

spare form of Missouri's chief executive rose from his place on the platform and came forward to give formal notification to Messrs. Bryan and Sewall of their nomination by the Democratic convention.

When Governor Stone concluded with the notification of his nomination to Mr. Bryan, a man began to wave a big American flag over the latter's head. People jumped to their feet and shouted with a vim. Cheers followed cheer and for a minute or two pandemonium reigned. The crowd went wild with enthusiasm and lung power was drawn on to an alarming extent. But this demonstration had its ending in the desire of the people to hear the speech to which they had been looking forward so anxiously, and when the man with the flag came down to where Mr. Bryan was sitting and fastened the standard in a corner of the stand, the cheering ceased and everybody watched with interest while Mr. Bryan helped the banner waver to fix the staff in place.

When Chairman Danforth stepped forward and introduced Mr. Bryan men waved their coats and their hats, while women fluttered fans and handkerchiefs as only women can. The band struck up a lively air and added to the din.

Mr. Bryan held up his hand for silence. It was like an incentive to yell louder.

Mr. Bryan stepped to the front and center of the speaker's platform. In his hand he held a manuscript copy of his speech. His face was pale, but he was cool and calm.

Mr. Bryan read from manuscript but occasionally he dropped the sheets of paper and spoke earnestly and vehemently without looking at them.

During Mr. Bryan's speech he was frequently interrupted by cheers of approval. When in concluding, Mr. Bryan said he expected the co-operation of all present, a voice cried: "You have it," and the audience roared in unison.

The peroration was spoken without a glance at the manuscript and for that reason it had greater effect. The closing words approached in eloquent feeling some of the telling points in the Chicago speech, but it was obvious that the wonderful delivery was gone temporarily and there was an unmistakably huskiness in Mr. Bryan's tones.

G. A. R. Encampment at St. Paul Minn.
Extremely Low Rates via Pennsylvania Railroad.

The national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held at St. Paul, Minn., September 23rd and 24th. For this occasion the Pennsylvania railroad will sell on August 29th, 30th and 31st excursion tickets to St. Paul and return, at exceedingly low rates, as follows:—

Harrisburg, Williamsport and Wilkesbarre, $24.75; Altoona, $23.50; proportionate rates from other points.

Tickets will be good for return passage until September 16th, with an extension to and including September 30th if deposited with the joint agent at St. Paul on or before September 16th.

Full information can be obtained on application to ticket agents.

Reduced Rates via Pennsylvania Railroad for Mount Gretna Farmers' Encampment.

From August 17th to 21st, inclusive, the Pennsylvania railroad company will sell, for the above occasion, round-trip tickets to Mount Gretna and return at rate of one fare for the round trip, from principal stations between East Liberty and Bryn Mawr, on the Northern Central railway north of and including Lutherville, and on the Philadelphia and Erie railroad division. These tickets will be valid for return passage until August 21st, inclusive.

For information in regard to train service and specific rates application should be made to ticket agents.

Pine Grove Mention.

Rev. C. T. Aikens and wife are home from a month's visit in York county.

Catharine Lutts, of Bellefonte, is taking her first lesson in dairying this week.

One night last week Ed Moore's granary was robbed of some wheat and several large hams.

Reuben Hammar is seriously ill at the home of his son-in-law, W. H. Sausserman at Altoona, where he is visiting.

Grandmother Bell is up from Harrisburg for a two weeks' visit to her friends at the Glades. Her daughter Amanda, is with her.

On Monday evening the 24th Rev. Pohlman and Rev. Geo. P. Gall will give an illustrated lecture in the Pine Hall Lutheran church at 7:30.

Banker McWilliams, of McVeytown, visited his broad acres this week. He owns many farms in the valley but is confident that banking pays better than farming.

John Ketchline, Jr., came up from Bellefonte, last week to take a hand at farming; but with the thermometer at 105 in the shade, he was ready to rest under every tree. He is certainly a chip of the old block.

The ladies of the Pine Grove Lutheran church will serve ice cream and other refreshments at the Farmer's Institute and Harvest Home on Saturday, 22nd inst. Proceeds will be for the new church window fund.

SCHOOL SUITS FOR BOYS FROM 4 TO 15 YEARS OLD.

Potter's Mills.

Did you ever see a straw party, a real straw party without any polishing? On Tuesday one came over to Reish's hotel from Centre Hall. The turnout consisted of a genuine hay wagon filled with straw and some twenty jolly souls perched upon the straw. The register at the Entaw house shows that "Spike" Smith and wife chaperoned the following personages at the hotel where they had a splendid time. D. W. Geiss straddled the saddle horse and handled the team while Prof E. J. Wolf took charge of the brake. The party consisted of the Misses Anna Shoop, Jennie Odenkirk, Roxanna Brisbane, Emily and Grace Alexander, Grace Smith, Verna Geiss, Anna Mingle, Mable Boal, May Barton, Pleasant View: Lizzie Hartman, Williamsport: Messrs. S. V. Hosterman, D. W. Geiss, E. J. Wolf, John D. Meyer, Will Shoop, Clem Deninger, Gross Mingle, M. Rossman, John Van Pelt and Arney Lee.

The water company and Jake From are having a time. The story is this—Jake From has water on his premises that the water company covets, and to get possession of the spring is what is causing the trouble—more trouble than either party anticipated in the beginning. Last week one day the water company sent a party of workmen to build a reservoir on From's territory and when Jake heard of it he hurried to the scene. From scared the workmen off his territory with all kinds of threats. The laborers reported the attack of the enemy to the company, J. D. Murray, F. Kurtz and D. F. Luse, who immediately repaired to the seat of war but From had taken a defensive position. The company advanced in a solid body to the fence that enclosed From's domain, when he demanded a halt. To emphasize his order he picked up a stone and told Mr. Murray that if he would advance a step further his brains would be knocked out. Mr. Murray boldly advanced however, and climbed upon the fence, but the others thought discretion the better part of valour and they kept out of danger's way. It looks very much as though the water company had the bulge on From, as he was arrested for threatening the officials lives, and to settle the matter From had to leave to the company and it is now using the water.

Nittany Valley Items.

Prof. Sharp, of Hublersburg, dropped into our town on Monday.

R. J. Snyder and Allison McKibben spent Sunday in our village.

Aug. 15th the K. G. E. will hold a picnic, in Dormblaser's woods, near Lamar.

There were 7200 bushels of wheat shipped from here from Aug. '95. to April 1st '96.

Farmer's have difficulty in harvesting their oats crop, as storms delay the work.

The Snydertown S. S. purpose holding a picnic at Hecla. No date has been selected.

Mrs. W. Knecht, nee Maggie Schaeffer, has returned from Lewisburg, Eaglesmere and other points.

Miss Alma Zimmerman has returned from St. Joseph's hospital, Phila., where her eyes were being treated.

Quite a number of our people took advantage of the excursion, on last Friday, and attended Hecla park.

Mrs. Elliot, of Nashville, Tenn., and Miss Lizzie Harris, of Bellefonte, visited at the home of B. F. Schaeffer.

Sunday at 7 p. m., a violent wind storm passed over our town. No rain fell, but trees and plants of all kinds flew for awhile.

A curiosity was shown us this week, a potato stalk bearing 27 developed potatoes, on its branches and 64 to the roots of the same plant.

Capt. Schaeffer spent last week in Bellefonte, with relatives. Captain Schaeffer's home is at Valley Falls, Kan. His older brother was formerly a law partner with Judge Bryan, the father of the present nominee for President.

William Krape, supervisor of Porter township, Clinton Co., has erected an iron bridge at Clintondale, which is the neatest and most serviceable structure in this part of the State. Mr. Krape is to be complimented for his good judgement in his selection.

Flour is delivered here from Farmer's Mills, Howard and other places. A mill should be erected on the site, one mile from Nittany, where farmers would not suffer the present inconvenience. Before the destruction of the mill by fire, it was one of the best milling points in the county. It contained an excellent water power.

Port Matilda Pointers.

The oats crop in this section has been put away in good condition.

A. W. Reese, one of our successful merchants, is building an addition to his store room and when completed it will be one of the largest in the county.

Mrs. Zora Barr, of Tyrone, who made a trip to a Philadelphia hospital for the benefit of her health, a few weeks ago, has returned, owing to the extremely hot weather in the city.

The pike fishing season has been good thus far. Master Gilbert Minnick, grand-son of Rev. Minnick, of this place, caught quite a nice lot of them on Saturday. One measured 22 inches and weighed 2 1/2 lbs.

Some of Bryan's admirers from this place drove up to Tyrone, on Tuesday, to get a look at their ideal. They were more than satisfied. Philip says he saw him but could not get through the crowd to shake hands, though Wharton did.

We noticed an item in last week's Gazette to the effect that George Woodring led our band at the picnic last Saturday. Such was not the case. Its regularly acknowledged leader, Stuart Jones, led the boys and did it in an efficient manner too.

State College and Vicinity.

Cap't Leyden and wife are visiting at Phil. Foster's.

Miss Hattie P. Bland is visiting Miss Mary Christ.

Reuben Munson, of Philipsburg, visited at Mrs. Pearce's a few days last week.

George L. Potter, of Bellefonte, was about town, on Tuesday, looking up business.

Miss Maud Kennedy has just returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. C. Etters, at Canton, Pa.

Chemist J. A. Fries has gone to Marietta, Penna. on business pertaining to the Experiment station.

Miss Elizabeth Stuart is at present engaged at the Experiment station assisting the secretary, Miss Gray.

Mrs. Jno. W. Stuart and her daughter, Margaret, have gone to Atlantic City for a couple of weeks.

Station agent Frank Crosthwaite sent his wife and baby to Atlantic City, and now poor Frank is a lone and weary bachelor.

M. S. McDowell has resigned his position as chemist at the Experiment station to accept a similar one with the Elk tannery Co., of Ridgway, Penna.

Dr. H. P. Armsby has gone to the Chautauqua school of Agriculture at Exposition Park, Crawford Co., Pa., where he will deliver lectures on agricultural subjects.

All Through Bruah Valley.

Miss Sallie Moyer is home from her Mercer county visit.

Rev. Shortess, of Madisonburg, is attending Pine campmeeting.

Apples were never more plenty.

Hon. Willis R. Bierly is in New Berlin visiting his sister.

Mrs. William Myers, of Canaan, is home visiting her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stover.

Miss Wright, of Lock Haven and Tessie Kreamer, of Centre Hall, are visiting Miss Winifred Wolf.

The tearing down and rebuilding of the Rebersburg Lutheran church steeple has been commenced.

Mrs. J. A. Culver, of Golden Rod, visited her brother, J. H. De Long, of Livonia, and other relatives near her old home, last week.

If you want a "goldite" converted into the right way of thinking send him to C. O. Malory who will cheerfully do it for the sake of his country. George B. Stover is also an enthusiastic Bryan man.

The Misses Stamm, Ebhule and Mrs. Wolf, of Sugarvalley, are tenters at campmeeting. If you want to see your friends and hear good sermons, be present on Sunday. There is a good boarding-house on the grounds.

Mr. George Hubler, of near Rebersburg, died last Saturday and was buried Sunday evening. He was 58 years of age and had suffered for more than a year with paralysis. He was a good Democrat and a highly esteemed citizen. His wife died about two years ago.

Last week our veterinary doctor, J. A. Gramley, was up at Spring Mills assisting Dr. Schreiber, of West Phila., who was sent up by Doctor Pierson, to examine cattle. Out of one hundred examined it was found necessary to kill five and two others were reported diseased. Dr. Gramley notified the State Board that tuberculosis was among the cattle of Howard Weaver above Madisburg.
