

Fine Grove Mention.

Squire Hoy, of State College, visited us last Saturday.

We gladly note the improvement of Miss Leah Dunlap, who has been very ill with typhoid fever. Her recovery is now assured.

Mr. Herbert Miller, one of Bellefonte's hustling carpenters, can't stop last Saturday to see just how planes are conducted in the country. Mr. Miller was accompanied by his pleasant little frau who was delighted with the music as well as the big crowd.

Our Post Master is in a quandary to know what he shall do with some mail matter, which was recently brought to his office. One of his patrons instead of using 2 one cent stamps on some printed matter cut a 2 cent stamp diagonally across, placing $\frac{1}{2}$ of the stamp on each paper—a cross out on Uncle Sam.

Mrs. Arabella Zimmerman is still at the home of J. B. Mitchell. For some weeks she has been housed up and as soon as she is able she will leave for her home in Kansas. During her last visit East some twelve years ago she was sick for weeks with asthma which is certainly very disconcerting; but we hope she may be entirely restored to health by our pure and invigorating mountain air before returning to her home.

Our farmers are through the harvest rush and are almost at a stand still on account of the dry weather. Plowing is very difficult on account of the bad catch of grass last spring. A very large crop of wheat and rye will be sown. Corn is earing well but needs rain. The largest potato crop ever known in this section is being raised in fine condition. It is a common sight to see potatoes that weigh two and three pounds a piece.

In our last letter we neglected to note the death of Rebecca widow of Wm. Kus' reborder formerly of this place. She died at her home in Wilson county, Kansas, on the 8th inst., just one week after the death of her mother Eve Markel. She had been in feeble health, for some years and for the last year was blind and had become a great charge. She was 72 years old and leaves a large family to mourn the death of a good and kind Christian mother.

The early part of this week Jake Wagner and Jake Keller donned their war paint and made for your correspondent and indeed the mud is still on their horns. Mr. Wagner says number 7 was right, but as it is a boy he wants due credit. Squire Keller read us the riot act in regard to the report of the Eckler and Smith assault. We are frank to admit our ignorance in such proceedings. But said at the time that the law should be measured out very stingily in such cases. The Justice used his best endeavors to have the matter settled amicably after he gave, as he thought, Mr. Smith a fair hearing and balled him over for his appearance at court. We said then and still insist that the prosecutor will have the coats to pay. Ferguson township's peaceful record has been broken. It having been many years since the quarter sessions had to guard our peaceful interests. Heretofore our petty scrapes were adjusted at home just where this one ought to have been and thus save the coats of many more which will likely follow.

DEATH OF JOSEPH WARD.—On Tuesday the 27 at half-past three o'clock, Joseph Ward, the veteran carpenter and contractor, quietly breathed his last at his home on Main street, surrounded by his wife and family. Although past seventy he had enjoyed his usual health until very recently, and on the 13th of July was awarded the contract of building the new school house at Guyer, about that time he showed signs of breaking down and his death was the result of heart and kidney trouble brought on by sciatica.

Mr. Ward, the oldest of ten sons, was born in Lebanon county May 2nd 1825. When only a boy he came to this township with his father, Simon Ward, and learned the carpenter trade with David Gohese. Dec. 27th 1818 he married Mary Gill, who with their six sons and four daughters mourn the loss of one of God's noblest creations "an honest man."

In this place and valley, where he had built many private and public buildings he was noted for his honesty and integrity. Of simple habits and quiet disposition he was respected by the entire community. Politically a life long Democrat he was prominently mentioned for post master of our town two years ago. When Gen. Lee invaded Pennsylvania he enlisted as a corporal in Co. A. 46 Pa. Vol. in which command he served out his enlistment, faithfully and courageously as he did every duty he undertook in this life. His children are W. B., G. W., Lucetta, Clara and Mary of this place. Alfred, of Ill., Dr. Ed. of Bellefonte; Dr. Ira. Tod, of Chicago; Herbert, of Shamokin; and Mrs. King of Sunbury. The funeral services will be held this afternoon, after which he will be buried in the cemetery in this place.

THE MUSICIANS PICNIC.—Last Saturday the musicians and their friends, who were many in number, took possession of our town and from early morning until the thunder storm they had a sporting good time, admiring the decorations, listening to the music and speeches and conversing with their neighbors. The Port Matilda and Forest city bands and a home talent drum corps furnished the music for the march to the speakers stand in the grove, which was reached just as dinner was announced.

At the bugle's sound a rush was made to the grand stand as Judge Krebs, of Clearfield had been seen on the grounds and all were anxious to hear him. Rev. C. T. Aikens, master of ceremonies called on Rev. Ementrouf for the opening prayer, which was followed by the Addresses of Welcome by Prof. Weaver. Rev. Aikens then gave a brief talk on Music and Musicians which was interesting as well as instructive. The choir sang several choice selections and Judge Krebs was introduced as the orator of the day. He prefaced his speech by saying "he had no speech to make; but by the time he got rightly started his hearers thought differently. He recalled his boyhood and school days at the old Academy, of which not one for the trustees are living and urged that it be raised to the same level that it was thirty-five years ago. He congratulated the young people of the community that they were so near the State College, one of the best institutions of learning in the land. He neither advised the sunny South or the great West; but strongly advocated the fertile and profitable farms of Central Pennsylvania on which there is more room for happiness and prosperity than in the crowded professions of city or town.

After the Judge's speech Prof. Gill of the State College was introduced. Prof. Gill is from New England, and was very much pleased with the all day, open air musical. He predicted the time when all would read music as they read common print now a days. The choir sang The Star Spangled Banner and a general social was indulged in until five tubs of ice cream had been consumed and then a hasty retreat was begun for the thunder roared and the rain descended.

Stormtown Statements.

This end of Patton township has the roughest roads in Centre county.

Miss Maud Griffin and Mrs. Robinson, of Phillipsburg, are paying a visit to J. H. Griffin, of this place.

The finger boards in Half Moon have become so indistinct by age that it is, practically impossible to read them any longer.

Half Moon township has purchased a new stone crusher and it is to be hoped that we will soon see some improvement in our roads.

I. G. Burkett, of the firm of I. G. Burkett and Bro. of this place, hid himself off to Harrisburg, on Monday evening, to yell himself hoarse for the Comblane.

Aunt Katy Gray has returned from a visit at Warriorsmark and settled down to home, keeping in her own home again, notwithstanding she is almost 94 years old.

Books, Magazines Etc.

"Compulsion in Child Training" is the subject which the Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst, D. D., discusses wisely and well in the September Ladies Home Journal. His article is ably supplemented by Edward W. Bok's excellent editorial on "Our Schools and Our Teachers."

"The Woman Who Pains Cats" is the striking title of a full page devoted to Madame Henriette Ronner, the celebrated pictures being given. "The Men Who Write Our Comic Operas" are represented by portraits and sketches of "The Composer of 'Wang,'" "The Composer of 'Princess Bonnie,'" "Graciel in theme and melodious in construction is Mr. Coverley's song, 'Love's Reflections,' written exclusively for this issue of the Journal."

Grace Greenwood writes of "The Man Who Most Influenced Me," Amelia E. Barr of "Conversation at the Dinner Table," and Frank Stockton's "Love Before Breakfast" comes to a happy conclusion. Mrs. Mallon's "The Early Winter Bonnets" and "Silk and Woolen Bodices" are delightfully illustrated by Abby E. Underwood, as are "Party Dresses for Children," by W. Granville Smith, and "The Early Autumn Coats," by Frank O. Small. Women who love dainty needlework will be delighted with Helen Mar Adams' "Greek Embroidery, Designs" and Mrs. Barnes-Brice's "A Bridal Table Set." This autumn's brides will find much practical advice in Mrs. Hamilton Mott's up-to-date article on "This Autumn's Wedding Etiquette." J. Harry Adams writes of "Some Artistic Doorways" and several bright women give some charming ideas for "Decorating the Home." Eben E. Roxford writes of "Decorating the Lily" and Emma M. Hooper of "Dressing the Young Girl." Altogether this attractive issue, which goes out with a cover especially designed by C. D. Gibson, is worth ten times its price of ten cents. The Ladies Home Journal is published by The Curtis Publishing Company, of Philadelphia, for ten cents per number and one dollar per year.

Eustis Not to be Recalled.

PARIS, Aug. 27.—The "Figaro" says it is authorized to declare that there is no question of recalling the United States ambassador, Mr. James B. Eustis.
