

—Some of the machinery in the Huntington car works is being removed to Savannah, Georgia, where it will be used in car building.

—Prosperity, now, comes on apace, let her come with a howl and a whoop; the editor right in the old one's place, is building a new chicken coop.

—John Ostergood, a Finlander, was killed in the Renovo yards on Saturday night. He was a Bitumen miner and had gone up to Renovo to buy an accordion. He had $60 on his person.

—It is not because news is scarce that we give up space to the game laws so often, but because sportsmen seem to have very short memories about the legal time for taking fish and game. There is scarcely a week passes that a number of inquiries are not made at this office. On an inside page of this issue the dates for catching fish and killing game in the State will be found. Wouldn't it be a good plan if you would cut the article out and paste it up some where?

—STEVENS WILL NOT LOSE HIS LEG.—Leonard Stevens, the man who was in the wreck, above Unionville, last Thursday morning, in which Theodore Baney, of this place, was instantly killed, is recovering and it has been announced at the Altoona hospital that his broken leg will not have to be amputated. Besides being broken his leg was badly cut, but he will not lose it. Stevens was in the Walter L. Main circus wreck on the T. & C. rail-road, May 30th, 1893. At that time he was considerably cut up.

—HIS SCALP HUNG DOWN HIS BACK.—Wilson Burnell, of Farrisville, had been up at Renovo and was taking a free ride home, on Tuesday morning. The freight train he was riding did not stop at his home, so he decided to jump off while it was running. He did it and if old Sitting Bull had done it himself the young man could not have been any more completely scalped than he was.

—His head struck the ground, skinning the scalp so entirely from his head that it hung down his back. He was carried to a neighboring house, where a physician sewed it up and he will recover.

—MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphans' court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week.

Geo. E. Homan, of Williamsport, and Elizabeth J. Reish, of Millheim.

G. W. Decker, and Mary E. Vonada, both of Spring Mills.

J. D. Neese, of Penn Hall, and Norah E. Koch, of Fairbrook.

Newton I. Rearik, of Benner, and Flora M. Smith, of Spring.

John A. Blevens, and Kezia Dunning, both of Port Matilda.

David C. Vaughlin, of Philipsburg, and Charlotte E. Estep, of Osceola.

Samuel W. Stover, and Nellie R. Sharp, both of Hublesburg.

Rufus E. Cole, of Philipsburg, and Luella R. Stevens, of Kylertown.

—THE COUNTY TEACHER'S INSTITUTE.—The fiftieth annual session of the institute of the public school teachers of Centre county will convene in Bellefonte, on Monday morning, December 21st, at 10 o'clock and continue until Thursday, the 24th, inclusive.

Enrollment for the session will begin at 9 o'clock when the regular membership fee of $1.00 will be collected and the course tickets for the evening entertainments will be sold at $1.00 each.

Owing to the fact that Friday will be Christmas the institute will be given permission, by state Superintendent of instruction N. C. Shaeffer, to adjourn Thursday evening, thus shortening the usual length of the session by half a day.

The instructors for the week will be Sup't. John M. Coughlin, of Wilkesbarre; Dr. M. G. Brumbaugh, of the University of Pennsylvania, Phila.; Prof. Chas. H. Albert, of the Bloomsburg state Normal school; and Dr. M. G. I. mediet, head of the department of Pedagogy at The Pennsylvania State College. The corps of instructors are particularly strong and institute should prove decidedly instructive to the teachers, as well as entertaining to the public.

The evening entertainments will be diversified as usual.

Monday evening Dr. Geo. W. Atherton, president of The Pennsylvania State College, will lecture. Admission 25 cts.

Tuesday evening Dr. M. G. Brumbaugh, U. of P., will lecture. Admission 25 cts.

Wednesday evening Judge Alfred Ellison, of Indiana, will lecture. Admission 25 cts.

Thursday evening the Boston Ideal banjo, mandolin and guitar club will appear. Admission 50 cts.

The executive officers of the session will be: President, C. L. Granley; vice president, D. O. Ethers; recording secretary, C. V. Delong; enrolling secretaries, J. Calvin Morris and W. B. Haines. Committee on resolutions, A. W. Ackerman, A. R. Rutt, R. J. Snyder, Annie C. Essington and Katharyn Kerr. Election, J. L. Gardner, H. A. Detwiler and J. O. Harpster. Legislation, D. M. Wolf, A. F. Stauffer, E. J. Wolf, W. D. Maynard, W. P. Hosterman, H. C. Rothrock, James Gregg and A. C. Thompson. Permanent certificates, D. O. Ethers, Frank A. Foreman. Auditors, R. B. Mattern, A. L. Duck and S. M. Butler. Chairman local institute committees, W. D. Maynard, H. C. Rothrock, A. R. Rutt, E. S. Latshaw, A. C. Williams and A. F. Stauffer.

—TWENTY YEARS THEIR PASTOR.—The friends of Rev. Dr. William Laurie, of the Presbyterian church, called on him, on Tuesday evening, it being the twentieth anniversary of his having become their pastor.

His home, on Spring street, was crowded with well wishers, young and old, and he was highly gratified at the warmth of the congratulations that were showered upon him. Besides the many expressions of love and esteem for Doctor and Mrs. Laurie there were some very pretty presents. A complete china set, a handsome rocker and $20 were some of the reminders of the delightful evening that will remain with the pastor and his family.

The visit was an entire surprise to them.

WEEKLY THE MONTHLY OUTLOOK Published every Saturday 13 ASTOR PLACE NEW YORK

The Outlook will be in 1897, as it has been during each of its twenty-seven years, a History of Our Own Times. In its various editorial departments The Outlook gives a compact review of the world's progress; it follows with care all the important philanthropic and industrial movements of the day; has a complete department of religious news; devotes much space to the interest of the home; reviews current literature; furnishes cheerful table-talk about men and things; and in short, aims to give fresh information, original observation, and reasonable entertainment.

Beginning with the fifty-fifth volume, the paper will assume the regular magazine size, which will add greatly to its convenience and attractiveness. The Outlook is published every Saturday—fifty-two issues a year. The first issue in each month is an Illustrated Magazine Number, containing about twice as many pages as the ordinary issues, together with a large number of pictures.

The price of The Outlook is three dollars a year in advance, or less than a cent a day.

Send for a specimen copy and illustrated prospectus to The Outlook, 13 Astor Place, New York City. 41-46-2t
