The following seven delegates to the state convention were elected to support Quay for chairman : Lewis M. Kelly and William E. Naile, of Norristown; Thomas H. Barker, of Lower Merion Addison Eppeheimer, of Royersford; John K. Light, of Conshohocken; Thomas O. Scott, of North Wales, and William Leas, of Horsham.

Atkinson for judge of the Superior court, and approving the services of Congressman Mahon, Senator Woods and Representative Wilson.

Mrs. Aikens' sister, Mrs. I. J. O'Niell, of Hanover, with her two interesting little children are visitors at the parsonage this week.

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. Arabella Zimmerman was recently so badly poisoned about the face with sumac that she has been under the doctor's care for some days.

We gladly note the improvement of H. B. Smith, who is ill at the home of his daughter at Potters Mills. For some time he was unconscious but is now able to speak.

Carlisle Hoy. little son of G. W. Hoy, is suffering from a broken arm, the result of an eight foot fall. Dr. Woods adjusted the break and the little fellow is doing as well as the illustrious man he is named for could do under the circumstances.

The musicians picnic on the 24th to be held in the Ard grove near town will be one of the largest social gatherings of the season. Everybody is invited to bring baskets full of eatables and be delighted with good music, vocal and instrumental.

Last February, Miss Minnie Kline, was taken to the Presbyterian hospital, on a couch, suffering so with spinal trouble, that it was doubtful if she would ever walk again. She is home now from Philadelphia able to walk and the picture of health.

From present indications a few more showers will bring a good corn crop and an excellent potato harvest. The early potatoes are not yielding prolifically but Rumor has it that we are to have two weddings, in the M. E. church, in the near future.

Our cornet band is becoming quite proficient, under the leadership of Prof. Weaver, of Pine Grove Mills, and will make its mark among the leading bands of the county.

The cats crop is about all cut and proves to be below the average. It ripened very unevenly the rains having brought on a second crop with a lot of weeds. Many of our farmers are making hay of the second crop which could be turned into clover seed as well as hay. Some have neither first nor second crop and thequery is, how are they to get through the Winter?

DEATH OF MRS. ROUP .- On last Thursday the people of this community were surprised to hear of the death of Mrs. Catha rine, widow of Jacob Ro p, which had oc. curred the day before at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Bush, near Orbisonia. DEATH OF DR. BATES .- For some weeks Dr. Daniel Bates has been failing in health and his death on Sunday morning at his home near Gatesburg was caused by a general breaking down of his system incident to his age.

Dr. Bates was born in Tolland, Connec ticut Aug. the 27th, 1811. When quite a young man he came into the county with the first wooden wheel clocks, many of which are still keeping time. Liking the valley he decided to locate here and studied medicine with Dr. Green, of Belle. fonte. For years he successfully prac-ticed at Stormstown and Warriors' Mark. About '55 he moved to Shanesville, Ohio, where he resided until 1875 when he returned to Centre Co. and bought a farm near Gatesburg. A man of means and excellent taste he made for himself and wife a beautiful and comfortable country home. He, was always remarkable for home. He, was always remarkable for his strength and endurance and even this Spring was able to walk to and from Stormstown in a half a day.
