THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—Clean up the streets for the Centennial.

—Everyone should decorate for the Centennial.

—Decorate your building and your house for the Centennial.

—There was a snow storm at North Bend on Tuesday morning.

—“Sorrell” is said to be ruining the grass down in Nittany valley.

—Walker grange will hold a patron's picnic at Hecla park on June 15th.

—The Bellefonte public schools closed on Wednesday with interesting exercises.

—Cherries are said to have been destroyed by the frost in the vicinity of Rebersburg.

—Considerable bark and lumber is being shipped from Lamar, over the C. R. R. of Pa.

—John McGinley has opened a new cigar and tobacco store on the northwest corner of the Diamond.

—Bellefonte has never failed in any of her undertakings. Let the Centennial be made the most colossal of all.

—The seventy-third anniversary of the founding of the Milesburg Baptist church will be celebrated on August 18th.

—The announcement of the engagement of Miss Mary Blanchard has been made. Who to or what for no one seems to know.

—The Diamond is to be paved with composite pavement and Mr. M. Cunningham has the contract for laying it. The work is now in progress.

—The time tables over all the roads advertised in this paper have been corrected so as to conform to the changes in the schedule of running trains.

—Cards are out announcing the coming marriage of Elmer C. Brown, of Huntingdon, to Miss Frances E. Gregg, of Milesburg, which will be solemnized in Milesburg, on June 5th.

—On Sunday, June 30th, Rev. F. S. Dobbins, connected with the American Baptist foreign missionary society, will preach in the Milesburg Baptist church, morning and evening.

—The WATCHMAN will issue a Centennial edition next week, which will be devoted exclusively to Bellefonte, her industries and her environments. It will not be a boom edition, but a paper of historical interest and worth.

—Druggist Sydney Krumrine, of this place, was married to Miss Jennie Bubb, of Williamsport, at noon on Tuesday. The ceremony was solemnized at the bride's home and was a very unpretentious affair. After a honeymoon tour they will go to housekeeping on north Spring street.

—Several months ago the Village Improvement society was organized with the understanding that the Street committee of the council would try, at least, to carry out the society's suggestion. Now is it the society's or council's fault that the ash piles between the Republican office and the Hale building have never been taken away.

—Huckster Kelly's house, near Port Matilda, burned to the ground, on Monday, with nearly all of its contents. The roof caught fire from a stove pipe and Mrs. Kelly, being alone with her children at the time, could do nothing toward stopping the flames. She saved two beds, however. The house was destroyed before her neighbors a mile distant could get to it.

—Rev. H. A. Grant, of the A. M. E. church preached a very strong memorial sermon to Gregg Post, No. 95, G. A. R. of this place last Sunday. The Post attended in a body and were very appreciative of the minister's address. Special music by the choir added materially. In the afternoon the Post held memorial services in their rooms in memory of Col. D. S. Keller, Henry Robb and Ex-Gov. Curtin, all of whom have died within the year.

—The marriage of Miss Stella Nolan, daughter of Mrs. Mary Nolan, and Levy M. Johnson, is to take place at Mrs. Nolan's cottage in Atlantic City, Monday June the third, at twelve o'clock. The wedding is to be a quiet family affair, without attendants or ushers, and immediately after the wedding breakfast the young people will leave for a six week's stay in Canada. The bride to be is the only daughter of the late Edward Nolan, who for years was conductor on the Snow Shoe railroad and like her father she has always been a great favorite. She has lived most of her life in or near that place and we know that Mr. Johnson, who is a wholesale picture dealer in Philadelphia, is to be congratulated.

COME TO THE CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY OF BELLEFONTE.—Next Thursday and Friday will witness the greatest time Bellefonte has ever had. The 100th anniversary of the town will be celebrated in such a magnificent style as will do great credit to a place that never does things by halves. Already the plans for the centenary have shaped themselves so as to forestall two gala days. Two days of pleasure and absolute abandon to century mark festivities. It is hardly probable that any of us will see another such epoch marked off in the history of our town, so let us do ourselves credit in this.

The celebration is to be by no means one for Bellefonte alone, since the people throughout the county are as much interested in it, as their county seat, as we are, as our home. The entire county is expected to join in the celebration and just as much is expected from without as within. The large posters that have been sent broadcast over the country have already announced to you the program of the day and we merely want to add that the features they advertise will truly be seen.

The fire works display will equal those in a production of the gigantic spectacle “Herculeanum,” since the same man is making them and has guaranteed as much. The firemen's parade, on Thursday will be the largest of its kind ever seen here. The parade on Friday will include civic and military orders from all parts of the county, at least ten bands and an industrial division such as will delight the eyes of all beholders. Professional decorators already have paraphernalia here with which to decorate and beautify the town and nothing will be left undone that will tend to make it a most delightful time for all.

FIREMEN'S DAY.

On Thursday the Central District Firemen will hold their annual parade and tournament here, the program of which has already been published. The firemen will begin to arrive Wednesday evening, when the convention will be held to elect officers for the ensuing year. Most of the organizations will come on special trains early Thursday morning. Those that have accepted invitations to be here and participate in the parade of firemen are these: The Volunteer Hose Co. No. 1, of DuBoise, with band; the Union Fire Co. No. 1, of DuBoise, Fourth Ward Hose No. 4, of DuBoise; Van Tassel Hose Co. No. 3, of DuBoise; The Friendship and J. E. DuBoise companies united, of DuBoise. Hope Steam Engine Co. of Phillipsburg, full company with apparatus; the Houtzdale Fire Co. No. 1; the Clearfield Fire Company with band; the Citizens Steam Fire Co. of Tyrone, with apparatus; the Friendship Hook and Ladder Co. of Tyrone, with apparatus; the Excelsior Fire Co. of Bellwood; the Hand-in-Hand Hose Co. of Lock Haven; a delegation from the Good Will and Hope Co's of Lock Haven. All these organizations have expressed their intention of being here officially. Besides these, companies from Osceola Mills, Sunbury, Milton and Bloomsburg have made arrangements to be here, though no official acceptance of their invitations has been received as yet.

CENTENNIAL DAY.

On Friday the Centennial anniversary will be held. The parade that day will include Military, Knights of the Golden Eagle, Patriotic Sons of America, Odd Fellows, bands, cadets, firemen, Grand Army Posts, Historic floats and tableaux industrial exhibits and numerous other attractions. Special trains will run over all rail-roads and excursion rates have been ordered. If you don't come to Bellefonte next week you will be behind the times.

Col Amos Mullen has been chosen chief marshal of the firemen's parade next Thursday.

The firemen have appointed the following joint committees who will have charge of affairs on Thursday, their part of the Centennial celebration.

On Decorations—Frank Williams, James McMahon, Oscar Yerger, Jacob Knically.

On Steamer Contests—W. T. Hillibish, Joseph Wise, J. D. Seibert, Wm. Rodgers.

On Races—H. S. Taylor, Pat Garrity, Frank Williams, John Beezer.

On Reception—Chiefs of Undines and Logans.

BELLEFONTE CENTENNIAL.—All persons in the county, outside of the borough delivery, having articles of interest to loan for the exhibition to be made by the committee on Relics, are requested to send them on Friday or between then and the following Wednesday, by express, addressed to “the committee on Relics, North Ward school house, Bellefonte, Pa.

Express charges will be paid by the committee. They will be carefully preserved and safely returned to the owners, with the thanks of the committee. If persons, who cannot conveniently express articles, will notify the undersigned as to what they have to offer we will send for them.

IRA C. MITCHELL, Chairman.

BELLEFONTE CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.—Reduced rates via Pennsylvania Railroad. For the Centennial celebration, to be held at Bellefonte, Pa., June 5, 6 and 7. The Pennsylvania Railroad company will sell on those dates excursion tickets to Bellefonte and return, from Tyrone, Clearfield, Phillipsburg, Houtzdale, Osceola, Curwensville and intermediate stations, at a single fare for the round trip.

This rate is open to the public and tickets will be good for return passage until June 8, inclusive.

Bellefonte, Pa., May 29th, 1895.

GENTLEMEN.—The Bellefonte Wheelmen propose to hold a grand lantern parade during the celebration of our Centennial and have decided on Thursday evening, June 6th as the time. We cordially invite you and all wheelmen to participate and help make it a grand success for the good of the cause. Two lanterns and outfit will be furnished all wheelmen participating who do not care to furnish their own. The lantern parade will form on Linn street at 7:30 and move sharply at 8 p. m. A day parade will be held on the morning of June 7th in which all wheelmen are invited to participate. Place of forming will be made known later. Hoping to have the pleasure of your company on those days and that you will send us an early reply, we remain

Yours fraternally,
G. L. WILLIAMS, Capt.

J. S. WAITE, Sec.

—At Tyrone Main's shows had the biggest crowd thus far this season.

—A Lock Haven electric car killed Robert Myers' cow, at the toll gate above Flemington, on Tuesday afternoon.

—Rev. W. A. Patton D. D., of Wayne, Pa., will deliver the commencement address at the Birmingham Seminary, on June 5th.

—Highwaymen held up Fred Bloom on the streets of Curwensville a few nights ago and after beating him well took $10 from him.

—A vein of Kolin is said to have been found near Cold stream at Phillipsburg. The clay is the same as that used for making fine grades of porcelain and if the find is genuine it will be a rich thing for its owners.

—Photographer R. K. Bonine, of Tyrone, photographed all the agents and animals of the Main shows when they exhibited in Tyrone on Monday. The pictures will be used in a route book the show people intend publishing.

—The Sinking valley Lutheran church has decided to call Rev. Jacobs to be the pastor of the church. The prospective minister will be graduated from the theological seminary at Gettysburg next month.

—C. F. Allen, of Boalsburg, got drunk in Tyrone one day last week and fell into a stupor in the woods near the railroad station. He did not awaken until the next morning when he found himself minus a gold watch, $15 in cash, a pen knife and other trinkets. Amos Crain and Foster Kaup, two Tyrone companions in the debauch, were arrested for the theft. Part of the stolen articles were found on them.

—A few days' old infant, chucked into a wooden bucket full of alcohol, was a somewhat uncanny sight that disturbed some Houtzdale small boys the other day. It was found in Robert Woods' stable and turned out to have been a “stiff” that Mr. Woods' nephew, a medical student, had shipped there from Philadelphia, so he would have it to operate on during his vacation which he intends spending in Houtzdale.

—On Sunday the Main circus company held memorial services over the graves of those who were killed in the wreck two years ago and are buried in Tyrone. The entire company marched to the cemetery, headed by the band, and listened to an address that Rev. Furbay made appropriate to the occasion. The graves of the deceased circus men were covered with flowers and the entire assemblage sang “Where is My Wandering Boy To-night.”

—The new bridge that Centre and Clearfield counties will build over Moshannon creek, on Presque Isle street, in Phillipsburg, will be begun at once. The traction company of that place had proposed to help build the bridge if room was given it for a rail-way track. The proposition was accepted, but the failure of the company to appropriate money for its share of the bridge has made the county commissioners decide to go ahead and erect an ordinary wagon and foot bridge, without waiting any longer.

—At the recent convention of this district Epworth League, at Curwensville, the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year: W. T. Bair, Phillipsburg, president; S. C. Watts, Lumber City, 1st vice president; Miss May Bracken, Hollidaysburg, 2nd vice president; Prof. G. W. Weaver, Curwensville, 3rd vice president; and D. W. McCurdy, Clearfield, 4th vice president; Miss Lizzie Akers, Bellwood, corresponding secretary; W. M. May, Altoona, recording secretary. Executive committee Dr. D. S. Monroe, and W. L. Woodcock, both of Altoona, and Rev. J. W. Rue, president of the Bellefonte chapter.

A VETERAN IN DEMOCRACY IS DEAD.—Last week we announced the serious illness of W. H. Noll Esq., at Pleasant Gap, but we little thought then that the next issue would contain a notice of his death. After an illness that extended over a year he died last Tuesday afternoon leaving those who survive almost at a loss to know the exact nature of his trouble.

W. H. Noll, Sr., was the eldest son of Samuel Noll and Rebecca Tibbens and was born in the old Benner homestead, at Rock Forge, on April 22nd, 1837. When a young man he married Emeline Eby, who lived with her parents on the Shugert's farm near the Gap. Henry began house keeping for himself then and rented the old Squire Furey farm, where he lived until he moved to his present home.

Mr. Noll was a carpenter by trade and a very good one too. He worked until about a year ago, when he became unfit for such occupation. Seven children survive with their mother. They are: W. H., J. C., J. A., John F., Dr. S. E., Boyd A., and Ethel.

Deceased was one of the most ardent Democratic workers in the party and last fall had all of his six sons home so that they would cast seven solid votes for the ticket. He was a Democrat, true and tried, when it required a courageous nature to stand up for principles of Democracy. He was a member of the Reformed church of this place and funeral services will be held at his late home this morning at 9 o'clock. He was a brother of John Noll, of north Allegheny street.

DEATH OF ROBERT F. RANKIN.—The sincere sympathy of the people of Bellefonte went out to Mrs. Barbara Rankin, of Thomas street, when it was announced that her son, Robert F., had died very unexpectedly at Midway, near Pittsburg, on Tuesday morning.

Robert had purchased a drug store at Midway, some time ago and was getting along so nicely there that his friends were delighted with his prospects. About two weeks ago he came home on a visit to his mother and while here complained of a sore throat and stomach trouble. Nothing was thought to be seriously the matter, however, and no alarm was felt by his friends here until they received a telegram, on Monday night, announcing his dangerous condition. Ed. H. Rankin started at once for the bedside of his brother but 'twas too late, Robert had died before he could get there.

Deceased was 45 years old and leaves three sons to mourn his sad death. They are Fred and Paul, both employed in Philadelphia and Robert, at school at Blairsville, N. J. He was a druggist of exceptional ability and was a graduate of the Philadelphia college of pharmacy. During his life he had been in business in this place, Phillipsburg and Philadelphia, where he was head clerk in the large retail store of Fred Brown, the great troche dispenser. “Bobby,” as his friends were wont to call him, was a generous, open hearted man whom one could not help but like and his death, right in the prime of manhood, seems a singularly sad one.

His mother, his widow, his three sons, three sisters and two brothers survive. The remains were brought here Wednesday and burial was made yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

HANGED HIMSELF IN THE BARN.—In the best of health and financial condition William Wise, a well-to-do farmer who lived within a mile of Woodward, hanged himself last Saturday afternoon.

He had driven to Woodward that day to transact some business and after attending to it he returned home, but he was never seen alive, for later, when his sons went to the barn, they found his body cold and lifeless hanging to a line from the loft above. It is supposed that after he had unitched his horse he just took one of the lines and fastened it overhead in the stable then, climbing a ladder, he fastened the other end round his neck and jumped off.

No cause can be given for the rash act. Mr. Wise had no cares that are known of. He had a pleasant family and everything to make an ordinary man happy. His sad death has cast a gloom over that whole community. He was 38 years old.

STRICKEN IN A POST OFFICE.—While Mr. David Dunkle, a well known and highly esteemed resident of Walker township, was in the post office, at Mingo, Monday morning, his heart failed and he fell over, expiring in a very few moments. He was just in the act of placing a stamp on a letter when the fatal stroke called him to his death. Deceased was 65 years old and leaves a wife and three grown up children. He was a member of the Reformed church and held the general esteem of the community in which he lived. Interment was made on Wednesday at Hublersburg.

—John Phalone, a farmer on the out skirts of Lock Haven, was killed by a train near Westport on Wednesday morning.

CAPTAIN E. D. BRISBIN DEAD.—Captain E. D. Brisbin died at his home at Pennsylvania avenue and Fourteenth street, at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, after suffering from pneumonia about a week.

Captain Ezra Dougherty Brisbin was born at Boalsburg, Centre county, on the 20th of October, 1829, and was 65 years, 7 months and 9 days old. Spending his childhood days at Boalsburg, his parents removed to Williamsburg when the lad was about 12 years of age, where he grew to manhood. At the age of 22 years he went west and lived in Kansas two years, then he returned and settled in Tyrone, where on the 1st of January, 1856, he married Miss Mary M. Maxwell, the daughter of Robert Maxwell, one of Tyrone's early citizens, who with his family in later years removed to the west. Mr. and Mrs. Brisbin remained in Tyrone one year after their marriage, then they removed to Milesburg where they remained about a year, and then removed to Woodbury where they lived some years. They then removed to the west, and after living in Wisconsin about a year settled in Redwing, Minn. They remained in Minnesota until about seven years ago when they returned to Tyrone and have lived here ever since.

Captain Brisbin in disposition was quiet, unostentatious and kind. The surviving brothers are Samuel Brisbin, of Lewistown, and B. V. Brisbin, of Lemont, Centre county.—Wednesday's Tyrone Herald.

—Conductor Allison Haupt, of Tyrone, has the sincere sympathy of his many friends in his vicinity in this time of bereavement. His only daughter, Miss Bertha, died last Saturday afternoon from heart disease brought about by grip and inflammatory rheumatism. Deceased was just 25 years and 10 months old and a most exemplary christian girl. On the Monday previous to her death her grandmother died, hence it would seem that the parents' burden of sorrow is a great one.

Mrs. W. U. Herr, of Salona, a member of the Baptist church, died on Monday night, from the effects of an operation for appendicitis that was made on Saturday. Deceased was 34 years of age and leaves a husband with two children to mourn her death. Her remains were interred in the cemetery at Salona yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Puff, relict of John Puff who died on April 29th, died at her home on Halfmoon hill, on Monday afternoon, exactly four weeks after the death of her husband. Interment was made on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Elias Stover died at her home in Rebersburg last Monday and her remains were buried yesterday. That same evening Mrs. Aaron Leitzell died, just four weeks to the day and almost to the hour of the time of the death of her husband.

—Miss Julia Longsdorf died at her home in Loganton, on Tuesday morning. She died of hemorrhages and was buried yesterday.

—The Phillipsburg Ledger says: Thomas Redding, of Chester Hill, is suffering with a sore arm, the result of a singular accident. His cow choked on a piece of turnip and Mr. Redding thrust his hand down her throat trying to remove the obstruction. The cow, furious with alarm and pain, bit him twice, once on the elbow when his hand was in her throat, and again on the hand as he was trying to free his arm.

News Purely Personal.

—Mrs. Aaron Williams, of this place, and her mother, Mrs. Fisher, of Indiana, visited Mrs. Harry Teats, in Curwensville, last week.

—Mrs. Isaac Mitchell and her two sisters, Misses Eliza and Mary Thomas, sail Monday for Europe where they expect to spend the summer.

—Ed. Knupp, the man who looks after the advertising part of Main's shows, was here on Tuesday. He is a very agreeable fellow and knows the circus business all over.

—Mrs. George F. Miller, of Philadelphia, is out at Mrs. Tonner's, at the Forge, for the summer. Her husband is head of North & Co.'s music house on Market street.

—Mr. G. W. Homan, of Pine Grove Mills was in town last Friday, and found time to call at this office. Mr. Homan is a very pleasant gentleman whom we are always glad to see.

—F. P. Bower Esq., came up from Aaron'sburg, on Saturday, to spend a day in Bellefonte. We were very sorry that we did not get to see him when he called at this office, but hope he will return soon again.

—G. W. Glase, of Catawac, Clearfield county, was in town last week. He had been over Sausky farm for $3,500. Peter Odenkirk farms it now but Mr. Glase will take possession next spring.

—John I. Hamilton and Fred Rankin and James Kinloch, of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kinloch, of Phillipsburg, Mrs. D. H. Hastings, of Harrisburg, Robert Rankin, of Blairsville, N. J., and Mrs. Rankin, of Lancaster, attended the funeral of the late R. F. Rankin yesterday morning.

WHAT PERSEVERANCE HAS DONE.—The other day Robert M. Foster Esq., sold his fine dwelling house on the main street at State College to Mr. Henry Grimm. This transaction, in itself, was not anything remarkable, but when the circumstances surrounding it are known the sale appears in an entirely different phase.

Only a few years ago Mr. Grimm arrived at State College to work on a tailor's bench for Shaeffer & Sons, who were then merchant tailors of that place. Some time later the Shaeffers bought out a firm of Arch street, Phila., tailors, and then Mr. Grimm succeeded them in business at State College. By earnest attention to his work and giving satisfaction to all he has built up a trade that in such a short time has justified him in making the purchase of one of the most desirable homes at State College.

Mr. Grimm is one of the right kind of men for a town to have.

A WRECK ON THE BEECH CREEK R. R.—An east bound passenger train on the Beech Creek railroad ran into a pusher engine that was going west on Monday morning. The accident occurred in a reverse curve on the east side of the viaduct and had the freight engine been drawing a train of cars it would have been far more serious than it was. The engineer of the passenger train could not see the approaching engine until he was within a short distance of it. Too short to stop and the collision followed.

The passengers were all considerably knocked about, but no one was seriously hurt. Old Mrs. Samuel Haddock, of Snow Shoe, was thrown against a car stove and was badly cut about the face, besides having had several of her lower teeth knocked out. C. W. Smith, of Clearfield, was on the train.

WANTED.—At Lyon & Co's store, Bellefonte, 50,000 lbs. wool.

A BAD DEFEAT.—The Robert M. Foster base ball club, of State College, journeyed over to Phillipsburg in a hack, last Thursday, to clean up John McCloskey's club. They failed to do it, however, and returned home losers by the score of 18 to 7. The College boys were ahead up to the sixth inning when the Phillipsburgers made 8 runs and settled the game. It is said that Sam Graham has survived the diet of snow balls, which he claimed the manager of the old Bellefonte Mountain League club tried to force him to live upon one time, and distinguished himself by making a brilliant one handed fly catch in centre field. The Ledger did not state whether it was a bottle or horse fly that Sam caught.

—The coming Centennial of Bellefonte—will be an enormous and phenomenal success, mark our work for it. Our clothing business is going to be greater than ever—and to enable you to “fall into line”—we give you all the opportunity you can possibly wish. Buy clothing, hats, mens furnishings, ladies waists, chemisettes, ties and Sterling silver sets for waists from us. MONTGOMERY & CO. tailors and clothiers.

WHERE YOU CAN BUY THE CHEAPEST.—It is a question of dollars and cents after all. No matter what people say it is as natural to save a penny in buying as it is to eat dinner at the dinner hour. Opportunities to make great savings are not often to be had, but Lyon & Co.'s, big advertisement in this issue affords just such a chance. Read it and profit by the bargains it holds out. A dollar saved is a dollar earned.
