THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—Easter novelties at Achenbach's.

—Next Sunday will be Palm Sunday.

—The Valentine iron works will be put in blast again about May 1st.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Gray is dangerously ill at her home in Milesburg.

—The Pennsylvania State College began its spring term on Wednesday.

—It is reported that the postal telegraph company intends erecting a line through Bellefonte soon.

—The family of Mr. Win Montgomery have moved into their new house on east Linn street.

—One of the ewes owned by Capt. Samuel Bennis near Jacksonville recently gave birth to four lambs.

—Robert F. Hunter and family have moved from the Exchange to the J. Kyle McFarlane house on east Linn street.

—"Bill" Doak desires us to announce that he is ready to dig garden and pound carpet for anyone who has the price.

—Rev. J. W. Rue, the new pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church, will occupy his pulpit here for the first time on Sunday.

—"The Globe," Bellefonte's new dry goods store, was opened yesterday and a great crowd of people visited it to see the many handsome things shown there.

—Saturday night was Gottlieb Haag's last night as a hotel proprietor and an open house was the attraction that drew a great crowd of his friends up there.

—The Presbyterian church of this place has taken action on the death of elder E. C. Humes. Minutes of condolence and regret at his demise have been adopted.

—Theo. Baney, Annie Morgan and Bertha Markle were arrested on Sunday evening for keeping a bawdy house on Methodist hill. They are all in jail awaiting trial.

—To-night there will be an athletic entertainment in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The price of admission has been placed at 10 cents so everyone can afford to go.

—At argument court, on Tuesday, Dorsey Meyerle, of Philipsburg, was granted a liquor license and the application of Reuben G. Askey, of Rush township, for a rehearing of his case was refused.

—R. McCafferty and Sons went to work Monday morning taking out stone for the abutments of the new suspension bridge at the foot of Lamb street. They intend using Snow Shoe sand-stone for facing.

—The invitations are out for the marriage Miss Anna L. Meyer, of Boalsburg, to William Emory Gettig, of Altoona. The ceremony will be performed in St. John's Reformed church at Boalsburg on Thursday evening, April eleventh, at eight o'clock.

—Dr. J. C. McEntire, who was recently appointed mercantile appraiser, has decided to close his dental office here until he has finished his work, which he considers will cover a period of two months. He has already completed Bellefonte, Howard, Romaia and several other places.

—The Pennsylvania State College glee and banjo clubs returned from their western tour on Tuesday evening, but unfortunately for the boys it was a failure financially. They received very flattering press notices, but such things would not feed thirty men and pay their car fare too.

—In our last issue we inadvertently forgot to mention the death of Squire J. C. Boal which occurred at his home in Centre Hall, on Wednesday, March 27th, from heart failure superinduced by an attack of grip which he suffered about four weeks previous. Deceased was one of Centre Hall's best known citizens and he will be sadly missed in that place. He was born December 29th, 1826. His widow and two daughters survive, the latter are Mrs. Sallie Kline and Mrs. Lycurgus Lingle.

—The funeral of the late Edward C. Humes Esq. took place from his late residence at the corner of Allegheny and Howard streets, on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Laurie, of the Presbyterian church and the following gentlemen were pall bearers. Col. E. A. Irvin, of Curwensville; B. Weber, of Howard; A. G. Morris, of Tyrone and Robert Valentins, Col. Wm. Shortlidge, ex-Judge A. O. Furst, ex-Governor Beaver, P. Gray Meek, Judge John G. Love, Governor D. H. Hastings, J. Fearon Mann and C. M. Bower Esq. all of this place. The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful.

WHAT COUNCIL DID.—The business transacted at council Monday night was of a very miscellaneous nature.

A request of Charles Taylor to dig a sewer ditch on Linn street was granted with the proviso that he put a T in front of each property. The bad condition of the side-walk reported in front of S. S. Lyon's property, on Curtin street, was referred to the Street committee. It then reported little work done on the streets, a survey of south Potter street and other matters of less importance. The Water committee announced a reduction of expenses at the water works amounting to $70 per month. The bond of R. McCafferty & Sons was presented and approved, a balance of $10,412.17 was reported due the treasurer and the Nuisance committee reported the burying of several dead chickens and cats after which council approved bills aggregating $301.78 and adjourned.

About the most important business to the tax-payers that came before council was when it was decided to keep the lock-up open at nights for a roosting place for tramps. It is an outrage that the borough should be asked to buy coal to keep up fires for a lot of bums, yet this has been going on all winter. Coal costs money and these tramps never do a hands turn in payment for a place to sleep. If council had passed an ordinance making it necessary for all of them to leave town or work on the streets it would have come nearer doing the right thing.

THE REASON THERE WILL NOT BE A SNOW FLOOD.—There seems to be a reason for everything, no matter how ridiculous it may be, and the condition of the weather is the one particular topic on which an innumerable host of story makers have centered their ingenious observations. One fellow tells us that because caterpillars have unusually long hair the winter will be severe, while another asserts that it will be mild because squirrels have not been laying up many nuts. The man who sticks his onions in the wrong sign of the moon is just as sure to have bad luck with them as the fellow who doesn't have his hair cut on the first Friday of its increase. So such stories run. Some with many believers, who have really seen wisdom in them, and others kept alive in superstitious minds only. But the other day there was an old gentleman from down the valley in town who had a reason for there not being a snow flood this spring. He told it as follows: "Well, you know the best way to tell if there is going to be a snow flood in the spring of the year is just this. You make a snow ball, then run a stick through it and hold it over the fire. If it melts up without any water droppin' off it there ain't going to be no flood, but if drops of water fall into the fire there will."

The old gentleman said he tried it some time ago, hence his firm conviction that there will not be a snow flood this spring and, thus far, his calculations look as if they will be borne out by the fact.

MRS. MICHAEL STROHM IS DEAD.—Mrs. Michael Strohm died at her home, near Centre Hill, on Saturday night, after having suffered a stroke of apoplexy.

Her illness was of a rather peculiar nature since she had suffered a fainting sensation while calling at a neighbor's house exactly a week previous to her death. She recovered from it in about an hour and, aside from a slight feeling of numbness in her arm, was as well as usual.

On Saturday evening, after having retired, she remembered that the fire in a down stairs room needed a little attention and got up to see about it. When she returned her husband noticed her vainly trying to speak and at once realized that something was wrong. She sank rapidly and died in two hours.

Deceased was about 69 years old and leaves a husband and three children, County Commissioner James B. Strohm, of this place, and Mrs. Walter W. Bayard of Washington, D. C., being their children. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning.

DAVID SOLT DEAD.—After an illness of scarcely more than a week David Solt, who was once a well known Zion merchant, died at the home of his son-in-law Lincoln H. Musser, near Fillmore, on Sunday evening. He had not been in good health for over a year and retired from active business on that account, having just taken up his home with Mr. Musser the day before his final illness. Deceased was 63 years old. Funeral services were conducted at the house by Rev. Gearhart, of this place, and interment was made here. Mr. Solt had been a consistent member of the Reformed church.

—Have you been in to see Achenbach's new store? Well now, if you haven't you ought to go around and see it. Such a pretty place would be hard to imagine and you can't realize how nice it is until you see it. A large, roomy store room and restaurant with everything arranged so tastefully that one cannot but admire it. Then too the breads, cakes, candies and ices that he handles are always of the best. His store is full of Easter novelties and if you want anything in that line there is where you can get them.

—Sixty thousand trout fry were distributed from Philipsburg to near-by streams on Monday.

—Harvey Moore, of Rote, had his left leg amputated at the knee on last Thursday afternoon.

—Mill Hall has a population of over one thousand. A large increase over the census of 1890.

—A great many lumber rafts have arrived at Lock Haven within the past few days, but sales are slow.

—About noon Friday an unknown tramp was struck and instantly killed by an express train near Tyrone.

—An incendiary set fire to a stable in Lock Haven, on Friday night, and three were destroyed before the flames could be stopped.

—Henry Kilmore suicided at Lewisburg Monday by hanging himself in his barn. Financial troubles drove him to self destruction.

—A man named McQuinney bit another named Bailey, during a quarrel at Patton, and the latter has died. McQuinney is under arrest.

—Joseph Knapper, who succeeds the late David Thomas as mine inspector of the Philipsburg district, has arrived in that place to take up his abode.

—Proprietor Leister of the Potter house in Philipsburg, is making interior improvements that will make it one of the trimmest houses in this part of the State.

—The Epworth League will hold a convention in Philadelphia, May 13th to 26th. The opening session will be held in the Academy of fine arts and the concluding ones will be held in the Academy of music.

—The Focht bill has passed the Senate. It provides that where a stream forms the boundary between two counties, each county shall pay for the construction of free bridges over the same in proportion to population.

—The large mercantile firm of Wilson & Isenberg failed at Tyrone on Friday, with Andrew H. McCament as assignee. It was one of Tyrone's leading business houses and was established in 1872 by J. F. Van Valzah and John P. Wilson.

—Franklin Dixon Peale, son of Hon. S. R. Peale, of Lock Haven, will be married at Elizabeth, N. J. on Wednesday evening, April 17th, to Martha Vail Tufts, daughter of Mrs. Anna M. Tufts, of that place. The bride and groom will reside at Morristown, N. J.

—On Wednesday William Brennan, a son of Mr. Robert Brennan, of Buffalo Run, was married to Miss Florence Marshall, the bright daughter of Mr. Edward Marshall. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride and was quite a pleasant affair.

—The new United Evangelical church is being built at Tusseyville. The cellar is all dug and ready for the foundation walls. It is thought the corner stone will be laid about April 28th. The building will be 32x50ft. with an 8x8ft. tower and a 14x20ft. addition.

—T. R. Dubbs, Republican, has been appointed justice of the peace for Rush township. At the election in February he and J. M. Clar, the Democratic candidate, were tie for the office. A. J. Reesman has been appointed by the Governor to succeed James C. Boal Esq. Dec'd. late justice at Centre Hall.

—The invitations are out for the wedding of Dr. Samuel McClintock Hamill to Miss Lila Clark. The ceremony will be performed in Calvary church, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, April seventeenth. The groom is the youngest son of Rev. Dr. Robert Hamill, of Oak Hall, and is well known here.

—Elsewhere in this issue will be found an announcement of the dissolution of the partnership existing between Dan'l. Irvin & Sons, hardware dealers of this place, and a reorganization of the firm by Mr. Irvin's sons. The young men intend running their business on a strictly cash basis and in that way hope to gain patronage by giving lower prices. Both of the gentlemen are courteous and pleasant to deal with and it is altogether likely that their success will be assured from the start.

—Notwithstanding the enormous snow fall of the past winter there has not been a flood this Spring and there will not be any either unless a prolonged rain should cause it. The snow has gone off so gradually and so much of it has percolated into the ground that at no time, thus far, has Spring creek been more than two feet above its ordinary depth. Such a condition is indeed remarkable when the depth of the snow is considered. It is not all gone yet, but even if the white blanket, that still covers the north side of the mountains, were all melted away in a single day there would hardly be much of a flood.

OLD FOSTER IS GETTING DAFT ON THE SUBJECT OF WEATHER.—My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm-wave to cross the continent from March 20 to April 3, and the next will reach the Pacific coast about April 3, cross the western mountain country by the close of the 5th, the great central valleys from the 7th to 8th, and the eastern States about the 9th.

This storm will bring remarkable extremes and radical changes in the weather. Summer heat will prevail for a few days previous to the storm way dates, and then a drop in the temperature that will send frosts far southward. This cool wave, in places a real cold wave, will keep the temperature below normal for a week following.

Severe local storms may be expected accompanying this storm wave, and making allowance for a month's progress toward summer, the weather will be very like that which occurred about following March 10.

The warm wave will cross the western mountain country about April 4. The great central valleys the 6th and the eastern States the 8th. The cool wave will cross the western mountain country about the 7th, the great central valleys the 9th and the eastern States the 11th.

During the period covered by this storm wave, including the cool wave, rainfall will be very light in the northern States. More rain will fall in the southern States, but will not be well distributed, and a few localities will have too much, many others not enough rain.

The third storm wave of April will reach the Pacific coast about the 10th, cross the western mountain country by the close of the 11th, the great central valleys from the 12th to 15th and the eastern States the 16th.

The warm wave will cross the western mountain country about the 10th, the great central valleys 12th, eastern States 14. The cool wave will cross the western mountain country about the 13th, the great central valleys 15th, and the eastern States 17th.

This storm wave will cause a more general distribution of rainfall, and taking the whole country, an increase in precipitation. The weather will average much cooler than in the first week of the month.

THEY WANTED AN ITEMIZED BILL AND GOT IT.—An old church in Belgium decided to repair its properties, and employed an artist to touch up some large paintings. The committee required a detailed bill, whereupon the following items were presented; Correcting the Ten Commandments, $5.12; embellishing Pontius Pilate and putting new ribbon on his bonnet, $3.02; putting new nail on the rooster of St. Peter and mending his comb, $2.20; replumping and regilding left wing of guarding angel $5.18; washing the servant of the high priest and putting carmine on his cheek, $5.02; renewing hermin, adjusting stars and cleaning the moon, $7.14; touching up purgatory and restoring last souls, $3.06; brightening up the flames of hell, putting new tail on the devil, mending his left hoof, and doing several odd jobs for the damned $7.17; rebordering the robes of Herod and adjusting his wig, $4.00; taking the spots off the son of Tobias, $10.30; cleaning Balaam's ass and putting new shoes on him, $5.70; putting ear rings in Sarah's ears, $5.25; putting new stone in David's sling, enlarging the head of Goliath and extending Saul's legs, $6.13; decorating Noah's ark and putting a head on Shem, $4.31; mending the shirt of the prodigal son and cleaning his ears, $3.39; total $77.00.—Exchange.

BUSINESS LOOKING UP.—Dun's Trade Review sums up the business aspect of the country for last week as follows:

Signs of improvement are all the more satisfactory because neither accompanied nor apparently produced by a speculative craze. Dealings in stocks, cotton and wheat are not diverting all the interest and capital from productive industry and legitimate trade, though these products are all a shade stronger. But railroad earnings, bank clearings and industrial indications are more encouraging this week. It is a remarkable feature that the lifting this year begins at the bottom, so to speak; raw materials are raised before there is any larger demand for their finished products, a thing not often done with success. Hides rose, then leather, and then shoes; cotton rose, and afterwards some cotton goods; coke was advanced and afterwards Bessemer pigs. In all these cases it is reasoned that the larger demand for consumption, though yet wanting, must come when it is seen that prices are going up.

—Bridget Toner, a daughter of William Toner of this place, died at her home on Quaker hill on Sunday evening after a prolonged illness with consumption. Funeral services will be held this morning at 10 o'clock.

—Charles Barger, aged 28 years, has left a widow and one child to mourn his being killed on the State line railroad, near Uniontown, on Wednesday. He was once a resident of Milesburg.

—Grandmother Everett, Coburn's oldest woman, is nearing death's door.

—The Prohibition County Convention will be held here on or about Tuesday, May 21st.

—W. Emerson Karns, of Unionville, contemplates taking a course of study at the Stroudsburg normal school.

—Sixty-seven out of eighty-eight applications for license have been granted in Blair county, the aggregate of the fees being $28,550.

—Zacharias Williams and Joseph Shields, two aged residents of Nittany valley, died recently. Both had been in poor health for some time.

—The venerable Robert McKnight and family have moved from this place to his farm near Fillmore, where they will live in the future.

News Purely Personal.

—J. P. Gephart Esq., had business in Millheim on Wednesday.

—Miss Candy, of Howard, spent Sunday with the family of Joseph Holter in this place.

—P. F. Bittorf, of Pine Grove Mills, was seen on our streets on Wednesday and yesterday.

—Mrs. J. B. Leathers, of Mt. Eagle, was in town yesterday and gave this office a pleasant call.

—Dr. Geo. W. Atherton came down from State College Monday afternoon to attend the late E. C. Humes' funeral.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. Murray Andrews have arrived in town from Philadelphia and are at the home of Mrs. Mary Valentine.

—Henry W. Kreamer, one of Centre Hall's leading merchants, was in town yesterday shaking hands with all of his friends.

—Mr. Nathan Bachman has decided that life at Farmers Mills is too slow for him and has moved to 231 east Howard street, this place.

—Ed. C. McEntire, who has been staying at Howard during the winter, expects to begin the practice of law in Williamsport before long.

—John Corrigan, whose deft hand is responsible for much of the beauty of The Pennsylvania State College campus, was in town last evening.

—Miss Marcie Selter, after spending a few weeks visiting the Misses Valentine at "Burnham" this place, returned to her home in Harrisburg yesterday afternoon.

—Walter Bayard was an arrival in town Wednesday morning. He had been over to Centre Hill to attend his mother-in-law's funeral. He is located at Pittsburg.

—Governor Hastings was an arrival in town Monday and stopped, while here, with Col. J. L. Spangler. He was one of the honorary pall bearers at the Humes funeral.

—Edward J. Rupp, who until recently was employed in Geo. W. Jackson & Co's Phoenix flouring mills here, has moved from Plainsboro, N. J. to Princeton Junction, N. J. where he is now employed in a fifty barrel roller mill.

—Aaron Lutz who has been numbered among Ferguson township's residents for some time, was in town on Tuesday. He has just moved to Houserville where he will make his home in the future.

—Rev. D. Y. Brouse, who looks after the spiritual welfare of the Methodists at Muhlenburg, Luzerne county, spent Sunday with Rev. J. C. Young, at Pleasant Gap. Both ministers were reappointed to their old charges at the recent conference.

—Tom Brew, older grown but as pleasant as ever was in town the forepart of the week a hiping his mother's furniture to Mahanoy City, where he is employed by the Lehigh Coal Co., and where he and his mother will make their home.

—David J. Gingerich came down from Martha Furnace on Tuesday to help his cousin Deputy Recorder Dukeman move from High to Bishop street. Mr. Gingerich is a very pleasant young man and is a son of our old friend Mr. John Gingerich. He has been a student in telegraphy until recently.

—A great many of our Bellefonte readers will remember Adam Bucher who lived here in 1874 occupying a house on Willowbank street. He passed through town yesterday on his way to Williamsport where he went in pursuit of his business as a builder and contractor. He has a large mill and lumber yard in Altoona now and has been very successful since leaving here.

—Mr. Foster Williams, who was connected with Joseph's store in this place several years ago, has returned to accept a position in "the Globe." While away from Bellefonte he was employed in the Barnard store at Everett and when it failed he went to Braddock. Foster is recognized as a very excellent salesman and we congratulate Mr. Katz on having secured his services.

—Mr. William Bickle, of Mill Hall, was in town on Saturday just two days ahead of time. This may seem strange to some of you but when we tell you that for the last fifteen years he has been coming to this office on April 1st he has been subscribing you will understand what is meant by his being two days ahead of time. Mr. Bickle is one of those far seeing, progressive farmers who has made his years of husbandry pay and like his friends George Berry, of Mill Hall and J. J. McKibben, of Abdera, he believes that a good paper is a good thing. They all like the WATCHMAN.

—Among the strangers who were in town on Monday to attend the funeral of the late Edward C. Humes Esq., we noticed John Ludwig, of Philipsburg, the young Democrat who made things so interesting for his Republican opponents for consular honors in that place in February. W. V. Hughes, the contractor, and Mrs. Hughes came down from their new home at Hollidaysburg. He has lately been appointed inspector of building improvements to be made at the Huntingdon Reformatory. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morris and Charles Morris, Supt. and Mrs. S. S. Blair, J. L. Mitchell, the coal operator, and W. L. Hicks Esq., all of whom are Tyroneans interested in the Blair county bank of which the decedent was a stock holder. Col. E. A. Irvin, of Curwensville, who would have been Congressman from this district had Centre county Republican wishes been respected at the conference last fall, with Thos. H. Murray Esq., the well known Clearfield lawyer, were here also. Prof. John Hamilton and Supt. W. C. Patterson represented the Pennsylvania State College; while W. W. Frederick and F. S. Johnson came up from Lock Haven to attend. Geo. W. Hoover, the head of the lumber firm of Hoover, Hughes & Co., in which Mr. Humes was interested, with Thos. L. Emerson, one of the accountants were the Philipsburgers here.

STATE'S BASE BALL TEAM.—The players who will more than likely represent the Pennsylvania State College on the diamond this spring have been about selected by manager R. B. Greer and Captain Stuart, with the advice of base ball committee. The players and their probable positions are as follows:

Pitchers, Nesbit, Atherton, Rawn; catchers, Stuart, Hayes; first base, Atherton, Thomas; second base, Brown, Bechtel; shortstop, Rice, Curtin; third base, Walker, Clark; outfielders, Greenland, Robinson, McCune, Williams. The batteries will be Atherton and Stuart, Rawn and Hayes, Nesbit and Stuart.

The team gives promise of being unusually strong this season and a good schedule has been arranged for it both at home and abroad. Daily practice is getting the men into good shape and they expect to make a better record than last year.

—Don't fail to take advantage of Sheffer photo's, short offer.

THE EASTER DANCE AT THE COLLEGE.—The after lent dance which the Senior class will give in the armory at The Pennsylvania State College promises a more brilliant social event this season than ever. The Friday evening, April 19th, immediately following Easter, has been settled upon as the date. For those who intend going from here a special train will be run over the Bellefonte Central railroad. It will leave the Pennsylvania station at 7:15, returning after the dance. This will afford an opportunity for any one living along the line of the C. R. of Pa. to reach here in time to catch the excursion train.

—Lyon & Co's, mammoth store in this place is crowded every day with people who are wise enough to take advantage of the great sacrifice sale now advertised by that firm.

DON'T CUT POSTAL CARDS.—It is ruled by the postal authorities that any reduction of the size of a postal card by clipping, rounding off the corners, or otherwise, will subject the receiver of the card to a charge of one cent on delivery. This makes the cost of a postal card equivalent to letter postage. Many persons enclose postal cards to correspondents in envelopes too small, and imagine that a little clipping wont make any difference. Others round off the corners for ornamental purposes or convenience in handling.—Ex.

WANTED.—Three apprentice girls to learn the millinery trade. Apply at once to Katz & Co. Limited, Bellefonte, Pa.

—See Sheffer's advertisement in another column and remember the time is very short.

WHERE YOU CAN BUY THE CHEAPEST.—It is a question of dollars and cents after all. No matter what people say it is as natural to save a penny in buying as it is to eat dinner at the dinner hour. Opportunities to make great savings are not often to be had, but Lyon & Co's, big advertisement in this issue affords just such a chance. Read it and profit by the bargains it holds out. A dollar saved is a dollar earned.

—The ladies will be highly interested in our new department, Ladies' Shirt Waists and Chemisettes. Do not fail to call early as orders given now to the factory cannot be delivered before May 15th to June 1st. We have a good stock on hand now, but it will soon be broken up in size, if the present demand continues. Men's, boys' and children's clothing never rich in color, and designed and never so low in price. If honest efforts should succeed, we ought to double our business this season. "Mothers Friend" Shirt Waists. MONTGOMERY & Co.
