THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTRY.

The Valentine iron company is buying lime stone at Mill Hall. Wm. C. Heine will deliver the Memorial day address for Gregg post. A delightful musicale was given at the Bellefonte club Monday evening. The Milesburg band will hold a festival on Friday and Saturday evenings, May 29th and 30th. Prof. Charles Lose has resigned the principalship of the Phillipsburg schools to accept a similar position in Williamsport at a better salary. The advance car of Robinson & Franklin's circus struck Bellefonte on Wednesday and now all the country barns are aflame with gaudy posters. Thomas Donahy, of Bishop street, is carrying his hand in a sling, the result of having caught his thumb on a rip saw at Ardell's mill, Monday morning. Prof. Geo. C. Watson has succeeded Hon. John A. Woodward, resigned, as head of the Chautauqua course of home reading at The Pennsylvania State College. Head miller Wm. Terry is back again at his post in Geo. W. Jackson & Co.'s, Phoenix mills. The man imported to take his place didn't like Bellefonte and left. James Wright, a son of Rev. W. O. Wright, of Milesburg, won the High school prize, this year, for having prepared the best biographical essays on Daniel Webster and Garfield. M. H. Davidson's meat market, in Phillipsburg, was gutted by fire last Tuesday morning. The loss to the tenant and owner of the property is about $1,100, on which there is a partial insurance. A number of passengers from this section have missed eastern trains in Tyrone recently, owing to a misunderstanding as to the new fence that has lately been built along the east bound track. The game of ball at Hunter's park, on Saturday afternoon, between the Bellefonte Academy and High school teams, attracted a few people to that resort. The High school team won by the score of 11 to 10. Geo. T. Bush has been invited, by the committee on bicycling for the Blair county semi-centennial anniversary, to referee the races that will be held at Hollidaysburg, on June 12th. He has accepted the honor. A supper will be served in the United Evangelical church at Unionville, on Friday and Saturday evenings, May 22nd and 23rd. Ice cream and cake will form part of the refreshments. All are cordially invited. If the Bellefonte youngsters raised as much of a commotion in Altoona, on Tuesday, as they did at the station here, prior to their departure, they must at least have left the impression that Bellefonte will never die from lung trouble. Linn Saylor, a former employee of the Valentine iron company, is moving his family to Berwick, Pa., where he has signed to pitch ball for the club at that place. He and Harry Kine, who will play 1st base for the same club, left here on Wednesday afternoon. It is not an unusual thing at all to see a Bellefonte girl with a scratched face, a black eye, or a skinned nose. All of which might be said to be an indication of her scrappy nature, but such is not the case. There are several of them a trifle disfigured now, but it has all been caused by bicycling. Millheim is justly indignant because a recent ruling of the post office department contracts her mail service so that letters cannot be mailed to towns east of her and be answered the same day. After next Monday the Woodward route is to be changed so as to begin at Coburn and leave Millheim out. John Love, Mrs. John Love, Morgan Reynolds, John Armstrong, Mrs. Morgan Reynolds, Samuel Hart, Elizabeth Hart, Rebecca Bartley, Julia Lamb and Blanche Jacobs constituted the class that was confirmed in St. John's Episcopal church, in this place, last Sunday morning, by bishop N. S. Rulison, of this diocese. A subscription is being taken up among the friends of Warner E. Barr, formerly of this place, for the purpose of employing good counsel to defend that young man for the shooting of Nettie Steel, his mistress, in Mansfield, Ohio, on the 21st ult. The woman is said to have almost entirely recovered from the assault and it is hoped that Barr can be gotten off with a light sentence. She left the State so she would not be called to testify against him. The second game of the series between the High school and Academy base ball teams will be played to-morrow afternoon at Hunter's park. The teams are evenly matched and played a very close and exciting game last Saturday. The sport loving people of the town should encourage the boys in their efforts to furnish athletic amusement by turning out in large numbers and patronizing these games. Those who don't care to see the ball game have the opportunity of spending the afternoon enjoying the pleasures of the park, but the special trains will not be run if the patronage is not large enough.

THE TABERNACLE WILL BE BUILT AT ONCE.—Unless the much talked of injunction is taken out and granted by the court to restrain it the gospel tabernacle will be built on the North ward school grounds at once.

Some weeks ago the directors granted the privilege to evangelist Weaver and his workers to erect it on the school grounds, provided work was not begun on it until the end of the regular school term which will be in about two weeks. At that time members Fortney, Smith, Olewine, Bartley and Ward voted for the concession over members Underwood, Rankin and Brouse. As it happened Mr. Weaver, with his assistants Messrs. Wharton and Wheeden, having all arrived in town and being anxious to get to work, insisted on erecting the tabernacle at once, as their permit did not give them possession of the school grounds until two weeks later they first looked around for another location. Numerous petty objections were raised to every site that seemed suitable, until, as a last resort, they determined to ask for the school grounds at once. The regular meeting of the board was held on Tuesday evening, but as it was apparent that a motion to give possession at once would be lost the matter was put off, until the next night, when a special meeting was called to consider the matter. Meanwhile the tabernacle people rallied their forces and drove clear over to Centre Hall to get David Bartley here, because they knew he would vote favorably. The matter was taken up, members Fortney, Harris, Olewine, Bartley and Ward voted for it, leaving members Brouse, Rankin and Smith in the negative. The latter changed his vote because he was not satisfied that it was right to deprive the school children of their play ground. Mr. Underwood was absent, but there was a clear majority in favor of the grant so the tabernacle will be built at once unless, as we have said, it is stopped by an injunction. THE BICYCLE SHOW.—Astonishment was written on the faces of nearly everyone who attended the cycle show and dance of the Bellefonte wheelmen, on Friday evening. No one had an idea that the affair would be as interesting as it was and the cyclists have credit for having scored very heavy on their guests. The fore part of the evening was spent in looking over the displays of wheels and supplies exhibited by Lester Sheffer, J. S. Waite & Co., Lew Wetzel and Montgomery & Co. Very attractive booths had been fixed up for the display and while the Undine orchestra rendered its concert the ladies and gentlemen found much to attract them in examination of the special features of the different wheels and wheelmen's clothing. The fancy riding done by Geo. Williams, Lew Wetzel, who carried five men on him while riding, Lester Sheffer and Eddie Kiechline was applauded frequently. The latter was exceptional for one so young and his performance of many difficult feats, while riding at full speed, amazed those who saw it. A cute little wheel and a cute little rider, J. Herbert Waite, delighted the people for a few moments then the dance began. On the whole the show was a decided success. While the wheelmen did not realize much from it they will be encouraged to make the next one even finer. MISHAPS TO WHEELMEN.—Bicycling is a very delightful sport, but it is not without its unpleasantness. A number of accidents have occurred in this vicinity lately. Some riders have been seriously injured, while others have only experienced the aggravation of having to walk home and tote a broken wheel along. W. E. Hartsock, who lives near Matternville, on Buffalo Run, was coasting down a hill, last Saturday afternoon, when he lost control of his wheel and was thrown violently on the side of the road. Besides being considerably bruised up he had his collar bone broken. It is needless to state that he will have little use for the new bicycle breeches he had just ordered. On Sunday a party started for Snow Shoe on their wheels. At the foot of the mountain George Williams, of this place, broke his crank chain. There was no way for him to proceed any further until Benj. Bradley hitched his machine to George's, with a sapling, and pulled him the entire distance to Snow Shoe. Harry Williams started to ride to Lock Haven, on Sunday, and when near Zion broke his handle bar so that it was impossible to proceed further. Fortunately a passing buggy brought him and his wheel back to town. A WORLD'S FAIR MEDAL.—Mr. David Rothrock, of Benner township, is to be congratulated on having been awarded a medal by the World's Columbian Exposition committee on awards. Mr. Rothrock is a farmer and sent a number of varieties of grain to Chicago to be exhibited in the agricultural building. Among them was an exhibit of winter wheat of the variety, which had given a yield of twenty-six bushels per acre on a limestone soil. The wheat was so fine in appearance that the committee awarded a medal to it. The medal is about three inches in diameter and is of finely worked bronze, encased in a velvet lined aluminum box, so arranged that both faces can be seen without removing it. Besides the medal a large parchment scroll was sent Mr. Rothrock. On it is engraved his name and the conditions under which the award had been made. Mr. H. K. Hoy, who lives just a short distance southwest of this place, was also fortunate in having been awarded a medal for fine grain. We congratulate both gentlemen.

Lock Haven has decided that she is not too poor to have a big 4th of July celebration.

James Delaney and Joseph Carey are in jail, in Clearfield, charged with the murder of Victor Coretti. The Snow Shoe train recently ran into and killed a valuable fresh cow owned by John Wagner, of Milesburg. It has been definitely decided that the annual encampment of the N. G. P. will be held at Lewistown this year. The new belfry on the Presbyterian church, at Milesburg, is completed and the sound of the new bell will be heard on Sunday. Forest fires have done great damage in Clearfield county recently. The Journal estimates that property to the value of $30,000 has already been consumed. A game of ball between the Eagleville and Mill Hall clubs broke up in a fight, at the latter place, on Saturday. There were a great many people bruised and battered up. The Dickinson college base ball team will play at State College this afternoon. The game will be called at 3:30 sharp and promises to be the most interesting one of the season. Ed. Holden, a son of Algernon Holden who kept tavern on the old Erie pike, west of Curwensville, many years ago, is on his way home from Alaska where he recently scooped $40,000 from a little gold mine. Because W. A. Warner, who was going to take charge of the Penns Cave hotel, would not comply with certain conditions imposed by the Long brothers Samuel Long has been compelled to move to that place. The Milesburg band will hold an out of door festival on Friday and Saturday evenings, May 29th and 30th, to which every one is invited. In the event that the weather is unsuitable the festival will be held in the band hall. The game of ball that was to have been played between Bucknell University and the Lock Haven Normal school, at Lock Haven, on Saturday, ended in a fight, at the end of the fourth inning, with the score 15 to 1 in favor of the Normalites. Centre county Pomona grange, No. 13, will convene in the hall of Washington grange, at State College, on Tuesday, May 26th, at 10 o'clock, a. m. All 4th degree members are especially invited. Business of importance urges the representation of all subordinate granges in the county. The stable at the rear of the Swires store company's quarters in Phillipsburg caught fire, on Saturday evening, and was partially destroyed. The stable became ignited from some paper that was being burned in the lot at the rear end of the store. As there was a high wind at the time the firemen deserve great credit for stopping the fire where they did. Master Luther Hughes, who is a captain of one of the companies of the Golden Eagle cadets, missed the early train, on Tuesday morning, and saw himself shorn of the glory of heading his company in the grand parade, in Altoona, that day, until the bright idea of riding the 47 miles on a bicycle struck him. He rode as far as Port Matilda, where he caught a freight train and got to Altoona in time. Destructive forest fires are raging on Nittany mountain. On Tuesday the flames swept over onto the Brush valley side and threatened the destruction of many buildings along the mountain. As much of the timber between Penns cave and Centre Hall had been taken off, leaving nothing but dry tree tops, it is said the fire burned with terrible fierceness. The Lieb and Harper properties were both in great danger but the timely shower aided the fighters in turning the fire back up the mountain. Inasmuch as the Beech Creek railroad shops will surely be moved from Jersey shore, the towns of Lock Haven, Clearfield, Phillipsburg, Mill Hall and Beech Creek would all like to have them. Lock Haven has offered to pay the expenses of removal, furnish 150 acres of ground, build the buildings and put up a cash bonus. The shops employ three hundred men at present, but in event of removal they will be enlarged so that all the cars used on the line can be built there and this will increase the number of workmen to six hundred. Mr. Henry Walkey, of west Logan street, has been taking a rest from his labors, in the pattern shop of Jenkins & Lingle's foundry, this week. Not because there is nothing to do, but because he is a witness on the case between that firm and the Hale estate. When the foundry was located on Race street and used the water from the race for motive power the Hale estate was under contract to furnish so much power. The contract was lived up to as long as the Gerberich & Hale mill was operated with an over-shot wheel, but when it was replaced by a turbine the power of the other consumers was reduced. Jenkins & Lingle claiming that damage of a very material nature had been done their business became a want of power had forced them to give up contracts and lose on many with a time specification. Mr. Walkey is one of the old employees of the firm and his evidence would carry much weight with any body of men.

DEATH OF MRS. THOS. C. VAN TRIES.—While it was generally known that Mrs. Van Tries, wife of doctor Thos. C. Van Tries, was in failing health and had been for months, the announcement that she had died at her home, in Blairsville, Sunday evening, came both as a surprise and sorrow.

Two weeks ago, last Wednesday, she returned to her home from Philadelphia, where she had been most of the winter under Dr. Pepper's care. At the time she seemed somewhat better, but when she took pneumonia death soon resulted from heart failure. Not quite 56 years ago Jennie Milligan was born in Ickesburg, Perry county, where her girlhood days were spent. In '73 she married Dr. Thomas C. Van Tries, and went with him to Spruce Creek, where they made their home for years. In '89 they came to Bellefonte, and for three years lived in the old homestead on Spring street. Then they moved to Blairsville, where the doctor has an excellent practice and where she occupied a position in the estimation of the people that is attained by very few. There, as here, she endeared herself to many by her courteous ways and earnest christian life. Naturally quiet and unassuming, she was a cultured, gracious woman, active in the church, Sabbath school and always interested in upbuilding and charity. She was an ideal Christian, for cheerfully and courageously she met life's duties and murmured not over its disappointments. Her husband, her son, three brothers, W. S. Milligan, of Milwaukee; Rev. J. L. of Riverside; Thos. H., of Newport, and two sisters, Mrs. Irvin and Mrs. Orris, both of Newport, are living. Tuesday afternoon, her husband and several relatives arrived with the body from Blairsville. They went direct to the home of her brother-in-law, George Van Tries, on Linn street, from whence the funeral was held Wednesday morning. Her pastors Rev. Dr. Laurie, Rev. Kelley, of Spruce Creek, and Rev. J. W. Crisswell, of the Blairsville Presbyterian church, conducted the services. FABIAN MATTS DEAD.—There are few men on Buffalo Run who have been better known than Fabry Matts, the old wheelwright of Paradise. For many years he had followed his trade at wagon-making in the little village, just west of Waddle's station, on the Bellefonte Central railroad. It was formerly called Helltown, but a number of years ago a great moral wave swept over the place, churches were built and the people became so saintly that straightway its name became Paradise. For a year he had not been in the best of health and finally, on Thursday, he succumbed to the effects of kidney trouble and dropsy. Mr. Matts came to this country from Germany prior to the rebellion, of which he was a veteran. Shortly after his location in this country he married and to their union a number of children were born, all of whom, with their mother, survive. Funeral services were conducted, on Saturday, by Rev. Ott, assisted by Rev. Tallhelm. John Trafford died at his home, Principio, Md., on Tuesday morning, after almost a year's illness with bowel trouble. Deceased was at one time an attaché of the Howard iron works in this county, and was the father of Mrs. Wm. J. Singer, of east Curtin street, this place. The remains were buried in Tyrone yesterday. Adam Hile, aged 67 years, 6 months and 11 days, died at his home, at Pleasant Gap, on Saturday afternoon, after a year's illness with paralysis. Deceased leaves a widow with four sons and two daughters. His remains were interred at Pleasant Gap, Monday afternoon. Samuel C. Henderson, who died near Birmingham, Blair county, last Saturday morning, was one of the representative men of that community. He was a member of an old and well-to-do family and a man whose individuality made him what he was; honored by all. The remains of the late David Parrey, who died at Punxsutawney, on Monday, were brought to this place, Tuesday evening and taken to the home of Mrs. Showers, in the Harris building, on High street. Burial was made at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. John Matthias, a Welsh miner whose home was at Morrisdale, died at the cottage hospital, in Phillipsburg, early Monday morning. He had been a patient in that institution for several weeks, suffering with an injury to his spine. William Stone, a 76 year old resident of Beech Creek, died at his home in that place, on Sunday evening, from the effects of stomach trouble. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon. The many friends of George W. McCloskey will be grieved to hear of his death which occurred on the 30th, of April, at Tylersburg, Pa. "He died trusting in Jesus." Augustus Zeek, a trackman whose home was at Birmingham, was killed on the Pennsylvania railroad, near that place, Tuesday morning. The Central Pennsylvania league of base ball clubs has finally organized with four clubs. Williamsport, Milton, Sunbury and Mt. Carmel are the towns represented.

The electric cars now carry mail between Lock Haven, Flemington and Mill Hall.

Claude Smith, of Milesburg, has joined the force of salesmen for DeWitt's little, early risers. Up to date the Blair county semi-centennial finance committee has received $4,173.05 in contributions. Sechler & Co's new advertisements in this issue should hold your eye for a moment. Such reliable grocers are to be trusted to supply the best goods. A large steam planing mill is to be built near the C. R. R. of Pa. depot at Mill Hall. John Ritzman is the projector and will have it in operation by October 1st. At a meeting of the Village Improvement society, held last Thursday, the resignation of the president, Mrs. A. O. Furst, was accepted and Mrs. L. A. Schaeffer elected in her stead. The citizens are earnestly asked to co-operate with the society that the town may be cleaned, for never did it need it so much. The alley between McCalmont's and the Republican office is a disgrace to the street commissioner. Back of the WATCHMAN office Mrs. Bush's tenants have thrown rubbish and old tin cans until it looks like a garbage factory and so it is all over the town. Acting on the council is a thankless job, but why will men accept it if they don't mean to do their duty. MADE A FINE SHOWING.—The Bellefonte castle K. G. E. made a fine showing in the great parade of Eagles, in Altoona, on Tuesday. Besides twenty-four uniformed members of the commandery there were fifty-six junior knights in the delegation. The little fellows, in their bright zovane uniforms, delighted all who saw them and their military bearing was really wonderful. During the parade they elicited rounds of applause for well executed evolutions. ONE BOY KILLS ANOTHER.—A fatal accident took place in a lumber camp, a mile northeast of Woodward, on Tuesday morning, by which an 8 year old son of John Sheetz was killed by a 9 year old son of a man by the name of Goodman. On the fatal morning the little boys accompanied their fathers to work in the woods. When the men left the camp the boys remained to play. It was not long until little Goodman discovered a gun, with which he began fooling. While working the trigger the gun was discharged, the load entering little Sheetz's breast, just below the heart, causing death in about half an hour. Burial will be made to-day. News Purely Personal. Ad. J. Meyer, ex-hotel keeper from Centre Hall, had business in Bellefonte on Tuesday. Solomon Peck, Esq., the man who is making a great effort to boom Nittany and Huston, was in town, on Tuesday. Mrs. Geo. T. Brew, of Grantsville, Md., is visiting at the home of her father, Mr. Geo. W. Jackson, on Linn street. She will remain about two weeks. Miss Sophia Hunter, of State College, who poses neither as a "new" nor aggressive woman; but who is a happy example of the capable kind—capable of taking care of herself and her business too—was in town, Monday, for a few hours. Miss Julia Reed, who is one of the best instructors the Academy or the town has ever had, left last Thursday evening for Michigan to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law. She returned Wednesday evening and took charge of her school room Thursday morning. Geo. E. Boak, the Pine Glenn lumberman in Bellefonte during the fore part of the week. Mr. Boak was the originator and is the mainstay of the Spruce Run fishing and game association, a corporation that controls about the finest preserve in Pennsylvania. P. McCaffrey Esq., of Lock Haven, spent Wednesday with his two sisters in this place. He is one of Bellefonte's boys of years ago and is a veritable store-house of interesting anecdotes of the early days in town. Though his hair is white as snow his face is nearly that of a young man. Squire Michael Shaffer, of Zion, spent Monday night in town. He was on his way to Chicago, where he expects to spend most of the summer visiting his son, who is a minister in that city. Squire Shaffer is getting well up in years and proposes to enjoy a life of leisure henceforth. Candidate P. H. Meyer, of Boalsburg, worked around the vicinity of Bellefonte during part of the week. He has been hustling ever since he announced, but like all of the other aspirants for political preferment he doesn't know what the outcome will be. There seems to be an uncertainty this year that is puzzling them all. A. G. Archey, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town, on Saturday, and winked his other eye when the subject of the extension of the Bellefonte Central to that point was broached. We don't know what has caused it but he doesn't manifest much faith in the final carrying out of the project. Lumbago is not the pleasantest thing in the world to have at any time, much less when a fellow hears the buzz of his political bee every moment he spends in bed nursing it. Frank Bowersox, of Ferguson township, who would like to be treasurer of the county, had been laid up with it for two weeks, prior to Monday, when he was able to get out, and though a little humped up he is none more on the road with the busy lot. Wm. B. Mingle, Esq., and Dr. John F. Alexander drove over from Centre Hall, on Tuesday, and spent part of the day in town. They were just preparing to start home when one of the spirited team kicked in play and got astride of the double tree. The horse fell down and for a while it looked very much as if there would be a serious smash-up, but Mr. Mingle sprang to his feet until they started off as unconcerned as if nothing had happened. Mrs. L. C. Butler, of Red Bank, is a woman who finds her life a happy one, even though the most of it is spent right in the heart of the "Barrens." The Rutters have charge of the Collins' interests at that place and while their surroundings are forests and idle ore mines they enjoy the quiet life they lead in their cheerful home quite as much as if they were cast in a more favored locality. Like all the other people of that vicinity they have the rail-road and can get away whenever they feel like it, but they have become so attached to the place that they seldom leave it.

COMMENCEMENT AT THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE.—The thirtieth annual commencement exercises at The Pennsylvania State College will be held during the week of June 14th to 17th, inclusive. The following program has been issued for the week:

James A. Beaver, of Bellefonte, Pa. Wednesday, June 17, 10 a. m.—Graduation exercises of the class of '96. Commencement address, by the Hon. John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, Pa. The fall session of 1896-7 opens September 16th, 1896. Examinations for admission will be held at the College, June 18th, and September 15th, 1896. Local examinations will be held Wednesday, June 24th, as follows: At Philadelphia, Reading, Harrisburg and Williamsport, at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A.; at Scranton, at the school of the Lackawanna; at Pottsville, at the rooms of the central board of education—all beginning at 9 o'clock, a. m. Department for women. With the establishment of a full classical course and elective courses in language, literature, history and philosophy, the College now offers special advantages to young women, who are admitted to all classes on the same terms as young men. A separate cottage has been erected for their use, which furnishes an attractive and beautiful home. SOMETHING FOR THE FUTURE.—At the close of a recent school term in Boggs township, the teacher, Mr. H. I. Leathers, son of the veteran patron, S. B. Leathers, of Mount Eagle, bestowed upon each pupil a neat and appropriate souvenir in the shape of a handsomely engraved card, on the face of which, on the left end was an imprint of the globe, over which were the words "Popular Education the Power that Moves the World." On right end a pile of books, pens, etc., and underneath a vignette likeness of the teacher. On the reverse side, neatly printed, a complete roster of the scholars attending the school during the term, the names of the school directors and county Sup't., and written signature of the teacher. We have no doubt in coming years this little souvenir will be highly prized when the mutations of time shall have separated teacher and scholars.—The Patron. Two stone crushers are at work in Millheim preparing macadam for the Coburn and Brush valley turn pikes. WANTED.—50,000 lbs. of wool.—Lyon & Co. COMMUNION IN THE REFORMED CHURCH AT ZION.—The holy communion will be administered in the Reformed church, at Zion, on May 24th, Whit Sunday, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Preparatory services on Saturday afternoon at the usual time. S. A. McQUISTON & Co.—Have now on hand and for sale a lot of nice new and second hand buggies at reduced rates. They have the best low priced buggy on the market. One that they defy competition on, both in price and workmanship. See it before you buy, it will surprise you. Repairs reduced in price.
