

AN ANARCHIST CAUGHT AT SCOTIA.

The Tyrone and Lewisburg train Tuesday evening brought to town three passengers, one of whom is a young New York lawyer, named Carl F. Hartman, an other a Pittsburg detective named C. F. Alexander, and the third, a German resident of Scotia who was a prisoner of the other two. The prisoner, whose name is Simon Dunshot, is charged with being an anarchist, and having blown up a jail and an adjoining building or two with dynamite in his native country about two years ago. He located at Scotia about a dozen years ago and was employed as an ore washer there. About three years ago, leaving his family here, he made a trip to Germany, returning about a year later. During his absence it seems he was arrested several times for violations of German laws. The last time, he broke jail, committed crime as stated above and made good his escape to this country, first going to Minnesota and returning to Scotia later. Since that time the New York lawyer, under an arrangement with the German authorities, has been searching for the escaped criminal, finally locating and arresting Dunshot as the man.

Evidently the matter has been weighing heavily upon Dunshot's mind lest he would be discovered, arrested and conveyed to the home of his earlier life, where he would be tried and punished for the heinous crime. The saying that "murder will out" seems to have proven true in this case. Recently, Dunshot was in Pittsburg and making some inquiry as to about what it would cost to arrest and transport a criminal from here to Germany opened the way to his arrest. With this clue and others which developed through his correspondence the detective and the lawyer finally located their man, and coming here Monday evening proceeded to Scotia, Tuesday morning, where they made the arrest. The arrest was made near the ore washer and the officer and his associate had considerable of a tussle with their man and his family, during which a little son of Dunshot about twelve years old, made an effort to stab Hartman with a knife. The lawyer, however, succeeded in wrenching the knife from the boy's hands and put it in his pocket. He will keep it as a memento of an exciting experience outside his usual business.

When brought to town last evening Dunshot was suffering very much from fright. He trembled like an aspen leaf and not a bit of color was in his face. During the hour spent in town he was subjected to the gaze of a curious public. When sitting he would hang his head and hide his handcuffed wrists between his legs. The trio left on Philadelphia express at 9:33 o'clock last night for New York, from which city the prisoner will be taken back to the place where the crime was committed, where he will doubtless be tried, and if convicted will certainly suffer a penalty that will make it impossible for him to commit further crime. Before leaving here a chain and pad lock was purchased for the purpose of chaining the prisoner to the car seat.

The object in Dunshot inquiring as to the probable cost of arrest and transportation of a criminal from this country to Europe was, it is thought, to get information which would help him to decide whether he was probably pursued or not, thinking, likely, that if it was very expensive no effort was being made to apprehend him. He was told that the expense would likely run into the thousands of dollars. The answer brightened up his countenance and led the detective on his track.—Tyrone Herald.

COUNCILMAN H. C. VALENTINE.—At the regular meeting of council held Monday night, Harry C. Valentine, of West Curtin street, was unanimously elected to succeed Judge James A. Beaver, resigned, as a member from the North ward. Mr. Valentine knew nothing of his honor until Tuesday morning, when he was notified of his election; when he accepted. Council's choice to fill the vacancy is a good one and will meet with the approbation of all residents of the ward.

Among the other business transacted was hearing reports of committees in which many gutters, crossings and streets were reported in bad shape. The Market committee reported the collection of $10.20 taxes.

A complaint was made by L. T. Munson and Col. J. L. Spangler that the sewer near their properties, on Allegheny street, being too small for the service it is put to, there is an unwholesome stench arising from the manholes there most of the time. The matter was referred to the Street committee for investigation. It is a notorious fact that the sewer mentioned is an abominable nuisance and something should be done to abate it. With every heavy rain that falls it overflows and the overflow fills up the basement of Mr. Munson's house with filth of every description. It is injurious to the health of that community and good sanitary regulations would not allow it to exist in its present condition any longer than it will take to close it entirely or enlarge it enough for the service put upon it.

Pine Grove Mention.

Tommy Gray smilingly reports a boy at his home who is only a few days old. Daniel Decker and family, of Altoona, are enjoying their usual summer outing among friends hereabouts.

Harvesting is on the wane and the steam thrasher is hulling out the golden grain which is of excellent quality and yielding fairly well.

The friends of Miss Minnie Kline, who was taken to the Presbyterian hospital at Philadelphia last February for spinal trouble will be glad to hear that she is now able to walk alone and her improvement is so rapid that she expects to be home in a few weeks.

Mr. G. W. McWilliams contemplates a return to the Philadelphia University hospital to be under a special oculist in hopes that the sight may be restored to his remaining eye. Physically he is hale and hearty having gained much in flesh during the summer months and it is only at times that he suffers intense pain in his eye and head.

Last Saturday the 13th inst, our School Board selected the teachers for the ensuing school term viz: Pine Grove, grammar school, G. W. Ward; Pine Grove primary school, Beckie Bollinger; Branch, Bessie Walker; White Hall, H. C. Myers; Oak Grove, A. J. Tate; Pine Hill, Cora McCormick; Krumrine, J. C. Hartwick; Centre, J. B. Ellenberger; Kepler, Wm. Keller; Glades, Frank Bailey; J. Tate, Lemont grammar; Baileyville, Samuel Woods; Penna. Furnace, Sadie Keichline; Tadpole, Mitchell Garbrick; Gatesburg, J. H. Keoch; Maringo, Gerlie Osman. The selection was made from some thirty applicants many of whom were experienced teachers. They were set aside and unexperienced teachers elected but the board did what they thought best.

Democrats Elected in York.

YORK, Pa., July 16.—A special election in the First, Fourth and Seventh wards for Select Councilmen to-day resulted in the choice of the Democratic candidates. This takes the control of the town from the Republicans. Charles Wilson was elected in the Seventh ward, Sebastian Moyer in the first, and B. C. Pentz, in the Fourth ward.
