THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

Wednesday's cold wave arrived on schedule time.

Don't forget the "Cold Day" at Garman's, next Thursday night.

Geo. W. Reese will open his new grocery, in the Eagle building, in a few days.

Rev. Grant is carrying on successful revival services in the A. M. E. church.

Mr. Albert Owen moved from the out-skirts of Bellefonte, to Milesburg, last Friday.

Hon. John G. Love has been holding court, for Judge Archibald, in Scranton, this week.

It is reported that Ed Bullock will open an iron and wood working shop in Milesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koch, of Axe Mann, are visiting friends in Mifflin and Snyder counties.

W. O. Reaick, the new owner of the Centre Hall foundry and machine shops, has his plant in full operation.

Look-out for Lyon & Co's. big ad. next week. It will startle you. Such low prices never before heard of.

This has been a cold day, but not as funny as the one that will come to Garman's as the Thanksgiving attraction.

Prof. Swartz has started a singing class in the Lutheran church at Pleasant Gap. He has forty or more scholars.

The members of the Reformed church enjoyed a sociable at the home of Jared Harper, on south Thomas street, last evening.

Ed McNiven, a young man who claims Bellefonte as his home, had his leg broken by the fall of a derrick at White Haven a few days ago.

The bi-monthly meeting of the Centre county medical society was held in the court house, in this place, on Tuesday morning and was very well attended.

Among the patents recently issued by the department at Washington was one for a strainer shield for milk pans, taken out by Mr. J. A. Hatch, of Phillipsburg.

On March 18th, 1896, the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist church will convene at Williamsport. Bishop John H. Vincent will preside.

Myrtle, the fourteen year old daughter of James I. Yarnell, of Snow Shoe, died at her home, in Snow Shoe, last Sunday. Her remains were interred on Tuesday.

In the contest for representative honors in the 4th Pennsylvania district, L. A. W., J. E. Harder, of Clearfield, defeated Geo. T. Bush, of this place, by a vote of 114 to 68.

R. Newton Shaw, of Clearfield, has sold his hotel, the Leonard house, to Daniel F. Wysotsky. It will be remembered that Danny was one time a resident of this place.

It is reported that Alexander McCoy, of Potters Mills, who suffered a severe mutilation of his hand, by having it crushed in a corn husking machine, about three weeks ago, is in danger of dying. His age is very much against his recovery.

Land-lord Bartges will retire from the management of the hotel at Centre Hall. Henry and David Booser and Ed. Rhuie, now proprietor of the "Old Fort" hotel, purchased the place. Rhuie will manage it, taking charge in the spring.

Communion services in the Evangelical church next Sunday. Rev. D. L. Kepner, of Rebersburg, will preach morning and evening. The revival in the Evangelical church is increasing in interest. A number have already made the good confession.

Amos Parsons is in jail because he traded a horse, that had been loaned to him for its feed, for a big dog. Essex Kline, of Hubbersburg, was the party to his trade and John Sourbeck, the owner of the horse, had Amos "pinched," as Charles Saylor would say.

Ex-president judge A. O. Furst has formed a co-partnership with John D. Dorris, Esq., of Huntingdon, for the practice of law in that place. Their office will be at 463 Penn street and while Judge Furst will still practice here he will go to Huntingdon, for consultation, whenever it is required.

By all means attend the illustrated lecture, on Japan, to-night. It will be given in the Presbyterian chapel and an admission of only 25cots will be charged. Dr. Frederick J. Stanley has already delighted Bellefonte audiences and deserves a crowded house. His lecture will be highly instructive and should be heard by everyone.

JUDGE BENJAMIN RICH.—The death of Hon. Benjamin Rich occurred at his home, at Unionville, last Sunday evening. He had been ill a long time with stomach and kidney troubles, but the approach of death was not realized until a few weeks ago, when he was compelled to take his bed. Being a very large man and well advanced in years the ravages of disease soon destroyed his rugged constitution and he fell an easy victim.

Benjamin Rich was born in Millville, Columbia county, July 25th, 1829. His father, John G. Rich, came from New Jersey and his mother, Lydia Lundy, was born in the same house her children were. Mr. Rich was educated at Millville seminary and growing tired of farm life he came to Centre county, in 1862, where he had been engaged by the firm of Underwood, Hicklen & Co., as an assistant at the lumber business. Six years later he came into possession of John Bing's store and embarked in business for himself, having carried on lumbering with mercantile enterprises until he retired some years ago.

March 14th, 1874, he was commissioned a justice of the peace and held the office up to the time of his elevation to the common pleas bench in 1894.

He was first married, in 1855, to Amanda, daughter of Dr. William Underwood, and upon her decease he married Miss Martha J. Greist, of Adams county. This was in September, 1859. To this latter union five children were born all of whom survive, with one child of his first marriage and his widow.

Judge Rich was a man whose friendship all men courted. Hospitable to a fault he was a companion whose company was at all times enjoyable. Imbued with the simple, unpretentious manners of Quaker ancestry he never sought honors of any sort, but such a character was not destined to remain in private life. His party honored him on a number of occasions and his election as associate judge, of Centre county, was evidence of his wide popularity.

Very simple funeral services were held at the house, Wednesday afternoon. A very large crowd of friends had assembled to pay a last tribute to the departed and their sentiment was beautifully voiced in the eulogiums of Clement Dale Esq., and W. C. Heinle Esq., the speakers. The pall bearers represented the Centre county bar association and were: C. P. Hewes, E. R. Chambers, W. C. Heinle, W. E. Gray, D. F. Fortney and Clement Dale.

The Centre county bar association held memorial services, on Tuesday afternoon, and appointed a committee on resolutions and listened to remarks by W. C. Heinle, E. R. Chambers, H. C. Quigley, Clement Dale and others.

TWO DEATHS AT BALD EAGLE.—On Saturday morning the remains of Miss Katharine Loughrey were brought here from her father's home at Bald Eagle. She had been stricken on the very threshold of womanhood with that dread disease, consumption.

Her father, Mr. Edward Loughrey, is division foreman on the valley road at Bald Eagle and with her mother and sisters and brothers mourn her untimely death.

Burial was made in the Catholic cemetery in this place.

George Shank, one of the older residents of Bald Eagle, died there, on Tuesday afternoon, with kidney trouble with which he had been a sufferer for years.

Deceased was 78 years old and his remains were taken to Warriorsmark for burial, on Saturday morning. Three daughters and one son survive. The former being married the latter will make his future home with post-master Conrad, of Tyrone.

Mr. Shank was a brother of John Shank, of South Allegheny street, in this place.

AN ENJOYABLE CAMP-FIRE.—We often envy the old veterans for more than their chivalric honor and many would fain don the blue were that sufficient passport to the social side of their organization. It seems that nowhere is found a more genial, wholedouled crowd than just the lot of grizzled old fellows who are to be found loafing about the G. A. R. post room when there is anything on hand.

Last Saturday night Gregg post met in its quarters here to have a supper and nominate officers who will be elected to serve during the year 1896. John Anderson had charge of the culinary department and it is needless to say that he and quarter-master Jones pooled their efforts to give the comrades a filling up that was done to the Queen's taste.

After the supper business was taken up and the following nominations made: Commander, F. P. Green; S. V. C., Monroe Armor; J. V. C., David Bartley; John H. Bryan; surgeon, James Whittaker, A. Garbrick; chaplain, James Harris; Q. M., William Jones; O. of D., S. H. Williams; O. of G., F. A. McMullen; trustee, David Bartley; delegates to the encampment, S. H. Williams, Thomas Donachy, W. B. Maitland, D. M. Glenn.

Petty thieving is annoying Mill Hall residents.

A large party of Tyrone hunters are camping on Six mile run, this county.

The Beech Creek railroad has discontinued the Pullman service over its lines.

There will be a "Cold Day" but a nice warm house at Garman's next Thursday night.

Thirty-five cases, with ten deaths resulting, was the record of the recent diphtheria scourge in Berwick.

Agustus S. Driver, a resident of the lower end of Bald Eagle valley, died at Fairpoint, last Friday evening, in his 63rd year. Deceased is survived by his widow, four sons and one daughter.

A head end collision, that resulted in the death of fireman McQuaid, occurred on the Fall Brook railroad near Jersey Shore junction early last Saturday morning. Two freight trains ran together.

Dr. E. H. Warren, state zoologist, and Lewis E. Beiler, private secretary to Governor Hastings, are expected in Lock Haven, in a few days, to accompany S. Woods Caldwell and Col. M. Morrison on a hunting trip through Clinton and Clearfield counties.

Bellefonte theatre goers will remember the "Cold Day" as being one of the cleanest cut comedies that ever visited this place. Next Thursday night will mark its reappearance here after an absence of several years. You will not make a mistake in going to see it.

The Potter township poor overseers indignantly deny the charge that old Henry Frey, who committed suicide on the mountains near Potter's Mills, was starved to death by them. They say he had plenty, but was intent on killing himself as he tried it once before when he was not a township charge.

The water pipe line from Shingletown to State College, a distance of four miles, has been completed and residents of the latter place are now using excellent soft mountain water. There are indications of trouble over the matter, however, as a number of residents in the vicinity of Shingletown gap claim that their water supply is materially lessened and threaten to bring suit for damages.

Bond V. Fisher and Miss Ida Shuey, both of this place, were married Tuesday evening. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. R. A. Beck, on east High street, Rev. Ed. Hoshour officiated. After the young folks were married Mrs. Beck served a wedding supper to the few persons who were there. The occasion was very much enjoyed.

Miss Mame H. McCleary, of Milton, eloped, last Friday, with Lawrence B. Fonda, of that place. The couple went to Watkins, N. Y., and were married, returning the next day for parental forgiveness. Both of the elopers are members of the first families of Milton. Mrs. Fonda has been seen at a number of the dances given in Bellefonte.

The Phillipsburg Ledger says "the tar paved public square in Bellefonte is a failure" because holes had to be dug in it to reach leaky gas and steam mains. The Ledger is away off its base in thinking that the concrete paving can't be patched. It can be repaired in such a way that it will be difficult to locate the disturbed surface.

The remains of Miss Fannie Schmidt, who died in Phillipsburg, on Sunday, were brought here for interment, on Tuesday morning. Her death was a particularly sad one, since her life had been a great struggle to attain the position of comfort she had just gained when she died. The young woman was very highly esteemed in Phillipsburg. Burial was made in the Jewish cemetery.

The death of Mrs. Harvey Ginter, which occurred at the home of her father, Adam Waite, in this place, Wednesday, was a very sad one since it ended the life of a young woman who had been married only a short time. Consumption caused her death. Her maiden name was Lydia Waite and her young husband is left with two small children. Funeral services will be held at 11 o'clock this morning.

The Pennsylvania State College football eleven played in Pittsburg, on Saturday, and was defeated by the East End athletic club by the score of 11 to 10. The latter organization is made up largely of old State players among whom is Will Stuart, of State College, whose brilliant playing won the game for the home team. On Monday State played a tie game with Washington and Jefferson college, at Washington, Pa., the score being 6 to 6. The result of both games was a bitter disappointment to State admirers, as she had been counted a sure winner.

HE DIDN'T SHOOT THE BURGLAR, BUT HE BUSTED A PLATE GLASS WINDOW.—Will Runkle is one of the clerks in Zeller's drug store, in the Exchange, and though he has been there about a year no real great excitement had occurred to relieve the monotony of store life up 'till last Saturday night.

After closing up he went to bed in his room in the rear of the store and was sleeping the sleep of the just when, about 1.30 in the morning, a terrific ringing of the night bell caused him to jump from his bed like a rocket. He went to the front of the store where he turned on the light to find a fellow, who evidently wanted to conceal his identity, vigorously tugging at the bell knob.

Will asked him what he wanted, and the man outside replied: "I want in." As that was all he would say and as he would not stop ringing the bell Will made up his mind that the stranger didn't need anything very bad so he went back to bed, but not before he had uncoupled the bell so that it wouldn't ring.

The fellow outside soon discovered that his bell pulling was all in vain, then he began kicking the door in such a way that the clerk went out again and told him to go away. The stranger slunk down in the door-way, where he turned his collar up and pulled his hat down, but would not budge.

Then a brilliant idea struck Billy. He remembered the big revolver back in his room and straightway ran for the gun. The door battering began again, while he was gone, and by this time he was mad all over. In fact so mad that he did not notice the "dispensary" partition into which he stumbled in his eagerness to get front again. The revolver, being a double acting weapon, was discharged by the jar and the bullet sped direct to the middle of one of the large French plate windows in the store front.

It cut a hole clear through the thick glass and shattered it, on the outside only, in a way that makes it look like a large rose. The bullet was flattened clear out and dropped back inside the window.

The man on the outside fled when he heard the shot and Will went back to bed without knowing what damage he had done. He found out next morning, however, when instead of finding a dead man he found a broken front.

The men working on the steam mains in the Diamond that night heard the noise, but thinking it was only some one after medicine, did not pay any further attention to it.

AN INTERESTING GAME.—The football game that was played here, on Saturday afternoon, between the Williamsport High school and Bellefonte Academy eleven was the most interesting of the season. The visitors played with superb interference and were much too strong for the crippled home team.

The Academy boys deserve much credit for holding the score down as well as they did, especially with Henderson and Cochran, the two strongest men on the team, laid up. They are doing the right thing in meeting all comers and not confining their games only to teams they feel sure of defeating.

In the game, Saturday, Williamsport scored two touch downs in the first half and one in the second, from all of which goals were kicked, making the score 18 to 0 in their favor.

They were a very gentlemanly lot of boys and their conduct on the field delighted everyone. The Academy will play at Williamsport on Thanksgiving day.

COUNCIL MET.—Last Monday evening was council's regular meeting night and though that body got together to order the payment of $164.55 very little other business was transacted.

Mrs. Jane Brown complained that residents of Ridge street were dumping garbage in her yard and the Nuisance committee was instructed to look into the matter.

The Market committee reported the collection of $2.40 in fees.

The Fire and Police committee reported that the police were ignoring instructions as to keeping young boys off the streets at night. Also that the burgess' good resolution to see that the officers wear helmets had flunked and none had been procured.

Other committees had unimportant reports to make then W. L. Mallin asked for a street light, on Howard street, near the hook and ladder truck house. Monroe Armor made a second complaint about east Linn and Armor streets, both of which were referred to the Street committee. For the want of something else to do the meeting then adjourned.

POMONA GRANGE MEETING.—Pomona grange, No. 13, P. of H. will meet in the hall of Progress grange, at Centre Hall, on Tuesday, Nov. 26th, 1895, at ten o'clock in the morning. The business will be the election of officers for '96 and '97.

A lot of boy's winter caps, a broken assortment, will go at 15 cents at Lyon & Co's. They are worth double the price.

The new Reformed church at Centre Hall is under roof.

The Milesburg Evangelical church has a new pastor in the person of Rev. Hipple.

Another new lot of boucle and plain cloth ladies coats at Lyon & Co's.

Rev. Mr. Hart, of West Huntingdon, is assisting Rev. J. W. Rue at his revival in the Methodist church this week.

Children's overcoats, with and without capes, from 98 cents up to the finest at Lyon & Co's.

Lock Haven would like to organize a league of base ball clubs from Renovo, Bellefonte, Lock Haven, Williamsport and Sunbury, for next year.

You can buy an $8, elegantly trimmed, heavy cloth lady's cape for $6 at Lyon & Co's.

"Uncle Davy" Gearhart, of Chester Hill, near Phillipsburg, has been a voter for sixty-five years and in all that time he has never missed a general election.

Feather boas at 50 and 74cts. and the best at $1.65 at Lyon & Co's.

John Mallory, of Kreamersville, who had been taken to the Harrisburg insane asylum twice, returned to his home the other day, having made the entire journey on foot.

The wholesale grocer man, who was to have opened a place of business next door to this office, has disappeared and it is thought he does not intend returning. Just to give him a few more days of grace we will withhold any further comment on his departure. Sam Buck or Henry Yeager can tell you all about it, if they will.

News Purely Personal.

Mrs. Samuel Miller, of east Linn street, is visiting friends in Tyrone.

J. J. Dreese and Dr. J. Y. Dale, of Lemont, had business in town, on Tuesday.

Editor Claude Jones, of the Tyrone Herald, was in town between trains yesterday morning.

John B. Mitchell Esq., of Pine Grove Mills, and Sup't. W. C. Patterson, of State College, were among our pleasant Wednesday callers.

County treasurer John Q. Miles and proprietor D. C. Keller, of the Haag hotel, went to Philadelphia on business, Tuesday evening.

Manager Al Garman, of the opera house, and editor Charles R. Kurtz, of the Democrat, went to Tyrone, Monday evening, to see the "Old Homestead."

The Tyrone Herald says that Mrs. William Spangler, of Potter's Mills, Centre county, is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bollinger, on Washington avenue.

Dr. H. P. Armsby, director of The Pennsylvania State College Agricultural Experiment Station, and Hon. John A. Woodward, of Howard, were in town on Wednesday.

Rev. J. A. Woodcock and his son Lee B., came up from Philadelphia Tuesday evening. The former will more than likely remain at home until after Christmas.

Ex-sheriff Thos. K. Henderson, of Huntingdon county, who has many friends in this section, has moved from Morrell to Warriorsmark, where he will be happy on his fine "Brookside" farm.

Col. Austin Curtin has returned from Morrisstown, N. J., and is again living at Roland. While away he was in the artificial ice business, but the plant he was connected with was sold and he retired.

If you would like some pointers about your winter finery or what the duke looked like, while on exhibition, ask Col. Shortlidge for he was a spectator, last week, at New York's famous clothes-horse show.

Mrs. Prudence Haines, of Phillipsburg, came over to Bellefonte to the Schmidt funeral, on Tuesday, and was feeling so ill that she remained here until Wednesday evening. While in town she visited many of her girlhood friends. Her maiden name was Stone.

C. S. Lucas and I. A. Zeigler, two very pleasant Milesburg gentlemen, were callers at the WATCHMAN office Saturday afternoon. The latter teaches school at Wallace run and is an expert pen and ink artist. Some of his work is executed in a way that signifies a decided talent in that direction.

Mrs. J. D. Hall, of south Thomas street, is in Williamsport, this week, visiting friends. Her absence forces John to keep bachelor's hall and play mother for their family of interesting children. He is equal to the task however, and manages it with about "the same satisfaction that he looks after passengers on the Central.

W. E. Tyson, of Vail, Geo. N. Brandon, of Carlisle, and R. R. Voris, of Scranton, were among the out-of-towners who assisted at the "blow out" given Henry D. Lyon, at the Bush house, Monday night. It was Mr. Lyon's last night in town, preparatory to his leaving for his new home in Chicago and his old minstrel and other friends entertained in his honor.

Among the many justices in Centre county few show more tact and good judgment in the disposition of the business coming before them than Squire Michael Shaffer, of Zion. For a score of years he has sat in judgment on petty cases arising in his bailiwick and his record will bear the most minute inspection as to the wisdom with which he has acted. He is one of that class of men who doesn't believe in piling costs on the taxpayers with cases in court that can be settled just as satisfactorily without it. Squire Shaffer was in town Saturday attending to a little personal business and found time for a pleasant call at this office.

A large number of Phillipsburgers were in town, on Tuesday, having come over to attend the funeral of Miss Fannie Schmidt. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Leister, of the Potter house; Thos. E. Emerson, who is one of the resident managers of Hoover, Hughes & Co's. plant in that place; G. Herman, who does a large business there and Sundays in Houtzdale, where he claims his residence and is an ardent Democratic worker; W. S. Rhoads and Steele Crissman, druggists who were wont to throw pills at one another when they were in business on opposite corners over there; Maj John Wolf, who wasn't elected sheriff; Frank F. Irwin and a number of others.

A FORMER RESIDENT DEAD.—Mrs. W. H. H. Nevlng, a few years ago a resident of Bellefonte, died at her home in Sioux City, Iowa, last Friday evening. She had been ill about two months and it is thought that it was the development of blood poison that killed her.

Born March 29, 1842, deceased was 53 years, 7 months and 16 days old. Mrs. Nevlng's maiden name was Mary A. M. Thompson. Born and raised near Milroy, Mifflin county, she removed with her parents to Eden Valley, Huntingdon county, where she was married to W. H. H. Nevlng, October 21, 1869.

Mrs. Nevlng came here with her husband and family in 1877 and after a few years residence they moved West. Sam Nevlng, a clerk in the National bank for a number of years, is a son.

In order to sell them 75 cent a pair cheaper than the regular prices Lyon & Co. have bought blankets in very large quantities.

A sewing machine agent, who is a swindler, is travelling through Cambria county, says the Ebensburg Mountaineer. He examines a machine, and either deftly breaks a part while the owner has gone for coal oil for him, or substitutes a broken part which he carries with him, charging a good round sum for replacing it. He has taken several hundred dollars from country people throughout the county, and operated last about Vetsara."

Now is the time to buy your men's storm overcoats. Lyon & Co. sell good ones at $3.75, $4.50, $5.50 and $6.

A CRAPE VEIL FOUND.—A long crape mourning veil was picked up in front of the post office, in this place, on Tuesday morning. The owner can have same by calling at this office.

All shades Camel's hair serge, 1 1/2 yards wide, 34cts at Lyon & Co.

FOR SALE.—A team of heavy draft horses, 8 years old. Will weigh 1600 lbs. each.

T. B. BUDINGER, Snow Shoe, Pa.

If you want a good heavy merino shirt and drawers buy Lyon & Co's 37cts goods.

HAY WANTED.—Have you a car-load of good timothy hay you want to sell for cash. If so, write or telephone T. B. Budinger, Snow Shoe, Pa.

LOST.—A small sterling silver match box with the monogram, G. R. M., engraved on one side. The finder will be rewarded by returning same to this office.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS—HERE IS A COMPLETE LIST.—Neck Wear, Suits Cases, Satchels, Umbrellas, Hats, Toques, Mufflers, Trunks, Telescopes, Mackintoshes, Canes, Golf Caps, Girls Caps, Cuff Buttons, Fur Gloves, Kid Gloves, Foot Ball Suits, Scotch Gloves, Boys Gloves, Hosiery, Underwear, Belts, Sporting Goods, Silk and Linen Hankerchiefs, Sweaters, Bicycle Hose, House Coats, Overcoats, Mens, Boys and Children Clothing Ready Made and Made to Order.

MONTGOMERY & CO.

WHERE YOU CAN BUY THE CHEAPEST.—It is a question of dollars and cents after all. No matter what people say it is as natural to save a penny in buying as it is to eat dinner at the dinner hour. Opportunities to make great savings are not often to be had, but Lyon & Co's., big advertisement in this issue affords just such a chance. Read it and profit by the bargains it holds out. A dollar saved is a dollar earned.

Lost.

A broche shawl, somewhere between Hubbersburg and Bellefonte. Finder will receive suitable reward by returning same to this office. 40 42
