

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphans' court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week.

William V. Takash and Mary Lekos, both of Clarence, Pa.

Anthony C. Stuttmatter, of Hastings, and Catherine Fahey, of Snow Shoe.

Hiram A. Long and Jennie A. Decker, both of Walker, Twp.

Monroe A. Kramer, of Bellefonte, and Ellie Carson, of Clearfield, Pa.

Henry P. Shook, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Malinda C. Zeigler, of Bellefonte.

Edwin D. Roan, and Ellen Lowery, both of Spring Twp.

Elery Parsons, of Union township, and Anna McDonald, of Ferguson township.

SHOOK—ZEIGLER.—The marriage of Henry Payne Shook, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Malinda C. Zeigler, of this place, was quietly consummated at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. M. Bower, on east Linn street, at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Rev. Eisenberg, of the Reformed church, of Centre Hall, officiated.

It had been rumored for some time that there was to be a wedding on Linn street during the week, but few surmised that Mrs. Zeigler was to become the happy bride.

Only about twenty of the closest friends of the couple witnessed the ceremony. After it had been performed an informal reception was held and a dainty breakfast served.

They departed, at 2:15, for a tour north. Upon their return they will reside in Williamsport, where the groom is master mechanic for the Williamsport division of the P. R. R.

Those who were present from out of town were: Joseph Moyer and family, of Centre Mills; David Meyer, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Jyster, of Williamsport, a daughter of Mr. Shook, and his son, Will Shook, and wife, of Millinburg, Pa.

A CLEARFIELD LOVE AFFAIR.—The Baffman's Journal tells of the following romance that stirred up Dago-dom, in Clearfield, during the fore part of the week:

The attention of the district attorney was last week directed to a case of very complex marital difficulties. Some years ago Giovanni Fiasco married a young Italian girl who claims she was forced into the contract by her mother, who, as a second spouse, had taken Angelo Fiasco, the brother of her daughter's husband. Week before last Mrs. Fiasco, junior, departed from her residence, at McCartney, with Sullivan White, her lover. Giovanni, the irate husband, followed them and overtook them at Tyrone, had them arrested and brought to jail here.

The offense with which Mrs. Fiasco and White were charged had been committed in Blair county, and it was evident to the attorneys in the case that there was no ground for keeping them in jail at this place.

On Wednesday last it was decided to liberate the woman, but she strenuously objected to being separated from her lover. She was finally compelled to leave the jail and brought to the office of the district attorney, where her husband and her mother were waiting for her. An attempt was made to effect a reconciliation but the woman flatly refused to return with her husband.

Mrs. Fiasco was sent to the county home to spend the night. White had, meantime, been released from custody, and Fiasco, at last accounts, was trying to keep the pair apart.

THE BANQUET.—The annual banquet, of the Jr. O. U. A. Mechanics, at the St. Elmo hotel last Thursday evening, was a grand success. Mine host Decker and his good wife played their part well in looking after their guests and making them comfortable.

Although the weather was inclement, the members with their wives and sweethearts turned out in goodly numbers and by seven o'clock were having a general reception in the spacious parlors. At eight o'clock the feast was announced and at once the first relay surrounded the well filled tables, which contained every thing pleasing to the eye and palate.

The piece de resistance was a great big cake made by Mrs. Clara Smith and decorated with the date and emblems of the order in a truly appetizing manner. It took just three hours to fill up the inner saloons with the 10 gallons of oysters, the 10 gallons of ice cream and all the other good things provided. Ed. Reed was the champion but after he was removed from the table he recovered sufficiently to join in the music and general conversation which made the after evening so pleasant.

The committee in charge deserve special mention but space will not permit. To brother Decker and his good wife the guests, as they were leaving at midnight, made positive assurance that the evening's enjoyment will be cherished in their minds as the most joyous occasion of the season.

Lymon Emerick, of Snydertown, who has been suffering extreme pain, had his limb amputated, last Monday, hoping it would give him relief. The first amputation was at the knee, but the physician's discovered the bone was diseased and performed a second operation above the knee. The patient seemed to be resting easy under this operation. Doctors McCormick, Damm and Watson performed the operation.

Books, Magazines, Etc. YELLOW KID SCOTTISH.—We have just received a copy of the above-named scottish comic composed by Charlie Baker, the popular music writer. This piece of music is without doubt destined to have an unprecedented run of popularity. Most of our readers are aware that the character of the "Yellow Kid" is now the reigning fad throughout the East, being the feature of the illustrated weeklies and newspapers. It is very easy, remarkably pretty, and can be played on piano or organ.

Price 40 cents per copy. All readers of our paper will receive a copy by sending 25 cents in silver or postage stamps to the Union Mutual Music Co., 265 Sixth Avenue, New York.

In the January number of Harper's paper entitled "Science at the Beginning of the Century," by Dr. Henry Smith Williams, will be an important contribution to the history of nineteenth century civilization, and will be followed by other papers showing the progress of scientific discovery during the last hundred years.
