In 1867 he put up six dwellings, and the next year added the most beautiful and valuable improvement in Bellefonte, the "Bush House," which has a favorable reputation throughout the State. It is located near the passenger depot of the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, on an island formed by Spring Creek and the race which conveys water from that stream to the mills below. The building has a front of one hundred and forty-five feet on High street, with wings of one hundred and twenty feet each. It is built of brick, four stories high, and contains one hundred and twenty-five sleeping apartments, with ample accommodations for three hundred guests. The house is supplied with all modern conveniences, and is thoroughly ventilated. Halls twenty feet wide extend the entire length of the building. Every floor supplied with cold spring water and hot and cold baths.

The parlor is a most attractive room on the second floor, overlooking the river, with a view of Spring Creek, and within a few rods of the house is the celebrated spring from which the town derived its name. In 1868-69, Mr. Bush also built the fine brick block opposite the "Bush House," and added to the dwellings of the town some fourteen buildings. In 1869 he erected a block of three dwellings on Spring street, in all twenty-seven. He is consequently without a rival in adding to the natural interests of Bellefonte and Centre county. In order to show their appreciation of Mr. Bush's public spirit, all the leading citizens of Bellefonte on the 4th of May, 1869, joined in a letter of thanks to him and the tender of a public dinner at the Bush House, which Mr. Bush accepted and designated June 1st for the occasion, which passed with great eclat.

In 1873 Mr. Bush went to Elizabeth City, N. C. and there with T. Conrow, of Philadelphia, made large purchases of city and country property. This partnership became dissolved by the death of Mr. Conrow in 1882. At Elizabeth City Mr. Bush formed an organization for the purpose of building a railroad from Norfolk, but failing to get Northern capital interested he resigned the presidency in 1875. He, however, again took hold of the project in 1879, and succeeded in forming a syndicate in New York, which built the road, and it was opened through in 1881. Since the completion of this road there is more demand for property, and his investments there, which were a source of much trouble, are likely to prove fortunate. Following his bent for improvements, he built fourteen houses in Bellefonte in 1881.

In 1868 he went to Pittsburgh and obtained the best method of building a glass furnace with minute details as to cost of building and running the same and came home and raised a company and built the works subscribing considerable stock himself.

The car works was started in 1873, Mr. Bush contributing the use of the valuable water power and subscribed $10,000 stock. He being elected the first president of the Company.

He was also chiefly instrumental in getting the nail works here. Mr. Achenbach having come to the town to try and start a company but left without success. Mr. Bush not being home at the time. He met him at Lock Haven and brought him back and immediately called a few of the influential citizens together and a Company was formed and the nail works built.

The following is an extract from his obituary published in this paper on Friday, September 24th, 1886, the morning after his death.

BELLEFONTE'S BENEFACTORS GONE.—The death of D. G. Bush, Esq., which occurred at his residence in this place on yesterday (Thursday) morning, of a complication of diseases which have kept him in poor health for several years, removes from our midst one of the biggest-hearted, liberal-minded and enterprising citizens this section of the State has ever had. In his death Bellefonte loses one who has done more to build up the town, to enlarge its business facilities, to add to its real wealth, and to improve it in every way, than all its other capitalists combined. It loses a citizen whom every one respected; a neighbor who was loved by all; a man who needed no seals or written contracts to require him to keep his word; whose integrity was above suspicion and whose liberality in public enterprises to whom might feel proud to emulate.

HISTORY OF SECRET SOCIETIES IN BELLEFONTE.

A Story of the Fraternal Organizations in the Town—Their Dates of Incorporation and Present Condition.

FREEMASONS.

The first secret organization formed in Bellefonte, of which there remains any record, was a lodge of Free Accepted Masons known as Central Lodge No. 192. The Bellefonte Patriot of 1825 contains a notice of a procession by this lodge on Dec. 27 of that year under the charge of John Rankin, Constans Curtin and Jas. Armour. The loss of the masonic records, by fire in 1887, included the records of this lodge and prevents the procuring of any authentic information in regard to its history. It seems to have gone out of existence some time prior to 1850, probably during the anti-masonic war.

Bellefonte Lodge, No. 268, F. and A. M., was chartered Jan. 24th, 1853. The list of charter members include James Armour, Isaac May, Andrew Gregg, James Gilliland and Aaron Stewart, who were among the influential and leading citizens of Bellefonte at that date. The first lodge room was in the building known at that date as The Old Fellows Temple. It is very probable that this lodge is a re-organization of the old Central Lodge which had ceased to meet as a lodge on account of the antagonism to masonry that existed in the public mind during the later part of the "forties." If this surmise is correct the Masonic Lodge is the oldest secret organization in Bellefonte. When the first Arcade was built, the lodge secured rooms in it and furnished them very handsomely. The building was destroyed by fire in January of 1877 and the lodge suffered a severe loss in all its paraphernalia and records. Rooms were then secured in the new bank building of W. F. Reynolds, on the southeast corner of the Diamond, where the corner of the lodge is at present. The present membership of the Blue Lodge is something over a hundred.

The officers of the current term are: W. M., John Noll; S. W., C. P. Hewes; J. W., F. H. Clemson; Sec. Geo. B. Johnston. Time of meeting, the Tuesday on or before the full moon of each month.

Constans Commandery No. 33, Knight Templar was chartered June 10th, 1868, S. T. Shugert being the first eminent commander. The 21st annual convocation of the Knights Templar was held in Bellefonte, May 12, 1874. Present officers are: C. R. Hewes, eminent commander; A. C. Mingle, generalissimo; W. F. Reeder, captain general; Geo. B. Johnston recorder. Time of meeting, second Friday of each month.

Bellefonte chapter No. 241, Royal Arch Masons was chartered May 2, 1872. D. G. Bush being the first high priest. Present officers are: W. F. Reeder, high priest; M. O'Donoghue, king; Geo. B. Johnston, secretary. Time of meeting, first Friday of the month.

ODD FELLOWS.

Centre Lodge No. 152, I. O. O. F. was instituted Feb. 23, 1846, and re-organized April 10, 1848, since which time it has enjoyed an uninterrupted existence. James Armour and James Gilliland were two active members at the time of its organization and through their help and influence a suitable building was erected for the use of the lodge on High street north of the Court House and was known as The Odd Fellows Temple. This building is still standing and is now occupied as a dwelling house, it continued to be the home of Centre Lodge for many years, but was finally abandoned in 18— for more desirable quarters in the McClain block, opposite the Bush House. In 1887 they leased the 3rd floor of the Crider building, on High street, adjoining Crider's Exchange and have fitted it up and furnished it for the use of the lodge and the encampment. The present membership is 120.

Bellefonte Encampment No. 72, I. O. O. F. was chartered Mar. 6, 1872. The Odd Fellows enjoy the distinction of being the oldest organization in continuous existence in Bellefonte. It is in a flourishing and prospering condition and has in its membership many of our wealthy and prominent citizens. Time of meeting for the lodge every Thursday evening. Encampment, 2d and 4th Mondays of the month.

KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN EAGLE.

Bellefonte Castle, No. 357, K. G. E. of Pa., was instituted April 8, 1890, with a charter membership of 50. Although a young organization it has established for itself an excellent foundation and has excellent prospects of a long life. Its membership is about 140 and the present officers are: J. S. Strayer, N. C.; C. C. Bell, V. C.; H. W. Bickle, M. of R. Time of meeting every Tuesday evening.

Bellefonte Commandery No. 89, K. G. E. was organized May 1st, 1894, and has a membership of 41 Sir Knights. H. S. Taylor is chaplain and S. D. Gettig secretary. The Eagles have leased the 3rd floor of the new building, E. S. Pruner is erecting on Allegheny street and will furnish and occupy them as soon as the building is completed. At present the Castle meets in McClain's block opposite the Bush House. In the way of public demonstrations by this order, the Eagles of Central Pennsylvania held a reunion in Bellefonte Aug. 18, 1892.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

It was reorganized, however, Jan. 1, 1892 with 26 members. Its membership is now 50 and total insurance carried amounts to over $70,000. The conclave meets the 1st and 3rd Friys of the month in the G. A. R. room. Present officers: H. K. Hoy, shon; Geo. Mallory, provost; A. Dalnigh priest; H. H. Harshberger, secary.

The present membership is 25; the officers are: Edward Sunday, councillor; Jno. Clapper, vice coullor; H. B. Askey, recording secary. The council meets in the hall the Knights of the Mystic Chain, Crider's Exchange. On Columbus, Oct. 21, 1892, this council raised handsome silk flag over the Highschool building in the borough.

Deafness, Ringing Noises and Catarrh Cured by Dr. Salm.

For a long time I noticed that I became gradually harder and harder of hearing. Ringing noises came in the ear after a while, and I became very much alarmed. So I went to Dr. Salm and put myself under his care and to-day I am grateful to state, and for the benefit of those who may suffer in a like manner, that I can hear once again as good as ever, and those infernal noises have disappeared, although I am nearly 60 years old. Dr. Salm said all of it was caused by catarrh. M. B. BUCK, Spring Mills, Centre Co., Pa.

Some years ago I contracted catarrh and it went to my ears. Gradually I became worse and my ears began to trouble me very much, my strength began to give out, and I became weaker and weaker so that I was not able to work. I took treatment from several of our doctors in the county, but somehow they couldn't do me any good; so I went to see Dr. Salm. He promised to cure me, and I dare say, he kept his word, for to-day I am again stout and healthy as could be expected of any one of my age, 69 years, and I find, but they value received for the money paid to the doctor.
