

very able man, popular and a polished gentleman. For treasurer W. J. Weaver, of Haines, (deputy sheriff) a first rate man thoroughly qualified for the position and will discharge the duties of the office with ability and honor. For assembly J. S. Schofield, of Bellefonte, and Robt M. Foster, of State College, have been nominated—two excellent candidates. For register, G. W. Rumberger, (present incumbent) J. C. Harper, of Bellefonte, for recorder, and for commissioners, P. H. Meyer, of Harris township, and Daniel Heckman, of Benner, are all capable and well known gentlemen. The next in order will be the Republican convention which meets on the 23rd inst. They have material to make a fairly strong ticket, but it is openly said, that nearly all the candidates have been slated and are more or less connected with the Bellefonte clique or combine. Rather a strong assertion, but of course there may be more truth in it than poetry. However, in about a week the story will be told, and then our county campaign will be in full blast. In the mean time let the hand play.

Centre Hall.

At a recent meeting of the borough school directors Prof. E. T. Wolf was elected principal; T. A. Forman, intermediate; and Miss Katie Shreffler, primary instructors. The selections are good ones and the citizens are well pleased with the work of the new school board, with the exception that a great majority of the tax-payers would have gladly paid an additional tax sufficient to extend the school term to nine months.

At the examination of teachers for Centre Hall borough and Potter township, a number of applicants failed to get certificates. There is an opinion among the school teachers that they do not receive sufficient salary; but when one listens to their examination questions and the rattled manner in which many of the correct and incorrect answers are given, one can scarcely fail to believe that there are entirely too many amateurs in the business to ask more remuneration. Two-thirds of the teachers in Centre county could not earn the wages they are receiving in any other occupation. Quit growing; improve your minds and manners, so your example may be worthy of following by the young, and better salaries will then be ready for you.

When the Reforms observe Children's Day, they do it right. The services were held Sunday evening last, and consisted of a program especially prepared by the publication house for the occasion. Every one who took part should have special mention, but that would be impossible. However, your correspondent can not pass over without making reference to the pleasing manner in which Miss Emily Alexander entertained the audience with a solo. Everything necessary to make up a first class soloist is possessed by the young lady, who received her training on the Pacific coast. Indeed, Miss A. sang better than many in her audience were capable of appreciating. Misses May Bell Keller, Emma Kuhn and Grace Alexander recited in an easy, pleasing manner, and each displaying considerable skill. All in all, the exercises were full of interest.

FELL ASLEEP IN JESUS.—Many readers of the WATCHMAN, to whom he was personally known, will be grieved to hear of the death of John Witherite, which occurred at Wallace Run, Centre Co., Pa., June 11th, aged 75 years, 11 months and 14 days. He was buried in the cemetery at the Messiah church, June 14th, followed by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. F. Kelly, of Wallace Run, from the text 1 Cor. 15:57th vs. Mr. Witherite was born near Wallace Run, June 27th, 1821, and has lived there ever since. Feb. 20th, 1845 he was married to Miss Mary Swagret, to them were born five children, Alfred and Michael, Mrs. Martha J. Furl, Mrs. M. Hall and Mrs. Clara E. Bortorf. Having lived almost 52 years of wedded life, his death was the first in the family circle. On Tuesday, May 28th, his left side became paralyzed and in nine days he suffered a second stroke. His wife and children all have reason for sorrow and are entitled to sincere sympathy for he was a devoted husband and a kind father. May the Heavenly Father in his mercy allow the family ties to be established where the sorrows of earth do not intrude, where the church is triumphant over sin and death.

Why do we mourn for dying friends
Or shake at death's alarms?
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to his arms.
