

just as promising. The shops are well supplied with well finished home made Portland sleighs and those intending purchasing a good sleigh should remember that in this part of the globe sleighing is never a failure.

Last Saturday Rev. Alkens reached his thirty-fourth birthday and the sixth of his ministry. According to a previous council meeting, an invitation was extended to all to adjourn to the parsonage. A beautifully decorated and well laden table had been prepared for the feast and when Rev. Alkens was reminded of the day, he was so abashed that Mrs. Alkens was obliged to act as toast master, which she did in a most gracious and pleasing manner.

Mrs. Harriet Rhodes, wife of Lemuel H. Schruder, died the night of the 11th, after a long illness of kidney trouble and dropsy. Her sufferings had caused both deafness and blindness, so the death angel was not unwelcome. She was 65 years old the 24th of last July and was held in high esteem in the community she lived her entire life. She had been a member of the M. E. church for fifty years. Nine of her eleven children with her husband mourn the loss of a kind, good woman. Two brothers David and Michael, and two sisters Mrs. Samuel Irvin and Mrs. Isaac Wooner are also living. She was buried, Saturday, the 14th, at Penna. Furnace with Rev. Guyon officiating.

John A. Stephens, who has been in Richmond, Va. running a saw mill since last March, is at home, having finished his contract for the season.

Mrs. Samuel Cowher, who lives about a mile from this place, is very seriously ill and from what we can learn there is very little hope of her recovery.

The wedding of Miss Candace Woodring, daughter of Mrs. A. R. Woodring, and Mr. Collins Matern, of Half Moon, was a very pretty and fashionable affair. May prosperity attend them is the wish of the writer.

One of our ministers can say that many of his fraternity cannot, that he is well supplied with turkeys for his Christmas dinner. A gentleman from one of his charges brought him twenty-one turkeys on last Tuesday and they are all fat plump ones at that.

George R. Williams, who is aspiring to be one of Centre county's commissioners, was in town this week interviewing his Democratic friends! We can say for Mr. Williams that if he is nominated by his party, he will be elected and will make a faithful and honest official.

The party of hunters from this place who camped on the Allegheny last week are home. Reuben, Craze is evidently the champion since he killed the big buck. The poor deer will now have a chance to recuperate since they have been hunted to death ever since the season opened.

As the holidays draw nigh we want to give our young people a pointer. Musicians are always in demand more often in demand than supply for parties and merry makings, and from the strains we heard one P. M. draw from his violin, as he sat in his little latticed coop one day when he thought no one was about, there need be no misgivings about engaging him at once.

On last Friday a telegram was received by E. E. Jones announcing that his son-in-law Joseph McKelvey had been killed near Conemaugh, Thursday evening, while working as flagman on the Western division of the P. R. E. He was an industrious, well-to-do young man and his death is a great sorrow to his wife and Miss Edith Jones, to whom he had been married about two years, and young son Friday his remains were brought to this place and taken to the home of his father-in-law from where the funeral took place Monday. His train crew from Altoona attended the funeral and acted as pall bearers. A strange fatality seems following his family as his father, John McKelvey, who resides near Martha Furnace, after braking on the same division for twenty-five years lost his left arm about a year and a half ago, while coupling cars. His brother Martin, also a brakeman on the same division, had his leg taken off in the tunnel at Gallitzon, about a year ago. So we would advise the two younger boys to be content with the farm life at home, although we are not of a superstitious turn of mind.

Things That Have Happened at State College.

Mr. Albert Emerick is suffering with a mild attack of the grip.

Dr. Wm. Frear returned, on Thursday, from a business trip to Philadelphia.

Mr. J. O. Glover has returned from a pleasant business trip down the valley.

Mrs. M. M. Garver has gone to Waynesborough, Pa., for a protracted visit.

Dr. Gregory, professor of political economy, etc., has gone to Washington, D. C. for the holidays.

Rev. Levi, of Juniata, Pa., preached interesting and instructive sermons in the Presbyterian church on Sunday.

The College has at last replaced the clapper on the great bell in the cupola, which was lost some time ago, and once more the old bell rings out its familiar clang as it tells us of the floating hours.

The Annapolis Concert Co., of the Wilberforce University, gave very enjoyable concerts here recently which were well attended and listened to with much pleasure by the music loving community.

Mr. Thompson has put in an ice-pond below Musser's at the spring. The ice on it is already six or eight inches thick and many of our people are getting a supply there to save hauling from Boalsburg.

A young colt which was following Mr. John W. Stuart's buggy near Penna. Furnace, the other day, scared at a steam whistle jumped forward against one of the hind wheels, of his buggy and broke every spoke in it. Fortunately Mr. Stuart's horse did not scare and he was not hurt.

The revival of interest in the I. O. O. F. of the surrounding districts is truly wonderful. Quite a number of initiations at Lemont, Pine Grove Mills, and State College has precipitated a series of fraternal visitations from which nothing but the greatest good can come.

Books, Magazines Etc.

There will be considerable speculation as to the original of one of the characters in Mrs. Humphry Ward's Conjugal novel, "Sir George Tressady." This is the political leader who, after youth given over to race horses and worldly dissipation, flings himself into parliamentary life with almost ascetic devotion, and builds up a party from his own personal following.

Two very important facts in connection with the new era of magazines are illustrated in the December Cosmopolitan. Its fiction is by Stevenson, the last story written before his death, "Onida," Sarah Grand, Zangwill, and the beginning of James Lane Allen's news Kentucky realistic story, "Butterflies." Probably no stronger array of fiction has ever been presented in any magazine—money could not buy better. Nor has any magazine ever had a larger number of really distinguished artists engaged upon the illustration of a single number. The reader might be puzzled to know how such a number can be made at the price of ten cents. But the magazine itself affords the solution. It contains 159 pages of advertising, which, as the publishers announce, is from $100 to $800 more net cash advertising than was ever before printed in any magazine, of any kind, and in any country. It breaks the world's record in the publishing business. Moreover, the cost of the artists and authors who appear in this number is divided amongst 400,000 copies bringing the cost per copy proportionately low. The Cosmopolitan thinks that the ten cent magazine, bringing, as it does, the best in art and literature into all classes, is an educational movement second in importance only to that of the public schools.

SECHLER & CO'S OPEN LETTER.

Bellefonte, Pa., Nov. 25th, 1895.

As the Holiday Season is so near at hand we wish to remind our friends and the public, generally, that we are well prepared to supply all demands in our line.

Almost all kinds of goods are now so low in price that a good American Christmas Dinner is within the reach of all.

While giving careful attention to securing a fine stock of fruits and luxuries we have not overlooked the every day substantial.

We have Pillsbury's "best" Minnesota Flour and the leading brands of home manufacture. Bradford Co., pure Buckwheat Flour, new kiln dried Corn Meal, extra fine sugar cured Hams, breakfast Bacon and dried Beef, white, fat, new Mackerel, rich mild Cream Cheese, genuine Maple Syrup, pure-sugar table Syrups, fine roll dairy and creamery Butter.

We have just received a lot of bright clean New York state Beans that we are selling at the low price of five cents per quart. The entire lot of twenty-two bushels will go at that price (no advance) but we can hardly get any more as good as these to sell at the same price. Don't miss them, They are fine.

One of the most satisfactory lots of goods we have to offer is our own Mince Meat. Every ounce of material in it is sound, clean and of the finest quality, nothing equal to it has ever been obtainable. Price, ten cents per pound.

It has been almost impossible to get satisfactory Oranges this season, but we have secured some fine Floridas, also some Mexican fruit that is equally as fine as the Floridas and quite reasonable in price. Our stock of Cranberries, (at 10cts per quart,) white Almeria Grapes, New York Catawbas, (2 baskets for 25ccts), Lemons, Bananas, and Sweet Potatoes have received careful attention. Also Raisins, Prunes, Citron, Figs, cleaned Currants, California evaporated fruits, fine mixed table Nuts at 15ccts and 20ccts per pound, soft shell Almonds 20ccts per pound, finest Princess paper shells at 25ccts per pound, finest Java, Mocha and Rio Coffees, Extracts, Sauces, Pickles, Capers, Mushrooms, Truffles, Etc., but we cannot enumerate further.

We keep a large and well selected stock. It will pay any house-keeper to visit our store once a week. The first principle of economy is not alone in saving, but in making a good investment. Trusting you will act on the suggestion.

We remain yours very respectfully,

SECHLER & CO.
