For Tax Collectors.

A New Act in Which Taxpayers Will be interested. Prothonotaries have received the new law signed by the Governor for the relief of the different tax collectors of the Commonwealth. As it is of interest to every township and borough in the county, it is published below in full.

It provides "That in all cases in which the period of two years, the limitation of warrants in the duplicate of county, city, township, ward, school and borough tax collectors have expired, in all cases where the power and authority of said tax collectors has expired or shall expire during the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, by virtue of the expiration of their term of office, and said collecto: or collectors have or shall become liable for the amount of tax on said duplicates without having collected the same, the said duplicates and warrants, and the powers and authority of said tax collectors in all such cases are hereby revived and extended for a period of one year from the passage of this act, and said collector or collectors are hereby authorized and empowered to proceed and collect said taxes assessed to them residing in the district within which it may have been assessed, as well as all persons who removed from said city, ward, township or boroughs, and have neglected to pay as aforesaid assessed with like effect as if said warrants had not expired by the limitation of two years as aforesaid or the term of office of said tax collector had not expired." "Provided, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to warrants issued prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and that nothing contained in this shall release any bondsman or security."

A GIANT IN TROUBLE.

Found that Earache Wasn't So Terribly Easy to Endure. It was after the medical association had adjourned the other night that the gruff old doctor called in several of his professional brethren into a corner and told his story.

"Never had a pleasanter case in my life," he chuckled. "You know what a big. powerful fellow Sems is. Never was sick a day, and has always derided the idea that pain was a thing to make such a fuss over as is made by some people. Even his wife and children never got any sympathy from him, and he was always ready to give them a going over for not displaying more stoicism.

"Tuesday morning about 2 o'clock there was a terrific ringing at my telephone. On answering it I was urged by an agitated voice to hurry to Sems as quickly as possible. It was a case of life and death. Getting there post haste, I found that great big fellow walking the floor in his night robe. groaning so that he could be heard anywhere in the block, growling out orders to the whole household, looking pale as a ghost, and stopping every few minutes to hold up one foot while he howled. His head was enveloped in towels, and one side of it steamed with 10t poultices. He sailed into me for not getting there sooner, said that half the people died while waiting for a doctor, jawed his wife because she hadn't sense enough to tell him that he had no slippers on, and then told her to call a lawyer so he could put his affairs into shape. I vetoed this until we found out whether there was anything the matter. "'Anything the matter!' echoed Sems. 'Great Heavens! man, the side of my head's coming off. I can't last till daylight in this torture. No mortal ever suffered such agony. If you're going to do anything, do it quick. My own opinion is that I'm done for,' and he let out the loudest howl of the night. What do you think was the matter with the big calf? The Whole System Severely Arraigned by Franklin Pierce-With Free Raw Materials Our Machine Made Goods Would Soon Capture the World-Increasing Cost

The principal speaker at the annual dinner of the New England Free Trade league, held on May 8, was Mr. Franklin Pierce of New York. He handled his subject without gloves. He said in is about 1,400,000,000, and only 400, 000,000 use machinery at all. The rest do their work by rude tools guided by the hands, and we, the Yankee nation, who have revolutionized the world by our inventions, who use machinery to a greater extent than any other people, we refuse to allow the raw material which these 1,000,000,000 of nonmachine using people create, to enter our ports in exchange for machine made products, except upon the payment of excessive duties, while the more intelligent of our manufacturers are clamoring for free raw material and saving. 'Give us free raw material, and we

"Instead of seeking the markets of the world, employing millions of men now lying idle, making the margin of profits less but the output several times greater than at present, getting thereby a steady market and continued service for our laboring classes, our trusts and combinations are hiring their competitors to close their factories and throw tens of thousands of laboring men out

"We have only to get freedom of trade and we can capture the markets of the world in many lines. What the Englishman is to the German the American is to the Englishman, and just as the German is crying out against competition with the machine made goods and high priced labor of England, just so would England cry out against competition with the machine made goods and the high priced labor of America, were duties upon all raw ma-

VOTING FOR A POSTMASTER.

Prove Popular. Huntington, New York, Republicans have gone about naming a candidate for the local Postmastership in a business-like fashion. Funnell and Charles E. Sammis will act as inspectors at such election. All questions as to voting shall be decided by the inspectors." "The result of the election will be certified by the inspectors." There are a few Republicans in the town who contend that this election will not settle anything. These few object to retiring from local politics the question of "pull." They prefer to leave the question of office open to the men with the strongest friends at court. The great majority, however, have agreed that the matter be finally submitted to a vote and that the voice of the Republicans thus expressed be

FREEING PULP WOOD OF KNOTS. The New Machine Accomplishes Better Results Than the Old Method.

A machine has been patented for taking the knots and foreign substansee out of wood for sulphite pulp. The freer the wood is from knots and foreign matter the whiter and better quality of pulp it makes. The old method was to bore the knots out by a hand auger, but many of the knots ran crosswise, and could be only be partially removed. Hand picking of the knots was also resorted to after the wood had been chipped, girls and women being mostly employed for that women and girls can be employed for a was adopted. In consequence the European manufacturers have been able to furnish American markets with a much cleaner and better grade of pulp than is manufactured in this country. But the new machine will clean the chips better than 100 women and girls can do it in the same time. The method is simple and costs little. The wood is prepared in the usual manner by passing the blocks through the chipper. The chips are then taken up by a blower and discharged against a steel plate, which disintegrates them, after which they are passed through the machine which cleans out the knots. This is a tank or vat filled with water. After entering the water the hips are submerged by machinery and taken to a carrier. The clean wood chips suitable for pulp float and are taken out, while the knots and resinous matter sink and are carried off from the bottom of the tank. The claim of the patent is for an improved method of simultaneously moistening and assorting the clear wood chips for cooking in the digester.-Chicago Inter-
