from the Phila. Times. Byrnes is a fine reader and thinks this the best thing he ever saw in print. Col. Byrnes was also a great friend of the late I. Irvin Gregg. He was under Gregg in the army and is continually inquiring about him. Would like to have some particulars regarding him also a photograph if you can get hold of one. It would all be highly appreciated. I have decided to settle down on a ranch on the reservation. There is very little good land in the Ouray Reserve but the Unita (where I am) is all good land. It will take the Coms. a year before they get through with Ouray reserve after which they will commence on this one." Yours etc. L. B. CURTIN.

In Memoriam.
At a regular stated meeting of Halfmoon Lodge No. 845 I. O. O. F., of Pennsylvania the following resolutions were adopted:
WHEREAS: Death has again entered our Lodge, and taken from our number, our beloved brother O. G. Geo. B. Biddle, who died Dec. 28th, aged 47 years 2 months and 18 days, and,
WHEREAS: Brother Biddle was a charter member of our Lodge, always active and watchful for its best interests, therefore be it,
Resolved: That in the death of brother Biddle the lodge has lost a valuable member, and the community an esteemed citizen, and we deeply deplore the loss, realizing that it is not our loss alone, but that of a mother, brother and sisters. Therefore be it
Resolved: That Halfmoon Lodge tender their heartfelt sympathy and condolence to the family of our deceased brother.
Resolved: That our charter be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days, a copy of these resolutions be entered on our minutes and a copy be sent to the family of our deceased brother, also be published in two county papers:

Pine Grove Mention

James A. B. Miller continues to smile over his Christmas present. His wife has named her Ruth.

This being the week of prayer more than the usual interest is being manifested in the union meetings held in the Presbyterian church. The attendance so far has been exceptionally good.

For several days, the beginning of the week the jingle of the sleigh bells were stopped by the rain, but the weather on Tuesday night, lowered the mercury sufficiently to make the sleighing very good again.

C. S. Fortney, one of Potter Twp. trustees, accompanied by his wife tarried this week a short time with his brother-in-law O. B. Krebs. They were on their way to the Mountain City for a brief vacation.

Squire Keller and wife with their babe went to Jefferson hospital this week where they purpose having an operation performed on their baby's lip and palate. We trust the operation will be successful and the precious life of the little one be spared.

Last Friday Charles Thomas, one of O. M. Whipple's, Stone Valley's lumber king, employees, was caught between two moving logs and had his leg broken below the knee. Dr. Biglow adjusted the break and he is resting comfortably at the home of the proprietor.

The sudden and sad death of Albert Martz which occurred at Kensington, last Friday, was wired to his parents here who will likely have his body raised and brought here for interment. Young Martz, who was about 23 years old, was a glass blower at the above place, and from what we can learn was one of the victims of the explosion last week. He will be remembered as the crack base-ball pitcher during last season with our nine. The family have the sympathy of the community in this their sad hour.

Last Saturday evening the elected officers of Tussey council No. 515 were installed for the ensuing term. The auditor's settlement show a balance on hand of $120.00 and the council is in a flourishing condition. For councillor, J. C. Gates; J. V. J. Garbrick; Sec. W. B. Ward; Asst. Sec. J. C. Ward; O. S. Frank Krebs; I. S. W. Slegle; conductor, Walter Shutz; warden, J. S. Keller; financial Sec., J. C. Murphy; Treas. J. A. Decker; Chapl., G. W. Ward; trustees, S. A. Dunlap, J. C. Gates, C. H. Marz.

DREIBELIS-EWING.—A very pretty wedding took place at noon on the 3rd at the home of the bride's father, Hezekiah Ewing, near Fairbrook, when his daughter, Miss Mattie, gave her hand and heart to Martin Dreibelis. Rev. J. C. Armentrout assisted by the Rev. A. A. Black tied the matrimonial knot so tight that it will be exceedingly hard to even loosen. Miss Linnie, a sister of the bride was maid of honor and John Dreibelis, a brother of the groom, was best man. The ceremony was witnessed by a goodly number of relatives and friends, who heaped congratulations on the happy couple and did ample justice to the splendid dinner. The bride and groom left on the afternoon train for the State Capitol where they staid until Saturday night. On their return they were given a reception at Daniel Dreibelis', which was a very pleasant social affair. The groom is a well to do farmer, a good whole souled fellow and is to be congratulated on securing such a good wife, who will do her part in making his home comfortable and happy.

Obituary.

Mrs. Letitia T. Holt, wife of the Hon. J. H. Holt, of Moshannon, Centre Co. Pa., departed this life, at her home on the morning of Dec. 13, 1894, in her sixty third year. Her death was sudden and unexpected. She had not been very well for some time, but there was nothing alarming, as she was attending to her household duties, as usual. On the Sabbath before she attended church and seemed unusually happy, though she was always of a happy temperament. On that day she was made especially happy in witnessing one of her sons, who with five others, made a public profession of his faith in Christ, and in the afternoon she stood sponsor for one of her grandchildren who was baptized at her home in the presence of her husband and family. It was the chief joy of her life to be engaged in her Lord's service. She united with the Lick Run Presbyterian church when about 15 or 16 and every year only the more confirmed her faith, hope and trust in Christ her saviour. She was faithful in her attendance at the house of God, whenever it was possible for her. She is aptly described in Proverbs 31, 10-31 "Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies etc". She has left a husband, six sons and one daughter many grandchildren, the community and the church to mourn their great loss.

She died of Apoplexy. In a moment her redeemed spirit passed from the cares of earth to the joys of Heaven. Her funeral was attended by a very great concourse of friends and neighbors—"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

Books, Magazines Etc.

An old-fashioned sea story full of interest and adventure, with a strong love motive, is begun by W. Clark Russell in the January Cosmopolitan. "Quilda" succeeds Froude, Gosse, Lang, and other distinguished writers with an instalment of the "Great Passions of History" series, which has been appearing in The Cosmopolitan. A discussion is aroused by Mr. Edward Bok's article on "The Young Men and The Church," which will consume tons of ink before it is settled. Just preceding the famous Charcot's death he prepared an article for The Cosmopolitan on Pasteur, to be published after Pasteur's death. But Charcot has died first, and so with the consent of Charcot's executors, the article is given now. The present "Theatrical Season in New York" is critically considered by Mr. James S. Metcalfe, editor of Life, and there are stories by Tourge, Howells, and the famous French writer Francois Coppee.

A New March.—A special musical gift to all readers of our paper. The very latest musical composition to enlist popular approval is "The Broad Street Conservatory March," composed by a young Philadelphian, Roland H. Smith, a pupil of the popular institution to which his work is dedicated. The piano part of this excellent march has just been issued, and through a special arrangement with the author we are enabled to present a copy free to every reader of this paper who will send name and address, enclosing this notice and 6 cents in stamps to cover mailing and postage, to The Broad Street Conservatory of Music 1331 South Broad Street, Philadelphia. The retail price of the March is 40 cents and this is an offer that should be appreciated by our musical friends.

The River Is Up.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., January 8.—The booming high water in the Susquehanna river at this point has been held within the banks by the cessation of the rain and colder weather. The river fell only half a foot all day. People along the river feel easier to-night.

Whipped In.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The democratic caucus adopted the resolution offered by Mr. Crisp favoring the Carliete currency bill as amended, by a vote of 81 to 59, and then adjourned.

Under Water.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., January 8.—The entire lower part of Homestead is under water. The Carnegie works were compelled to shut down this morning on account of the flood, which disabled their pumps. The plant will probably be able to resume on Friday.
