

A Joyful Wedding at Wallace Run.

The happy and important event of last week, on Wallace Run, at the home of the bride's parents, was the marriage of Clara E. Witherite, to Harvey H. Bostert of Beaver, on Thursday March 19th, 1896. As the hands of the clock pointed to three o'clock Miss Mattie Harnish gave notice that the happy hour had come by bringing forth from the organ the beautiful echoes of the "fairy" wedding march. Miss Myrtle Friel acting as bride's-maid and Mr. Allen Zeliger as groomsmen were followed by the happy pair who were united in wedlock by Rev. J. F. Kelly, pastor of U. B. church, in the presence of about fifty invited guests, the ring ceremony having been used.

After the congratulations were tendered the assembly were invited to partake of a bountiful provided supper, Messrs Edward Hancock, Edward Poorman, Mrs. Quinna Witherite, Ellen Witherite and Mrs. Friel acting as waiters, while Daniel Poorman saw that the carving of several turkeys and chickens was done in proper style. The evening was passed very agreeably together. The guests were about to depart when the callthumpian band made known its presence by making Rome howl. The door was opened and about 75 persons both young and old, rushed in to pay their respects, and share in the feast. The bride and groom were the receivers of a fine lot of handsome presents which were thankfully received.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

Louisa M. Alcott is said to reveal herself in a most interesting way in a number of letters (written to five little girls) which are to appear in the April Ladies Home Journal. These letters were written during the busiest period of Mrs. Alcott's life, and present a picture of the author drawn by her own master hand. In these she talks with singular frankness of herself, her work, her aims, her home, her spiritual belief, and of the influence that directed her to literature. She never saw any of her five correspondents, but their youthful frankness, intense interest in all her writings, and their love for the author and for the characters of her creations, impelled her to turn aside from her work and cares to find diversion in chats with such eagerly enthusiastic, admiring and sympathetic friends. Miss Alcott's first letter is dated 1872, and the others were written at intervals up to within a short time of her death.
