

Spring Mills.

Under the able leadership of Wm. Brown, the Spring Mills band has become the pride of our village. It meets every Friday evening for practice and it almost equals a concert.

The junior base ball team of our village are preparing themselves for several sharp contests they expect to be engaged in during the coming summer.

The quarterly conference of the M. E. church of this circuit, convened here on Monday last. Dr. Monroe, the presiding elder, officiating. All the reports were quite satisfactory.

As the time draws near for the appointment of our postmaster, all the applicants are active and on the alert. Everything being fair in war, love and politics, of course every little mine set up is fiercely exploded.

D. H. Rule, the well known landlord, says that business is brightening up, quite lively with him of late. If it only continues he observed, I will be perfectly satisfied.

Major Huss, the jolly shoemaker of our village, remarked to me a day or two since—"Where the deuce are all the gold dollars we were promised last fall after McKinley's election?"

Admiral Meade Dead.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Admiral Meade (retired) United States navy, who has been ill in Washington for three weeks past, died to-day at Dr. Johnson's private sanitarium.

Admiral Meade was one of the best known officers of the modern navy; saw hard service before, during, and after the civil war, and cruised in all parts of the world on important naval and diplomatic missions.

During the last administration he and the President had a serious disagreement resulting from the admiral's criticism, in an interview, of the policy of the administration.
