

Spring Mills.

From all that I can learn the hay crop in this valley will be almost a total failure.

David Burrell, of Centre Hall, formerly a resident of our village, made us a visit last week. Mr. B. has hosts of friends here who are always glad to see him.

Last week the Millheim telephone company placed "phones" in several business houses of our village. The company is moving along quite rapidly and working towards Bellefonte.

The Spring Mills printing house, has received a new press for printing music. C. C. Bartges, the proprietor, informed me that he is now ready to execute all orders for engraving and printing music.

We had quite a lively baseball contest, on Saturday last, between the junior clubs of our village and Rebersburg. Both clubs did very well, but the juniors of Spring Mills were defeated. The score stood 8 to 10 in favor of Rebersburg.

Very appropriate and able addresses were delivered here, and in our neighborhood, on Decoration day. Rev. Fans delivered the address in George's Valley, Rev. Rearick at the Union cemetery, (Farmers Mills) and Rev. Eisenberg, at Spring Mills. Flowers were in great profusion. All the stores and many of the private residences in our village were handsomely and elaborately decorated with the national colors.

I noticed Col. J. L. Spangler, Wm. Runkle, W. F. Smith (Prothonotary) and John Noll, Democratic candidate for the nomination for sheriff, on Saturday evening last. They had been to Millheim, Col. S., delivered an address at the cemetery. Of course down the valley they took a look at the political field also. It must have pleased them for when here there were all in excellent spirits.

Candidates were very lively last week, and all appear confident of success. Of course many of them will think differently after the 9th inst. All the candidates who visited us last week were Democrats. Among the number I noticed A. R. Alexander, of Penn township, candidate for the nomination for recorder; Daniel Heckman, of Benner, candidate for the commissionership; A. C. Thompson, of Half Moon, for the nomination for assembly; J. S. Carson, of Spring, and J. L. Runkle, of Bellefonte, both candidates for the nomination for sheriff, and P. H. Meyers, of Harris, an aspirant for commissioner. Republican candidates are evidently sailing very close to the shore. I presume they are awaiting the result of the Democratic convention on the 9th inst., before venturing into very deep waters. After the convention, no doubt, they will endeavor to make the "fury fly."

State College and Vicinity.

Jas. H. Potter was about town on Saturday. Miss Bell, of Bellefonte, is visiting Benj. H. Beaver.

Postmaster Kennedy was in Bellefonte, on Tuesday.

B. F. Morgan and family spent Sunday in Philipsburg.

Lieut. Jos. W. Wolfe returned from Lewisburg on Tuesday morning.

We have met candidates within the past few days as follows, for sheriff, Cronister, Parker, and Noll, for treasurer, Kutz and Kimpfort, commissioner, Fry.

The Huntington Presbytery in adjourned session on Tuesday evening installed Rev. Jas. O. Dennison as pastor of the State College Presbyterian church.

Card of Thanks.

The members of the Milesburg cornet band are desirous of returning their sincere thanks to the ladies of that community who so kindly aided us in the festival we recently held.

FROZEN OUT WHEAT.

Heretofore the farms of Centre county, Penn'a. have produced the best quality of wheat, and usually a crop of poor, wormy apples. As there will be little wheat this year, the farmers can make up the loss by protecting their apple crop. Spraying the apple trees destroys the codling moth, or apple worm, after which the trees produce good salable fruit and plenty of it.
