TO CORRESPONDENTS.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—Don't be surprised if Bellefonte should become a great railroad centre ere long.

—Miss Della Goodfellow, of this place, is now an Unionville school teacher.

—The Bellefonte band will soon consolidate with the Logan engine company.

—Next Sunday communion services will be held in the Bellefonte Reformed church.

—N. B. Spangler Esq. will soon open a law office of his own in the Eagle building.

—Roger Bayard, better known as "Bert," is now a clerk in Aiken's store, corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets.

—The regular fall street cleaning is being done and Bellefonte thoroughly fares will soon look like new pins—"nit."

—Rev. George Zehner's protracted meetings at Milesburg have come to an end. Twenty-five conversions rewarded them.

—Phillipsburg's village improvement society will open a free library for the people of that town on Thanksgiving evening.

—Harry Hile and William Harrison, of Pleasant Gap, have the contract for plastering the new Reformed church at Centre Hall.

—Clark Whitley, of Coburn, is now located in the P. R. R. station here, as a telegraph operator and assistant to agent Harry Hutchison.

—A fine gold watch will be the nucleus around which the Logan engine company will centre a big contest during the month of January.

—High class necromancing and Hindoo faking cannot but be entertaining to anyone. Go see Powell next Wednesday night at Garman's.

—As a result of the revivals now going on in the Bellefonte Methodist church sixty-eight persons have been received in probationary membership.

—The Bellefonte Academy foot ball team will play in Phillipsburg, on November 23rd, when the boys of that town hope to retrieve the laurels they lost here last Saturday.

—It is reported that the new owners of Penns Cave will construct an electric railroad from that place to Centre Hall, in the spring, and light the cave by electric light.

—Because editor D. Scott Currin, publisher of the Sugar Valley County Journal, got sick that paper failed to appear for three successive weeks. He is out again, so is the paper.

—Every property holder in Bellefonte should clean up his or her premises before winter sets in. A little thrift now will bring health to the community in the unsettled weather of the spring.

—While John Bierly, of Sugar Valley, was driving two spirited horses to his corn field for a load of fodder they ran away. He fell out of the wagon and it passed over him inflicting serious injuries.

—The Academy and Williamsport High school foot ball teams will play here to-morrow afternoon. The Williamsporters defeated the Lock Haven eleven, last Saturday, by the score of 58 to 0.

—A new schedule for the running of trains on the C. R. R. of Pa., will go into effect on Monday. Remember not to expect trains to run next week according to the time table you will see in this week's paper.

—Jenkins & Lingle, Bellefonte's machinists and foundrymen, have invented and are manufacturing an excellent gas engine which they will soon put on the market. A recent test proved it a very efficient machine.

—Last Thursday afternoon Frank Smith, of Milesburg, was thrown down and robbed by three tramps who were warming themselves by a fire at "Long Reach," where he stopped to talk to them. They then fled on a freight train.

—Will Garman, mailing clerk at the Bellefonte post office, went to work yesterday morning with a heart as light as a feather and all because a new boy came to his house the night before, "Billy's" little daughter, Ruth, will more than likely name her new brother Grover.

—The Undine fire company will give its fourth annual select ball in the Arcade, on Thanksgiving eve, November 27th. The Undine band will give a concert from 8:30 until 9 o'clock when the dance will begin. The men who have the arrangements in charge are Joseph McMahon, chairman; Wm. P. Flack, John McSuley, George Doll, Wm. P. Smith. Positively no persons without invitations will be admitted.

DIED SUDDENLY.—The sudden death of Mr. Benjamin F. Snyder, last Friday morning, was a decided shock to the residents in the vicinity of his home at Snow Shoe Intersection. Though he had suffered with dyspepsia for several months its fatal termination was scarcely thought of.

Mr. Snyder was a native of Jackson township, Northumberland county, and was nearly 68 years old. He is survived by five sons, Jacob, James, George, Eugene, and William; four daughters, Mrs. Rebecca J. Course, of Minneapolis; Mrs. Anna Bell Kepler, of Baltimore; Mrs. Lizzie Hewes and Mrs. Ella Peters, who will comfort their bereaved mother in her widowhood. He had been a resident of Boggs township for thirty-five years.

Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon. Revs. Wright and King, of Milesburg, and Zeigler, of the Intersection, officiated. They buried him in Emerick's cemetery near Unionville.

DEATH AT AARONSBURG.—Heart failure caused the sudden death of John H. Musser, at his home, in Aaronsburg, last Sunday evening. Deceased had been in his usual health during the day and took dinner with a friend. Immediately upon his return home he was stricken and died.

Deceased is survived by a widow, two sons and one daughter, the latter being Mrs. W. T. Meyer, of this place. Funeral services were held yesterday morning.

He was 68 years old and had been a leader in the Lutheran church for nearly half a century, having been confirmed by Rev. Reese, in 1846. He was born and raised in the east end of Haines township. During his life he lived at Shingletown, on the Michael Hess farm, but later moved to the vicinity of Aaronsburg where he farmed until 1886, when he retired and took up his residence in Aaronsburg.

THE SECOND VICTIM DIES.—Several weeks ago we published an account of the horrible death of Mrs. Wallace Bierly's baby at Kebersburg. It will be remembered that the little one was trying to fill a bottle with coal-oil, on the morning of the 21st. ult. when it got too near the kitchen stove and an explosion followed. The child was wrapped in flames when the mother was attracted by its pitiful screams and, catching it in her arms, she ran frantically into the street, never heeding her own danger.

Her clothing, becoming ignited, she fell unconscious on the sidewalk and was picked up later with her charred babe in her arms. The infant died that afternoon, while she lingered in misery until last Saturday when death ended her sufferings. Funeral services were held on Monday.

—Helen, the two year old daughter of Mr. Frank Whiteman, died of convulsions at the home of his parents at Piedmont, W. Va., early last Friday morning, and was taken to Phillipsburg for burial. Mr. Whiteman is well-known here and his many friends sympathize with him in the loss of his only child.

—Miss Alice Francis Bruce, who spent last winter with her mother at the home of editor Tuten, of the Republican, on Linn street, this place, died at her home, Mt. Vernon, N. H., on Tuesday afternoon. Deceased was 21 years old and left here with consumption well developed.

—Mrs. William E. Terry, formerly of this place, died, on Tuesday, at the home of her parents in Michigan, where her husband had taken her only a day previous. He is head miller at Geo. W. Jackson & Co's. mill in this place.

MARRIED IN THIS PLACE.—Bellefonte was the scene of two weddings, on Tuesday, both of which we trust were destined for the future happiness of the contracting parties.

At Garman's hotel Rev. A. A. Black, of Boalsburg, united Miss Susan C. Wise, of the same place, and constable Daniel B. Garey, of Penn township, in marriage. They took dinner at the hotel and departed on an afternoon train for the home of David Fiedler, at Green Briar, where they were serenaded, Tuesday night.

—Patrick J. Fitzpatrick, of Tyrone, and Miss Grace Tanyer, of Julian, were married here the same morning. They spent the day in town.

—Phillipsburg's council is in desperate straits to know what to do with $303.86 it has ready to pay some one for the abutments of the new bridge on Presqueis street. The contractors, Condo & Powers, having had some disagreement since finishing the work, have drawn $300, leaving the balance unclaimed. Phillipsburg creditors hold bills against them to the amount of $450 and demand payment of council, but that body don't know exactly what it ought to do in the premises.

—A horse that he had just had shot kicked J. B. Showers, of near Spring Mills, and broke his jaw in two places.

—A woman's congress will be held at Mackeyville, on Nov. 23rd.

—G. W. Harter will move from Pleasant Gap to Millheim in the spring.

—Mill Hall stores will be closed at eight o'clock in the evening hereafter.

—John Mulfinger is said to have the largest porkers in the vicinity of Pleasant Gap.

—Jersey Shore has a town clock now. It is fixed in the tower of the new Presbyterian church.

—Three Lock Haven gunners shot a 198 pound buck in the woods back of Queen's Run, on Monday.

—The capital stock of the Curwensville bank has been increased to $200,000. It is the largest of any bank in Clearfield county.

—The greatest assortment of overcoats ever shown in Centre county at Fauble's. Low prices our salesmen. It will pay you to see us.

—Now is the time to buy your men's storm overcoats. Lyon & Co. sell good ones at $3.75, $4.50, $5.50 and $6.

—Notwithstanding his horse and wagon fell over the steep precipice near the Sulphur Spring bridge, in Sugar Valley, and landed on him, A. S. Bartges was not a particle hurt.

—The report of the inspector of rifle practice of the N. G. P. will show eight sharp shooters and forty-eight marksmen in our own Co. B. Ten men of the 5th Reg. failed to qualify.

—J. C. Berry, the mail coach driver says: "Uncle Sam was never so scarce of water before. I can scarcely find enough between Loganton and Lock Haven to water my horses."

—Powell, a magician who has never been seen in this place, will appear at Garman's next Wednesday night. As a necromancer he is easily the equal of Keller and some assert his superiority over the latter.

—A lot of boy's winter caps, a broken assortment, will go at 15 cents at Lyon & Co's. They are worth double the price.

—Many Pennsylvania sportsmen's associations have taken action looking to the preservation of the few quail that survived the last severe winter. None of the birds will be shot this fall by gunners who are desirous of leaving them for seed.

—While out hunting for four days last week F. B. Dunkle, of Jersey Shore; John P. Harris Jr., of Tyrone; and Frank Wardell, G. F. and P. A. of the Central railroad of Penna., shot 68 pheasants, 45 partridges, 2 rabbits and a fox.

—The ladies Auxiliary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. met in the Presbyterian chapel, on Sunday afternoon, and organized by the election of the following officers: Miss Ella Levy, president; Miss Nannie Hoy, secretary; and Miss Ella Twintyer, treasurer. The auxiliary will undertake to raise $250 with which to beautify the interior of the association building. It is part of their obligation to hold no fair or festivals.

—You can buy an $8, elegantly trimmed, heavy cloth lady's cape for $6 at Lyon & Co's.

—The Phillipsburg High school foot ball eleven came over to this place, last Saturday, to line up against the Bellefonte Academy eleven. The game was played on the glass works field and attracted quite a crowd. The visitors were lighter than the home team but played a hard game for the first half, neither side scoring. In the second half the Academy boys made two touchdowns from which one goal was kicked. The game was void of any dirty playing and very enjoyable.

—It might be well for you to talk a little about the fine lecture that will be given in the Presbyterian chapel, Friday night, November 22nd. A little talk goes a great way and it would be really too bad not to give such a talented man as Dr. Frederick J. Stanley a crowded house. By virtue of the close relations he has held with the Japanese people for years his lecture on them must necessarily be of deepest interest.

—A very disastrous collision occurred on the Beech Creek railroad near Snow Shoe last Friday afternoon. A west bound coal train ran into an east bound train of empties, badly demolishing the engines and throwing about forty cars off the track, many of which were considerably damaged.

Conductor Kiffel was killed and engineer Boyd badly injured, the rest of the trainmen being fortunate enough to make their escape without injury. Mr. Boyd was taken to the Williamsport hospital, where his injuries were attended to, and it is thought they will not result fatally. The body of Mr. Kiffel was removed to his home in Jersey Shore, where he was buried Sunday.

BARTLEY—GRAMLEY.—The wedding of Herbert M. Bartley and Mabel I. Gramley was solemnized at the home of the bride's father, ex-county treasurer J. J. Gramley, on west Bishop street, at half-past six o'clock, Tuesday evening. Though very unostentatious and entirely devoid of any of the splendor that usually characterizes such crises in the lives of men and women it was a happy union, indeed, for by it two young people who have known constant companionship for several years took on those higher and more serious relations of marital life.

Rev. George Zehner, of the Evangelical church, performed the ceremony in the presence of none but the immediate friends. After the marriage the bride and groom took an evening train for Williamsport, where they remained until Wednesday evening, when they returned to attend a reception given them at the home of Mr. Henry F. Bartley, on Willowbank street. They will go to housekeeping, in the spring, in the new house adjoining that of Mr. Bartley Sr.

Herb and his bride have the sincerest congratulations of every attaché of this office, where he was a long and faithful employe previous to his entering the Gazette office. He is a young man who will make his fair bride a good husband and we wish them a long and happy voyage on the sea of life.

Mrs. Bartley was the youngest daughter of Mr. Gramley and has been deservedly popular since coming to this place.

A NEW MAGICIAN TO BELLEFONTE.—The great Powell, the prince of magicians, seems to have created a new furor in this country. What constitutes the charm and insures the marvelous success of Powell's work, is his irresistible humor and entertaining qualities, performing the most difficult tricks with apparently no effort. He is possibly the only one among the magicians, since Robert Heller, who is able to change his program every night. Those who have seen his performances and those of other so called magicians, can better understand that admirable advantage.

No quicker or smoother workman ever baffled the eye and with little comedy interpolations and bits of by-play that serve the double purpose of amusing his audience and distracting their attention, he is enabled to give them a performance of originality which is indeed exceptional in the work of all former magicians. His program, this season, includes several new and startling illusions, one of which he has undoubtedly good cause to be proud of. It has been named "After the Flood." This is one of the best of the many novelties in his repertoire and is indeed more laughable than a circus. In this mystery Powell introduces a menagerie of 50 trained birds and animals. Their appearance is highly diverting. At Garman's, Bellefonte, Wednesday evening, November 20th.

AN INDEMNITY FROM MANY MILLS.—Under a recent act of the supreme court the modern roller process, used in many flouring mills in the country, has been declared an infringement on a patent issued to, one, Samuel M. Brus, in 1878. Later he assigned it to H. B. and L. B. Keiper, of Lancaster, who brought suit to recover damages for the infringement.

The court has ruled that every mill, using the process, must pay an indemnity of $100. In Centre county there are 26 mills that will come under the ban. In talking about the matter, last evening, Mr. James Thompson, who operates the Centre Furnace mill, said that all owners, who are not in any of the miller's associations in the State, will organize to fight the levy. Several of the Centre county mills belong to associations that have already made settlements.

THEY GOT THREE YEARS.—Edward Hanahan and James O'Neil, the two men whom officer Gares arrested in this place, last June, for burglarizing the post office and Parker's store at Curtin's Works, this county, on June 13th, have been sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

After their arrest they were taken to Williamsport whence the U. S. commissioner ordered them to Pittsburgh for the trial that was held last month.

Under the law officer Gares should get a reward of $100.

The government has reimbursed post-master Parker for the amount stolen from his office.

—Postmaster Conrad, of Tyrone, selected J. F. Hoover, Clem. S. Hiltner, George A. Wilson and Harry C. Al. bright from the thirteen eligible candidates for mail carriers for the free delivery system which goes into effect, in that town, to-day. Of the thirty applicants, who were examined under the civil service rules, seventeen failed and according to law Mr. Conrad had the privilege of selecting his carriers from the seven ranking highest in examination.

—Lyon & Co. are selling a special bargain in ladies kid gloves at 75 and 85 cents, worth $1 and $1.25 per pair.

—Col. James P. Coburn, as executor, has sold the John S. Homan farm, in Haines township, to F. P. Bower.

—W. A. Tobias, of Millheim, has been appointed one of the assistant inspectors of the G. A. R. for this district.

—You can buy as good a cloth lady's cape at Lyon & Co's. for $3.50 as you pay $4.50 for elsewhere.

—See our swell, English cut overcoats, in blue and black Kerseys, from $7.50 up. Matchless in quality, style and price.

—A boy's fine chinchilla storm overcoat for $4, worth $5.50, at Lyon & Co's.

—Miss M. S. Coriello, an Indian missionary to Oklahoma territory, told of her work in the Milesburg Baptist church last night.

—The largest assortment of men's dress overcoats, that can be found in the State, from $3.50 to $18 a piece, at Lyon & Co's.

—The Mill Hall brick works have been shut down for the winter. There are eleven hundred thousand bricks on hand at the works.

News Purely Personal

—Mr. Jacob Bottorf, of Lemont, was in town on Wednesday.

—Mrs. Barbara Rankin left, last Saturday, for a two weeks stay in Harrisburg.

—James Keller, of Granger picnic boarding house fame, was in town yesterday attending to some business.

—Calvin Walz, one of the stalwart and reliable Democrats, of Pleasant Gap, transacted business in town Monday.

—Ex-associate judge Thomas Riley, with Mrs. Riley, were in town, Wednesday, going the round of the stores.

—Rev. J. A. Woodcock, who has been in poor health for some time, left Tuesday morning for a course of treatment at the Methodist hospital in Philadelphia.

—Ed Wesson, of Buffalo Run, was in town Tuesday and you ought to know the rest, as this is the time he usually pays his subscription for the year in advance.

—Miss Jennie Fauble, stenographer to Governor Hastings, came home, Tuesday evening, to spend a few days with her parents, during the Governor's absence at Atlanta.

—Mortimer O'Donoghue, Supt. of the Valentine iron company's works here, arrived home from Philadelphia yesterday morning. While away, business took him to Danville.

—Walter O'Brien and his young son came down from their home in Logan township, Wednesday, to spend the day in town. The new State College water pipe line runs through Mr. O'Brien's farm.

—Miss Lulu Harper, who is about to open a kindergarten in a room in Mr. Clem Dale's house on Allegheny street, went over to Phillipsburg, Monday, to attend the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whiteman's baby.

—Cyrus Brungart, of Millheim, was in town on Tuesday. Though he came up on the train he was pushing a wheel in front of him and we inferred from that he intended taking advantage of the pretty day to ride his machine home.

—Rev. James McEntire and wife are visiting at the home of Dr. J. C. McEntire, in this place. The reverend gentleman is attached to the Erie conference and preached in the Methodist church, here, on Wednesday night. He is a brother of S. B. McEntire at Fillmore.

—L. H. Gettig, of Pleasant Gap, has become a resident of Bellefonte. He moved his family in yesterday and they are now getting a home fixed up in the Thomas estate house, on Thomas street. Mr. Gettig is a member of the firm that purchased the Sechler & Co., meat market in the Bush house block.

—Dan Gallagher left for Philadelphia, yesterday morning, in company with his uncle Barney Gallagher. He will enter the University hospital, where it is hoped an operation will relieve the great distress he is now suffering. Some time ago he went to the Altoona hospital, but nothing could be done for him there.

—Mr. Jacob Harpster, of Gatesburg, brought his wife and little boy to town, on Saturday, to do some fall shopping. They were accompanied by another Mrs. Harpster, a relative, and all paid this office a very pleasant visit. Mr. Harpster is one of a staunch Democratic family in Ferguson township and is a very intelligent young agriculturist.

—Druggist C. M. Parrish is entertaining his father, J. D. Parrish Esq. an old contractor at Ebensburg. He had been to Lancaster attending the funeral of his only brother and stopped off here with his son, just to take a peep at that fine new store in the Eagle building.

Mr. Parrish is a veteran of the Mexican war and says Lancaster was the farthest he has been from home since he returned from battle.

—Mr. Henry D. Lyon, who for years has so efficiently managed Sechler & Co's. meat market, in this place, will leave for Chicago, next week, where he has accepted a position in the jobbing and packing department of the great Swift beef packing establishment. Very few of the many young men who might leave Bellefonte would be missed as Mr. Lyon will and it is with a feeling of sincere regret that we learn of his intended departure. Never known to be in an ill humor his name has been a synonym for good nature and his friends are numbered among all classes of our people. As a faithful, honest man must inevitably merit recognition, no matter where he goes, we will expect to hear of him as manager of one of the many Swift branch stations ere long.

—Mrs. Sara Faust was killed at the Pine street crossing of the P. R. R., in Clearfield, on Tuesday morning. She had been down town shopping and was returning home when she stepped on the track in front of the approaching day express. Deceased was very deaf and could not hear the train. She was 67 years old and the widow of ex-sheriff Faust of that county.
