

Bellefonte, Pa., Oct. 23, 1896.

To Correspondents .- No communications pubished unless accompanied by the real name of

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

The board of trade failed to get together for a meeting on Tuesday night.

-Cider is selling for sixty-cents a barrel, in Beech Creek, and apples for fifteen cents a bushel. —The Axe Mann cider press averaged fifty-seven barrels of cider per day all through the season. -The freeze, on Saturday and Sunday nights, brought down more leaves than have fallen yet this autumn.

-Gilmore's band and Kellar, the magician, are attractions for Philipsburg and Clearfield theatre goers. -The Millheim band will go to Williamsport, on the 31st inst., to play for a large Democratic demonstration. - A sweet pumpkin weighing 140lbs is on exhibition in Schreyer and Sheffer's grocery store in the Exchange. -Ralph Bingham's entertainment, on Monday night, will be well worth your going to see. —The Philipsburg fire brick works are now running night and day on an order for half a million brick that are to be shipped to Russia.

— The season has been backward but Garman's will open, on Wednesday night, per in the following; when Tony Farrell will present his romantic play, "Garry Owen."

-Dr. Colfelt will make the address at the annual anniversary service of the Y. M. C. A. in the Presbyterian church, next Sunday evening.

---The Altoona car shops are shut down this week. The managers thought it would be better to close for a few days in succession and then run steady during the rest of the month. They had been laying off every Wednesday.

-The corner stone of the new United Evangelical church, at Nittany, will be laid, on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 25th. Prof. O. E. Gobble, president of the Central Pennsylvania college, at New Berlin, will probably make the address.

-The Gettig brothers, the sawers, who Roush farm, near Axe Mann, for the past two years, have about completed their work out there and will move the mill to the Morris property near Coleville.

of the matter state forestry commissioner Rothrock has discovered that forest fires. last spring, seriously depleted the stock of of deer, trout, pheasants, turkeys and rabbits in the forests of Pennsylvania.

dist church, on Monday evening next. Of him the Utica, N. Y. Press says: "Ralph Bingham gave the finest entertainment that has been witnessed here in many years, consisting of monologues, violin solos, etc." Admission 25 and 15 cents.

The latest report shows that there are Formatory farm there were 4,500 bushels of potatoes raised, during the season, and forty barrels of sauer kraut have already been put up for winter use.

---Jasper W. Stover, of Millheim, must Last Thursday evening he fell down the hand at the time and even kept it from going out during his lighting gyrations down the stairs.

-Rev. Alexander Smith, late pastor of the Free Methodist church at Philipsburg, has been transferred by the recent conference of that denomination to this side of the mountain. He will reside in Unionville and will ere long have a church building at Dix Run. His successor, a young Englishman named Williams, from Warren, this State, goes to Philipsburg, highly recommended.

-The Temperance rally, in the court house, on Sunday afternoon, proved a very interesting service indeed. The auditorium was filled when the invocation was made. Rev. McClain, of Muncy, led the meeting. The first speaker was L. Y. Graham, of Philadelphia, moderator of the Synod. Dr. Beacom, chairman of the gen- it was possible to cut the ticket in any of eral assembly's committee on temperance also spoke.

eleven, at Hecla park, last Saturday aftermountain by the score of 20 to 0. A small was really a very good exhibition, though of candidates for county office. the score was so one-sided. The Academy and Bellefonte High school teams will play at Hecla, on Saturday.

---- According to a bulletin just issued by the weather bureau the warmest October occurred in 1879, when the temperature averaged 62 degrees, and the coldest in 1876, when the average was 51. The average date of the first killing frost was October 28th. The precipitation, rain and melted snow, was 2.90 inches. The greatest precipitation occurred in 1887, when it closed their tabernacle meetings, in Lock groom owns a drug store. He is a son of amounted to 3.05 inches. The average number of clear days was twelve, and the provailing winds have been from the north- they carried on a more remarkable work capable of a prosperous, happy life, which to the amount of $392.68 council adjourn-

YOU REMEMBER THEO. C. KNAUFF-Early last spring Mr. Theo. C. Knauff, a supposed monetary expert from Philadelphia, came to Bellefonte to deliver a lecture on what he was then pleased to term "sound money." At that time there was no political campaign on hand, no discussion among the masses as to the condition of our monetary system and very little belief that the paramount issue of the present campaign would be as it is. In the light of existing circumstances it cannot fail of being evident to every one that at that early date the gold or money handling class were beginning to be disturbed by the unrest among the people; that unrest brought on by hard times, low wages and no work, and in order to forestall any effort along political lines to overthrow the great bonanza they hold they had carefully planned a series of deceptive lectures through-out the country.

That tour of Mr. Knauff's was its beginning. It was calculated to reach people who could not be appealed to by the bulletins which the sound money league of Pennsylvania had been sending out for months before. Mr. Knauff came to Bellefonte and gave his lecture. As a magic lantern show it will be remembered as a delightful success. As an educating lecture, it was a stupendous fizzle. The WATCHMAN expressed the same opinion of it at the time.

Mr. Knauff was in other towns on that tour and among them he stopped at Carlisle. In that place the editor of the Herald, a radical Republican paper, attended the lecture and commented on it in his pa-

"The repeal of the silver act virtually demonetized silver. The United States has been placed in the position of repudiation of the coin upon which it has stamped the assertion "In God we trust" and that it is of a certain value. For two years and half it has been going out of the country, into the vaults of foreign banks. And yet the credit of the Government of the United States is so strong that promises to pay command a premium of more than ten per cent, and foreigners and natives tumble over each other in their efforts te get those promises in exchange for gold. The gold is obtained and the gold coin falacy in turn sends the coin bought by the government bonds to swell the amount in vaults of foreign banks.

This country is big enough to strike out for itself a financial policy free from the dictation of English capitalists or of the Bank of England, known as "The Old Lady of Threadneedle Street" The threat made to force have been operating a portable mill on the this country to buy gold for foreign banks through our mistaken gold standard, is that English capitalists will throw upon the market our securities held by them. If they do who will fix the price of the securities-the buyer or seller? If we buy back our securi--As a result of recent investigation ties fixed by ourselves the sale of them will not hurt us however much it may trouble us to raise the funds for the time being, and in the end we will be the gainers. Those who are fighting the coinage of silver have had a trial of the gold standard with disastrous results. They should cease to be the emissaries of for-----Do not miss Ralph Bingham, the hu- eign capitalists and join hands in establishmorist impersonator and violinist who ing a currency of our own of gold, silver and ment down there. It is in order now for will give an entertainment in the Metho- paper money, backed by the credit of the the street committee of council to add to it Government, and the esablishment of such a by raising the crossing up to the grade of revenue as will help keep the public treasury the pavement at that point.

We publish this just to show our readers confined in that institution. On the re- ever, for he was not the kind of a or. man who would win much glory as a lecturer. He was paid by the be the boss acrobat of that community. trine today, that Knauff advocated then, it romantic Irish play "Garry Owen." Mr. stairs in his home and landed in a barrel fore party prejudice drove it to desert theatre goers is starring with a strong caste, that was standing in the hall-way on the its conscience to support a theory its words in which Miss Jennie Leland, known as the first floor. He had a lighted lamp in his above declare impractical and un-American.

> lot that will be voted at the election, on November 3rd, will be the largest ever there is lots of room for the specialties that used since the Baker law has gone into ef- are pleasingly introduced by clever artists. fect. In Centre county it will be about 27x27. They will be ten columns in width, headed in the following order: Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Peoples, Socialist Labor, National, Free Silver, McKinley Citizen's, Jeffersonian and the regular blank column. Three of the ten will carry Bryan electors.

The most material change in the ballot will be the doing away with the voting by groups. Under the law, as originally passed, there would have been national, congressional and local groups, one mark at the head of each voting the entire group, or a mark in the circle over all voting the straight ticket. Under that arrangement the groups without having to resort to the plan of marking in all the squares opposite ---The Academy foot ball eleven proved the names in the other groups. But as the too strong for the Philipsburg High school | ballot will be printed this fall there will be no grouping. One mark in the circle at noon and downed the boys from over the the top will vote the straight ticket, but if cutting is intended a mark will have to be crowd went down to see the game. Not made in the square opposite every elector's half as many as its interest merited, for it | name, as well as those opposite the names

If you vote the ticket straight one mark will do. If you cut it forty-seven will be -The season at Garman's will open, on Wednesday night, October 28th, when the popular Irish actor, Tony Farrell, will appear in the romantic production of "Garry Owen."

Haven, yesterday. While in that place D. L. Meek, of Waddle's station, and is than they did in this place last winter.

FOR PATTON AND HALF-MOON TOWN-SHIP READERS.

Read What One of Your Former Neighbors Has to Say for Bryan. Read What the Intelligent Son of a Prominent Republican Family Has Concluded.

The letter that is appended herewith will be of more than ordinary significance to the people of Patton and Half Moon townships, where the young man who wrote it is known best. He is a son of P. W. Burket Esq., of Stormstown, who was a prominent aspirant for the nomination for county Treasurer before the Republican convention, in June, but who was knocked down to make room for one of the many from Spring township that secured places on the ticket. The doctor is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and has been located in Cleveland, Ohio, for some time. He is reported to be prospering in the Forest city and we are delighted to hear from him, in such emphatic words, that he has taken up the cause of the people and resents the insults of the blood-sucking goldites.

The reference to the article from the London Financial News will not be mysterious to the WATCHMAN readers. It was published in this paper, as early as July, and to the best of our knowledge the WATCHMAN was the first paper in America to publish it and the repeated attempts of the gold organs to prove it untruthful all resulted in failure.

> 29 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 21st, 1896.

Dear Sir:

With this I send you to-day's issue of the Cleveland "Plain Dealer" containing a fac-simile of the page of the London "Financial News," containing the Famous Grip of Gold

It seems to me that the reading and digesting of that simple editorial coming, as it does, from the ablest and universally recognized financial publication, should convince tens and hundreds of thousands of Americans, of the fact that so long as we "narrow our ambitions to becoming a larger England" we will, as a nation, find to our chagrin and utter bankruptcy that England can beat us at her own game.

Last night the Hon. Bourke Cockran spoke to a big crowd of so-called Republicans in Central Armory, during which time he denounced the champion of the Chicago platform as a stinking example of the Populist, and insulted working men, in particular, and all other classes, in general, who hold opposing views to the existing gold standard, by branding them as the worst kind of An-

Such denunciations as were indulged in by the Hon. Bourke only tend to increase the plurality that will defeat McKinley in

I doubt if in any other State there is such an incessant stream pouring from Hanna's 'barrel' as there is in Ohio, and only by intimidation and the lavish expenditure of money, and not by right or justice, is the gold motto.

F. S. BURKET.

-"Garry Owen," at Garman's, Wednesday night, October 28th.

-The new concrete pavement in front of the Republican office is a great improve-

---The employees of the Tyrone paper how early the banking classes began to set Mill received gold for their last pay checks up their pins to keep themselves in- at a Tyrone bank. What does this mean? trenched behind the wall of gold that has The men had not seen such a thing for become well nigh impregnable to labor. years and if it was done for political effect 554 inmates in the Huntingdon reforma- Mr. Knauff did not ask a cent for his work it will be very apt to disclose the transpartory. Altogether there have been 2,221 boys here. He was not doing it for glory, howelent schemes of the goldites to work for fav-

> THE OPERA HOUSE OPENING. - Next goldites. Paid, what for? For trying Wednesday night, Oct. 28th, Garman's to educate the people to a wrong belief. opera house will be opened for the season While the Herald is advocating the doc- of 1896-97 by the production of the pretty cannot refute the true belief it held be- Tony Farrell, well known to Bellefonte maid of Erin, is the leading lady.

The play depicts the hardships of life in A BLANKET, SURE ENOUGH.—The bal- Ireland under the land-lord system and while it is full of pathos and excitement

> THE CAMPBELL-MEEK WEDDING .-The prominence of the bride's parents and their well known hospitality, her popularity, a bright, beautiful October day, a house full of merry, congenial guests, with flowers, music and refreshments in abundance made the wedding of Nannie Milligan Campbell and Herbert De L. Meek an event of importance and pleasure.

The marriage was solemnized at noon, resterday, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C Campbell, near Fairbrook, in this county. Miss Mary Campell, the bride's sister, played the wedding march and promptly at twelve o'clock appeared the wedding party : the maid of honor, Miss Mary Meek, the groom's sister; the best man, John Campbell and the bride and groom with the two ushers, Messrs. Bailey and Campbell. The bride, who is an accomplished musician and a capable, practical girl versed well in the making of a comfortable home, wore a going away gown of brown. Rev. Asbury Guyer, of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony after which a breakfast, such as the Campbells alone know how to prepare, was served.

Guests were present from Altoona, Tyrone, Bellefonte and the surrounding country to the number of about seventyfive and they enjoyed the pleasing hospitality so graciously afforded. After the wedding trip to Washington and Point Comfort the young people will go to -Evangelists Weaver and Weeden housekeeping at State College, where the

Hazel, of the firm of Beezer and Hazel meat and produce dealers at the corner of | could not be called to order. High and Allegheny streets, is the gentle-He is a genial fellow and it will be the soon. It seems ridiculous that an industry grand sweet song." The bride and groom of $3,000. arrived in this place, yesterday morning, and were driven to the Hazel homestead, on Spring creek, where a reception was given "An interesting wedding occurred Tuesday morning, at 9 o'clock, during the celebration of nuptial mass at St. Mary's church, by Rev. D. Zwickert, the pastor. It was the marriage of Mr. Michael F. Hazel, of Bellefonte, to Miss Susanna E. Enzbrenner, of this city. Mr. Harry C. Taylor, of Bellefonte, and Miss Marie Lauchbacher, of this city, a cousin of the bride, were the attendants. A large number of friends of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony. At the conclusion of the rites the wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, 1623 Fifth avenue, were Mr. and Mrs. Hazel were the recipients of congratulations and many handsome presents. They departed Tuesday afternoon for a trip West and on their the Brockerhoff house, where Mrs. Brockerhoff return they will take up residence in Belle- and her family have taken apartments for the fonte, where the groom is engaged in business. Mr. Hazel is a very popular young business man of Centre county and enjoys quite an extensive acquaintance in Fairbrook to a wedding. It wasn't his own, oh, this city. His bride is a most estimable young lady, well prepared to assume the duties of her new station in life."

COUNCIL HURRIES THROUGH WITH ITS WORK .- More members than usual were present when council convened, on Monday night, and the small amount of business taken up was hustled through with dispatch.

Monroe Armor was present and complained that the condition of east Linn and Armor streets is very bad. The Street committee reported various improvements in payements and streets.

The Water committee reported that the request of Peter Mendes to have water service extended to his east High street property had been granted. In regard to extending water from the C. M. Bower property, on east Linn street, to Wilson street, the committee reported that an agreement had been made with the Armor estate whereby it would pay $1.75 per lot if council would lay a 4 inch pipe instead of a 1 inch as it intended doing.

In regard to the complaint that east Linn and Armor streets are in bad condition the Street committee was instructed to correct

-The Y. M. C. A. anniversary services will be held in the Presbyterian Addresses by Hon. Geo. A. Jenks, Col. J. L. Spangler church, on Sunday night. Dr. Colfelt will

-The clothing line was never so bright and attractive as it is now. Montgomery & Co. are showing a superb line of overcoats that range in value from $5.00 up to $18.00. They are truly remarkable values and are attracting wide attention among buyers of ready-to-wear clothing.

----At Pittsburg, last week, at the state convention of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. John P. Harris was selected to represent Centre, Clinton and Cambria counties at the national convention, which meets in St. Louis, in November. Her alternate is Mrs. Mary J. Ball, of Lock Haven.

---Miss Margaret McManus, the aunt of Mrs. William Zellers and the Misses McManus, who has been making her home with them for several years, has long been a sufferer with dropsy. Recently she was operated upon, or tapped, and although eighty-six years old she was so much benefited that she is well beyond the most sanguine hopes of her friends.

LAUNDRY-Rough washing, bleaching and ironing done at 213, Pike alley. A very deserving woman must support a family by her toil and solicits work.

SHOPPING.—Persons residing out of city can have shopping done by a reliable lady of good judgment, taste and experience a close buyer; one who will give ideas. Correspondence solicited and reference

Address, G. J. A. Box 1266, Philadelphia,

MARRIAGE LICENSES .- Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphans' court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week.

James H. Estep and Minnie Ostrander, both of Gelaney, Cambria county. Michael, T. Hazel, of Bellefonte, and

susan Enzbrenner, of Altoona, Thomas Andrew Meyer, of Coburn, and Cora Ella Stover, of Aaronsburg. H. D. Meek, of State College, and Nannie M. Campbell, of Fairbrook.

both of Snow Shoe. David L. Spitler and Caroline Barry, ooth of Sandy Ridge.

Harry E. Lucas and Sarah Jackson,

WILL THE PROJECT FAIL.—A special for last Tuesday night but not enough members could be counted to constitute a quorum for business purposes.

The meeting had been called for the purpose of consulting with the men who are trying to start the Bellefonte glass works on the ka, in which the speaker said "it was too co-operative plan. The plan has already been | cold for a Christian to live," (laughter,) HAZEL-ENZBRENNER. - The Altoona told in the WATCHMAN. The glass men Times contained the following wedding were present and stated that they had been for the development of our nation. notice in its issue of Wednesday morning. able to secure only $1,600 in pledges of the The people were then invited to partake Bellefonters are interested in it because it desired $3,000. It was their intention to of the ox, which had been sandwiched, as will be observed that the groom is one of ask the board to appoint a committee to our very popular young men. Michael F. help them raise the balance of $1,400. This was not done because the meeting

It is beginning to look as if this scheme man who has just given up bachelor-hood to get the glassworks started will fall for the pleasanter relations of married life. through, unless our people waken up pretty hope of his many friends here that the new as valuable as that to our tradespeople life will be as Kingsley describes it, "One should be left stand idle for the small sum the afternoon meeting. When he had con-

News Purely Personal.

-Mrs. E. R. Chambers and Mrs. Harry Schrey-

er left, Tuesday morning early, for a short stay in Philadelphia. -Harry Taylor, the Adams express messenger. spent Tuesday in Altoona. He was a guest at the Hazel-Enzbrenner wedding. -Miss Cora Ruhle, a daughter of William Ruhle, of Pittsburg, is-visiting her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Derr, of High street.

-Mrs. Joseph Thomas and Mrs. W. C. Grove, of Milesburg, were in town shopping on Wednesday. Both ladies are staunch Democrats and very much interested in the outcome of the pending election. -Mrs. Aaron Williams intends spending the winter in Richmond, Indiana. She has been there ever since the death of her brother and poor health has made it seem best for her to remain there until spring. -Miss Mary Brockerhoff departed, Wednesday morning, for an extended visit in Philadelphia.

Upon her return she will spend the winter at

-Phil D. Waddle, who thinks the American express business needs every moment of his time, laid down his work, yesterday, and went to

no. His nephew, Herbert DeL. Meek was married to Miss Campbell, at noon, yesterday. -Squire Solomon Peck, of Nittany, came up to town, on Monday, to announce that he has his fall work all done and if people imagine that he is loafing they are perfectly welcome to do so. The Squire is one of those kind of men who believes in getting up in the morning, hustling through with things, and then taking the well earned rest. -Dr. Roland Stiver, of Lena, Illinois, has been East visiting friends in his native heath, Centre county. He was the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. E. Ward, on Curtin street, over Sunday and left, for New York, Thursday. Dr. Stiver reports that both parties are claiming his State while there is nothing definite as to what the true outcome will in Bellefonte looking after a little business that H. Musser, J. C. Smith, E. E. Knarr, H. needed his attention. He was born in this county, but like a good many others he got the western fever and migrated to Kansas. It took several years out there to satisfy him, but he is back now to stay in good old Centre and good old Centre is very glad of his return, for Mr. Keller, like all the others of his family, is a good citizen, and we can't have too many like him.

-Mrs. Coolidge, of Scranton, is in town with two of her children, Grace and Carl, visiting relatives and seeing her father, Daniel McGinley, who has been suffering for weeks with asthma and dropsy. Mr. McGinley is 81 years old and although his condition is so serious that he has not been able to lie down for weeks and his son-inlaw, Dr. Coolidge, is coming up to consult with his it. After authorizing the payment of bills attending physicians, it is thought that his life may be prolonged by an operation as was that of

The Ox-Roast at Millheim

and Hugh S. Taylor, Esq.

Last Thursday the east end of Centre county had its great political demonstration and feast of the campaign of 1896. At early morn people from all parts of the county, especially Pennsvalley and Brushvalley, went to Millheim. By noon about 2,500 men, women and children had congregated in the town, several hundred having witnessed the roasting of a 210 lb ox in the forenoon and which was entirely eaten up for the evening lunch.

At 2 o'clock, led by the Millheim and Aaronsburg cornet bands, both of which rendered some of their choicest selections for this occasion. The people marched, en masse, from the centre of the town to the new school building at the east side of which was erected a stage for the speakers and around which the great crowd had collected. After 16 to 1 guns were fired, after Dr. G. S. Frank had nominated Mr. W. F. Smith as president of the day's meetings, after the following vice presidents were named: B. F. Shafer, John Spangler, James Smith, J. J. Orendorf, John Wolf, Aaron Zerby, W. F. Fry, W. B. Mingle, and Hon. Fred Kurtz as secretary, all these nominations having been unanimously approved, and after several selections by the bands Chairman Smith introduced Col. J. L. Spangler amidst great cheering.

. After a strong talk Col. Spangler introduced Hon. Geo. Jenks, of Brookville, Jefferson county, whom he called the "best and bravest man in Pennsylvania." Mr. Jenks had been assistant United States District Attorney in Cleveland's first administration, a counsel in the Belknap case, and made the best defense in the famous Hayes and Tilden dispute. Mr. Jenks, not being allowed to speak long out doors on account of his throat, made a brief address in which he refuted with perfect ease the common, ignorant ment that all intelligence is in the Republican party by reminding his hearers that nine-tenths of the population of the United States consisted of foreigners, that there only about 7,000,000 nativeborn Americans. He said that it is the intelligence of the Democratic party on which the country depends. In evidence thereof he gave a brief history of the Democratic party and cited how the Alien and Sedition laws had violated the rights of the constitution, according to meeting of the board of trade was called the views of Jefferson, how Jackson struggled with the national bank. Democracy had ruled the country before parties were formed. Only two things were done by the Republicans, namely, the abolition of slavery and the purchase of Alasbut both of these two acts were necessary they did with great relish, and everybody got his piece, which was handed out of the cellar window of the school house.

EVENING MEETING.

Headed by the Millheim band the people went to the the town hall, which was packed to its utmost, and were again addressed by Hon. Geo. Jenks, who continued the forcible arguments he had started at cluded the chairman introduced Hugh S. Taylor, Esq., of Bellefonte, who made a plea for a faithful support of the county and congressional tickets. This young man made a very spirited address which was vigorously applauded. Col. Spangler, being on the stage, was then urgently called upon by the audience, and responded by narrating many killing stories like Jack only can tell. The audience was then dismissed by a great cheer for

The town was everywhere beautifully decorated with flags and spruce. At each side of a square of spruce decoration connecting the Musser hotel, the new and old hardware stores, and what was formerly Snook's store, were hung the following mottoes: "No cross of gold !" "No crown of thorns !" Free silver or bust !" "Wall street, nit !" In the centre of this square was hung an iron whoop to whose circumference were attached 16 white lamp chimnies and in the centre of this again was suspended a yellow one, which was an amusing representation of 16 to 1.

Brushvalley was very well represented as nearly everybody had gone, and especially those who still have several gold thorns in their newly acquired silver body, which they are seriously seeking to extract and we are happy to say that many were pulled by Jenks and Jack.

Millheim was full of people and vehicles as far as you could see. As the saying is "everybody turned out" and had "a great time." The people were enthusiastic and a great day it was, for which all must thank the following committee: Chairman, J. W. Stover, Cyrus Brumgart, Samuel Musser, C. W. Albright, W. L. Goodhart, Dr. -Mr. P. F. Keller, of Centre Hall, spent Monday G. S. Frank, H. A. Auman, J. Alters, P. F. Confer. etc.

The Millheim people have very many reasons to congratulate themselves and to be congratulated, by all others, for having made this such a grand success. Long we will remember the ox-roast and the speeches of Jenks and Jack. H. E. B.

-Snow fell in Philipsburg on Sunday afternoon.

Sale Register.

November 5th .- At the residence of Danel F. Poorman, in Boggs township, two miles north of Snow Shoe Intersection, horses, cattle, hogs, hay and grain, geese, implements, etc. Everything in good condition. Sale at 10 o'clock, a. m.