

—Eustace B. Grimes, at one time stenographer for the Bellefonte Furnace Co., but now private secretary for William F. Harritt Esq., of Philadelphia, was married to Miss Anna E. Bergstrom, of the Quaker city, on Wednesday of last week. The bride and groom will reside in West Philadelphia.

—Harriet Kissell, aged 22 years, died of consumption at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Lannen, in Union township, on July 5th. Deceased had been employed in a silk mill at Wilkes-Barre, but failing health necessitated her returning to Centre county where she suffered from two months previous to her death. Burial was made in Emerick's cemetery last Sunday.

—A Miss Edmunson, of Mill Hall, was out horse back riding with a young lady visitor from Philadelphia, on Monday evening. The riders got along nicely until they reached the intersection of Henderson and Main streets, in Lock Haven. There the visitor's horse stumbled and threw her heavily to the ground. She alighted on her head and then the horse, falling on her, injured her quite seriously.

—Pawnee Bill's historic and realistic wild west show exhibited on the glass works lot here, on Wednesday, and pleased a good crowd. The riding and shooting was very good. During the two horse standing race, in the afternoon, one of the riders went down when his horse tripped on a tent peg and narrowly escaped being trampled to death. As it was he was cut and bruised considerably, for both horses tramped over him, and a leg that had been broken some time ago was crippled up again.

And the fish worm swallows the whale,
When the robin knits woolen socks
And the hare is out on the trail;

And doodle bugs travel like frogs,
When grasshoppers feed on the hen

And elephants roost on trees,
When insects in summer are rare
And snuff never makes people sneeze,
When fish creep over dry land
And mules on velocipedes ride,
When foxes lay eggs in the sand

When Dutchmen no longer drink beer
And the girls get to preaching on time,
When billy goats butt from the rear

Pine Grove Mention.
The patronage of the wild west show at the county capital on the 10th, was poor from this section.

Aside from the small boys and the fire cracker brigade the glorious Fourth of 1895 passed quietly in our town.
The hay crop is the lightest known in this section for years. Wheat although not heavy nor tall in straw is said to be well filled and this week will find the bulk of the crop banded in excellent condition.

Miss Nonie Hess, the accomplished daughter of Michael Hess, visited among Williamsport friends last week. She thoroughly enjoyed the Centennial celebration and did not even complain of the noisy Fourth.

The long looked for rain that had been so anxiously watched for came just in time to benefit all growing crops. The oats that were thought to be a failure will now head out but still there will be a shortage in straw.

Our merchant friend D. H. Weaver on the old sample corner is seriously considering whether or not to dispose of his entire stock of merchandise to parties who are anxious to measure out goods by the web, yard or gallon.
Grandmother Shiffer a sprightly and well preserved old lady after spending several months among friends abroad returned home last week looking bright and cheery as ever. She was accompanied by her daughter Mrs. W. H. Musser.

Last week Rev. C. T. Aikens returned to his flock after a month's vacation among Hanover friends where he recaptured and rested. We will say nothing of the delicacies and feasts for he is just now having to diet to make up for all the good things he enjoyed.

Rev. W. C. Dunlap, of Duncannon, is this week circulating among old cronies herabouts with headquarters at his mothers cheerful home on Main street. He says the good times are surely here and that the iron trade grows better every day—so much for the Wilson tariff.

Port Matilda Pointers.
The Fourth of July was celebrated by the citizens of Port Matilda in the highest sense of patriotism. With the town beautifully decorated with flags and bunting an arch of artistic design built across the "diamond" and general business suspended.

The glory of the day began at 8 o'clock sharp by the raising of a Liberty pole which when raised with the stars and stripes proudly floating from its summit recalled to the minds of the many who surrounded it the story of our Freedom, which was rehearsed by Rev. G. P. Sarris, in a very able address. After which chief marshal S. R. Pringle, assisted by A. S. Price and Arch. Woodring formed the grand parade which consisted of Port Matilda's four Sabbath schools, representatives from the Orders of G. A. R., I. O. O. F., G. E. and P. O. S. of A., headed by the Scotia and Port Matilda cornet bands.

They marched to Beckwith's grove where Rev. Ott rendered some very fine vocal music and by the request of S. R. Pringle, Andrew Curtin Thompson made some very clear and pointed remarks bearing on the land of the free.
The multitude then sat down to partake of the contents of their baskets which were bountiful in the extreme. After dinner miscellaneous amusements were indulged in when all returned to town to the program completed by the sporting circle, which consisted of base ball games and bicycle racing, the tub race being called off on account of Chaney and Thompson's mill pond being filled with logs brought down by a recent freshet. Last but not the least was the army of fanatics who are as necessary in completing a program on a big day as a clown is in completing a first class circus. This was the closing scene of the grand day in Port Matilda.

Your correspondent was in luck again at the Fourth of July picnic. This time it was the extended hospitality of Mr. Christ Reese and his amiable wife who placed before us all the good things of life we cared to enjoy for one day.

It is proper to say that Archibald Woodring presented a fine appearance on horseback as marshal in the Fourth of July parade, sitting erect on his prancing steed he looked as well as a West Point graduate.

A large grain crop is being harvested in this section.

"O, will he paint me the way I want,
As honey as a girlie,
Or will he paint me an ugly tyke,
And be d—d to Mr. Nerli
But still and on which ever it is,
He is a casty Kerlie.
The Lord protect the back and neck
Of honest Mr. Nerli."
This, one of the last verses ever written by Robert Louis Stevenson, is in reference to the portrait of himself, which is given to the public with his verse for the first time in the July Cosmopolitan. The lines might have come from the pen of Burns, and are inimitable in their way. The portrait was declared by Stevenson himself to be the best ever painted of him. In this same number of the Cosmopolitan Rudyard Kipling tells an Indian story, to which Remington adds charming illustrations. Mrs. Burton Harrison makes a serious study of New York society in "The Myth of the Four Hundred," and Kate Douglas Wiggin contributes a story of one of the most delightful of Welsh retreats. The Cosmopolitan was with this number reduced to ten cents per copy, and as a consequence, notwithstanding its large edition, it was "out of print" on the third day of publication.

The Firemen are Thankful.
ED. WATCHMAN
Dear Sir:—The members of the Undine Fire Company desire through the columns of your paper to extend their thanks to the young ladies who assisted them on July 4th at their picnic and also to those people who so generously donated provisions and to the WATCHMAN and other papers who without charge to us were kind enough to advertise the picnic and make it a success.

Deafness, Ringing Noises and Catarrh Cured by Dr. Salm.

For a long time I noticed that I became gradually harder and harder of hearing. Ringing noises came in the ear after a while, and I became very much alarmed. So I went to Dr. Salm and put myself under his care and to-day I am grateful to state, and for the benefit of those who may suffer in a like manner, that I can hear once again as good as ever, and those infernal noises have disappeared, although I am nearly 60 years old. Dr. Salm said all of it was caused by catarrh. M. B. Buck, Spring Mills, Centre Co., Pa.

A Lady 29 Years Old Cured of Catarrh and Deafness.

Some years ago I contracted catarrh and it went to my ears. Gradually I became worse and my ears began to trouble me very much, my strength began to give out, and I became weaker and weaker so that I was not able to work. I took treatment from several of our doctors in the country, but somehow they couldn't do me any good; so I went to see Dr. Salm. He promised to cure me, and I dare say he kept his word, for to-day I am again stout and healthy as could be expected of any one of my age, 62 years, and I find that I got value received for the money paid to the doctor. Mas. Jacob D. FINDLEY, Brush Valley, Indiana Co., Pa.

Thought His Time Had Come but was Cured by Dr. Salm.

For some years I have been suffering very much with various ailments and broke down at last. I suffered most excruciating pain from head to foot all the time. My stomach troubled me a good deal, liver and kidneys as well were out of order. In fact, I thought my time had come. The doctors couldn't do me any good; patent medicines had no effect; so I went at last to Dr. Salm, and after a course of treatment, I am now again as hale and hearty and strong as ever. F. L. CONVER, Warriors Mark, Huntington Co., Pa.

Scrofulous Limb of 8 Years Standing Cured.

For the last 8 years I have had fearfully sore limbs; they would swell and break open and run; giving me a world of trouble, and making me unfit for my daily labor. I have had four Doctors trying to cure me, but they couldn't do it. At last I went to Dr. Salm, who made a perfect and complete cure, and I feel as if I could enjoy life once more. ERNEST V. GUTHRIE, Kittanning, Armstrong Co., Pa.

Growth Removed from the Eye-Ball by Dr. Salm.

For 10 years my wife, Susanna, had something growing over her eye, making her almost blind. Dr. Salm performed an operation, and made a perfect success, as she can now again thread the finest needle, and read the finest print, and her eyes do not give her the least trouble. It was a fine piece of work. JOHN BRIDGES, Holsopple, Somerset Co., Pa.

Granulated Lid, Cured by Dr. Salm.

For the last 4 years I have been troubled very much with granulated eye lids; it partly blinded me. Doctors here did me no good; it also seemed to affect my general health. Dr. Salm has cured me. I can again see splendidly, and feel better than ever. ESSIE THOMAS, Indiana, Pa., Dec. 5th, 1894.

After Total Blindness Made to See by Dr. Salm.

About 1 year ago my brother accidentally hit me in my left eye, with a bow-gun. I began to get blind rapidly in that eye, and in a short time, could not see anything out of it; total blindness was caused by the hurt. I heard so much of Dr. Salm's wonderful success in his eye operations, that I went to him, and he has once more proven his wonderful skill on my eye. For to-day, after having been totally blind, I can see splendidly out of the same again. JOSEPH HENRY, Stinton, Somerset Co., Pa. March 25th, 1895.

Case of Stomach and Inward Trouble Cured by Dr. Salm.

For some months I have been feeling miserably, on account of stomach and private trouble. I was always afraid to eat, and the pain in my stomach and chest was terrible, but after a term of treatment, I feel now, once more, as good as ever. I can eat everything again, without trouble, thanks to Dr. Salm's wonderful treatment. THERESIE DEYEAUGH, Dunlo, Cambria Co., Pa.
