

Pine Grove Mention
Easter snow came a day late.
Mr. John C. Gates is still a very sick man.
Mrs. Maggie Hess is convalescing from an attack of pneumonia.
Mrs. Anna Frye of our town is paying her yearly visit to the county seat.
Mrs. P. F. Bottorff's condition is not at all encouraging, although she seems better.
Mrs. G. D. Danni, who has been ill for some months, is now confined to her bed.
The handsome form of Walter E. Meek, of Houtzdale, was seen on our streets this week. Walter never forgets his friends.
Our genial friend Frank Bowersox candidate for County Treasurer spent several days interviewing Democrats in Bellefonte last week.
The late rains have greatly benefited all the young crops and from present indications a good hay and grain harvest may be expected.
Last week Hezekiah Ewing purchased a 14 acre field from the G. Y. Meek farm, that originally belonged to the Atleesurvey. The price paid was $50 per acre.
The boss painter in the Meyer's carriage shop has been lately taking snap visits to county seat. It is said there are magnetic attractions down that way.
Miss Anna Musser, who has her millinery shingle swinging to the breeze on Main St., has just returned from New York with a large supply of millinery goods and fancy work. She has good taste and excellent judgment and we wish her the abundant success she merits.
Our young friend J. C. Eckels is suffering from the effects of a too fast ride. He was helping some stock-men drive a herd of cows to Potter Mills when several of the calves gave out and were placed on the wagon. On top of the hill leading down to the polecat city Mr. Eckels stopped to arrange his load of live stock and suddenly the horse started off at break-neck speed spilling the live stock along the hillside. The wagon was wrecked, the calves frightened, and Mr. Eckels was badly used up. Dr. Woods dressed his shattered shoulder and he is getting along as well as his bruises will allow.
DEATH OF AN AGED WOMAN.—Sunday evening the 14th, at seven o'clock Mrs. Hannah Bailey Glenn, died at her home near this place. Ninety four years old the 28th of March, she was a remarkable woman for she was never known to complain of an ache or a pain and within a few years could read without glasses. Her death, calm and peaceful as the closing of a summer's day, was not due to ill ness but to a general disintegration caused by old age.
Aunt Hannah, as she was more familiarly known, was one of kindest and most sympathetic women we have ever known. Many are the people who have enjoyed her hospitality at her home, and on the old camp ground. A true Christian, she was liked by everyone and yet withal, Dr. Woods dressed his shattered shoulder and he is getting along as well as his bruises will allow.
Born nearly a century ago in the old Bailey home at Baileyville, she was the last of a family of fifteen. When quite young she married Mr. John Glenn, and most of her life was spent within sight of her birth place. She was the mother of eleven children, four sons all of whom are dead and seven daughters all of whom have passed the half century mark and were wither at the time of her death. Her grand-children number 39 and her great-grand-children 45. From early girlhood she had been a member of the Methodist church and as long as her strength permitted was a constant attendant at the means of grace where her sweet calm face and snowy hair always proved a benediction.
On Wednesday the 17th, at 9 o'clock she was taken to Meek's church where a large circle of acquaintances had assembled to pay a last tribute to one so universally respected. Rev. George Guyer assisted by the Rev. R. M. Illingworth conducted the services. After the benediction F. E. Meek, whose voice is yet as sweet as any ever heard, started the old hymn "And let this feeble body fall". The solemnity of the occasion brought tears to many care worn eyes as the son-in-laws and daughters, Mrs. Mary McCauley, Huntingdon; Mrs. John McCormick, Mrs. Martin Burkett, Iowa; Mrs. F. E. and Robert Meek, Altoona; Mrs. P. W. Burkett, Stormstown and Miss Sarah, all of whom were present joined in the singing. Interment was made in Meek's burial ground by the side of her husband, who died years ago.
Pointers for Early Gardening.
The cold weather this spring has prevented spring seeding and garden making in due time; hence it is necessary to make up for lost time by the rapid growth of crops in the use of the best fertilizers on barley, corn, oats, potatoes and garden vegetables. Many of these persons, who relish good vegetables and good crops, have already purchased fertilizers from McAlmont & Co., who have a large stock and the greatest variety of fertilizers in store at the lowest prices; such as high grade acid phosphate, $15.00 per ton, their champion $25.00 phosphate, which gives an honest return for the money invested, as well as the best garden and potato phosphate ever sold in Centre county at any price, including dried blood, nitrate of soda, nitrate of potash, sulphate of potash and other ingredients for making fertilizers, as well as phosphoric plaster, 200 pounds in a bag at $10.00 per ton, Nova Scotia (white) finely ground plaster, 200 pounds in a bag at $8.40 per ton, gray plaster in bulk at $6.00 per ton, agricultural salt in bulk at $4.50 per ton—all of which are warranted to be first class articles.
It is said that the use of salt, when planting corn, prevents the cut worms from attacking the younger corn.
