THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

Dinner at the Gregg post rooms to-day.

The Zion normal institute will open in April for its spring and summer term.

Beaver & Dale have their law offices now located in Temple Court, first floor south.

Fourteen snows have fallen thus far this winter, having an aggregate depth of fifty-six inches.

As soon as the machinery is set in place the Mill Hall brick works will be ready to resume operations.

J. C. Harper, Esq., has been drawn as a petit juror to serve the United States court at Scranton, in March.

There were a great many strangers in town on Wednesday. A number of them came in as return judges, no doubt.

The new judicial apportionment of the State makes Centre a separate district and tacks Huntingdon on to Millifield county.

A freight train ran off the track at Julian last evening and blocked the tracks so that the 4:52 express did not reach here until 6:55.

Boynton, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Daggett's dear little baby, who has been dangerously ill for days, is thought to be on a fair way to recovery now.

T. B. Everet, a Coburn merchant, intends leaving that place in April and locating at Trout Run, Lyeoming county, where he will run a hotel.

Miss Lucinda White, of Lamar, who died last December bequeathed $50 to the Presbyterian church at Mill Hall, and an equal amount to the missionary society of that church.

Governor and Mrs. Hastings will give a reception to their friends in and out of the State on next Tuesday evening. The U. S. Senators, Congressmen and State Judiciary are among the elect.

Mr. D. C. Stine, who was injured recently, while inspecting cars on the C. R. R. of Pa., is able to be about again. On Tuesday he walked up to the West ward polls and voted. His friends were all pleased to note his recovery.

It is said that the ground on the A. G. Curtin farm near Centre Hall is frozen to a depth of nearly four feet. Joel Kerstetter, the tenant is having great trouble in digging up his water pipes which are all frozen, even at that depth.

The sign "for men only" was attracting a great many people up to peep in a little hole in one of Montgomery & Co's clothing display windows during the fore part of the week. A lot of fine suspenders were to be seen inside.

The musical convention at Pleasant Gap, last week, was a great success and wound up with concerts on Friday and Saturday nights. The gross receipts of the concerts having been $148.22. It was held under the auspices of the Lutheran church.

The C. O. B. ball in the Armory attracted a large crowd of people last night and the Undine orchestra made fine music for the dance, which was a great success, thanks to the untiring efforts of Mr. Wireman Noll and his fellow committee men.

After Monday morning a slight change will be made in the running of two Bellefonte Central R. R. trains. The morning train will leave here at 6:30 instead of 7 o'clock and the train that now leaves State College at 1:50 p. m. will not leave there until 2:30.

Mrs. Mary Vail, widow of the late Thomas Vail, after whom the station at the junction of the B. E. V. and T. and C. railroads, was named, died near Philipsburg recently in her 82nd year. She lived with her husband for many years in the Bald Eagle valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kurtz are now in Lewistown attending the funeral of Mrs. Kurtz's brother, George L. Thomas, of Bradock, who died in that city Sunday morning after a long illness. He leaves a wife and daughter to mourn for a faithful and devoted husband and father.

The time tables for all railroads touching Bellefonte are correct as published in this paper and our readers need have no fear of relying on them. But don't, do as a fine old Ferguson township gentleman did once, read the time table backwards then blame the WATCHMAN for having made him miss his train.

While driving in a sleigh to Bellefonte, Warren Hanscom's clothing caught fire, while coming along Wallace run, and before he could get the fire out it had burned a large hole in the seat of his trousers and part of his coat tail off. Some valuable papers that were in his pocket were destroyed. Upon reaching Milesburg Mr. Kohlbecker loaned him clothes to wear up here.

THE ELECTION THE COUNTY OVER.

The results of the election held last Tuesday in the various precincts of Centre county are given below. While a few trifling errors may be found; on the whole they can be relied on as authentic, for the returns are exactly as filed at the Prothonotary's office. The election was an unimportant one, so far as making political calculations is concerned, for while the heavy snows kept many voters at home in the country districts, usually Democratic, there was an abnormally large poll in the Republican boroughs of Bellefonte and Philipsburg, where local fights stirred the voters almost to a presidential campaign pitch.

The sentiment of the people in the county is recorded as against the building of a county poor house, as it was defeated by a vote of 2375 to 4008, giving a majority of 1633 against it. Whatever bickering and trouble might have arisen over Tuesday's contest had better be forgotten. After all it was only a local fight and any unpleasantness that found its birth then will only tend to injure the party in the future, if kept alive.

THEY DID NOT ABANDON THEIR ENGINES.—The report that the two crews of men who left here on the morning of the 8th inst., during the blizzard to run the train on the Bellefonte Central to State College had left their engines at Fillmore, after drawing the fires, is untrue. Notwithstanding that the snow blew higher than the train, after they were stuck, they kept up the fires and melted snow for the boilers until the train was shovelled out, two days later. Engineers Jerre Nolan and Jacob Rapp, with their firemen, were in charge and they are not the kind of men who quake at even such a storm as that was. The people of the vicinity of Fillmore were very kind in carrying the trainmen their meals while they were snow bound.

A CAREFUL TEACHER.—An incident of the recent big storm in this county that we forgot to mention last week was the care Mr. W. F. Leathers, a Howard township teacher, took in getting his pupils home through the storm. When time for school to dismiss came, on Friday evening, the teacher saw that it would be extremely hazardous to allow his scholars to start alone to their distant homes through the blinding storm, so he formed them in a chain and as leader he landed the whole school safely at the home of W. T. Leathers, a director, who lived some distance away. The children had to remain there over night and most of them were sent home on the train next day.

"CHARLEY'S AUNT."—"Charley's Aunt" will undoubtedly make a big sensation here. It is one of the funniest farce comedies ever written, and has won enthusiastic success wherever presented. The plot turns on the escapades of a couple of college students who give a luncheon in their rooms to a couple of young ladies, at which the act of one young man is expected to act as a chaperone. She fails to arrive, however, and a smooth-faced student is dressed up as a woman to take her place. From this a starting point springs a great series of laughable situations. At Garman's, March 2nd.

REDCUED RATES ACCOUNT OF G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.—The Beech Creek Railroad will have on sale February 25th to 28th inclusive, round trip tickets to Williamsport, from all points on its line, at one way fare for the round trip, good to return until March 2nd, 1895. This arrangement makes a very low rate for a trip to Williamsport, and certainly should have a tendency to attract a large number of people to attend the G. A. R. Encampment, February 27th and 28th.

The forgers at the No. 8 axe factory in Mill Hall expect an advance in wages soon.

The story is being circulated now that the oranges are not all frozen in Florida.

There is a great opportunity for you to make a nice saving in your purchases. Read Lyon & Co's, advertisements and see the inducements they offer you.

A broken rail on the Beech Creek railroad, at Morrisdale, on Friday, caused the piling up of thirty-one loaded coal cars.

You are losing money every moment you defer in reading Lyon & Co's, big advertisement.

The town of Falls Creek is on its ear because Congressman Hopkins has had the post-office there located at an out of the way point in order to boom some real estate.

Refreshments will be served at any hour at the Gregg post rooms today. Visit the rooms. It will not be long any more that you will be able to patronize the old soldiers.

The directors of the Salt Lick oil and gas company have decided to go ahead and sink another prospecting well, though the last one, near Kartthouse, was a failure as far as finding paying quantities of gas or oil was concerned. The new well will be begun as soon as the weather permits.

Lyon & Co's, mammoth store in this place is crowded every day with people who are wise enough to take advantage of the great sacrifice sale now advertised by that firm.

The revival in progress at the A. M. E. church is meeting with unbounded success. Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Grant, having done evangelistic work among all classes of people, it is not at all surprising that everybody feels at home in the meetings conducted by them and that quite a number of white people have been converted at the meetings. The church never was as largely attended by all classes of people as it is now.

The creditors were left in a slick manner in the dissolution of the partnership existing between Jones & Caldwell, Tyrone furniture dealers. After the dissolution A. E. Jones took the store by mutual consent. On the following Monday he sold it to his brother, S. M. Jones. The same day, however, judgments to the amount of $17,000 were entered against Jones & Caldwell. The sheriff hurried down from Hollidaysburg to execute them, but by the time he arrived in Tyrone there was nothing there for him to attach.

On Tuesday evening of last week Harvey Rossman's house, near Brush Mountain, four miles east of Centre Hall, took fire from a defective flue and burned to the ground. Mr. and Mrs. Rossman were at the barn when they discovered the smoke issuing from the house. Thinking of his five year old boy, who was lying sick on a lounge in the house, Mr. Rossman hastened to his rescue. He was not too soon either for when he found the child under the lounge the smoke almost suffocated him before he could get out of the house. The boy was unconscious but soon recovered.

News Purely Personal.

Miss Birdie Noll is visiting Miss Robb in Lock Haven.

Miss Mary H. Linn and her brother Henry are in Philadelphia.

Miss Jennie Fauble, Governor Hastings' stenographer, came home last night for a short visit.

Albert C. Hoy has procured a position with a large manufacturing establishment at Providence, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumnerfield Flegle, of Philipsburg, were in town, Wednesday, on business and pleasure.

Mr. Claude Cook intends returning to this place, from his present home at Girard, Kansas, to locate permanently.

Madge and Katharine Krebs, daughters of ex-Judge Krebs, of Clearfield, are in town, the guests of Miss Myra Holiday.

John Weber was up from Howard Wednesday laughing all over his face and all because his brother Abe had been elected Burgess of Howard, the Bald Eagle valley metropolis.

Fergus Potter Esq., of Linden Hall, was in town Wednesday to bring in the official returns of Harris township. As is a custom with him, that we much enjoy, he dropped in for a few moments chat.

D. D. Woods Esq., came down from Tyrone on Monday to walk around Bellefonte a while between trains. It is beginning to look as if the genial "Dan" would about as soon live here as anywhere else.

Mrs. Parsons, one of the oldest residents of Bishop street, left Wednesday with her grand-daughter, Miss Sallie Walkey, for Paxson, where they will make their home with Mrs. Parsons's son Andrew.

Ex-County Commissioner A. J. Griest, the John Wanamaker of Unionville, was in town Monday morning limping around on two legs and a cane. He had been breaking the Sabbath, the day before, taking a sleigh ride and got dumped out in the snow as a punishment.

County Commissioner Frank Adams visited Snow Shoe and Philipsburg, during the latter part of last week. He was delivering the election tickets to the judges in the various precincts in that end of the county. It is said that Frank and his brother Richard, of Philipsburg, bear a confusing resemblance to each other.

MEMORIES.

WILL TRUCKENMILLER. I have just received your letter, Kate, And my eyes are dim with tears, As memory recalls again, The happy bygone years.

Again I see, embowered in trees, The dear old pleasant home, Whose door swung ever open wide, To welcome all who come.

I see your father's pleasant face, Your brothers, one and all; And down the dim aisles of the past I hear their voices call.

I see your willow, girlish form, Your well remembered face; I hear your happy laughter ring About the dear old place.

You tell me all are scattered now That one, alas! is dead, Rests in the silent village now, The sod above him spread.

Comfort; 'tis but the form of clay That rests beneath the sod, Himself, the gentle, kindly soul, Is safe at home with God.

And those who now are scattered far, Sometime shall cease to roam, And all shall reunite here With him in that fair home.

THE GRANGERS HAVING A GOOD TIME.—The members of the Beech Creek grange have been enjoying themselves this winter in consequence of the fine sleighing. For the last six weeks they have been visiting the different members. Nearly every night some twenty or more of them surprise a brother and spend a jolly evening with him and his family. Games and lots of refreshments combine to make a good time for all. Last Tuesday evening they besieged James Wilson, at Blanchard, and there the usual program was changed and Chas. Snyder was engaged to entertain the party with his phonograph. This he did to the great delight of all present. These fraternal visits are certainly most enjoyable and promote a feeling of good fellowship among the grangers.

DEATH OF MR. H. H. VANDYKE.—On last Wednesday evening Mr. Henry H. Vandyke, of Lock Haven, a prominent citizen died of appendicitis after an illness of only one day. Mr. Vandyke, who at one time lived in Bellefonte, was head of the hardware firm of Van Dyke and Co., a member of the city council and a prominent mason. He was 63 years old and leaves a comfortable fortune which he amassed in railroad contracting, to his wife, who was Miss Hannah McCoy, of this county, and his adopted daughter, Mrs. William Etsweiler, of Philadelphia.

WHERE YOU CAN BUY THE CHEAPEST.—It is a question of dollars and cents after all. No matter what people say it is as natural to save a penny in buying as it is to eat dinner at the dinner hour. Opportunities to make great savings are not often to be had, but Lyon & Co's, big advertisement in this issue affords just such a chance. Read it and profit by the bargains it holds out. A dollar saved is a dollar earned.

Public Sale during the coming season, we will keep a Register of all sales within the county as fully as possible, examination of which will be free to all. Persons having their bills printed at the Watchman office will secure notices of sale in this column free of charge. We will also supply each person having their bills printed here with sufficient notes, properly formed for public sales, for use at their sale.

March 23rd.—At the H. M. Meek farm 1 1/2 miles west of Pine Grove Mills, Aaron Lutz and wife, horses, cattle, hogs and farming implements. Sale at one o'clock p. m.

March 27th.—At Haag's Hotel, in Bellefonte, cow, hogs, hundreds of yards of carpet, furniture, bedding, all kinds of house furnishings and butchers materials. Sale at 9 o'clock a. m.

March 16th.—At the residence of Ulrich Straw, in Union township, 4 miles west of Unionville, horses, cows, cattle, pigs, wagons, implements, harness
