

MR. FOSTER'S IDEA OF COMING WEATHER.—My last bulletin gave forecast of the storm waves to cross the continent from 5th to 8th and 10th to 14th. The next will reach the Pacific coast about the 14th cross the west of the Rockies country by close of 15th, great central valleys 16th to 18th and eastern States 19th. This disturbance will bring some of the heaviest rains of the month, but these rains will not generally occur where most needed. The tendency will be decidedly toward too much rain in the south eastern States and a deficiency toward the northwest. Warm waves will cross the west of Rockies country about 14th, great central valleys 16th and eastern States 18th. Cool wave will cross west of Rockies country about 17th, great central valleys 19th and eastern States 21st.

MRS. NOLAN'S NEW HOTEL AT ATLANTIC CITY.—The Daily Union, in speaking of resorts that will be popular at Atlantic City this summer, devotes nearly a half column to the new hotel Lucern which Mrs. Mary Nolan, formerly of Snow Shoe, has just taken charge of. Among other things the Union says:

Mrs. E. A. Nolan, who last year conducted the Ocean Queen hotel, has leased the Lucern, on Massachusetts avenue, between Atlantic Avenue and the beach, and will conduct it on the broad and generous principles which made the Ocean Queen so popular. The house has been refurnished from basement to roof, not a remnant of its former internal arrangements being left but a range.

The double dining room is commodious and cheerful, and it is needless to say that with the new furnishings the sleeping apartments will be all that could be desired. These rooms are all cheerful, command a view of the ocean from two sides, and on the north side afford a fine view of the Inlet and bay. An admirable feature of the Lucern is the tower view, which is expansive and grand. It covers the mainland beyond the bay, the Inlet to Brigantine Beach and beyond, and a fine bird's-eye view of the city to the west and north. From this tower guests may observe the many exciting yacht races, from start to finish, that sail from the Inlet.

The Lucern is within easy reach of the beach from two points, but a few steps from the street car line and adjacent to steam railway depots. It is in the center of a group of the finest and most popular east end hotels, and is in all respects most delightfully situated. It contains nearly 60 rooms and easily accommodates from 80 to 100 guests.

The house has many conveniences to commend it, including new and perfect sanitary arrangements, toilets and baths and a large yard. It is lighted by electricity and gas.

It is safe to say that the house will lack in nothing to make it a popular summer resort. It will be open for business May 1.

MEMORIAL DAY AND ITS OBSERVANCE.—As time rolls on and we see the ranks of our honored veterans growing thinner every year we are led to realize that it will not be long until the last one of those who fought, when the country found herself in an extremity, will have been laid to rest. Then the Memorial day will bring forth the true spirit of a rising generation. As it is those who have survived take charge of the annual day of garlanding the graves of comrades gone before, but when the last blue coat has been called home the time will have come when those who have never fully realized the distressing scenes of battle will be called upon to keep fresh its memories of men who gave their Union.

Gregg Post has ever been the custodian of Memorial day ceremonies here and, as in the past, the preparations have been begun early for the proper observance of May 30th.

The following bulletin has been issued from headquarters relative to the proceedings for that day.

COMRADES.—Preparations are being made by Gregg Post 95 for the usual observance of decoration day, May 30th.

Program will be given by committee in proper time.

All comrades are expected to be present on the occasion, and all soldiers, sailors and citizens, civic societies and school children are respectfully invited to unite with us in this grand memorial to pay our annual tribute of respect and place floral offerings on the mounds of our nation's dead.

As the years roll by the record of death increases; we miss the familiar presence of many who have joined the grand army above.

It is fitting that we who are left should stand shoulder to shoulder, as in the past, to show proper respect and commemorate the services of our gallant comrades, the principles for which they fought, for which they died, and offer their graves renew our pledge of patriotism and devotion to the cause of human liberty.

Unite with one and all to do honor to the "Immortal names That were not born to die."

COMMANDER POST No. 95, F. PEBBLES GREENE, Adjt.

Hon. S. F. BOWSER, a prominent attorney of Butler, Pa., will deliver the memorial address.

Pine Grove Mention

—On the first Sunday in June Rev. A. A. Black will preach the memorial sermon in the Brethren church.

—Last Friday, the court appointed A. G. Archey, road supervisor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John C. Gates.

—A lawn sociable will be held in the spacious yard of O. B. Krebs, on Main street, Saturday evening, May 11, under the auspices of the ladies society, everybody is invited to spend the evening in social enjoyment.

—We have received from Edwin P. Sample an invitation to the Graduating Exercises of the Downs' high school, which is to take place on May 14th. Although Ed. is getting along so nicely that he bids fair to rival Ingersoll as an orator, he still remembers his old home with kindness. We predict for him a brilliant future and will not be surprised to hear of his going to Congress as a good Democrat.

—Last Saturday evening the spacious parlors of Dr. G. H. Woods presented a highly attractive appearance in honor of W. H. Knarr and his bride. The hostess Mrs. Woods was assisted in entertaining by a bevy of young girls who made radiant the rooms with their dainty costumes and happy smiles. The town glee club finally got on the ground and with the aid of the smaller boys and their tin horns, inflated the midnight air with music. The entertainment was so pleasant that it was declared the most enjoyable of the season.

—Mayor Homer Shunk Thompson, after an absence of eight years came over from Juniata County, for a short visit to his friends here. Time has touched his thin locks lightly, but his beard is well silvered and although he would have us believe he was not enjoying good health he tipped the scale at 29. The Mayor has passed the meridian of life but is so quick and active that he is thought to be many years younger. He Sundayed with his old time mess-mate J. G. Heberling, who is an ex-postmaster as well as the Mayor. During their conversation we detected much gall over the memorable saying "and the next day it snowed" and no wonder for they no longer need "Cushings Manual" for the majority rules. The Mayor's unflinching courtesy has made him as indispensable to the mercantile business as his bravery and integrity did to the war.

—The following program has been arranged by Capt. J. O. Campbell post, 372, G. A. R. Parades will form at the public school grounds at 2 o'clock. The music at the head of the column, I. O. O. F. organization, in full regalia to form on right of column, the J. O. U. A. Mechanics form next, the G. A. R. to take left of line. The line of march will be down Main street, counter march and up Water street, counter march to cemetery, when the children will be formed in open ranks to receive the parade. Each child will carry a flag. A hollow square will be formed in the cemetery. Comrades Heberling, Port Eckle and C. B. Hess will perform the ritualistic work. Prof. E. E. Sparks of Penna. State College will deliver the memorial address. Meeks cemetery will be decorated by detail, everybody is cordially invited to take part at 2 o'clock p. m. especially old soldiers whether Grand Army members or not.

By orders of Post, W. H. Fry, Adjt.

—DEATH OF MRS. YARNELL.—On Thursday May 2nd, Mrs. Mary Jane, wife of H. B. Yarnell, died at her home after a brief but painful illness. While working in the garden she took cold which soon developed into pleuritic pneumonia. She was so much better until just before her death, that her friends had hopes of her recovery, when suddenly a relapse came and with it death—which to her had no terrors for she was a gentle, loving woman and a true Christian.

Mary Jane Lytle was born at the old Lytle homestead, one mile south of the Penna. State College. Her age was 59 years 7 months and 6 days. In early girlhood she joined the church and was ever an active worker. For years her sweet voice led the singing in Dr. Hamill's church and it was noticeable that she displayed a wisdom far beyond her years. September the 12th, 1865, she married H. B. Yarnell, to them were born six sons and three daughters, none of whom are married but Mrs. Benjamin Corl. One son is in Nebraska, one in Baltimore, two are in Wyoming and two sons and two daughters are at home.

Her three sisters living are Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Herman and Mrs. Letterman, and her brothers are Griffith, of Kansas, Dr. Lytle of Phillipsburg, James and William of Lemont, and John at the old homestead. Her whole life was devoted to the comfort and pleasures of others and she is now sweetly resting where sickness and sorrow and death enter not.

On Monday the 6th, at 9 o'clock she was buried at the Branch by the side of her parents. Rev. C. T. Aikens officiated at the service and her four brothers were the pall bearers.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a regular meeting of Tussey council No. 515, J. O. U. A. M. held May 4th, 1895, Pine Grove Mills, Pa., the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in his all-wise Providence to remove by death from our council, brother councilman J. C. Gates.

Resolved, That we submit to the will of Providence hoping that our loss will be his eternal gain, and that our charter be draped in mourning for sixty days.

Resolved, That we tender our heart-felt sympathy to the bereaved family of the deceased.

Resolved, That these resolutions be written in the minutes of the Council and published in the WATCHMAN, Centre Democrat and Keystone Gazette, and a copy sent to the family of our deceased brother.

Committee. { J. A. DECKER, J. R. SMITH, W. H. WARD.

A Pine Glen Wedding.

In the beautifully decorated country residence at Pine Glen, May 1st, 1895, at 2 o'clock was solemnized the marriage of Miss Mary E. Beates, eldest daughter of Mr. J. H. Beates, to Mr. Mark Pedrick, of Wilmington, Del., by the Rev. R. F. Hassinger of the Lutheran church.

Promptly at the appointed hour, in answer to the wedding march, which pealed forth from the piano by the touch of Miss Edith Beates, the bride and groom, with Miss Anna Beates and Walter S. Yothers, as bridesmaid and groomsmen, walked into the parlor and the ceremony was begun. They were soon pronounced man and wife.

After the usual congratulations the party repaired to the large dining room, and were seated at the table which groaned under its weight of salads, fruits, cake and other more substantial eatables, but they soon disappeared, as the appetites were equal to the occasion.

After dinner all enjoyed themselves until 6:30 o'clock when the bride and groom, accompanied by some of the young people, started amid a shower of rice to Gillettown, on the Beech Creek R. R., to take the 8:23 p. m. train for Philadelphia and thence to Wilmington, Del., where a reception was tendered them in their home, which was being prepared during Mr. Pedrick's absence. The bride is a charming woman, one that is loved and respected by all her acquaintances. She is kind, pleasant and sociable.

The groom is a merchant of his city doing a nice business. A man of pleasant manner and an agreeable companion. The company present consisted of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beates, Misses Anna, Maggie, Jennie, Carrie and Edith Beates, C. H. Beates and family, Mrs. E. J. Beates and family, Master Harry Beates, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Heckendorn, Rev. and Mrs. Hassinger, Dr. and Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Arthur Graham, W. H. Yothers of Driftwood, Pa., Curtis Y. Wagner of Bellefonte, Pa., and Miss Ida Cramer.

The presents were numerous, but the writer is not prepared to define them. The flowers were just beautiful, and were all offerings of friends.

In all it was a pleasant affair, and a pleasant day, and a day that will not soon be forgotten. That their union may be one of happiness, comfort and prosperity, is the wish of the writer. J. H.

Books, Magazines Etc.

REUBEN KIPLING to REVIST IN INDIA.—Much interest will be felt by the public in the return of Rudyard Kipling to India. He has just agreed to furnish a regular contribution to The Cosmopolitan Magazine for the coming year, beginning his work upon his return to India. India has never been critically considered by such a pen as Kipling's and what he will write for The Cosmopolitan will attract the widest attention, both here and in England.

Perhaps the most beautiful series of pictures ever presented of the Rocky mountains will be found in a collection of fourteen original paintings, executed by Thomas Moran for the May Cosmopolitan. To those who have been in the Rockies, this issue of The Cosmopolitan will be a souvenir worthy of preservation. This number contains fifty-two original drawings, by Thomas Moran, Oliver Herford, Dan Beard, H. M. Eaton, F. G. Attwood, F. O. Small, F. Lix, J. H. Dolph, and Rosina Emmett Sherwood, besides six reproductions of famous recent works of art, and forty other interesting illustrations—ninety-eight in all. Though The Cosmopolitan sells for but fifteen cents, probably no magazine in the world will present for May so great a number of illustrations specially designed for its pages by famous illustrators. The fiction in this manner is by F. Hopkinson Smith, Gustav Kobbe, W. Clark Russell, Edgar W. Nye, and T. C. Crawford.

A WONDERFUL WORK.—The Standard Dictionary published by Funk & Wagnalls, New York, is meeting with remarkable success among learned men in all parts of the globe. The success of the work is not so surprising when its completeness and excellence are taken into consideration. The following are a few comments made by English commentators: England, April 5, 1895, says: "The merits of the Funk & Wagnalls Standard Dictionary are indisputable, and are abundantly attested by a large number of unimpeachable authorities. It is a remarkably fine specimen of American co-operative literature, and should command a wide and deserved popularity."—London Times.

Scotland, April 4, 1895: "Looked at from any point of view, it is a monumental work—a work which reflects the greatest credit on all concerned in its production."—Glasgow Herald.
