THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—The Bellefonte chicken thieves have been held for the April court.

—Read the new advertisements in the paper to-day. They will interest you.

—Take our word for it, the "County Fair," at Garman's to-night will be worth seeing.

—Gregg township's bill for shoveling snow out of the roads will foot up to more than $500.

—The State fisheries are said to have more requests for bass and yellow perch than they can fill this spring.

—George Bright, aged 83 years, Aaronsburg's oldest resident is confined to his home with a severe cold.

—The Milesburg mirth making aggregation will give a show and ball in Uzzle's hall at Snow Shoe to-night.

—The Undine fire company have decided on Monday evening, April 15th, as the one on which they will hold their annual Easter ball.

—"Doc" Pettigill, formerly of this place has gotten himself into trouble in Lycoming county, where he is under ball for his appearance in court to answer the charge of abortion on the person of May Hilton.

—On last Thursday evening Ira C. Mitchell Esq., married Samuel Marsh, to Miss Rebecca Stryker, both of Lock Haven. The wedding took place at Mr. Mitchell's home, on Spring street. The groom is nearly seventy years old.

—Everything is harmonious once more in the ranks of Co. B. 5th Reg. George L. Jackson has been elected 1st Lieut. Hugh S. Taylor Esq., having gracefully withdrawn from the contest and was then elected 2nd Lieut.

—Experiments are about being made at the old Bellefonte nail works buildings with a new process for making tin. A machine has been received and will soon be put up to try the process. General Beaver is interested in it.

—Michael Kelley died at his home near Valentine's iron works on last Saturday evening, after a severe illness with pneumonia. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church Tuesday morning. Deceased was about 20 years old.

—Tuesday, April 2nd, has been set as the day when the court will hear argument on the suit which the election boards of the North and South wards of this place have brought against the County Commissioners for pay for a second day, for having worked after mid-night of election day.

—On the inside pages of this issue will be found a full account of the proceedings of the recent Methodist Conference at Tyrone, and an exhaustive statement in proof that it was really butted that editor Palm, of Meadville, recently had on exhibition at the meeting of the State Dairymen's Association.

—The organ recital at the Presbyterian church last Thursday night is said to have been a decided success from an artistic stand point. Though we were not able to be present we have heard many eulogiums on Mr. Arthur Kitson's skill as an organist and that of Mr. Nowinski, the violinist. Leo B. Woodcock charmed the audience with his singing and the trio of artists gave a concert that was truly worth hearing.

—While George Derner, a farm employee of Harrison Kline, was securing saw dust from under the saw at Gettig's mill at Pleasant Gap, on Wednesday, he got so near the saw that it whizzed his hat off his head and touched his hair. The hat was thrown up on the floor above where the mill hands saw it and concluded at once that Derner had been killed. The machinery was stopped but only a badly frightened man was found below.

—Tonight the "County Fair" will be the attraction at Garman's. That the company is a first-class one is vouchsafed by the fact that it played all last week at the Grand opera house, the largest in Philadelphia, and in going west is stopping only at West Chester, Lancaster, Harrisburg, Bellefonte, Johnstown and Pittsburg in this State. Go to see it, and our word for it, you won't regret doing so.

—While M. Fauble and his son Joe, were driving in the pike past the Valentine iron works, on Sunday evening, their horse frightened at an immense board gate that had laid at the side of the road all winter. It gave one spang and turned the buggy completely over. Joe alighted on his feet, but Mr. Fauble fell heavily, though fortunately both escaped the injuries that certainly would have resulted had they been tangled in the wrecked buggy. The horse was caught by a tramp near Mr. Kelley's house.

DEATH OF A GOOD MAN.—Two weeks ago to-day Rev. George Elliott, pastor of the Unionville, Buffalo Run and Pine Grove Mills Presbyterian churches, left his home in this place in apparent good health for his work up the country.

Friday evening he preached an excellent sermon at Buffalo Run and Saturday, accompanied by Dr. McKinley, of Clearfield, drove to Pine Grove. Chilled and exhausted by the long, cold drive he was not able to be in the pulpit Sunday, but attended to church duties Monday and Tuesday, even when he was suffering much. He was somewhat better Wednesday, only for a short time, however, as the next day he was so seriously ill that Mrs. Elliott hastened to his side. Careful and intelligent nursing failed to have any effect and Friday evening he died of pleurisy at the home of John B. Mitchell, in Pine Grove.

Mr. Elliott was born in Wellsville, Ohio, Nov. 15th, 1825. In '46 he graduated at Duquesne College and entered the Allegheny Theological Seminary, where he studied more than a year. He finished his theological course at Princeton in 1849, and in June of the same year, was ordained by the Huntingdon Presbytery and installed pastor at Alexandria, where he staid until '68. For ten years he preached and did excellent work at Reedsville and then accepted a call to the 2nd Presbyterian church of Freeport, Ill., where he was in charge 'til '73. During his seven year's, 73-80, pastorate of the McEwensville, Warrior Run, and Watsontown charge he was chiefly instrumental in building the beautiful church at Watsontown, collecting a large part of the funds from his personal friends throughout the country. In '80 he took charge of the McConnellsbury church and from there went to Orbisonia and Newton Hamilton where he remained until '87 when he accepted a call from the Pine Grove Mills, Bald Eagle and Buffalo Run churches which he was serving at the time of his death.

In all these appointments he was largely successful while in several he was eminently so. Affable and kind Mr. Elliott was known and beloved by those who never heard him preach a sermon or conduct a service. As a preacher he was diligent, courageous and well liked. He was twice married, the second time to Miss Laura Wilson, daughter of the late Dr. W. I. Wilson, of Potter's Mills, who with his four sons, George M., of Chicago; W. W. and John H. of Denison, Tex., and James W., of Bangor, Pa., survive him.

On last Saturday his body was brought to his home in this place, and Wednesday afternoon Drs. Laurie, Matthews, Parker, and Rev. Kelley, Heany and Wright conducted the largely attended funeral services in the Presbyterian church. After which he was laid to rest in the Union cemetery.

A FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.—An accident from which the venerable Robert Hepburn, poor overseer elect, of Bellefonte, miraculously escaped with his life occurred in the rolling mill of the Valentine iron works last Monday morning. He was making some repairs to some overhead machinery near a vertical shafting that operates the mill, and was standing on a platform working when a set screw in the shaft coupling caught the sleeve of his coat. Before he had time to do anything he was wound close to the revolving shaft and was being whirled about at a terrific speed.

An idea of the awful velocity at which the unfortunate man was flying can be had when it is known that his body revolved in a perfectly horizontal manner and that a four inch oak stud which stood near by was broken by his limbs flying against it. As soon as the mill men heard his cries they realized the awful predicament he was in and John Meyers flew to shut off the water. His position was a perilous one, indeed, for at every revolution he was compelled to dodge the body of Mr. Hepburn and even before he was able to shut off the water his arms were beaten black and blue. Wm. Long, exercising great presence of mind, ran some iron into the rolls to stop the machinery and George Miller ran to catch the body in the event of the clothing giving way, for had it fallen down life would have been ground out instantly in the many cog wheels that were running at the bottom of the shafting.

It is thought that Mr. Hepburn made thirty revolutions before he was taken from his perilous position and yet he was conscious all the time. His left ankle was broken, his right arm was out of joint at the elbow, and his right leg and breast were painfully bruised. It is a great wonder that he was not killed outright, his escape being miraculous. Old as he is he will survive his injuries, if no unforeseen complication arises.

—Harry Thomas, of Centre Hall, was arrested Tuesday evening charged with aggravated assault and attempt to kill his wife. He had been abusing her in the past and as she could bear it no longer so she had him arrested. He was brought here and committed to jail for trial at the April term. Thomas was originally from Ferguson township.

—Dr. H. C. Lichtenhaler, of Lock Haven, died in that place Tuesday morning after about three week's illness with congestion of the liver.

—The infant daughter of James Shook, that died at the home of his parents on Quaker hill, was buried yesterday at 2 o'clock.

—Col. Wilbur F. Reeder Assistant Adj. Gen. of the N. G. P. entertained the officers who inspected Co. B. of this place, at dinner last evening.

—A special train will run over the Central rail-road of Pa. to-night to carry all persons from points along the line who care to see the "County Fair."

—The great ice gorge on the river, near Lock Haven, has been gradually melting away and is now much less than half as high as it was when first formed.

—Archie Allison has joined the woman suffragists, whether it is in the interests of his little daughter or municipal affairs we are not able to say.

—The marriage of Henry C. Quigley Esq., of this place, to Miss Merriman, of Bradford, N. Y., will be solemnized at the bride's home Wednesday evening, April 17th.

—A veteran who registered as Charles Swan, Newburgh, N. Y., committed suicide by taking an over-dose of cholera hydrate in the Globe hotel at Jersey Shore Saturday night.

—The death of Mrs. John P. Sebring, occurred at her home near Loveville, on Monday night of last week, from heart failure. Deceased was only in her 33rd year and her death in the prime of womanhood seems particularly sad.

—Harry Loeb, a DuBoise lumber dealer, failed with judgments aggregating $44,265.55 entered against him. It is reported that he had overdrawn his account at the defunct DuBoise bank to the amount of $20,000. The bank will pay all of its creditors it is said.

—H. M. Baldrige Esq., a very prominent attorney of Hollidaysburg, dropped dead on the pavement in front of his office in that place on Monday morning. Apoplexy was the cause of his death. He had just returned from the Court House, where he had presided at a meeting of the Blair county bar association.

—An engine on the Beech Creek rail-road became unmanageable near Snow Shoe on Tuesday and the engineer, being unable to stop it after several attempts, abandoned it; the fireman following him. The engine snorted madly along the track until near Peale where it collided with an east bound freight train. Both engines were wrecked, but no one was hurt.

—Mrs. Mary Eckley, wife of William Eckley, died at her home, on Reynolds avenue, on Tuesday afternoon, after a long illness. She was stricken with paralysis last Sunday and that precipitated her death. Deceased was about fifty years old and is survived by a sorrowing husband and several daughters. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

—The new township scheme which had been agitating the minds of residents of the north precinct of Boggs met its Waterloo at the polls last Saturday and now Napoleon Walker will order a retreat for his forces. There was an unusually large vote out which resulted as follows: North precinct, 69 for, 12 against; West precinct, 12 for, 149 against; East precinct, 0 for, 84 against, leaving a majority of 164 against the change.

—Mrs. J. L. Spangler's tea, Tuesday afternoon, was the first of several very pleasant social affairs given in honor of Mrs. Hastings. Mrs. Spangler and Mrs. Hastings were assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Bush, Mrs. G. W. Jackson, Mrs. F. W. Crider, and Mrs. D. L. Krebs, while the Misses Holiday and Miss Millie Smith, presided over the daintily appointed tables in the dining room. After the tea the hostess entertained the receiving party and several guests at dinner. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. W. F. Reeder gave a "thimble" party in honor of Mrs. Hastings.

—The Salt Lick gas and oil company held a meeting at Lock Haven, on Monday night, and after electing officers for the ensuing year decided to go ahead and sink another well just as soon as the spring opens up. Five hundred and sixty-four shares of stock were represented at the meeting. The following were elected directors: Hon. M. H. Kuip, Shamokin; Samuel Christ and J. W. Smith, Lock Haven; F. C. Coudriet, Frenchville; O. T. Switzer, Phillipsburg; M. D. Kelley and T. C. Buddinger, Snow Shoe; J. H. Hunter, Potterdale; J. Q. Miles, Bellefonte; J. A. Heckendorn, Karthaus; I. C. McCloskey, Belford. The following were elected officers for the ensuing year: President, I. C. McCloskey; Vice President, Samuel Christ; Secretary and Treasurer, George R. McCrea.

A BUSY NIGHT IN COUNCIL.—Monday night the borough councilmen had more business than they could attend to and after looking into as much of it as possible, the session adjourned to meet again next Monday evening.

Among those who appeared with grievances were Mrs. Kate Fasig, who asked for a tax exoneration, claiming that she was unable to pay same. Referred to Finance committee.

Messrs. Rishel and Kerns, of south Potter street, appeared to enquire what had become of the boardwalk that was ordered for that thoroughfare. They were told that a survey had not been made yet so they will have to wade through the mud until the work is completed.

The butchers of Bellefonte were the next complainants and they all looked as though they would like to have those councilmen on their blocks for a few moments. They protested again that the peddlers are selling meat everywhere on the streets in direct violation of the curb stone market ordinance.

Then came some of the ladies of the Village Improvement Society who petitioned council, with many endorsers, to legislate against the erection of any buildings on the bank of Spring creek from the "Big Spring" to the Lamb street bridge. Their petition looks to the future beauty of the town and should not be construed as being aimed at any particular person, though it might be said that the action of council at a former meeting, when it granted a privilege that would result in the erection of a booth on the southeast corner of the High street bridge over Spring Creek, precipitated the movement. The idea of the ladies being personally antagonistic to any particular individual is absurd. It is looked upon by them as a matter of general interest to the town and viewing it as such they have asked council to settle the question in a way that will preclude any future trouble.

The various committees made reports of their work, the bond of Michael Berger, high constable, was presented and approved, the Village Improvement Society reported the collection of $25.75 with which to purchase trees, then council instructed its secretary to inform Mr. John Waite that their action had been reconsidered and that he should not begin the erection of his intended building on the bridge until the matter was definitely settled on next Monday night.

The centennial project received a little boost by the appointment of Messrs. Beaver, Keller and Hillbish as a committee to confer with the chief burgess regarding a proper celebration. A report from the treasurer revealed the fact that he had in hand only about $200 to meet current expenses and that there was no source from which more could be drawn. Other business of less importance was transacted and the meeting adjourned.

THE WIRE GLASS MEN WERE HERE.—The Bellefonte Board of Trade met in a special meeting, on Tuesday night, to consult with the gentlemen from Falls Creek who are looking for a location to establish a plant for the manufacture of wire glass. They had samples of their product on hand which seemed like a very good thing. Their idea was to occupy the Bellefonte glass works, main building, and manufacture all kinds of structural glass, making a specialty of the wire glass which is simply a fine wire netting rolled into a common flint glass. The advantage being that it gives greater strength against breakage and in the event of its being broken the wire prevents the glass from falling from a skylight or such place, injuring those who may be under it.

The gentlemen are practical glass makers and before meeting the Board had examined the idle plant here. They reported that it could be used very nicely without destroying its usefulness for the manufacture of window glass; then Mr. Frank Mullen, of Reynoldsville, who was instrumental in bringing them here, laid their proposition before the meeting. It was substantially as follows: They agreed to put in their patent at $30,000 if our citizens would subscribe $20,000 cash, and furnish the glass works building five years free of rent and tax. The proposition may have been all right if their patent was guaranteed to result in anything, but in its undeveloped condition the sum asked seemed most too large for an untried industry. The gentlemen left town to visit Tyrone Wednesday, where, we understand, their proposition will be entertained.

Right in this line it might be well to announce that Mr. John P. Harris, trustee of the glass works, is negotiating with a party whom he expects will come here and operate the works.

MARRIED AT MILESBURG.—The Baptist parsonage at Milesburg, was the scene of a very happy marriage, on Wednesday, when Rev. J. B. Soule, united Mr. Orrie Stover, of Eagleville, and Miss Alice M. Heaton, of Boggs township, in the holy bonds of matrimony. The groom is a very excellent young gentleman and his bride is a daughter of Mr. Henry Heaton a well known resident of that end of the county. The WATCHMAN wishes them much happiness.

—The Mattern family reunion will be held at Warriors-mark on the 13th of June next.

—See Sheffer's advertisement in another column and remember the time is very short.

—The Methodists of Pennsylvania are happy because Rev. Ralph Illingworth has been returned to their circuit.

—Robert, a son of post-master Smith of Millheim, has succeeded Geo. Hazel as a clerk in the office at that place.

—Shafer is again offering a great inducement.

—Rev. N. Young, of the Evangelical church, who was recently appointed presiding elder of the Carlisle district, preached his last sermon at Millheim on Sunday evening.

—Lyon & Co's, mammoth store in this place is crowded every day with people who are wise enough to take advantage of the great sacrifice sale now advertised by that firm.

—We copy the following from the Altoona Times, "The refusal of Dr. D. S. Monroe to be a candidate for re-election to the office of secretary of the conference, which he has held since the year 1869, was a matter of regret to his many friends, who are naturally grieved to see the associations which have continued through all these years severed. There never was a more faithful official than the reverend gentleman who has just retired after a quarter of a century's service. No doubt, however, the doctor has excellent reasons for refusing to become a candidate for re-election and, as his plans did not coincide with his acceptance of further honor at the hands of the conference, as would be given by his retention in the secretaryship, his decision is no doubt the best. The doctor has for years been prominent in the affairs of Methodism in this section and he has labored unceasingly for the advancement of the church of which he is such a distinguished member. There are no honors or preferments to be given of which he is not worthy, and if there should be any bishops to appoint we do not know of any one more entitled to such a position than the Rev. David S. Monroe.

News Purely Personal.

—Thomas Benner and family moved to Atlantic City, N. J. on Tuesday.

—Squire A. G. Archer, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town awhile yesterday.

—Mrs. Reynolds, of Lancaster is the guest of her son, W. Fred Reynolds and his wife.

—Rev. R. L. Gearhart, the new pastor of the Reformed church here, will arrive from Bedford in time to hold services on Sunday.

—It is reported that Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Whitman with their son Frank and his wife will all move from Glen Ritchey to Richmond, Va. soon.

—Miss Celia Armor was a recent Bellefonte visitor in Phillipsburg. While there she was the guest of Mrs. A. J. Graham and Miss Jane Morrison.

—We had a pleasant call from Mr. W. M. Straub, of this place, yesterday morning for he came in to tell us that he is very fond of the WATCHMAN.

—Mrs. Hastings wife of Governor D. H. Hastings has been in town since Monday visiting her mother Mrs. James H. Rankin. She returned to Harrisburg to-day.

—Rev. A. M. Baratz, of New Cumberland and Rev. George M. Glenn, of Watsons town, tarried in town, Tuesday, for a few hours on their way home from Conference.

—Among Rev. Geo. Elliott's Unionville friends who were in town on Wednesday to attend his funeral were Messrs A. J. Griest, P. J. McDonnell and Riley Pratt, three representatives of that town.

—Ex-county Treasurer D. C. Keller and family have arrived from Turbotsville and are located at Haag's hotel, on Bishop street. They are fixing the hotel up preparatory to taking charge of it on April 1st.

—Howard Yergler, oldest son of Mr. Harry Yergler of this place, is spending a few days at his parents' home on north Spring street. He is located at Curwensville where he is interested, with the Snyder's, in stone building.

—Rev. William Honck, formerly pastor of the Methodist church in this place, was in town last Saturday. Assisted by all the ministers in the town he conducted the services at the funeral of the late J. Plummer McGarrath.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. McKnight left for Philadelphia, on Wednesday morning, where they will reside in the future. "Boys" passed a very creditable civil service examination and has secured a position in the customs service.

—Prof. H. J. Waters in town yesterday was looking not a bit worried over the joke editor Palm claims he has on the professor. Next week we will give a full account of the controversy between Mr. Palm and the butter experts who, he claims, awarded his butter prizes for being first class butter.

—Dear Mr. McGarrath, who has preached sermon after sermon the like of which Bellefonte has seldom heard, and, who is one of the matchless few of his times in learning and ability, has gone to Altoona to rest. His year in Bellefonte was exceptionally sad and lonely. My generous skies pour their richest blessings on him, that he may be comforted and cheered in his daughter's home and strengthened for his place in the Methodist ministry.

WHAT IT IS.—The "County Fair" that comes to Garman's to-night is an attraction that everyone should see. It played all of last week in Philadelphia and is on its road for a week stand in Pittsburg, stopping at Lancaster, Harrisburg, Bellefonte, and Johnstown en route.

The plot is a very pretty story of the farm life of Abigail Prue, an old maid farmer, who took two little New York waifs to raise. She was burdened with a mortgage against her farm and Tim, one of her adopted children, having spent most of his city life hanging around a great racing stable, was not slow in discov'ring that "Cold Molasses," one of Abigail's colts, had the points of a runner in him. He determined to enter the colt at the "County Fair" race and the last scene is the thrilling race between the horses in which Tim wins and surprises Abigail by presenting her with the purse, enough to pay off her mortgage.

—Don't fail to take advantage of Shafer photo's, short offer.

BELLEFONTE BANKS TO OBSERVE SATURDAY HALF HOLIDAYS.—After the first of next month, April 1st, all of the banks in Bellefonte will close at 12 o'clock noon on Saturdays until further notice. 3L

—We will positively save you five dollars on every ten dollar clothing purchase you make of us. We make this assertion confident that an examination of our stock and prices will prove its truth to you. FAUBLES.

—Shafer is offering reduced prices on photos until April 6th, '95. See ad.

WHERE YOU CAN BUY THE CHEAPEST.—It is a question of dollars and cents after all. No matter what people say it is as natural to save a penny in buying as it is to eat dinner at the dinner hour. Opportunities to make great savings are not often to be had, but Lyon & Co's, big advertisement in this issue affords just such a chance. Read it and profit by the bargains it holds out. A dollar saved is a dollar earned.

—The ladies will be highly interested in our new department, Ladies Shirt Waists and Chemisettes. Do not fail to call early as orders given now to the factory cannot be delivered before May 15th to June 1st. We have a good stock on hand now, but it will soon be broken up in size, if the present demand continues. Men's, boys' and children's clothing never so rich in colors and designs and never so low in price. If honest efforts should succeed, we ought to double our business this season. "Mothers Friend" Shirt Waists. MONTGOMERY & Co.
