THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—The teachers will leave us to-day.

—Don't forget the Logan ball on New Year's eve.

—Bellefonte amateurs are preparing to sing the comic opera "Priscilla."

—Straighten up your accounts at this office. We need the money you owe us.

—Two young Coburn hunters killed a 436lb. bear one day last week. Both boys were young.

—A. T. James, of Philipsburg, has been appointed a deputy-factory inspector by Governor Hastings.

—Wilson Gephart, son of J. W. Gephart Esq., is confined to his home with a mild attack of scarlet fever.

—Very interesting literary exercises marked the close of the fall term at the Bellefonte High school last Friday.

—Yesterday was a very busy day in Bellefonte. Such crowds of people have not been seen on the streets in a long time.

—Read Achenbach's ad if you want to know where to get Christmas candies, cakes, ices and novelties at rock bottom prices.

—Chas. E. Murray and Lot W. Jones have purchased the plant of the Forge Run lumber company, in Philipsburg, and will continue the business.

—Mrs. E. A. D. Blair's chalk talk on temperance attracted quite a crowd to the court house Sunday afternoon. It was a talk to young people and thoroughly beneficial.

—Editor Chas. R. Kurtz, of the Democrat, is confined to bed with a severe cold. His paper is out, bright and newsy as ever, however. We hope his recovery will be speedy.

—The Logan's New Year's eve dance should attract a large crowd of people to the armory on that night. Good music, good order and a good time is guaranteed to all.

—Cedar's bakery is one place in town where everything toothsome can be had. It is Bellefonte's old reliable stand and you will make no mistake in going there for your holiday confections.

—Frank Williams, electrician at the Edison illuminating works in this place, is happy. It is no wonder, either, for the sweetest little girl arrived at his house, on Saturday, that ever you did see.

—Robert Hunter, commissioner's clerk, shot a wild turkey while out hunting on the mountain above Fillmore last Friday. There are those who will dispute our use of the adjective wild in the above.

—The Bellefonte club entertained on Friday night in an informal, though very delightful way. A concert company was engaged for the evening and the musicale was enjoyed by a large party of ladies and gentlemen.

—Mrs. Peter Coyle, a daughter of the late Oliver Wilson, of Julian, died at her home, near Philipsburg, last Thursday, after a long illness with cancer. Deceased was 35 years old and leaves a husband with three children.

—Walter Whippo has leased the blacksmith shop at the old Waite carriage works, on Water street, and will continue working there. All sorts of iron work will be done in the best possible manner and at reasonable prices.

—Miss Nellie Conley, the pretty little daughter of Mr. Will Conley, of Logan street, celebrated her seventh birthday on Monday evening. A large party of her child friends gathered at her home that evening and enjoyed a delightful party.

—Physicians are said to be starving in Paris because there are not enough patients to go around. Such a condition can't last long in such a feverish city. Some crank will break loose in the chamber of deputies before long, and, with his little bomb, will make world for all.

—Powell, the magician, gave a matinee yesterday afternoon. His entertainment is a delightful one and seems to have caught Bellefonte people on the right side. When they give a show to paying business at three entertainments in as many weeks there is evidence that it must be entirely satisfactory.

—Invitations are out for an assembly in the armory, on Wednesday evening, Jan. 1st. It will be a very swell affair and the music will be furnished by Chappel's orchestra from Williamsport. Mrs. W. F. Reeder, Mrs. Harry Keller, Mrs. Frank Wardfield, Mrs. Henry Quigley and Mrs. W. Frederick Reynolds will be the patronesses.

THE FORTY-NINTH ANNUAL INSTITUTE

—The public school teachers of Centre county met in this place, last Monday morning, to begin the forty-ninth annual session of their institute. Of the 274 teachers employed all but ten answered to their names, so it will be inferred that from point of numbers the sessions have been highly successful.

All of the instructors advertised have been in attendance during the week and no disappointments have been experienced. They are: Dr. J. P. Gordy, professor of psychology and pedagogy in the Ohio University. Dr. Byron W. King, president King's school of Oratory, Elocution and Dramatic Culture, Pittsburgh, Pa. Dr. A. R. Horne, editor National Educator, Allentown, Pa. Supt. James M. Coughlin Wilkesbarre, Pa. Prof. Chas. H. Albert, State Normal School, Bloomsburg, Pa. Miss Margaret McCloskey, principal training department, Lock Haven State Normal School. Prof. I. D. Gresh, musical conductor, Milton, Pa.

In addition to the above Powell the magician, gave the teachers a short talk on Tuesday afternoon. He was once professor of mathematics at the military academy, at Chester.

The evening attractions, all of which were good, were: Monday, December 16th, temperance address, Mrs. E. A. D. Blair. Tuesday, December 17th, "Push and Pull," Dr. A. R. Horne. Wednesday, December 18th, artistic recitals and character sketches, Dr. Byron W. King. Thursday, December 19th, New York male quartet.

Yesterday was directors day and many of the men who control the school system of the county were in town to attend the meetings of the director's association. Supt. James M. Coughlin, of Wilkesbarre, was the principal speaker and after his address subjects pertinent to better schools were discussed by other competent men among whom were: Dr. Geo. S. Frank, W. M. Allison, C. C. Lose, Chas. Smith, W. M. Grove, J. T. Lee, J. P. Sebring, J. N. Hall, D. F. Fortney, Esq., Theo. Christ, John D. Brown, P. D. McDonnell, Dr. L. M. Houser, R. K. Wilson, J. C. P. Jones, W. E. Irvin and Owen Underwood.

Institute will close with the morning session to-day.

BIG FIRE AT COBURN.—Late Tuesday night the town of Coburn was startled by the cry of "fire" and though the first warning did not forestall an alarming situation an investigation disclosed that the large grain house and creamery of Luther Guisewite was ablaze.

The absence of fire protection made it most alarming and by the time the fire had burned out, Guisewite's buildings, together with 1000 bushels of wheat, a lot of rye, oats and other articles amounting to $7,000 in value were totally destroyed. He had about $3,000 insurance.

There was no wind at the time but the flames spread to the lumber yards of the Harter brothers and licked up about 80,000 feet of lumber, then consumed 50,000 feet owned by C. C. Lose. In addition to these four freight cars, one loaded with salt, were burned and the railroad station was badly scorched.

The fire is supposed to have started in the engine room of the creamery where they had been working late that night.

"WEDDING BELLS RINGING."—At the home of the bride's parents, at Axe Mann, Wednesday, Dec. 18th, 1895, at 7 P. M. Mr. Eugene H. Heverly and Miss Anna Marilla Stewart, both of Axe Mann, were united in matrimony by Rev. J. C. Young, in the presence of a few intimate friends. The bride was exquisitely attired in heavy cream satin and presented a beautiful appearance. The groom is a handsome young man of industrious and temperate habits. Surely a brilliant future is before the happy young folks.

Mr. Heverly holds a lucrative position in Mann's axe factory, near Lewisport, where he and his bride will locate for the present. After the marriage ceremony had been performed the invited guests sat down to an elegant repast, a most royal feast, so delicately prepared and so tastefully served as to please the most fastidious.

After the feast came the big serenade by the boys and girls of the village, yes, even many of the married people, who likely had passed this way before, joined with the younger ones to do honor to the newly married couple.

KILLED WHILE RABBIT HUNTING.—A sad accident befell Russell Confer, the 16 year old son of Elias Confer, of Loganton, on Saturday afternoon. The young man had been out hunting for rabbits and was standing on a log, with the butt of his gun on the log at his side. The weapon slipped out of his hands and scraped along the log, discharging it. The load entered Confer's body in the abdomen, on the left side, going upward and lodging near the right lung. He was so near home that his mother heard his cries and went to his assistance. He was carried into the house where he lingered in great pain for a few hours then died.

—Help the Logans by buying a ticket to their dance.

—A Williamsport seamstress is seriously ill as the result of drinking too much tea.

—If you want to buy a useful, as well as a beautiful, Christmas present, go to China Hall and see the many charming things there.

—The Pennsylvania state music teacher's association will meet in Pittsburgh, Dec. 30th, 31st, and Jan. 1st. The meeting will be held in the new Carnegie hall.

—Because he is going to quit the business now is your time to buy cheap stores and everything in the hardware line at McKee's. The lowest prices ever heard of prevail there.

—The death of the venerable David R. Poorman occurred at the home of his son, Isaiah, in "the Ridges" a few days ago. Deceased was 80 years old and leaves two sons and one daughter.

—Hardware is not exactly in the line of Christmas purchases, yet you can find many articles that would make useful and appropriate gifts at Daniel Irvin's sons store in this place.

—Mrs. Lena Straw, of Lock Haven, has disappeared from her home in that place and is supposed to have eloped with Joseph Salistro, an Italian who had gone to that place from Altoona.

—E. M. Huyett, the Centre Hall lumberman, is going to remove to Franklin county where he will begin extensive operations. He has cut all the timber he could procure in this county.

—Rev. J. C. Barr, a well known Tyrone minister, died at his home in that place, on Saturday night, with kidney disease. Deceased was nearly 72 years old and was a brother of Mrs. James C. Boal, of Centre Hall.

—Everyone should patronize the chicken and waffle supper to be given by the Citizen's book and ladder company of Milesburg, on Tuesday evening, December 24th, in the O. U. A. M. hall in that place. It is a worthy organization and a great boon to that town.

—The sympathy of this community will go out to Mrs. Jennie Williams, widow of the late Aaron Williams, Esq., when it is known that her brother, Lynn H. Fisher, died at Richmond, Ind., lately. Deceased was born at Aaronsburg, in this county, and his death is a sad shock to Mrs. Williams, who has had more than her share of sorrow recently.

—Robert Fulton Mull, assistant cashier of the first National bank of Philipsburg, died at his home in that place last Saturday afternoon. Deceased was forty years old and died from the effects of hemorrhages from the lungs, that began three days prior to his death. He was a Christian gentleman whose death, in the prime of manhood, seems particularly sad. Funeral services were held at the home of his sister, Mrs. O. P. Jones, on Wednesday afternoon.

—Joseph P. Sherlock, a Huntingdon county man, was arrested in Philipsburg, on Monday, charged with forging the name of Henry Whitmer to two checks. They were in amount $18 and $22. Sherlock endeavored to get the $18 check cashed, but as it was not dated he failed at the first place and had to go to E. Chandler who gave him the money. In default of bail he was committed to jail by Squire Laporte. He was brought here on Tuesday morning.

—Among the many entertaining literary features at the Academy, Friday afternoon, was the Addisonian Mirror, the society paper issued by the students at the end of each term. It was full of choice articles and jokes of a local nature that made it doubly entertaining. "Bobby" Valentine, the staff artist had illustrated some of the best hits in a way that gave them an additional pointedness. An original poem, by Miss Elizabeth Gephart, the little daughter of Supt. J. W. Gephart, of the Central R. R., embodied a beautiful Thanksgiving sentiment in verses of which many an older writer might feel proud.

—One of the meanest, most contemptible tricks we have ever heard of was the one some miserable hystler played on David Meyer, a farmer living near Linden Hall. Mr. Meyer uses about 1200 feet of inch metal pipe to conduct water from a near-by spring to his farm house and barn. The pipe was laid on the surface. Though the constant flow of the water through it would have kept it from freezing this unknown stopped up the lower end, during the recent cold weather, and the water froze solid all along the pipe. A new line of pipe will have to be laid to supply water for the farmer and his stock. We didn't think there was a wretch in Centre county despicable enough to have been guilty of such a trick.

LIKE GOING HOME.—To the traveler there is nothing quite so pleasant as finding himself comfortably ensconced in a well regulated, thoroughly modern hotel. No matter how long business might detain one in a strange city there is always one name, at least, that has a familiar sound in the long list of hotels, and with that familiarity comes the conviction that it is a first class stopping place. For any other kind is rarely heard of, unless through some unfortunate who has been caught. Nine-tenths of the travelers whom you meet and ask about Chicago hotels, will speak of the Palmer house. Its name is almost synonymous with the city whose millions of visitors it has done so much to entertain. One of the old, conservative houses of Chicago it has not allowed itself to be outstripped by those of more modern build, but is still the peer of all and the superior of many. Lately re-furnished and improved it has taken a bold step in reducing its prices while making its service more complete. While in Chicago you could not find a more desirable or centrally located stopping place than the Palmer house.

CRUSHED TO DEATH AT PHILIPSBURG.—O. W. Simcox, aged 24 years, met a frightful death at Cold Stream, near Philipsburg, on Wednesday morning. He was employed by Peter Stuart, who is shipping mine prop timber to the anthracite regions, and on the morning of the accident one car had already been loaded. Mr. Stuart hitched his horses to it to pull it away and make room for another car. Young Simcox was standing at the side of the loaded car and did not notice that when the last log had been swung onto it the derrick chain was left lying on top of the pile. As the car moved off the chain rolled down over the logs and became caught on one of the side standards, breaking it off. Before Simcox could realize what was happening three of the heavy props rolled off the car and fell on him crushing him to the ground. He was smashed almost to a jelly and death was almost instantaneous.

The unfortunate young man is a son of Robert Simcox, the bee raiser, of Queen's Run, near Lock Haven.

WHERE TO GET THEM.—The Logan fire Co., of this place, still have a few chances left on the handsome gold watch they intend putting off on New Year's eve, the night of their 26th annual ball, and have placed some of them on sale at the following places:

Frank Galbraith's jewelry store, Cruse's cigar store, John Anderson's restaurant, J. D. Sourbeck's confectionery store, J. A. McGinley's cigar store, Geo. Fasig's grocery store, the Garman and Brant houses.

This is a first class watch and the price of a chance, ONE CENT, is so low that it is within the reach of all.

THE THIRD DEATH IN TEN WEEKS.—Death has entered the home of Mr. Joseph Lowery, of Unionville, three times in ten weeks. The last visitation robbed the fond parents of their youngest son, Martin, aged 14 years. His death occurred last Friday morning, at 10 o'clock after a period of illness, with typhoid fever, lasting twenty-two days.

Funeral services were held, on Saturday, Rev. Miller, of the U. B. church officiating and interment was made in the Myer's cemetery, Buffalo Run. Deceased was a grandson of the late Michael Myers, of Banner township.

PROMPT PAYMENT.—On Wednesday P. E. Naginy, financial secretary of the Bellefonte order of Heptasophs, handed Mrs. Anna Woodcock, of east Linn street, a check for $5,000. It was the amount of a benefit the late Rev. J. A. Woodcock, held in that order and it had taken just six days from the time the proof of death left here until the check was received in return. The check was certified by the national Marine band of Baltimore.

—Harry Paul, a Philipsburg driver, came near losing his life at the Presque Isle street crossing of the P. R. R. in that place, at noon, on Saturday. The Houtzdale passenger engine struck the wagon in which he was sitting and completely demolished it. His team had just cleared the track when the train ran in. Paul was picked up in an unconscious condition, but was not seriously hurt.

—Schler & Co's line of holiday groceries is the finest in town. No one disputes it. Everything is fresh and in the best possible condition. Their prices are away down and they are making special drives on holiday necessities.

—Remember that the advertiser's in the WATCHMAN are the merchants who should get your trade. They are not afraid to let you know what they have to sell nor are they backward about announcing the prices they ask for their goods.

—You can buy an $8, elegantly trimmed, heavy cloth lady's cape for $6 at Lyon & Co's.

—Wouldn't this be a good time for you to send in some money on your subscription account? We need it and would like to have it.

—It is very enjoyable to look on, if you don't care to dance, at the Logan's New Year's eve ball.

—All shades Camel's hair serge, 1 1/2 yards wide, 34cts at Lyon & Co.

—H. H. Hewitt, of Philipsburg, has been appointed to a position in the adjutant general's office at Harrisburg.

—Leather goods a specialty at Zeller's.

—Men's all wool chevrot suits, at Lyon & Co's at $4.75.

—The P. & N. W. rail-road company has granted an annual appropriation of $1,000 to the Bellwood rail-road men's Christain association.

—Renovo's new theatre was opened, on Monday evening. It has a seating capacity of fifteen hundred and was built by banker Patrick Kane.

—Leather goods a specialty at Zeller's.

—Children's overcoats, with and without capes, from 98 cents up to the finest at Lyon & Co's.

—J. A. Campbell, of Morrisdale, is said to have fallen heir to a fourth interest in a $2,000,000 estate left by a rich aunt who died in Atlantic City, N. J.

—Feather boas at 50 and 74cts. and the best at $1.65 at Lyon & Co's.

—It is said that there are only two sheep left in Crawford township, Clinton county, as the result of the ravages of sheep killing dogs. There are eighty-one dogs assessed in the township.

—In order to sell them 75 cent a pair cheaper than the regular prices Lyon & Co. have bought blankets in very large quantities.

—William Chatham, the Mill Hall man who was supposed to have lost his eye through a spawl from a nail flying into it, has been more fortunate and will recover the sight of that member.

—Good morning, have you seen Zeller's holiday goods?

—Another new lot of boucle and plain cloth ladies coats at Lyon & Co's.

—Judge Barker, of Cambria county, has ruled that under the act of 1872 their county commissioners dare not draw more than $400 per annum and as they had been charging $3.50 per day he ordered them to return all in excess of $400 that they had drawn.

—A lot of boy's winter caps, a broken assortment, will go at 15 cents at Lyon & Co's. They are worth double the price.

News Purely Personal.

—Mrs. John Tonner left Tuesday morning for a three week's visit with her sister Mrs. Nagle in Philadelphia.

—Miss Mary Deving leaves, to-morrow, for Philadelphia and New York where she will spend the holidays with friends.

—Fred Blanchard, formerly of this place, is here from Princeton to spend the Christmas holidays. He arrived on Monday.

—C. M. Bower Esq., J. C. Meyer Esq. and John Blanchard Esq., three of Bellefonte attorneys, spent Saturday in Lock Haven trying a case.

—Harry Gerberich, of this place, was in Philipsburg, on Wednesday, shaking hands with the "snow-flake" flour trade in that place.

—Miss Jean Parsons who has been visiting Miss Blanche Hayes since the Hayes-Bubb wedding has returned to her home in Williamsport.

—H. C. Rice Esq., an agreeable Philipsburg gentleman who spends most of his time at Julian, was in town yesterday and dropped in to see us for a few moments.

—Miss Ella Levy, one Bellefonte's most successful public school teachers and a learned woman, spent Sunday in Lock Haven, with Mrs. B. L. Emery, of that place.

—Mr. Wilson Dillon, of Julian, was in town yesterday and called to see us for the paper he and his good wife have been reading almost from the day it started. It was forty years ago they were married and, like every young couple should do, they subscribed for the WATCHMAN the first thing.

—Mrs. Wm. B. Fleming was a pleasant caller at this office, on Tuesday morning and enrolled the name of her husband, as a subscriber. He is located at Midway, Washington county, where he is engaged in oil prospecting for Geo. Hantz one of the most successful operators in the oil fields.

—Mr. S. A. Martin came up from his home at Nittany, yesterday, to attend the meeting of the public school directors of the county. As the train was nearly two hours late arriving he missed the morning session, then a sick wife called him back home on an afternoon train. We were sorry to learn of Mrs. Martin's illness and trust that her recovery will be speedy.

—Henry Whiteleather, of Abdera, is one of Walker township's school directors who always takes an interest in the work. He was here, yesterday, to attend the meeting of the directors of the county and, as his custom, spent a few moments in this office. He is one of the few men who has read the WATCHMAN ever since it was started, even before the present editor took charge of it.

—Our old friend Mr. John Kerstetter Sr., of Coburn, did not call to see us yesterday, but he sent a very pleasant young gentleman in to order the paper for another year for him. We suppose Mr. Kerstetter was too much engaged looking at the ruins of the big fire down there to get up himself, but he knew what would please the editor most, next to a personal call from him.

—One of the most charming of the many school teachers who have been in town during the week is Miss Anna E. Heberling, a daughter of Mr. J. H. Heberling, of Eagleville. She is a Liberty township teacher and is one of those young women whose independence commands admiration. Her scholars can enjoy the distinction of having one of the prettiest teachers in the county.

AVOIRDUPOIS SOCIAL.—An avoirdupois social will be given by the ladies aid society of the Eagleville Baptist church, Saturday evening, Dec. 21st, 1895, in Kune's hall at that place. It will be a novel affair. Scales will be procured and every one weighed will be assessed one cent for every ten pounds avoirdupois. Prizes will be awarded to the heaviest and lightest lady and gentleman in attendance. Luncheon free to those that are weighed. Cream, oysters, etc., extra.

An excellent Christmas entertainment will be given by the Baptist Sunday school and choir at Eagleville, Tuesday evening, Dec. 24th. The music will be fine and a good time in general is expected. A small admittance, not exceeding 10 cents, will be taken.

—Now is the time to buy your men's storm overcoats. Lyon & Co. sell good ones at $3.75, $4.50, $5.50 and $6.

—Good morning, have you seen Zeller's holiday goods?

A SHORT SESSION OF COUNCIL.—At the meeting of council, on Monday evening, only two committees reported. The Street committee announced that $40 had been collected from T. A. Shoemaker, as his share of the cost of the new boardwalk on Potter street. Several repairs were reported and then the Water committee reported that all the water plugs had been examined and found to be in good condition. The pumps are running fourteen hours per day.

Bills to the amount of $291.20 were ordered to be paid and council adjourned.

—Leather goods a specialty at Zeller's.

—Men's nobby hats, in black and brown, at 99 cts. $1.24, $1.39, $1.74 and upwards at Lyon & Co's.

—The Gazette and Bulletin office, at Williamsport, narrowly escaped destruction by fire on Tuesday.

—Lyon & Co. are selling a special bargain in ladies kid gloves at 75 and 85 cents, worth $1 and $1.25 per pair.

FOR SALE.—A team of heavy draft horses, 8 years old. Will weigh 1600 lbs. each.

T. B. BUDINGER, Snow Shoe, Pa.

—If you want a good heavy merino shirt and drawers buy Lyon & Co's 37c goods.

HAWANTED.—Have you a car-load of good timothy hay you want to sell for cash. If so, write or telephone T. B. Budinger, Snow Shoe, Pa.

LOST.—A small sterling silver match box with the monogram, G. R. M., engraved on one side. The finder will be rewarded by returning same to this office.

WHERE YOU CAN BUY THE CHEAPEST.—It is a question of dollars and cents after all. No matter what people say it is as natural to save a penny in buying as it is to eat dinner at the dinner hour. Opportunities to make great savings are not often to be had, but Lyon & Co's., big advertisement in this issue affords just such a chance. Read it and profit by the bargain it holds out. A dollar saved is a dollar earned.

REDUCTION SALE.—Eclipsing the great Fire Sale of 1894, when we sold great quantities of goods in a short space of time, prices are much lower. Values are greater. No reasonable man expects to buy all wool Suits, and all wool Overcoats, at the prices named for Shoddy and Satinets. We expect to get your trade when you are through being deceived and have your eyes opened. Nothing is our business.
