NOTE—In issuing notice to jurors a clerical error was made for traverse jurors, for the second week, to attend court the 1st Monday in May. Instead they are to serve on the 5th Monday of April, the 29th, 1895.

Pine Grove Mention

Mrs. Rebecca Ard, on Friday the 22nd, will offer at her home on Main street, a lot of household and kitchen furniture at public sale.

The Presbyterians of this place have called a congregational meeting for Monday the 11th, to elect trustees and transact such business as is needful.

We are glad to note the improvement of Mrs. Hannah Homan, who has been for several weeks at death's door with scarcely one chance for recovery.

The portly form of county Supt. Gramley was seen in this "township the early part of the week, He was here passing judgment on our schools and reported them all in good order.

Mrs. Matilda Rumberger recently, had a cancerous growth removed from the side of her head by Dr. G. H. Woods. She is getting along splendidly and would be altogether well were it not for rheumatism.

Last Saturday, two of Bellefontes legal lights. Post-master Fortney and Adjt. Quigley came up to solve the license problem. They report having been heard by the court which decreed no whiskey for the St. Elmo.

—Some days ago Mrs. Wm. Brouse fell on the ice and sustained what she thought was a sprained wrist. It did not improve under home treatment and Dr. G. H. Woods was sent for and he found not only a dislocated wrist but a broken arm. It is mending as fast as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beaver Miller have the sympathy of the entire community for the loss of their dear little son David L., who died at his parents home near Pine Hall on Friday the 1st after a short illness. He was buried in the Pine Hall cemetery Sunday the 3rd with Rev. C. T. Aikens officiating.

The venerable Geo. Kustoborder is in receipt of a letter from his son Levi, who lives in the drouth stricken section of Nebraska appealing for help to keep soul and body together. The letter states that he and hundreds of others are in destitute circumstances. Any contribution their Centre county friends can give will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged.

We recently had the pleasure of viewing Mr. Elmer C. Musser's herd of blooded stock. The latest addition to which is a pair of pure Poland China hogs. His flocks are not unlike Jacob's of old although the French merinoes show the effects of the long cold winter, and the poor innocent lambs, with wool as low as it is, acted as though they had not the courage to face their owner, who does not exactly agree with us in politics, but is none the less a hustler and a farmer. He is the kind every community should have and then there would be less mongrel stock raised.

The Rev. Dr. McKinley, one of the most popular if not the most fluent pulpit orators in the state, held forth in the Presbyterian pulpit every night this week. His coming was heralded and is always an occasion of joy irrespective of denomination. He deals with great themes and is thoroughly conversant with his topics so that he is never in want of a word. The series have been well attended, much interest has been manifested in the Doctor's teachings, and the seed about studying the Bible if you would understand and live by it, instead of carelessly and hastily leafing it over made a lasting impression on his hearers.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, in the wisdom of Providence our beloved school-mate, Mary Alice Robb, has been taken by the hand of death : Therefore be it.

Resolved, that we, the teacher and pupils of the Romola grammar school, sincerely deplore her loss.

Resolved, that the sudden removal of such a school-mate leaves a vacancy and shadow that will be deeply realized by all members of the school, and will prove a greivous loss to this community.

Resolved, that with deep sympathy with the afflicted parents and friends of the deceased, we express an earnest hope that even so great a bereavement may be over-ruled for their highest good.
