

Pine Grove Mention.

The venerable Jacob Weaver, who has been ill for some weeks, is now better.

On Tuesday little Annie, daughter of Mac Rossman, accidentally broke her arm while playing at school.

Butchering dinners as well as pig stories are on the wane; but so far Ferguson holds the belt for big porkers.

Miss Jennie Gilliland, a former Centre countess, is this week visiting among old friends and neighbors with headquarters at Mrs. D. W. Miller.

Major Ross evidently is of the opinion that liming pays better than fertilizing. He has just completed the third large lime kiln on his farm near town.

W. H. Sausserman and family came down to enjoy Thanksgiving as well as a number of old fashioned butchering dinners. Wm. always has capacity for such occasions.

Our special friend Samuel Harpster, who was so seriously ill last week with heart trouble and rheumatism that his condition caused great alarm to his friends, is now considered out of danger.

Last Thursday J. B. Heberling and his bride enjoyed their first day's house-keeping and thus far they have succeeded admirably. They are snugly located in the newly fitted up mansion of W. J. Myers, on Main street, where the friends of the young couple will find a royal welcome.

The Thanksgiving service in the Lutheran church, under the auspices of the Womens Missionary society, was pleasing and entertaining to every one present. Rev. Aikens carried out the program to the letter and the music, recitations and readings were all well rendered.

Robert Meek and wife, of Altoona, who are just home from seeing their son, Walter, in Philadelphia, were given very little encouragement by the doctors under whose care he is. It is one of the saddest cases we have ever heard of for Walter was so industrious, ambitious and successful that his hopeless illness is a great sorrow to his friends and family.

DEATH OF MRS. TRESSLER.—On Tuesday November 25th, Mrs. Sarah Tressler died, after a lingering illness at the home of her daughter Mrs. Annie Miller, Sarah Dale Tressler was born May 3rd 1830 on what is now the Bottorf farm near Leomont. Her husband, Jeremiah Tressler died some years ago and since that she has made her home with her daughter who did everything in her power to make her declining years comfortable. Of her eight children Mrs. D. L. Miller, of White Hall, Mrs. James Niles, of Coburn, George W. of Oak Hall and Renben of Bellefonte survive to mourn the loss of this good mother of Israel. Wednesday afternoon she was buried in the Rock Hill cemetery with the Rev. C. T. Aikens pastor of the Lutheran church, of which she was a devoted member for 53 years, officiating. The large concourse of relatives and friends present attested the esteem and respect in which she was held in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller sincerely thank their neighbors for their kindness and attention during the illness and death of their aged mother.

IN MEMORIAM TO A DEAD COMRADE.—At a special meeting of Captain G. O. Campbell Post, No. 27, G. O. of Pine Grove Mills, a committee on resolutions of respect was appointed and have reported as follows:

Resolved, That whereas it has pleased almighty God, the Omnipotent Commander of all armies, to remove from our ranks and all earthly service to answer the last roll call, comrade George Eckel, our vigilant Quartermaster always filling all requests with care and promptness, therefore be it.

Resolved, That in his final "muster out" our Post has lost a most worthy member and that we are again reminded that our last roll call will come sure and soon.

Resolved, That as a token of respect our charter be draped in the usual mourning badge for a period of thirty days.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereft and sorrowing widow and family our tenderest sympathies in this their sad affliction and sorrow.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on our minutes and a copy be forwarded to the family of our late comrade. Nov. 30th, 1895.

Things That Have Happened at State College.

Prof. J. Price Jackson has just returned from a business trip to Philadelphia.

Mr. W. P. Sr. Riley, a recent graduate of the College has returned and accepted a position in the chemical department.

The football season being over we have with us our local lights of the pigskin. Messrs. Charles H. W. Atherton, W. A. Stuart and Fred Robinson.

Rev. Ira C. Mitchell, of Bellefonte, preached two very interesting sermons in the M. E. church, on Sunday, which were listened to with wrapt attention.

We are pleased to say that the Thanksgiving Assembly of the senior class passed off very pleasantly. Good dancers were plenty, the music was fine, and refreshments tasty and well served.

The Rev. W. C. Kuhn, of Bellwood, preached a very able sermon in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning, and in the evening he preached, by request an instructive sermon before the Woman's Missionary society of the church. He told of the grand work accomplished in the past, and the urgent need of means to help the growing wants of our missionary boards in clean and forcible style.

SECHLER & CO'S OPEN LETTER.

Bellefonte, Pa., Nov. 25th, 1895.

As the Holiday Season is so near at hand we wish to remind our friends and the public, generally, that we are well prepared to supply all demands in our line.

Almost all kinds of goods are now so low in price that a good American Christmas Dinner is within the reach of all.

While giving careful attention to securing a fine stock of fruits and luxuries we have not overlooked the every day substantial.

We have Pillsbury's "best" Minnesota Flour and the leading brands of home manufacture. Bradford Co., pure Buckwheat Flour, new kiln dried Corn Meal, extra fine sugar cured Hams, breakfast Bacon and dried Beef, white, fat, new Mackerel, rich mild Cream Cheese, genuine Maple Syrup, pure-sugar table Syrups, fine roll dairy and creamery Butter.

We have just received a lot of bright clean New York state Beans that we are selling at the low price of five cents per quart. The entire lot of twenty-two bushels will go at that price (no advance) but we can hardly get any more as good as these to sell at the same price. Don't miss them, They are fine.

One of the most satisfactory lots of goods we have to offer is our own Mince Meat. Every ounce of material in it is sound, clean and of the finest quality, nothing equal to it has ever been obtainable. Price, ten cents per pound.

It has been almost impossible to get satisfactory Oranges this season, but we have secured some fine Floridas, also some Mexican fruit that is equally as fine as the Floridas and quite reasonable in price. Our stock of Cranberries, (at 10cts per quart,) white Almeria Grapes, New York Catawbas, (2 baskets for 25cts), Lemons, Bananas, and Sweet Potatoes have received careful attention. Also Raisins, Prunes, Citron, Figs, cleaned Currants, California evaporated fruits, fine mixed table Nuts at 15cts and 20cts per pound, soft shell Almonds 20cts per pound, finest Princess paper shells at 25cts per pound, finest Java, Mocha and Rio Coffees, Extracts, Sauces, Pickles, Capers, Mushrooms, Truffles, Etc., but we cannot enumerate further.

We keep a large and well selected stock. It will pay any house-keeper to visit our store once a week. The first principle of economy is not alone in saving, but in making a good investment. Trusting you will act on the suggestion.

We remain yours very respectfully,

SECHLER & CO.
