The Borough Election and Others Throughout the County.

It has been a long time since SO little excitement prevailed at a local Cunningham; tax collector, Jacob Heller; counelection as was the case on last Tuesday. This was followed by the returns from the South, that rolled in its old time form, and then the surprise of the night was announced from the North, where Taylor received the unprecedented majority of 159 M. Lucas; auditor, David Baldridge; Supervisors votes over Hillibish, the Republican aspirant for tax collector, and L. A. Schaeffer was elected Justice over H. H. Harshberger.

The remarkable Democratic victory in the borough can be ascribed to two causes. Apathy on the part of the Republicans and general good feeling among the Democrats. E. R. Chambers Esq., was defeated for burgess, not because he wouldn't have made a good official if elected, but because the Hastings wing of the Republican party had er; inspectors, Miles Zimmerman, Burt Bechdel an opportunity to stick the knife into him justice, G. Then his pernicious activity in the Miller contest led mont. many of his own party men, not in sympathy with his course, to vote against him. This was not so hard to do when the rectors, Hiram Thompson, Wallace Musser, Geo. Democracy presented such an estimable young man as Mr. Naginey.

In the contest for tax collector the overwhelming defeat of Mr. Hillibish is a matter that has caused much wonderment. In the result, as recorded below, the careful reader will be able to perceive, also, that dissatisfaction is already beginning to show itself at the failure of the restoration of confidence, by McKinley's election, to bring about better times as was so persistently promised last fall.

Last week quite a number of the Rebersburg singers attended the musical convention at Madisonburg.

Mrs. Hannah Fulmer, of Rebersburg, who had been ill for some six weeks, is again able to be up and around.

Last Thursday Commissioner, D. Heckman stopped long enough at Rebersburg to hand out the necessary material for the election on Tuesday.

CANTON, O., Feb. 15.-Before breakfast time this morning there were five callers, mostly after office, at the McKinley home. For the first time since election the President-elect failed to arise for this morning meal, remaining in his bed-room until the family physician, Dr. T. H. Phillips, ar-rived at about 10 o'clock. With the slight diversions of runs to Cleveland and Chicago for a few days, Major McKinley has al-lowed himself to be held captive every day, excepting Sundays, from early morning until late at night, sometimes after midnight. Public men who have been here have marveled at his endurance

Congressman Chickering, of the Oswego, N. Y., district, who had witnessed Saturday's crowds besieging the McKinley home, said he did not understand how any human being could stand the strain of constant callers and do the work Major Mc-Kinley has been doing. He has simply refused to take the advice of his friends and set limited office hours, and, no matter whether engaged in cabinet making or on his inaugural address, has allowed himself to be interrupted at short intervals to receive the crowds that have filled the house, some days in the private family rooms. It is quite evident that this cannot continue with justice to the president-elect. The most that he is troubled with now is a bad justice, W. A. Murray; overseer, John Hook, tax cold. The worst that is apprehended is the collector, J. M. Weiland; auditor, Samuel Weber; supervisors, Alex Kuhn, Geo. $40,000 ; Switzerland, $30,000 to $40,000, and Turkey, $100,000. While not expecting that Congress will make all these appropriations at once, the Secretary hopes a beginning will be made.

Corbett in Magnificent Condition.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15 .--- James J. Corbett started for Nevada this evening, accompanied by his trainers Billy Delaney and Jack McVey. Walter Watson, boxing in-structor of the Olympic club, who is probably as intimately acquainted with Corbett as any man in the State, declares that Corbett is in magnificent condition. That Corbett is in good fettle is shown by his desire to fight. Were he out of trim or were it impossible for him to train for the event he would never have signed to fight. "All I am afraid of now is that Fitzsimmons will back out, as I am thoroughly convinced he troops are to protect the Christian families would never have signed for the match had in Crete and to restore order. This is lookhe not believed Corbett was a back num- ed upon as tantamount to the occupation ber," said Mr. Watson.

John Bright by remarking : "We put all our money on the wrong horse." If opposition be made to the consolidation of Greece and Crete by any Power it should certainly not be expected to come from Great Britain. It would be manifestly good policy for Great Britain to further the creation of as many small states as possible, and to strengthen those which now exist in Europe, so that they might become counterweights in the balance of power against the great military alliances of the European continent. All present indica-tions make it seem probable that the conflict in Crete will be strictly localized, and that the 70,000 Moslems on the island will be left to fight out the issue with the 300, 000 Christians aided by their Greek brethren. The assurance reported to have been given by the Powers to the Sultan that they will remain neutral in the couflict, and will give Turkey a free hand, will tend only to further hasten the wreck of Turkish power. Herein lies the chief danger of the situation ; for if it should become evident that Turkey cannot assert herself even against weak and bankrupt Greece, how will it be possible to restrain the Serbs, Bulgars and Macedonians from making assaults upon the remaining fragments of the Ottoman Empire in Europej But the division of the spoils of the Turk among the subject races of the Empire would be so manifestly equitable, and provide such a complete settlement of the eastern question that it would be inconceivable upon what ent state of international ethics any Power could intervene to frustrate so happy a solution of this ancient problem.-Philadelphia Record.

A Greek steamer arrived at the island of Syria last night with 1,500 refugees, who

er of the Greek warship and the foreign consuls there. It is evident that the Grecian government has taken a serious step in sending troops to Crete to protect the Christians. A regiment of infantry, battery and artillery em-barked at Piraeus yesterday on board three steamers. There was a scene of great enthusiasm before the departure of the troops. Crown Prince Constantine, the Duke of Sparta, reviewed the men, and, addressing them, said : "Officers, and men, remember where you are going, and that you are Hellenes.'

The troops then marched past, in the presence of the queen, the crown princess and an immense crowd. The crown prince, with his staff, was at the head of the men and the populace cheered wildly. Similar scenes of enthusiasm were also witnessed during the embarkment of the soldiers. The arrival of the transports has already been reported from the island of Milo. The troops continued on their voyage immediately, and it was expected that they would reach Canea to-day. It is rumored that they will virtually occupy the island without delay. All of the Grecian newspapers hail the departure of the troops with expressions of delight. There is much activity at the palace, King George personally directing affairs connected with the crisis.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 14 .-- A Greek warship yesterday fired on a Turkish vessel conveying soldiers from Candia to Canea.

As a result of Friday's scenes the ampassadors decided to recommend to their respective governments that the powers occupy Canea, Retimo and Candia to afford protection to the Mussulmans.
