

Farm Notes.

Lime is applied to the soil to the best advantage in the late summer or fall. Its tendency is downward, hence it is advisable to simply broadcast it over the surface of land that has been plowed and allow the rains to carry it down.

EFFECTS OF LIME ON SOILS. Lime as it comes from limestone is carbonate of lime until burned, when the carbonic acid is then driven off, leaving the caustic (oxide of calcium).

GREEN CROPS. When lime is used on land that has grown a green crop, and which has been recently turned under, the lime immediately induces chemical action, especially with the enormous amount of vegetable matter in a succulent or green condition, forming numerous salts, and thus hastening decomposition.

—The old strawberry beds that have just been picked over can be made to do good service next year if they are kept clear of weeds and grass. Old beds come into bearing early; that is, the first pickings are secured from old beds before the berries on new beds are ripe.

—Beets are luxuries on the table when tender and free from toughness. The first crop soon becomes unfit for the purpose of table use if allowed to remain in the ground to grow larger than medium size.

—Cabbage may be protected against the cabbage worm by watching for the white butterflies and destroying them. This may appear as tedious work, but, never-the-less, it is practiced by many growers with excellent results, being more economical than endeavoring to destroy the worms in the cabbages.

—The early cabbage should be given a small amount of nitrate of soda should the leaves not have a green and healthy appearance. The nitrate shows wonderfully on cabbage, the effects being noticed in 48 hours if a rain comes on after the fertilizer is applied.

—Over 5000 horses were sent to England from the United States the first four months of this year, against 2000 for the same period last year, which indicates that our trade in horses with Europe is increasing.

—After the tomato plants have made progress in the open air apply superphosphate on the land broadcasted, at the rate of about 200 pounds per acre.

—Where limbs of trees have been injured by winds saw them off so as to leave a smooth surface, and then apply melted tallow to the exposed portion.

The Art of Spelling.

Many Distinguished People Who Were Miserable Failures in this Direction.

A little boy examined before a magistrate, was asked to spell the sentence, "I am grateful for the benefits I have received." He managed to spell it all correctly, except the last word, which he wrote thus, "received."

Take two ladies first, Sarah Bernhardt cannot spell well, and one of our own most celebrated actresses does not spell correctly. In a recent autograph letter of hers we find "occurred."

Among literary men, a famous journalist is a conspicuously bad speller. A brief examination of his "copy" is generally sufficient to discover an error. In a short letter of his occurs the curious blunder "populer."

But plenty of authors slip occasionally. Even Oliver Wendell Holmes makes a mistake in spelling the rather common word "indispensible," which he writes "indispensible."

Tedious Suffering Finds Relief. HAYVERHILL, N. H.—Many physicians have pronounced as incurable, diseases of the skin and blood. Mrs. Hodson of this place abandoned the old method used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and was cured.

In October, 1890, Mrs. Hodson suffered from a diseased ankle bone. She had always been troubled with Salt Rheum which aggravated the diseased limb. Prescriptions of all sorts were used, but with no benefit. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was tried and it drove the poison out of her blood, healed the ulcerous sores, and restored Mrs. Hodson to health and strength.

The Wisdom of the Past. "Twas said by ancient sages That love of life increased with years So much, that in our latter stages, When pains grow sharp and sickness rages, The greatest love of life appears."

—Scannahan and McLaughlin, who have been buying up walnut logs in Clinton county, have gone to Turbotville. The gentlemen will buy up all the walnut in the eastern and southern parts of the state during the summer and will ship it to Europe.

George W. Vanderbilt has already spent $4,000,000 on his Asheville N. C. home. It will cost at least $2,000,000 more to complete the place.

—Pimples, boils and other humors of the blood are liable to break out in the warm weather. Prevent it by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Children Cry or Pitcher's Castoria. When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
