Rev. Hingworth and family are sojourners at H. M. Snyder's waiting conference orders.

Farmer Bob Reed says the wet weather suits him exactly as he is in doors slinging lul-a-by-baby to a little Robert No. 7.

D. H. Eye, Esq., one of Tyrone's business men, spent several days here in the early part of the week making a final settlement of his sale.

Col. Musser, of Bellefonte, was here between trains on Tuesday looking after his insurance business and greatly improved in health.

D. L. Miller Sundayed at Moshannon with his son J. A. R. Miller, who has recovered from his recent illness sufficiently to close his school.

James Dawson, one of the P. R. R. company's most trusted engineers, and his family visited grandpa Miller's comfortable country home last week.

Miss Gertrude Miller has been suffering all winter with a sore foot. Dr. Woods removed the cause, an ingrown nail, on Tuesday and she is now improving.

Rev. C. T. Aikens is attending the burial of his venerable uncle, Thomas Hassenfelt, who died at Milroy, on the 23rd, in the seventieth year of his age.

Miss Tillie, youngest daughter of D. L. Miller was happily married several weeks ago in Tyrone to George Christian, of that town. The groom is an engineer on the P. R. R. and we can assure him that he has gotten an excellent wife.

Mrs. Margaret Lytle has recovered so nearly from her recent attack of pneumonia that Andy is once more able to give his attention to his pet bear, which occasionally nuzzles itself by chewing up the family carriage or any thing else it gets its paws on.

Mail route agent Gaur from Missouri spent several days here and at McAlevy's Fort inspecting the sub-division lettings about to take place. He will find it a difficult matter to dispose of the recent route from Fairbrook to Penna. Furnace at the very low rate. At his suggestion a petition will be forwarded to the post office authorities at Washington to re-establish the old route from this point to Penna. Furnace via Fairbrook and Rock Springs.

On last Thursday while the festivities of the big dinner were progressing at the parsonage John Grove and Miss Hannah Behres and Harry Eyer and Mary A. Harpster appeared, with the register's sanction and had Rev. Aikens perform the solemn marriage ceremony which united them, we hope, for life. After the ceremony Mr. Grove and his bride returned to their home near Shiloh and Mr. Eyer and his bride to Marango. Both are up to date young farmers and are deserving of the good help mates they got.

Shaken Up. MONTREAL, March 25.—A heavy shock of earthquake shook the center of this city this evening and caused great consternation. Large buildings shook like reeds and there was a general rush of the inmates for the doors. So far no damage has been reported. Dispatches from various points in this province and from Eastern Ontario report similar shocks but without any damage of consequence.

All Through Brush Valley. Dan Brungard, of Rebersburg, is very ill. The robins have again returned to their homes in Brush valley.

Last Saturday, Brush valley had its first thunderstorm of the season. Miss Rose Corman, of Rebersburg, visited relatives and friends at Salona last week.

Messrs. Cyrus Rhoté and John Thompson, of Salona, were in our valley last Thursday.

Huston McKibbins and his wife, of Parvin, spent Saturday and Sunday at Harvey Miller's.

Rev. Stover, of Rebersburg, who had been ill for the last few weeks, is again able to be up again.

The sale of Geo. Brungard, of Rebersburg, was well attended last Saturday afternoon in spite of the thunderstorm.

Mr. Hosterman, who is teaching the grammar school at Rebersburg, will teach a term of summer school at the same place.

Reuben Bierly, of Rebersburg, is digging the cellar for his new house in the West end.

Misses Ella Brungard and Bella Krebs, of Rote, for the last week, have been visiting relatives in and around Rebersburg.

Samuel Bierly, of Tylersville, spent Sunday at the old Bierly homestead, near Rebersburg, where he was born, 67 years ago.

Report says, that Messrs. John Harter and Calvin Morris, of Rebersburg, will start a new store in Mr. Harter's building which Mr. Miller vacated on Monday.

Lawrence Barner, of Carrol, intends to give organ and piano instructions during the summer in our valley. A canvass will be made this week, which will decide the matter.

Charles Small, of Rebersburg, has the U. S. mail route from Rebersburg to Coburn again. Mr. Small is just the right person, because he knows how to accommodate the people.

Howard Miller, the energetic merchant of Rebersburg, who bought Mr. Sam'l Waite's store house, just opposite Miller's store, in the fall, moved his goods into the same on Monday. Mr. Miller has a nice store room now and will be soon ready to wait upon his old customers.

Miss Winifred Wolf, of Rebersburg, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Williamsport and Lock Haven, came home Tuesday, with a smile which only a pleasant trip can bring.

On Saturday the trout fry arrived for the new dam, which has recently been made behind the mountain land, known as John Shultz's land, but recently bought by W. R. Bierly and Wm. H. Frank.

C. C. Loose, of Rebersburg, has finished the lumber job above Emanuel Harter's. Some time this spring Mr. Loose will move his saw mill out on the Brungard property, which he recently bought.

TO THE BRUSH VALLEY SILVER CLUB.—Wm. J. Bryan's book "The First Battle," which has just been published, is being sold in our valley by several agents, and we sincerely hope that all of the 200 members of our club and all others, will secure a copy, as it is sold cheap. The book contains his biography written by Mrs. Bryan; all his most important speeches delivered in Congress and while on his famous campaign tour throughout the United States; the principal addresses and documents of the campaign of 1896; all of which are a faithful presentation of the rise and development of the silver movement. It is also the best treatise on the money question of our country viewed as being governed not by monopoly but by democracy. It has the election returns, explanations and Bryan's address as to the duty of silver Democrats in the future. The book is finely illustrated and substantially bound. No advocate of silver and democracy can afford to be without it.

H. E. BIERLY, President.

Major Dick for Secretary.

Chicago, March 21.—An Akron, Ohio, special says: Major Charles Dick, received, yesterday, from Chairman Hanna, the formal tender of the secretaryship of the republican National committee and he wired his acceptance. There will be a salary of $5,000 a year attached to the office. Major Dick was offered, by President McKinley, both the positions of fourth assistant postmaster general and treasurer of the United States but declined.

"Too Bad But Indeed Utrac."

Dear Editor:—Permit me, through the columns of your paper, to correct an evil report that the editor of the Eastern Pa. Watchman published in the WATCHMAN of the 12th, inst., under the title of "Alas Too Bad, But Indeed Too True." He says:

"The town of Milesburg in Centre county, is a simple community. Milesburg is about the size of Nazareth. Everything about the town has the appearance of neglect and decay. No new house has been erected within its limits in at least six years. Not a single building can boast of a recent coat of paint. The fences are dilapidated. Most of the houses are shabby and the people generally have a look of don't careviveness, that is far from encouraging. The only person we saw at the Milesburg station that looked as if he had any ambition to move, was a white man painted and dressed up like an Indian. He was evidently a stranger. I should like him, to tell us in his next article, how Milesburg is to blame for this painted Indian stranger stopping at the Milesburg station, any more than it is to blame for his being dumped off, by the railroad company? It was about the same time that a tramp had stolen conductor Grubb's grip, at Williamsport, Pa., with a lot of duplicate forms of extra, in it. He sold coupons along the road at ticket offices until he reached the Milesburg station, receiving cash for them, and was first detected and checked off, at this "don't carevative Nazareth." He quit the trail of the Bald Eagle valley, and struck for the mountains at once, leaving his company behind him. Naturally he sared on Milesburg. I infer from his article that he is from "Nazareth" and as it has been asked: "Did you ever hear of any good thing coming out of Nazareth?" When he is telling stories he should remember that ancient one, related about Ananias and Sapphira, and it is well for him that that just rule, that prevented them from increasing their prosperity by lying is not in force, in his case. Why he should have struck his fangs at everybody in and about Milesburg, it is hard to reason, unless he was mad at himself or fully possessed of satan. He don't tell a single truth from the time he reaches the Milesburg station until he leaves it. There have been more than a dozen fine dwelling houses built and about as many remodelled much less than six years. The fences and streets are in as good condition if not better than any similarly small town in the State—her sister town—Bellefonte—not excepted —Milesburg station, is fully from one-half to a mile from the town, at the nearest point and the railroad track runs along an old planing mill dilapidated, deserted, and not used for almost twenty years, and the old lumber and coal yards, tracks, and trestles of the Snow Shoe Co., more than twenty years in ruins—these specialties lie between the travelers, on rail and the beautiful and thriving town of Milesburg.
