

Spring Mills.

Lost His Eye.—James Kennelly of our town met with a very unfortunate accident, on Thursday last, while engaged in repairing a wire fence, the wire suddenly snapped, and one end struck him in the eye completely destroying his sight.

Quite a number of students are now here visiting home during vacation. Among the number I observe L. V. Royer, of Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.; a daughter of T. M. Gramley, of Irvin College, Chambersburg, Pa.; also L. O. Paaker, of Hiram College, Ohio, besides several others.

DANIEL BARON'S DEATH.—After an illness of several months Daniel Barones, a highly respected citizen of Spring Mills, died on the 21st inst. and was interred in the cemetery at Febersburg, this county, on the 24th inst. His remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of relatives and friends. The deceased was for many years a very prominent and influential farmer of Pennsylvania, but of late years, owing to increasing infirmities and advancing age, has lived a very retired life. Four children survive him, two sons and two daughters. His wife died twelve or fifteen years since.

Our Sunday school entertainments were very successful, the interior of the churches being beautifully decorated with spruce and evergreen. The exercises consisted of recitations, singing, dialogues, etc. The singing was excellent. Some of the recitations were rendered in a very able manner, and the speakers did themselves considerable credit. The infant department was remarkably good. The little folks rattled off their pieces in first class style. The Union Christian Endeavor Society, held a service prayer meeting in the Reformed church on Christmas morning at 7 o'clock. The attendance was quite large. Brothers Hoek and Hingsworth officiating.

The viewers appointed by the court to consider the advisability of a new road from the Granger hall to the R. R. station, which would also be a continuation of the "kings highway" from George's Valley and Penn Hall, met here on the 22nd inst. The viewers were unanimous in the opinion that the road was necessary, as at present those residing south east of Spring Mills proper, and the rail road—a town almost in itself, for it has almost as many inhabitants as Spring Mills, must make a long circuitous drive from the station. But with this new road opened it would be a perfectly level thoroughfare direct, besides open about one hundred building lots. The opposition is very trifling, one or two persons claiming a small damage. The new road would be to their advantage and benefit entirely. As now they have no outlet, whatever, and can only reach their land by trespassing on the property of others.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

Prof. Chaucey M. Cady, of Chicago, will write for the January Century a paper entitled "Responsibility Among the Chinese," which has a particular timeliness. Mr. Cady describes a unique feature in Chinese government, which for instance, holds all the residents of a street responsible for a crime committed within its boundaries.

St. Nicholas Magazine recently offered prizes for the best correction of a misspelled poem. More than ten thousand answers were received, and the committee has been overwhelmed with work, the results of which and the names of the prize-winners will appear in the January St. Nicholas. Answers came from Turkey, from Egypt and from Europe—from a little countess in Vienna and from the grandchild of Emerson and Hawthorne in America. The committee reluctantly make the admission that the penmanship of the English and Canadian children excels that of Uncle Sam's boys and girls.

Ex-President Harrison receives a larger sum for his articles on "This Country of Ours," which he is writing for The Ladies Home Journal, than has been paid to any public man in America for magazine work of a similar nature. His first article, in the Christmas number of the Journal, sold over 100,000 extra copies of the magazine, of which 725,000 copies were printed as a first edition.

THE COLUMBIA CALENDAR.—The Columbia pad calendar for 1895 has made its appearance, representing the eleventh annual issue, and handy and convenient as it has been here tofore, the new issue certainly surpasses any of its predecessors. The cycling fraternity, to say nothing of the general public, has acquired a decidedly friendly feeling for the Columbia calendar, and its annual advent is looked forward to with interest and pleasure. The new calendar contains a much better arrangement than in previous years, more space having been allowed for memoranda, while a greater charm has been added by liberal illustration and a unique and convenient grouping of dates, calculated to meet the hurried needs of business men.

THE JANUARY FORUM.—Following M. Leroy-Beaulieu's notable article in the December Forum, the January number of The Forum opens with a practical article entitled "Some Suggestions on Currency and Banking," by Mr. Adolf Ladenburg, of the firm of Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co.,—one of the largest and most important international banking firms in New York city. As a cure for our financial ills Mr. Ladenburg suggests that the banks in every city or small district combine and form a sort of clearing-house bank, that these clearing-house banks eventually form a state clearing-house bank, and that these national clearing-house banks which would act as a great central reservoir from which would indirectly, every little bank in the United States would derive strength and be able to supply their customers with currency. Such a combination, he thinks, would produce "more money" than any of the "more money" prescriptions, and give a permanent stability to our finances. Vice-Admiral Sir Edmund R. Fremantle, of the Royal Navy, who was in command of the English fleet on the China station during the war in the East, contributes a very interesting paper on "Some Naval Aspects of the Japan-China War." Rev. William Bayard Hale, whose discussions of the religious condition of several New England towns in The Forum, a year ago attracted so much attention, contributes an interesting and suggestive paper entitled "A Study of Church Entertainments." Dr. Henry J. Garrigue, an eminent obstetrician of New York, writes about the bicycle with special reference to its use by women. His opinion is that bicycling, when not indulged in to excess, is one of the most healthful forms of recreation that we have. Mr. Frederic William Hollis, a lawyer of New York, in a very striking article entitled "The German Vote" and the Republican Party," discusses the attitude of German-Americans toward the great political parties, especially their attitude on the questions which have lately agitated New York—such as the enforcement of the Sunday excise laws. Mr. Hollis asserts that the German-Americans hold the balance of power between the two contending political parties, that the inclination is clearly toward the Republican party, and that the success of that party depends only on its being true to itself and its early ideals—liberty, honesty, and the efficiency of the government.

The illustrated articles in The Monthly Illustrator and Home and Country, for January, are numerous and very fine. They include: "My Pet Subject," by Arthur Hooper; "A Dresden Painter," by C. Sandvoss; "Recollections of Henry Ward Beecher," by Horatio C. King; "The duty of Government to Unfortunate Children," by Ruth Everett; "From Cuxhaven to Constantinople," by C. W. Allen; "William Collins Whitney," A Character Study by Rufus R. Wilson; "The Play of the Thing," by Robert Stoddard; "Robert Burns, Women of the Hour," by Henry Man; "Men and Women of the Hour," The Lost Creek Literary Club; by Capt. Jack Crawford; "The Pottery of the North American Indians," by W. J. Hoffman, M. D. Several full-page illustrations in high art add to the attractions in the current number.

SECHLER & CO'S OPEN LETTER.

Bellefonte, Pa., Nov. 25th, 1895.

As the Holiday Season is so near at hand we wish to remind our friends and the public, generally, that we are well prepared to supply all demands in our line.

Almost all kinds of goods are now so low in price that a good American Christmas Dinner is within the reach of all.

While giving careful attention to securing a fine stock of fruits and luxuries we have not overlooked the every day substantials.

We have Pillsbury's "best" Minnesota Flour and the leading brands of home manufacture. Bradford Co., pure Buckwheat Flour, new kiln dried Corn Meal, extra fine sugar cured Hams, breakfast Bacon and dried Beef, white, fat, new Mackerel, rich mild Cream Cheese, genuine Maple Syrup, pure-sugar table Syrups, fine roll dairy and creamery Butter.

We have just received a lot of bright clean New York state Beans that we are selling at the low price of five cents per quart. The entire lot of twenty-two bushels will go at that price (no advance) but we can hardly get any more as good as these to sell at the same price. Don't miss them, They are fine.

One of the most satisfactory lots of goods we have to offer is our own Mince Meat. Every ounce of material in it is sound, clean and of the finest quality, nothing equal to it has ever been obtainable. Price, ten cents per pound.

It has been almost impossible to get satisfactory Oranges this season, but we have secured some fine Floridas, also some Mexican fruit that is equally as fine as the Floridas and quite reasonable in price. Our stock of Cranberries, (at rocts per quart,) white Almeria Grapes, New York Catawbas, (2 baskets for 25cts), Lemons, Bananas, and Sweet Potatoes have received careful attention. Also Raisins, Prunes, Citron, Figs, cleaned Currants, California evaporated fruits, fine mixed table Nuts at 15cts and 20cts per pound, soft shell Almonds 20cts per pound, finest Princess paper shells at 25cts per pound, finest Java, Mocha and Rio Coffees, Extracts, Sauces, Pickles, Capers, Mushrooms, Truffles, Etc., but we cannot enumerate further.

We keep a large and well selected stock. It will pay any house-keeper to visit our store once a week. The first principle of economy is not alone in saving, but in making a good investment. Trusting you will act on the suggestion.

We remain yours very respectfully, SECHLER & CO.
