Bellefonte, Pa., Aug. 14, 1896.

"McKinley Beaten."

Senator John J. Ingalls' Important Letter.—A Triumph for Silver.—Great Silver Revolt Sweeping the Country.—It will Carry the West.—New York is Now Doubtful and Illinois Certain for Silver.

There is no better authority on practical politics than Hon. John J. Ingalls, formerly United States Senator for Kansas, and a leading spirit in the Republican party. Mr. Ingalls in a most significant letter says: "McKinley is beaten, and now I will tell you how. The silver revolt will sweep the West between the Missouri and Pacific. You may buy a gold plank in Dakota and again in Oregon, but you can't buy the people; you can't bribe the public in the wide region named from the coast to the Missouri, from the Rio Grande to the English line. Silver will sweep all before it. Teller will get most of them, but at least McKinley has lost every electoral vote after you leave the Missouri river. They will go to Populists, to Democrats, to silver Republicans, but they will none of them go to McKinley, that candidate hand-made by Hanna on a platform to which in his heart of hearts he is false.

"Heaven hates a coward, and McKinley has not been brave. The people are against him, and the gods will not fight on his side. Give the West to silver—California, Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Wyoming, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Kansas and Texas. Silver has already conquered all. McKinley cannot win or hold a foot of it. Every former slave State, bar Delaware, a national war with the Democracy for free silver, of such as Missouri, Kentucky and Maryland.

"Even West Virginia would be hard to hold. McKinley may kiss hope good-by as far as Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia, Florida, the two Carolinas, Virginia and Maryland are involved. He'll get none of them. Count up the others, and see if he'd have enough if he would carry them all. He'll be made to sup defeat. But even were there enough, faith has not decided that McKinley carry the others. He can carry Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut, the six New England states. Unless a split occur at Chicago, and it well may happen, and a gold Democrat do in the East what Teller is doing in the West, McKinley will carry New Jersey and Delaware.

"McKinley is sure too, of Pennsylvania, despite the cloud of Cameron and his silver lining. Steve Elkins, adept, may steal him West Virginia. There is a streak of solemn Dutch all through Wisconsin, may save to McKinley that sober Commonwealth. For the decency of the thing count Ohio for McKinley, albeit should the Democrats name Campbell, McKinley would be driven to the Buckeye wall in a moment. Count all those States for McKinley. But the others of the North—Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and New York—are debatable fighting ground.

"McKinley is not sure of any of them. In the doctrine of chances, he's sure to lose one third of them. Illinois, for instance, is almost certain to turn on Republicanism and read it. Tanager, whom the Republicans name for Governor, is bad, and the people know it. Agelid, after one gets through with his Anarchistic side, has been through with the State ever saw, and all concede it. The State is a riot for free silver. McKinley can't carry a country or city in that State. Illinois is about as certain against McKinley as Texas itself. There you are."

A Grand State Ratification of the Nomination.

The Meeting of the Democratic Societies of Pennsylvania Erie, on August 26th, will be the Occasion of a Grand Democratic Jubilee.

By direction of the executive committee the annual general assembly of the Democratic Societies of Pennsylvania is hereby called to meet at 11 o'clock, A. M. at Erie, Wednesday, August 26th.

This will be the largest and most important meeting in the history of the organization in addition to the regular business of the assembly, the meeting will take the form of a grand state ratification of the nomination of Bryan and Sewall, many clubs will attend with their bands and banners. Besides the delegates, thousands of active Democrats from all parts of the State, and distinguished visitors from other States, are expected. Ample welcome and accommodations will be found at Erie for all. It is one of the most beautiful and attractive cities in the Union, and its hospitable citizens, without distinction of party are making ready a royal reception for the Democracy on this great occasion. All loyal Democrats are invited to attend. There will be mass meetings to be addressed by some of the foremost Democrats in the Union. If the National Committee can possibly arrange it the presidential candidates will be there.

Orders for railroad tickets will be furnished on demand from secretaries of organizations.

For accommodations and hotel rates at Erie, address Hon. Robert J. Salteman, mayor of Erie or the local committee of reception where named.

We have every reason to believe that the splendid Democratic ticket nominated at Chicago will be elected. Let the Democrats of this State, assembled in their might at Erie, give notice that Pennsylvania is not to be handed over to the monopoly ticket without a contest.

The Republican majority in the State has never on a full vote and fair count, been more than 40,000, and this year thousands of honest Republicans will cast their ballots for the interest of the masses as against that of the classes. With a full Democratic vote, a change of 20,000 would give the State to Bryan and Sewall, and recover many congressional and legislative districts. JOHN D. WORMAN, GENERAL SECRETARY.

Alabama Speaks.

Alabama has spoken. She has gone Democratic by a big majority. It may be 40,000 to 60,000. The leader of the great States in the "New South," her verdict was awaited with great interest by the masses. She has pronounced for Democracy in such unmistakable terms that from this time on the Democratic canvass will go forward with greater confidence to victory on November 3.

Persuasion—Polite contradiction. Not so blunt as "you lie" but often its equivalent.

Tough Treatment.

"Woman," said he, in agonized tones, "you have broken my heart. She laid her head on his manly bosom. "No," said she, after listening intently, "there is not the slightest evidence of organic lesion. There is a slight palpitation, due, perhaps, to cigarettes. That is all," and now the young man swears that hereafter when he makes love to a girl at a summer resort, he will be sure she is not a medical student.

Women sit on porches in mother Hubbard wrappers, these hot afternoons, and talk about female suffrage. Men must wear coats and collars and hustle for the wherewithal. We long for some of women's rights.

—Don't think because you are sick and nothing seems to give you relief that you can't be cured. There must be a cure for you somewhere.

If your doctor can't cure you, perhaps he has mistaken the cause. Anybody is liable to make a mistake sometimes. One in three of us suffer from indigestion, and one out of three dyspeptics do not know it. That is, he may know he is sick, but he blames it on something else.

Indigestion is the cause of half of our dangerous diseases. Shaker Digestive Cordial, made from tonic medicinal roots and herbs, is the most natural cure for indigestion. It relieves the symptoms and cures the disease gently, naturally, efficiently, giving fresh life, strength and health to sick dyspeptics. At Druggists. A trial bottle for 10 cents.

Punxsutawney young men are of careless speech, according to a local paper, which says that one of them taking his sweetheart home said to her on reaching the gate, "Just one," and was painfully surprised to hear her father's voice through a lattice, saying, "Your watch is an hour fast; it isn't more than 12, but it's time you were taking your sneak."

You and your grandfather are removed from each other by a span of many years. He traveled in a slow going stage-coach while you take the lightning express or the electric car. When he was sick he was treated by old fashioned methods and given old fashioned medicines, but you demand modern ideas in medicine as well as in everything else. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the medicine of to-day. It is prepared by modern methods and its preparation are brought the skill and knowledge of modern science. Hood's Sarsaparilla acts promptly upon the blood and by making pure, rich blood it cures disease and establishes good health.

In printing the arguments furnished the Republican press by the Wall street syndicate, defending the single gold standard, the able editors seem to forget that their platform calls for a double standard when England will permit it. If the gold standard is the best thing as these Wall street organizations maintain, why have a double standard even with England's consent?

THE PUZZLE SOLVED.—Perhaps no local disease has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than nasal catarrh. While not immediately fatal it is among the most noxious and disgusting ills the flesh is heir to, and the records show very few or no cases of radical cure of chronic catarrh by any of the many modes of treatment until the introduction of Ely's Cream Balm a few years ago. The success of this preparation has been most gratifying and surprising.

The Columbus Buggy Co., one of the largest concerns in the country, has made an assignment to W. A. Miles and John M. Thomas. Assets $800,000 to $1,000,000; and yet there are still some people who believe that the present gold standard should continue until England stands otherwise.

Will free coinage make the mine owners rich? Don't know. It is sure though, that the gold monometallic policy is putting millions of dollars into the coffers of the bankers, brokers and speculators. An army of big and little financiers made fortunes in every bond issue.

Nerves—The string of the violin of caprice, making sweet harmony or jangling discord as fancy tunes the strings and wields the bow.—Good Housekeeping.

Medical.

STRONG Nerves just as surely come from the blood as does the cure of scrofula, salt rheum, or other so-called blood diseases. This is simply because the blood affects the condition of all the bones, muscles and tissues. If it is impure it cannot properly sustain these parts. If made pure, rich, red and vitalized by Hood's Sarsaparilla, it carries health instead of disease, and repairs the worn, nervous system as nothing else can do. Thus nervous prostration, hysteria, neuralgia, heart palpitation, are cured by
