

Pine Grove Mention

Supervisor Dennis has a brigade of shovelers out opening the roads for the traveling public.

The ex-Sheriff Walker farm on the branch was finally sold after several postponements. A. G. Archey was the purchaser at $32,000 per acre.

Week after next a series of lectures will be given in the Presbyterian church of this place by that eminent divine Dr. McKinley, of Clearfield. Everybody is invited.

We are glad to say that our report of the Hewitt fire was somewhat exaggerated, for while the daughter was badly frozen she did not have her legs amputated.

The venerable J. M. Piper, of Alexandria, Huntingdon county, with his wife faced the gale last week to enjoy the hospitality of their son, Jesse B., on Main street.

Mrs. Homan widow of the late John Homan, who we previously noted as sick from an attack of paralysis is so ill from gangrene that there was no hope of her life.

Last week Mr. J. M. Isonstine one of Milfill county's extensive and successful agriculturists sleighed over the Seven Mountains from Lewistown to visit his old time friend G. W. McWilliams who is still closely confined to his room with riles.

The venerable J. S. McCormick marshalled out his forces on election day, and as usual was full of reminiscences of previous like occasions. In 1843, the election was held in March and only seventeen of them succeeded in shoveling their way through the drifts to the place of election.

Next Sunday afternoon our village will have an opportunity to hear Miss Annie Forest, sister of Rev. Forest, of the Methodist church, lecture on the Missionary question. She is endowed with more than ordinary ability, and, as she spent six years in Japan working for the cause and brought home with her many native costumes, the lecture promises to be a treat.

Henry Stover, of Altoona City, came over the drifts to visit his invalid brother Daniel M. near Pine Hall. We are glad to see the old veteran so hale hearty for one of his years, he was one of the old pioneers who helped clear and break the fertile acres about the State College, and saw active service during the civil war, as a member of Co. A. 205 Regt. P. V. which was connected with the ninth Army Corps.

Last week during the blizzard which Mrs. Amos Cook, who lives on the George Y. Meek farm at Fairbrook, was attending to her domestic duties she heard an unusual crackling sound and seeing much smoke suspected in an instant the cause. She rushed up stairs with two buckets of water and succeeded in drowning out a fire which in a few minutes would have enveloped the whole house. This is the third time the house has taken fire from a defective flue and yet it is not insured.

The election last Tuesday was rather quiet, considering the unusual large turn out of voters, who shoveled through the drifts, to exchange long pent-up thoughts on the county poor house question, which is really a matter of great importance to the taxpayer. Ferguson township however did not support it for only six votes, 2 in the East precinct and 4 in the West, were cast for it. The entire ticket was elected with the old time majority, with the exception of road supervisor in the W. P.

G. W. Keichline the regular Democratic nominee and one of the best men on the ticket, was defeated by the kickers and scratchers voting for a third candidate thus electing the Republican supervisor.

On the 18th inst., Jacob Markle of this place received notice of the death of his younger brother Jesse, who died of paralysis at his home near Bealburg on Feb. 11th, aged 74 years, 6 months and 7 days. His health has been declining for several months but his death was very unexpected. Early in life he connected himself with the Reformed church, and when possible was faithful in attending to church duties. Politically he was an old time Democrat, staunch and true. Mr. Markle was a native of York Co., and came to Centre county sixty-five years ago. He was the father of nine children, seven daughters and two sons, who with their widowed mother, a number of brothers and his aged mother now nearly a centenarian, mourn the loss of a kind generous friend. He was buried on the 19th in the Bealburg cemetery with the Rev. Bickel officiating.

Books, Magazines Etc.

One of the most interesting periods in Napoleon's career—his marriage with Josephine—is reached in Prof. Sloane's life of Napoleon in the March Century. Prof. Sloane describes Josephine as a successful intriguer in matters both of politics and of pleasure, and as versed in the arts of coquetry and dress. He says there is no doubt that Napoleon was madly, desperately in love with the widowed Creole, whose physical charms were already fading.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIALS Given Eye Sight and Relieved of Pain After 20 Years Suffering by Dr. Salm.

For over twenty years my eye-lashes have been turning in, and consequently they rubbed on the eye-ball, keeping the same always inflamed and very painful. In order to have a little relief I had to have the eye-lashes pulled out every few days. As the result of all this, my left eye went totally blind, and the right eye was going the same way very rapidly. I put myself under the care of Dr. Salm, and to-day I am happy to state that I am not troubled any more with the lashes, as they grow in their normal direction, and the sight of the right eye has improved to a great extent, I am wonderfully cured.

Coburn, Centre Co., Pa. JACOB EMERICK. After Having Tried Five Different Doctors and a Wagon-Load of Different Patent Medicines, I Grew Worse and Worse, and was at Last Cured by Dr. Salm.

For more than 8 years I was troubled with Dyspepsia and Intestinal Indigestion, I suffered untold agonies; only ate enough to keep me alive, and toward the last I could not keep on my feet any more. During all this time I must have taken a wagon-load of different patent medicines and tried 5 of our different doctors in the county, but grew worse and worse. None of them made the correct diagnosis, until I went to Dr. Salm at Tyrone. He told me at once that I had a new man Mrs. CARRIE PECHT. Sandy Ridge, Centre Co., Pa.

Once More Fate and Hearty. For more than 5 years I have had a bad eye trouble, etc., miserable case of Dyspepsia, felt generally very bad, became very thin and pale and never had any appetite. But now, after only a few months' treatment with Dr. Salm, I have gained very much in flesh, my Dyspepsia is cured, and my eyes are as well as anyone, and I consider myself, thanks to the good Doctor, once more hale and hearty.

Snow Shoe, Centre Co., Pa. MISSIE KELLY, Attested by her Mother, SARAH KANE. Suffered Untold Agonies for 15 Years—Tried 7 Different Doctors But Grew Worse.

For the last fifteen years I have been suffering very much; have been treated by seven different doctors. Nearly all of them gave me allment a different name, but none gave me relief accordingly. The result was that I became worse and worse until at last I went to Dr. Salm, who pronounced my disease to be of the bladder, kidneys and stomach, and treated me accordingly with the most splendid result. He has done me more good in one month than all the others in fifteen years; and I feel once more like I did sixteen years ago; no feeling of tiredness and fatigue as heretofore, I can do my work and enjoy it; that was an impossibility heretofore.

Milesburg, Centre Co., Pa. Mrs. NENTIE POORMAN. Ailed for Twelve Years, and, Though Seven Different Doctors Failed, Dr. Salm Cured Me.

For more than twelve years I suffered tortures with liver, stomach and kidney trouble. Occasionally I had to go to bed for a week at a time, and was unable to work for years; but now, after only a few months' treatment with Dr. Salm, I feel better than I ever did before. I used piles of patent medicines, and had seven different physicians, but gradually grew worse. However, since I put myself under Dr. Salm's treatment I improved gradually, and now can do as good a day's work as any one. I can certainly recommend the Doctor to those suffering from chronic diseases of any kind. J. A. GAMBLER, D. S. Rebersburg, Centre Co., Pa.

Offensive Smell of Catarrh of 8 Years Standing Cured by Dr. Salm.

Our little daughter Katie has had a case of Catarrh for more than 8 years; her general health was something terrible, and her general health was very much undermined; but now, after a course of treatment with Dr. Salm, we consider her entirely cured.

Nittany, Centre Co., Pa. Mrs. ALICE ROSS. Diseases of woman, such as have baffled the skill of other physicians and remedies, quickly cured. Cancers, tumor, fibroid, and poly-ploid growth cured without the use of the knife or caustics. No cutting, no pain, no danger. Manhood perfectly restored.
