THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

The Republican primaries will be held on Saturday, June 20th.

$1579.75 has thus far been raised toward the building of the new Methodist church in Milesburg.

State and Bucknell will play ball tomorrow afternoon. A special train will be run from here to the game.

Charles Lingle, of Milesburg, was so unfortunate, on last Friday evening, as to run a pitch fork through his foot.

The Democratic primaries will be held on Saturday, June 6th. Our Republican friends will hold theirs on the 20th of June.

James Harris & Co's. hardware store will be closed during the services and burial of the late Mrs. James Williams, on Saturday morning.

A thief gained entrance to W. S. Goodhart's implement store, in Millheim, on Tuesday night, and stole a $50 bicycle. No clue can be found.

Robinson & Franklin shows, that will exhibit here, next Wednesday, are the best advertised of any similar institutions that have ever visited the town.

Dr. M. A. Kirk, of west High street, has been re-appointed a member of the state medical examining board for eclectics by Governor Hastings. It is an honor worthily bestowed.

The holy communion will be administered in the Zion's Reformed church, on next Sunday afternoon, May 24th, at two o'clock. Preparatory services on Saturday afternoon at the usual hour.

A special train will leave for State College at 1:30 o'clock, tomorrow afternoon, to carry all persons who want to attend the State-Bucknell base ball game. The round trip fare will be only 50cts.

The Academy base ball club played horse with the High school boys, at Hunter's park, last Saturday afternoon, and won in a walk by the score of 15 to 8. The games won are even now and much interest will centre about the next one.

Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker gave a dinner, Wednesday evening, in honor of Miss Henry, of Ebensburg, who has been here several weeks. Spring flowers were chosen for the decoration and covers were laid for twenty-two.

It must be a matter of gratification to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weaver, of this place, that their daughter, Miss Elsie, has just finished her course at the Hagerstown, Md., college for women and has carried off the highest honors of her class.

The Bellefonte minister who jumped on the evangelists a few nights ago must have felt very cheap when his congregation waited on him and told him if he had nothing better to do than that he could jump out of his pulpit and stay out.

Bertha Harris, the incorrigible Phillipsburg girl, was taken to the house of refuge, in Philadelphia, on Monday, by sheriff Condo. Her parents being unable to do anything with her encouraged her confinement in some institution of the sort.

Will Stuart, of State College, has been released by the Toronto baseball club to which he had been "farmed" by Pittsburg. The latter management still retains him on the list and will possibly lend him to Milwaukee. Billy says he is not in condition to play good ball.

On Saturday a sneak thief giving his name as "Billy McGlenn, of Bellefonte," was arrested, in Tyrone, for operating in Waple's hotel, where he stole a gold watch and a small clock. No such a fellow is known in this place. He is an itinerant awning mender.

Andrew Howley came home from Dayton, Ohio, the other day, to make a short visit to his parents in this place. He has been connected with C. G. McMillan's hotel in that city for several years and is a young man whose genial disposition has made him many friends.

W. C. Andrews, a Phillipsburg merchant, was thrown from a buggy while driving on Spruce street, in that place, Friday night. The horse tumbled into an excavation throwing Mr. Andrews forward on his head and shoulders. His right shoulder was dislocated and he was considerably bruised up.

"Pat" Rine is home nursing a broken finger, the result of his first game of ball with the Berwick, Pa., club with which he signed last week. The game was played on Saturday and the Bloomsburg normal boys appear to have pounded Linn Saylor all over the lot, as they won by the score of 16 to 3. Pat played short and made a run, a hit, two put outs, six assists and one error. Saylor is a former Bellefonter but must have had an off day.

While riding to this place from Centre Hall with a party of wheelmen from Shamokin, on Sunday evening, a man named Farrell struck a stone on the road and was thrown over an embankment into a pile of stones and brush. His companions hearing the noise turned about and found him in a semi-conscious condition. He was taken to a farm house where the party remained over night and continued to this place in the morning. The accident occurred on the mountain.

COUNCIL MEETING.—There is nothing unusual in council's having met last Monday night, in fact it would have been out of the ordinary had it not done so, but as the business transacted. After the routine of organization it was taken up as follows:

The Street committee reported work done on east Logan and east Bishop streets, a new plank crossing on the south side of Howard street, a sewer at the junction of Bishop and Wilson streets and one near the entrance to the Catholic cemetery. A complaint that east Beaver street needs repairing was referred to this committee as were also a number of requests for new crossings at various points in town.

The Water committee reported the satisfactory completion of the new service on Bishop street, new tubes having been placed in the boilers at the water works and the running of the pumps for 16 hours per day.

The Market committee reported the collection of $2.20 fees.

The Nuisance committee was instructed to look after the condition of the hill near the Rhoads home, on west Linn street. Mr. Rhoads reported it in a very objectionable condition.

Borough engineer Wetzel asked for instructions regarding the map he is making of the town. According to his surveys the lines won't meet and he doesn't know where to round the place up. This dilemma affords an excellent opportunity to scoop in Louis Doll's new brewery, the "red school house" and John Garbrick's balliwick before the ends are brought together. It is a surprise, however, to learn that Mr. Wetzel has been doing the alum act on Bellefonte and has her so shrunk up that even the poor house and the Gross property, north of it, are no longer in the borough. We don't know, but possibly this is just a specimen of the cute Republican proceedings in council and it might just be intended to set Warren down out in Spring township.

The borough solicitor reported impudence on the part of ex-councilman Bush whom he had visited relative to the bill boards, on Water street, which the village improvement society has declared war on. Can it be that those of them who have taken to wheeling are seized with envy at the gay girls who disport themselves in bloomers in the show pictures? The society's representatives asked council to ordinance against the littering of our streets with paper heralds and all sorts of bills of advertisement. A very sensible request and the old ordinance against such practices was hunted up instanter and ordered to be printed. That's about as far as council can go and it is altogether likely that the bill nuisance will continue unless Tom Shaughnessy is furnished with a goat herd and they turned to pasture on the streets.

Council then approved the payment of bills aggregating $653.48 and adjourned.

DIED AT ATLANTIC CITY.—The sad intelligence reached this place, from Atlantic City, Monday morning, of the death of Miss Clara Dale, the third daughter of Mr. George Dale, who lives near Shiloh. The young woman had been ill a long time with stomach trouble and about the 1st of March it was suggested that a trip to the shore might benefit her. Accordingly she was taken to Atlantic City, where she seemed to grow better at first, but recently her condition became so serious as to necessitate her father's going to her at once. He just arrived there in time to see her before the end came.

The remains were brought home, on Tuesday morning, and burial was made yesterday morning at Shiloh. She was the fourth in age of a family of seven children, all of whom are living, except Edward, the first son, who died soon after his graduation from the Penna. State College. The others are: Horace, in Nebraska; Blanche Musser, John S., Willard and Lillie, who is at home now. Deceased was a very exemplary young woman and died in full membership of the Lutheran church.

DANIEL LEYDEN.—The sudden death of Daniel Leyden, which occurred at his home at Beech Creek, last Thursday evening, startled the many friends who live in Bellefonte and vicinity. Feeling as well as usual he had been walking about the house when he suddenly fell to the floor. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and had expired by the time medical assistance could be summoned. Heart disease was the cause.

He was a resident of this place for a number of years and at one time lived in the Buffalo Run valley. Mrs. Leyden, who was the only sister of the late Hon. Cyrus T. Alexander, died several years ago. Four children survive. They are James A., captain in the U. S. army, who is stationed at a western post, too far for him to get to the funeral; Harry R., in New York; Edward G., at Beech Creek; and Mrs. W. S. Elliott, of Pittsburg.

The remains were brought to this place, on Monday evening, and interment was made in the family lot in the Union cemetery.

One of Miles township's foremost citizens died, last Friday morning, when Henry Fiedler expired. He had been ill but a short time with typhoid pneumonia but was unable to survive the attack. Deceased was 65 years old and had followed farming all of his life. Funeral services were held Monday morning at his late home in Madisonburg. The surviving children are: J. A. Fiedler, former owner of the Keystone Gazette of this place; Isaiah, of Missouri; Newton, at home; Mrs. J. E. Reber, of Lewisburg; and Bertha, at home.

A SAD DEATH.—It will be a matter of sincere regret to this entire community to learn of the sad death of Mrs. James Williams, which occurred very unexpectedly at her home, at Axe Mann, yesterday morning. A baby daughter had just been born to her when she died. The child is living and in a very healthy condition.

Deceased was a daughter of the late John Wagner, of Milesburg, and was a woman whose untimely death will be keenly felt by a large circle of friends, not considering the great sorrow of the husband who is left with a motherless babe.

Funeral services will be conducted by Dr. Laurie and Rev. Rue, at the house, tomorrow morning, and interment will be made in this place.

Mrs. Sara Gearhart, wife of David Gearhart, died at her home, Chester Hill, Phillipsburg, on Sunday evening. Deceased was 80 years, 6 months and 24 days old and at the age of 18 married the husband who survives here. Eleven children were born to the union, eight of whom survive, with sixty-six grand-children and thirty great grand-children. Known to everyone in the neighborhood in which she lived as "Aunt Sallie" no better evidence of her kindly, christian disposition, nor more appropriate epitaph could mark her grave stone than the simple name by which she was known and will be revered. So full of meaning she was a rare woman to have been called it. She was the daughter of George Kephart, one of Phillipsburg's early settlers, and a man who was employed by Hardman Philips, founder of that town.

The remains of the 7 months old babe of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rickard, of Lock Haven, were taken to Spring Mills for burial on Wednesday.

The idea of making Salona a borough has been abandoned.

The Friendship hook and ladder company of Tyrone has gone out of service.

A light frost was reported from certain parts of Clinton county, on Saturday morning. It was not heavy enough to do any damage.

The annual contest for the Reynolds' oratorical prize to the Bellefonte High school will be held at Garman's, next Tuesday evening, May 26th.

State ended third in the state intercollegiate athletic association's sports, at Easton, on Saturday. Lafayette had 46 points, Swarthmore had 42, State 14; Western University 8.

Bicycling is said to be injurious to children, as the motion of the wheel affects their brain. From appearances some of the older riders have not been proof against this ill effect.

The Bucknell baseball club will play State, on Beaver field, to-morrow afternoon, at 2:45 o'clock. A special train will be run over the Bellefonte Central. 50cts will be the round trip fare.

Harold D. Hughes, who was born at Unionville, this county, won the inter-state oratorical contest at Warrensburg, Mo., recently. His father is Rev. J. P. Hughes, a Presbyterian minister, of Merrill, Wis.

The ball game at the College to-morrow afternoon will be a bitterly contested one since Bucknell and State are not likely to overwhelm one another with favors of any sort. A special train will run from here.

Wm. P. Duncan, of Phillipsburg, purchased the valuable Sandy Ridge fire brick works, with all the appurtenances, at the assignee's sale, on Tuesday. $7,500 was the consideration. These works turned out the best fire brick made in the State, when in operation, and were considered immensely valuable.

The Huntingdon Semi-Weekly News has added a Thorne type setting machine to its equipment. This is a great advance and we congratulate the News on the necessity of having to put it in. If the other papers cared to use it all the type that is set up in Huntingdon could be set on this one machine and give all papers the benefit of new type for every issue. The News should endeavor to do the work for them.

The Centre district conference of the United Evangelical church will hold its annual ministerial, Sunday school and K. L. C. E., at Lemont. The sessions will begin next Tuesday and last until Thursday evening. There will be three sessions each day. The eighteen ministers, one delegate from each Sunday school and one from each society of K. L. C. E., in the district, are expected to attend. An interesting program has been planned.

The Gazette's efforts to make Mr. Benjamin Kauffman, of Zion, the laughing stock of his neighborhood, because he had the enterprise to send to the State of Washington for a car load of shingles, won't pass when the facts are known. In place of the car load costing more than it was worth, as intimated by our up town neighbor, Mr. Kauffman paid less, including the freight, for No. 1 red cedar shingles, than No. 2 shingles can be purchased for here. He is entirely satisfied with his bargain, he asks no favors of the Gazette, and feels and knows that he is abundantly able to attend to his own business without either its advice or consent.

CENTRE COUNTY'S SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—As Dr. Kephart said in his closing address Wednesday evening "The attendance was a gratifying—indeed an astounding, surprise"—to those most interested in the excellent work. More than one hundred delegates were present and the court house was well filled at every one of the three sessions with an interested audience. Sabbath schools have thrived and prospered in the county for years but in these days of better methods and greater knowledge hearty co-operation and intelligent workers are sadly needed. Some of the progressive helpers in the cause realizing this necessity and spurred on by the State Association, which is enthusiastically always, brought about the convention.

The program, as printed in last week's WATCHMAN, was followed closely with the exception of a few minor changes. Dr. C. J. Kephart, general secretary of the State Association, enlisted every one's attention and enthusiasm by his forcible, courageous and whole souled talks. In the morning his subject was "Possible Improvements in Sunday School Work." The methods Mrs. J. W. Barnes, superintendent of State primary work, set forth and advocated were a revelation to the primary teachers who discharge their duty to their infants with songs and picture papers.

At the afternoon session Dr. Gill, of State College, talked to the convention on "Duty of the Individual Church Member to the Sunday School." He gave a short history of the work, a comparison of past and present methods and exhorted the members to give more time and talents to the training school of the church.

Mrs. Barnes, who is a natural and pleasant talker, gave an instructive object lesson in primary teaching. Dr. Laurie's talk on the "Requisites of a Successful Teacher" was good and to the point. Dr. Kephart gave a lot of statistics of the work, the purposes and plans of the state organization which was so effective that the committee on organization came in with an encouraging report to the effect that a permanent organization had been formed with the following officers:

President, C. M. Bower, Bellefonte; vice president, Charles E. Royer, Spring Mills; treasurer, C. L. Zerbe, Millheim; secretary, George L. Potter, Bellefonte; executive committee, Henry Campbell, of Ferguson; Clement Dale, of Bellefonte, and E. Confer, of Boggs township. W. L. Weeden, of New York, who is here to help evangelist Weaver in his meetings, did much for the pleasure of the convention. He drags not in time nor action but sings out of the fullness of his heart with a wonderful strong and flexible voice. Afternoon and evening he led the singing and indeed furnished the music excepting one hymn which was sang by Mr. Eddy and his choir from Milesburg.

Prof. Ropp, superintendent of state normal work, gave a talk on the necessity of his department and a short lesson of its methods. The addresses all day were all so instructive and delivered so earnestly that the first annual convention of the Centre County Sunday School Association has no doubt been a power for good in causing many to become interested in the subject for the first time and arousing others to the need of greater diligence and nobler efforts in the work.

THE CIRCUS AT DUBOIS.—The following are a few extracts from the DuBois Express, commenting on the Robinson & Franklin shows, that exhibited there on Tuesday. The monster united shows of John Robinson & Franklin brothers arrived in town from Brookville at 5:40 this morning on a special train of cars.

A large crowd assembled in the vicinity of the B. R. & P., depot and watched the work of unloading. The animals and wagons were rapidly conveyed to the Barlow & McClelland addition where four large tents and three smaller ones, decorated with flags, were quickly erected. The circus ground presented an animated scene. Over two hundred men were busy. Each had his particular part to perform and the work was done with remarkable smoothness.

John Robinson's circus was the first railroad show to exhibit in DuBois and showed here on July 5, 1881, when the Mountain city's total population numbered less than 3,000.

Many innovations were noticeable in the parade. The motor-cycle, or horseless carriage, was the first thing of the kind ever seen in DuBois. The drags, driven by liveried coachmen, containing a portion of the performers attired in civilian dress, were another very pleasing novelty.

At 1:00 o'clock the doors of the main tents were thrown open to the public, and the rush to get in first was really amazing.

The zoological department of the great John Robinson & Franklin Bros. show is complete and contains many rare animals never seen here before.

At the hour of two a bugle sound was heard announcing the commencement of the circus performance.

The programme was long and varied and introduced some of the highest class artists ever seen here.

An up-to-date show in all that the word implies can be truly said of the enterprise and they can feel assured of a hearty welcome to DuBois whenever they chance to return here.

THE MEMORIAL SERMON AT UNIONVILLE.—Rev. H. A. Grant, of this place, will deliver the memorial sermon to the Peters post, G. A. R., at Unionville, on Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. Remember this change in the hour if you propose attending the service.

Barnum's show will exhibit in Lock Haven soon.

We congratulate Col. Austin Curtin, of Roland, on his appointment to be superintendent of the Chester Springs soldier's orphan school.

The survey for the new Bellefonte and Clearfield rail-road has been completed. It is said to afford the best grade of any line crossing the Alleghenies.

The graduation exercises of the High school class of '96 will be held in Garman's opera house, next Thursday, May 28th. The first and second honors were won by Miss Anna Blanche Underwood, of Bellefonte, and Miss Elizabeth Blackburn Orris, of Milesburg, respectively. The graduates are Misses Anna Blanche Underwood, Elizabeth Blackburn Orris, Katharine Hunter Benner, Mary R. Lambert, Mabel Fanble, Frieda Baum and L. Myrtle Longacre and Messrs. James G. Wright, J. Willis Knox, Thomas Brew Hamilton and Willis Alden Ishler.

Contractors are busily engaged in preparing for the raising and moving of the old Humes house, at the corner of Allegheny and Howard streets. It is a difficult job, the raising of so large a stone building and an expert mechanic is here superintending the work. The timber that will be used, is on the ground and has opened the eyes of builders in this section. It is Florida yellow pine, in 12x12 sticks, some 50 ft. long, without a knot or blemish. It is proposed to run a number of them under the building, thereby employing about one hundred and sixty hydraulic jacks to raise it by a single turn of each jack at the same time. This gradual upward movement will not twist the house, nor give any liability to disfigurement.

AWARDED $1200 DAMAGES.—In our last week's issue we gave an account of the most important case on trial at the special term of court, then in session, that of Jenkin's & Lingle vs the heirs of the estate of the late Dr. E. W. Hale. It was to recover damages for injuries to the business of the plaintiffs, incurred through the failure of defendants to supply water power for their foundry on Race street. The case was on trial when this paper went to press and on Friday afternoon a verdict for $1,200 was returned for plaintiffs.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphans' court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week.

Edward F. Switzer, of Spring Twp., and Harriet McCafferty, of Bellefonte.

Clyde A. Vonada, of Woodward, and Candace J. Neese, of Penn Hall.

Samuel S. Kremer, of Centre Hall, and Sadie B. Scholl, of Potter Twp.

A. M. Bowersox and Sennie B. Ewing, both of Ferguson township.

THE TABERNACLE DEDICATED.—Though the weather was not exactly what might have been desired a great crowd assembled in the new gospel tabernacle, on the North ward school grounds, last night, to participate in the dedicatory services that were conducted by evangelists Weaver and Wharton, assisted by Mr. Weeden, the singer.

The tabernacle is 180 ft. long by 80 ft. wide and is a portable wooden frame covered by ordinary duck canvas. The seating is arranged so that the rostrum is in plain view from every part of the structure, movable seat benches being arranged for the seating. The singing for the service was led by Mr. Weeden and a large choir composed of many of the best singers in the town. They occupied the platform at the rear of the speakers.

From the interest manifested last night it looks very much as if there is to be a repetition of the great work done here, in February, by Mr. Weaver.

News Purely Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mibser and Mrs. Frank Grant, of Philadelphia, very pleasantly surprised their parents in this place, last Friday, by walking in unannounced and unheralded for a lengthy stay.

Robert Reed, one of the few but courageous Democrats of Patton township, was in Bellefonte, on Monday. He reports the grain and grass both in serious condition up that way, though we were pleased to learn that his own crop gives promise of being fair, at least.

J. C. Sauer was an arrival in town, yesterday, on his way from Williamsport to State College, where he will spend the summer with his venerable father. He has apparently changed very little in the past ten years and is the same polished gentleman he was of yore.

Jos. L. Neff Esq., candidate for the nomination for county commissioner, was in town on Wednesday, on his way home from a very thorough tour of the county. Mr. Neff is like all the others, he was very reticent as to the expression of any opinion on the out-look.

Mr. Benjamin Kauffman who, is one of Nittany Valley's very successful farmers, was in town on Saturday and took advantage of the WATCHMAN'S cheap rate offer. Mr. Kauffman lives near Zion and mixes the theoretical and practical in his work so well that he is rated one of the substantial men of that community.

Ex-county treasurer John B. Mitchell, with Mrs. Mitchell, were in attendance at the Sunday school convention here, on Wednesday. They are among the oldest residents of Ferguson township and their fine home, just on the out-skirts of Pine Grove Mills, is proverbial for kindly hospitality. While in town they were guests at the home of Mr. Mitchell's brother James, on south Spring street.

HOMEOPATHISTS IN SESSION.—The 10th semi-annual session of the Central Pennsylvania society of homeopaths met at the Bush House, in this place, on Tuesday. The regular program was carried through and several interesting papers were read by the physicians.

Moust, Lock Haven; treasurer and recording secretary, Dr. E. H. Morrow, Altoona; corresponding secretary, Dr. A. L. Baker, Hollidaysburg.

Altoona was selected as the next meeting place.

Port Matilda Pointers.

The change in the schedule on B. E. V. R. R., does not meet with a hearty approval of some of our citizens, but as the P. R. R. Co., generally run things to suit themselves, they will have to travel when it suits the R. R. Co., or walk.

Rev. Minnich, of the M. E. church at this place, will preach a memorial sermon in the M. E. church on next Sabbath evening. All old soldiers are especially invited to be present as well as the general public. Mr. Minnich having served in the army over five years will be able to give a very interesting sermon to the old vets.

We had nearly forgotten that there were any aspirants for office as we had not seen any for a week when suddenly they descended upon us at the rate of four a day. They all pretend to be very sanguine of their success, and one in particular is so confident that he has exhausted several thousand cards and when here was obliged to write his autograph on ordinary pasteboard.

The general complaint now is the dry weather. It is almost as dry as last August and September, nevertheless vegetation is thriving. One of our neighbors remarked the other day, that he had planted potatoes one day and they were jumping through the ground by the next; but we did not ask him to swear to it, had he been a candidate we certainly would have required him to do so.
