

Pine Grove Mention.
 W. H. Fry's interesting communication from Louisville, where he is having a royal good time attending the G. A. R. encampment came a little late for this issue so it will be published next week.—[Ed.]

We are glad to note the improvement of our former townsman, J. H. Miller, who was operated upon in the Penn. hospital for cancer of the rectum. His wife, who has been with him constantly, writes that she is in hopes, he will be able to be taken to his home in Tyrone next week.

Our sympathy goes out to Walter E. Meek, of Houtzdale and his estimable wife. Recently while on their way to the seashore for a season of rest, their little son was stricken with diphtheria and quarantined in a Philadelphia hospital for weeks. Just after their return home a second child was taken, with scarlet fever in such a malignant form that it was thought best to send the other two children to friends in Altoona. Walter is pros- trated by the continued seige, so upon Mrs. Meek falls the burden of the nursing.

Howard Happenings.

Mr. Harry Holtz, of Bellefonte, was seen on our streets last Sunday.

Mr. Walter S. Sutherland, a clerk in the purchasing department of the P. R. R. Co., at Philadelphia, is spending his vacation here. Mr. S. spent a week here last summer and was so delighted with the country, as well as with the people he met, that he decided to return. Welcome Mr. S.

Misses Louise and Annie Hensyl started Monday morning for a trip of six or eight weeks to friends at Harrisburg, Sunbury, Shamokin and Treverton; as they are both highly respected young ladies and have a host of friends doubtless they will be missed during their absence. We wish them a pleasant trip and a safe return.

We are pleased to learn that Ira C. Mitchell will again preach here Sunday, the 15th, Morning at 10:30 evening at 7.

On Monday night, about ten-thirty while our little village was quietly slumbering the death angel called to summon one of our oldest citizens to the presence of Him "whose ways are past finding out."

Mrs. Jonathan Bension, mother of our esteemed friend Captain S. H. Bension, after spending eighty-two years with her friends of earth, has quietly closed her eyes in that sleep which knows no waking until she be summoned to the presence of Him who shall judge the quick and the dead.

Surely God had allotted many years to her and yet death is a fearful thing, come in what form it may; fearful when the vital cords so gradually relax and life passes away sweetly as the music from a slumbering harp string. At 10 o'clock, Thursday 13th, services were conducted by Mr. Pomroy of the Presbyterian church of Mill Hall. After rendering all the assistance that willing hands and sad hearts could offer many gathered to pay their last respects to the dead. Interment was made in the family lot at the Cedar Hill cemetery.

Things That Have Happened at State College.

Mr. George T. Sellaw and bride have arrived and taken rooms at the University Inn. Excavation is being rapidly pushed for the new Holmes building on College Avenue.

Postmaster Thos. F. Kennedy is making fine progress on the new porch at Dr. Ather-ton's, and it will soon be finished.

Rev. Craighead, of Curwensville, Pa. preached two interesting sermons in the Presbyterian church that were listened to with rapt attention.

Miss Harriet A. McElwain, accompanied by her sister, Miss Carrie M. has returned from her eastern trip, and has resumed her college duties.

Prof. E. E. Sparks and wife have returned for a few days. Prof. Sparks has resigned his position as principal of the Preparatory Department and is going to Chicago.

Dr. Wm. Frear has returned from a protracted itineracy, during which time he was a distinguished participant in the Boston meeting of the American Association of Agricultural Scientists.

Assistant in mathematics Mr. Jas. H. Ludor has returned from his summer home in Florence, N. J. and now this department of the College is ready to cause "grind," which it will no doubt do to perfection.

Rev. Geo. Glenn a brother of Dr. W. S. Glenn of this place, delivered a very able sermon in the M. E. church on Sunday evening to an appreciative audience that filled the church even to standing room.

The College football team, that reported for practice Sept. 3, is making fine progress, and works together like clock work, the following shows the team and the reserves: Curtin, end; J. A. Dunsmore, half-back; Hechel, half-back; J. G. Dunsmore, tackle; Murray, guard; Jos. Thompson, full-back; McCleary, (captain) quarter-back; Clark, quarter-back; Sellers, quarter-back; reserres, McKibbin, Scott, Patton, C. M. Thompson, Dixon, Thomas, McCrea, Price, Deal, McGee, Fisher, Randolph and Cromlish, "General" Hoskins is building up a team that will surprise some of the kickers we know of when they meet it.

Increasing business has required the removal of the partition and the use of both store rooms by the State College Supply Co. at Fosters corner. W. S. N. E.

and guaranteed First-class in every respect.

This remarkable and unprecedented offer is being made by Shaeffer, the photographer, and will last for a short time only. The above remarkable low price can be given for the following reason: When the large photo stock house of Johnston & Co., of New York, failed recently, at the sale we seized the opportunity of purchasing an enormous stock of photo-material at a remarkable low price—a mere song. The same has arrived and preparations are being made in our gallery to turn out FOR A SHORT SEASON, a fine grade of work at a price that will be within the reach of all.
