

O CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN!

O captain, my captain, our fearful trip is done; The ship has weathered every rack; the prize we sought is won; The port is near, the bells I hear, the people all exulting.

THE PRAIRIE BRIGAND.

Reveries come and not all have the strength to meet them. In this case Mrs. Pendleton succumbed to them, and her funeral was added to the weight of woes suddenly heaped upon the household.

Mr. Pendleton opened his eyes. "I am right, quite right now. I suppose the trench saved my life, but in running from the fire I stumbled into it, and that was the last I knew clearly of anything until you rescued me, Herbert."

Pomona Grange, No. 13. Patrons of Centre County in Council. Pomona Grange No. 13, met in the hall of Bald Eagle Grange, at Milesburg, on the 28th ult. A respectable number of representative patrons from different sections of the county were present.

urging that co-operation and combination were absolutely necessary among farmers, that concentration of brains, backed by capital, were the most formidable weapons in time of peace, and just as necessary as the spear and javelin and modern muniments in time of war.

For and About Women. Long brisk walks have a wonderful beautifying effect upon the skin, as is proved by the brilliant complexions of the English women, who walk constantly in all weathers.
