

Bellefonte, Pa., July 2, 1897.

CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of -Excavation has begun for the new Evangelical church at Unionville.

-The new iron bridge over the Bald Eagle creek, at Unionville, is now ready for traffic.

-Mr. A. C. Thompson has been reelected to the position of principal of Snow Shoe schools.

park to-morrow.

have a very good time.

-The Coal Exchange hotel, in Phil- he got it stopped. ipsburg, has changed hands again and Joseph Peters is its proprietor now.

-Rev. James R. Runkle, of Hublersburg, will preach in the Reformed church in this place, on Sunday morning. -The Presbyterian church at Union-ville is being beautified by the addition of a new roof and a coat of fresh paint. —The appropriation bill passed finally burg. ---Robert T. Morris rode from his

miles

church, and his family, will occupy the house at the Academy while Rev. J. P. Hughes and his family are summering at Cape May. ----Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Krumrine have been among the very happiest residents of north Spring street since Tuesday, when an eleven pound boy put in his appearance at their home.

---There will be no such place for cent fire works and championship baseball. Are you going down?

night, and tapped the till in the bar-room. he was thrown under the wheels. $15 were taken, but a gold watch and other valuables were left undisturbed.

Thomas street, on Wednesday, July 7th.

-Rudolph Schadd, who returned from a ten months stay at Niagara, N. Y., so completely broken in health that there seemed little hope of his recovery, is better-so much so that he is able to enjoy a drive.

church will hold a festival in the McClain block, on Friday and Saturday evenings, him clear off of the one he was riding. of this week. Ice cream, cake, sandwiches Though he was badly shaken-up and and coffee will be served. Proceeds for the bruised, no bones were broken. benefit of the church.

---Co. B, 5th Reg., N. G. P. will leave lake. Crawford county, and only the Second brigade will be there.

workers went to Lemont, last Sunday even- shoulders, but not dangerously hurt. ing, and held service in the Methodist church there. The young men are meeting with so much success in conducting these meetings and their work is so highly appreciated that they are greatly in demand.

---One of the fine gray horses owned by the Bellefonte fuel and supply company died with paralysis last week. A. Baum, the liveryman, lost a valuable sorrel horse, about the same time. It got its head and was so near dead when discovered, in the morning, that it could not be saved.

-A very intere ting article on the arm at the wrist. Washington monument will be found on another page of this issue. It was written by S. S. Pletcher, formerly of this county, and contains many facts about the great shaft that will be new to most readers. Mr. Pletcher is located in Washington and knows whereof he writes.

-An alarm of fire called out part of the department, about noon yesterday, and it was found that some workmen who were boiling tar near Rhoads' corn-crib, on Thomas street, had accidently set fire to that ornamental structure. Of course the fire was put out before any damage was done and that is just the reason why so many residents of that neighborhood are mad now.

-A thirteen year old boy was arrested at Unionville, last Monday, when he offered a good horse for sale for the amount of his car fare from that place to Lock Haven. The boy had stolen the horse from a Mr. Kissel, for whom he had been working and who lives a few miles west of Hollidaysburg. He said he was on his way to Lock Haven to visit his grand-mother.

-A very pleasant wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Miller, at Valentine's furnace, on last Saturday, when their Joseph Ayers. Rev. C. H. Goodling, of the Evangelical church, performed the ceremony at twelve o'clock. A number of friends were present and after the cere- the fact that the rumor is entirely without Doll for violation of the liquor laws he was 52 years old and one of the representation to extensive work now in the friends were present and after the cere- that the rumor is entirely without Doll for violation of the liquor laws he was 52 years old and one of the representation to extensive work now in the fact that the rumor is entirely without Doll for violation of the liquor laws he was 52 years old and one of the representation to extensive work now in the fact that the rumor is entirely without Doll for violation of the liquor laws he was a second of the representation of the liquor laws he was 52 years old and one of the representation of the liquor laws he was 52 years old and one of the representation of the liquor laws he was 52 years old and one of the representation of the liquor laws he was 52 years old and one of the representation of the liquor laws he was 52 years old and one of the representation of the liquor laws he was a liquor laws he was mony a nice dinner was served.

MANGLED BY A MOWING MACHINE .-It was only through a most miraculous escape that this community was not shocked by another horrible fatality on Saturday. About 3 o'clock that afternoon Charles Taylor, the twenty-one year old son of George Taylor, a well-known farmer who lives on the Henderson, or "back Hunter" farm, near Fillmore, was mowing clover. THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY He was driving a teal of colts in the machine and they were very fractious. The young man was able to manage them, however, until one of them suddenly shied off at a load of hay that was being hauled out of the field. Taylor lost his balance and fell over in front of the cutting bar. The team then started to run, but with rare presence would be chopped to pieces if he did not -Millheim and Mackeyville base- keep himself out of the way of those terriball clubs will play a game of ball at Hecla ble knives that were clicking with the rapidity of lightning, Taylor held fast to ---Celebrate the glorious 4th at Hecla the lines. In this way he kept his body to-morrow. The Undines will make you from being perforated by the sharp guards public schools for the next year. W. A. and after the team had run about 15 rods

Exhausted, bruised and bleeding the young man was unable to get loose when he had stopped the horses, but Robert Henderson and some men, working in an adjoining field, saw his plight and hastened to release him. When they had picked him up it was found that a guard had pierced his left arm above the elbow and that his right side was terribly lacerated. After he had been taken home Dr. J. L. by the House, on Tuesday, carried with it Seibert, of this place, was called and at-$14,000 for the Cottage hospital at Philips- tended to his injuries. The young man getting along as nicely as could be ex- in the work that she lost her reason. home in Tyrone to this place, on Sunday pected now. His escape from a horrible afternoon, on a bicycle in two hours and a death is really miraculous and largely due half. The distance is about thirty-four to his rare presence of mind in holding onto the lines, after falling from the mower seat, ---Organist Reeve, of the Episcopal and in that way holding himself out of the way of the knives.

> accident occurred on the farm of John Seibert, four miles west of this place, at 5 o'clock last evening, whereby little Charles Dale, the 5 year old son of Samuel Dale, of Warriorsmark, was instantly killed.

The lad was a grand-son of Mr. Seibert and, with his mother, was visiting at their fine country place. During the afternoon amusement in Centre county as Hecla park of the fatal day the men were engaged in will be to-morrow. Fine bands, magnifi- hauling in hay and had just unloaded a wagon in the barn and started to go back to the field. The team was standing near -A thief pried open a window in the the barn and the lad was swinging on the Erb house, Philipsburg, last Saturday stay chain, when the horses started and

Not a sound was uttered from the little lips, but John Seibert came out of the house - Miss Elizabeth Shaughenessy, young- just at the instant the rear wheels were est daughter of street commissioner Thomas passing over his neck. He grabbed the Shaughenessy, will be married to Mr. John lifeless form of his little nephew, but it Nolan, a son of Mr. Jerre Nolan, of south was too late. The heavy front wheels had killed him. His neck was broken.

and physicians called from Bellefonte, but no use for such a jewel and intends selling they took time to enjoy life and were sat arrived.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT.—While Samuel Tressler, of Nittany valley, was riding a ---The Ladies aid society of the U. B. colt and leading several others, a few days ago, one of them kicked up and knocked Bellefonte for the regular ten days summer his car, at Axe Mann, yesterday morning, encampment on Wednesday evening, July by having his head knocked by a building er with dish water and Mr. Beck and the 14th. The encampment will be at Conneaut that stands dangerously near the track. Cathcart boys exchanging compliments He was leaning out too far, seeing that a baby carriage was gotten off all right. He -The Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. visiting was cut and bruised about the head and > Pennsylvania, had the third finger on one of his hands badly crushed and broken on Monday morning. He was holding a drill when the handle of a 16lb sledge broke and caused his injury.

-While riding a horse on his father's farm, down in the Bald Eagle valley, last fastened under its manger during the night | Tuesday afternoon, Ralph, the 12 year old son of H. H. Harshberger Esq., of this place, was thrown off and broke his left

> -The commissioners of Centre county have offered a reward for the recapture of McCormick and Hanna, the prisoners who escaped from jail here last week. $50 will be given for each of them.

> A CHANGE IN A GROCERS' FIRM .- The firm of John Q. Miles & Co., grocers on south Spring street, this place, has undergone a change by the retirement of Edward Schofield, the junior partner. He has been succeeded by S. S. Miles, of Port Matilda, a brother of John Q., who has had many years experience in the mercantile business.

a recent act of the Legislature all alien la- under the auspices of the Prohibition borers of this State are to be taxed three league of Bellefonte, in the temperance cents a day and there is a general scramble among them now to get out naturalization begin at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Goodling, papers. On Monday thirteen Polanders came in from Snow Shoe to file their first liver the address and the Prohibiton quarpapers with the Prothonotary.

It is highly the proper thing to tax this vited. class, but we trust our judge will be very discreet in granting naturalization papers been in circulation, the last few days, to George Miller, of this place, and a hearing of the firm of Templeton & Co., large merdaughter Sarah, was united in marriage to the effect that the Valentine iron company's rolling mill is going to start soon, tice Keichline. Inquiry at the offices of the firm discloses As no evidence was produced to hold Mr. stomach and kidney troubles. Deceased country and in addition to extensive work now in foundation.

-Don't forget the great picnic at Hecla to-morrow.

-See Lyon and Co's new advertisement of warm weather clothing.

-The Undine celebration at Hecla park to-morrow will really be a nice place for you to go. There will be plenty of fun

-Local capitalists are negotiating for the purchase of the Philipsburg electric light company's plant, most of the stock of which is owned by Hon. J. N. Casanova.

-The Lock Haven base-ball club that was the old Shamokin club, opened of mind and seeming to realize that he the season in Lock Haven, on Wednesday, by playing two games with the Demorests, both of which the home team won.

> -Thomas B. Shannon, of Turbotville. has been elected principal of Centre Hall's Krise and Frank Foreman were elected to teach the second grade and primary schools, respectively.

> -The American armored cruiser, Brooklyn, that represented the United States navy at the recent jubilee of Queen Victoria, is the one to which Roland Curtin. eldest son of Gen'l. Irv. Curtin, of this place, is attached.

-Religious enthusiasm unbalanced Miss Jennie Galbraith, of Boalsburg, and she was taken to the Danville asylum last funeral having been from the home of his 9:17 Beech Creek train he was met by the week. About a year ago she joined the suffered terrible pain for a few days, but is Presbyterian church and became so zealous Ed. Hoshour of the Lutheran church offici-

--- Mr. D. M. Cowher, whose son, A. Boyd Cowher, lives at Hunter's park, has his death occurred, last Friday afternoon, charge of one of the largest roller mills in Western Pennsylvania now. He has just marks of Spring township is removed. moved from Elizabeth, Pa., to Kammerer, Washington county, and expects to make A BOY'S NECK BROKEN .-- A frightful a visit to his old home in this county soon.

> -The commission recently appointed to look up a site for a new state fish hatchery, that the State will have to build ere long, visited Bilger's Arctic springs, near Philipsburg, a few days ago. The gentlemen were very much pleased with the place and thought it an advantageous loca-

-In publishing an account of the purchase of carefully mated mounts for the Sheridan troopers of that place the Herald says "the troop will have a fine outfit of complete horses." Just what is meant by complete horses we are not able to guess, On Tuesday night at her home, on west unless it is that these have all of the tails that grew on them.

-Rev. E. B. Sowers, of Philipsburg, won the second prize in a word contest that was carried on by the American Nation Co., and will receive a diamond ring. The it to give the money to missions. Billy Tobias, of Millheim, also won a diamond

----Mrs. George Cathcart and her neighbor Beck have gotten into difficulties again and justice Keichline has bound them over for court in the sums of $200 and $300, respectively. They live, side by side, on "Methodist Hill" and from all re--Robert Moyer, baggage master on ports their lives must be one continued the Lewisburg train, was knocked out of scrap. The latest unpleasantness was characterized by the women deluging one anothwith stones.

-Baron Steigel, founder of the borough of Manheim, ceded the site for the Lutheran church in that place to the con--R. T. Bloom, of Milesburg, an em- gregation for five shillings and the payployee of the Central rail-road company of ment of "one red rose" every June. In later years the church has organized a great rose carnival in commemoration of the philanthropist and it is one of the annual events of that place. For the one that was held, June 13th, Dr. Alfred Bierly, of Chicago, a noted composer who was born in this county, wrote an anthem that was considered the finest musical number of > ---One of our correspondents has made sideration of road supervisors and those in- home, above Fillmore, to-day. terested in good roads in all parts of the county. It is that such persons meet in how essential to the economic regulations of brick yards when he suffered a slight infruitful such a meeting might prove to be. later, and he died. Deceased was 55 years friends in town, Friday. Mrs. Evans was Mary Now that the State is doing something for old and leaves a widow. He was a veteran better roads would it not be becoming the of the late war and was buried Wednesday individual to waken up?

AN OPEN MEETING.-Next Tuesday HUSTLING TO AVOID THE TAX-Under evening, July 6th, exercises will be held rooms, in Crider's exchange. They will pastor of the Evangelical church, will de-

LOUIS DOLL EXONERATED.—Brewer Louis Doll, of Roopsburg, was returned, recently, for having sold a four gallon keg of No Notion of Starting .- A rumor has beer to Claude Miller, a minor son of discharged.

MRS. SETH H. YOCUM.-The death, of Mrs. Seth H. Yocum at her old home, in Middletown, N. Y., on last Friday evening, was most unexpected to her friends here for while it was known that she was in failing health when she came east in May it was thought that her life would be spared for several years. Her death is particularly sad as she had just gotten back to her friends, after an absence of some years, and her children are just at an age when they need her most. She was well and favorably known here where she will be remembered as a woman of rare intelligence and gracious personalitv. Her husband represented this district in Congress in 1878-9 and while here they built the fine country place now the home of the Shoemakers, north of town. Afterwards they removed to Johnson City, Tenn., and from there to Passadena, Cal.,

where Mr. Yocum die'l, in April, '95. Mrs. Yocum came east in May with her two daughters, Bess and Martha, and her distance is 107 miles and their talk finally son, Frank, to make her home with her sister, Miss Florence Horton, at the Horton | could not cover the distance on a bicycle, a great sorrow to her family. John is with Haven, carrying Mr. Allen. Brown went the U.S. Leather company in New York; from Hawk Run to Clearfield and thence top. Charles is in California, where Joe, the to Lock Haven on his wheel, arriving there third son, recently graduated at the Leland an hour earlier than Mr. Allen, who took Stanford University.

The remains of the late Samuel Tibbens son Henry, on east Howard street. Rev. ated and interment was made at Pleasant Gap. Samuel Tibbens was 79 years old when and with his passing one of the old land-He was born at Laurelton, Union county, Feb. 18th, 1818. When a young man he came to this county where he married Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph Gerberich. He settled on a farm, four miles east of Bellefonte, where he remained until he retired from active work, in 1869, when he moved to Boiling Springs. He lived there until 1884, when his wife having died, he went to live among his children. Deceased was a highly respected citizen and a man whose active life was characterized by a lively interest in matters of public good. He was the father of nine children, all of whom survive.

DEATH OF MRS. MARGARET NOLAN.-Lamb street, Mrs. Margaret Nolan, widow of the late John Nolan, died, after a long illness of Bright's disease and paralysis. Mrs. Nolan was a genial, companionable woman, acquainted with all the older residents of the town and while she and her The child was carried into the house first prize is $500. Rev. Sowers will have for they had pleasure and contentment, for family had nothing but what they labored isfied.

She was born in Perry county, October 15th, 1823, and although past the allotted time of years retained her remarkable memory and conversational power 'til the last. Her daughter, Alice, devotedly cared for her during her long illness but neither love nor skill could stay the summons. Her other children are Charles, of Newark, N. J.; Christ, of Butler, and John Ford, of Slippery Rock.

She was a devoted Catholic and she will be buried this morning at 10 o'clock from St. John's church.

DROPPED DEAD IN THE BARN.-The venerable Thomas Marshall suddenly exnear Hunter's park, about 20 minutes after 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. Though he was 76 years old Mr. Marshall was still a Jenkins, and her grand-son, Raymond, left for very active man and was helping Mc-Knights with their harvesting. He had been unwell for a few days, but was not serious enough to quit work and on Wednesday evening he left the field ahead of unhitching the horse from the hay rake he led it into the stable and was about to unharness it when he dropped dead. Mr. Marshall had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Maud Benner, at Rock a suggestion that is indeed worthy the con- Forge, but will be burried from his son's BLOOD POISONING KILLED HIM. - A. convention, either by picnic or special meet- H. Hunter, a well-known Mill Hall citizen, ing, once a year to discuss methods for died last Monday morning, after ten day's road improvement. When it is considered illness. He had been working about the trade good roads are and that every portion jury to his leg. He gave little attention of Centre county might profit by the expe. to it, as he continued at his work, but rience of the others it will be seen how blood poisoning developed, a day or so afternoon.

--- Daniel R. Boileau, well-known all over Centre county, died at his home, in Milesburg, last Tuesday afternoon, after a 23rd, 1813, and the funeral will take place adelphia, this was the first time that Will really this afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being made in the new Milesburg cemetery. tette will sing. All are very cordially in- Deceased was a jeweler by trade, but for many years had run a hotel in the place He returned to the city Saturday noon. where he resided for thirty-six years. He was of French extraction, his ancesters having been Huguenots.

-John K. Templeton, senior member was given him, Friday evening, before jus- chants of Tyrone, died on last Thursday afternoon, as a result of a complication of tive citizens of that place.

-J. C. Blair, the man who gave Huntingdon the largest writing-pad manufactory in the world, is dead. He died, in Philadelphia, last week.

BICYCLE PRICES REDUCED. - A. Lester Sheffer, Bellefonte agent for Columbia and Hartford bicycles, made the following sweeping cut in prices on Wednesday: 1897 Columbias $75, 1896 Columbias $60, 1897 Hartfords, models 7, 8, 9 and 10, $50, other Hartfords $30 and $40. Second hand bicycles at $5 to $30.

A LONG BICYCLE RIDE FOR $20.—Jacob Brown and a Mr. Allen, of Wilkesbarre, only other one over the road, they began by other conveyances than the cars. The culminated in a wager of $20 that Brown home in Middletown and her death will be before the night train would arrive in Lock a later train. The wheelman made the trip of about 107 miles from 8:45 a. m. to THE DEATH OF SAMUEL TIBBENS.— | 8 p. m. He stopped at Gillintown for dinner and ate his supper at Eagleville. When were interred, on Sunday afternoon, the Mr. Allen arrived in Lock Haven on the wheelman. He gave Mr. Brown twenty dollars, the amount of the wager.

News Purely Personal.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Daggett and family are -Miss Annie Grove, of Johnstown, is visiting ner aunt, Mrs. Walkey, on Logan street.

Miss Mary Cruse, of east Linn street, is visiting Miss Lodie Musser, in Millheim. She expects to e there for several weeks. -Miss Sara Bayard departed yesterday after-oon to visit friends in Indianappolis. Ind., for a -Julian Walker, of Wilmington, Del., and a dition.

graduate of this year of Dickinson law school, is risiting his brother John, of McCalmont & Co. -Mrs. Augusta Roder and her daughters, two as bright and sensible girls as Baltimore is noted for, are at Mrs. Keller's, on Linn street, for the

-Miss Bess Roberts, of Passadena, Cal., was an arrival in this place, on Wednesday, and will make a long visit with her aunt, Mrs. Archibald Allison, of north Alleg heny street.

-Hugh S. Taylor Esq., accompanied his sister, Miss Isabella, to Philadelphia, on Wednesday, where she will enter a hospital with the hope of

-Joe Guggenheimer, voungest son of Isaac Suggenheimer formerly of this place, was in own on Tuesday. He is traveling for a large Philadelphia clothing house.

-L. O. Meek is home from Philadelphia to take turn in his store at State College, and help a little at hay making on the farm, while the annual house cleaning is being done at the mint. Shuey and Misses Belle and Carrie Weaver left here, Monday evening, for a trip to New York and Staten Island. They will be gone several weeks. -Mrs. Barnhart and her dear little daughter, Martha, who is one of the best trained babies we have ever met, is visiting the Campbells in Punxsutawney, while James runs the ranche

-Will Hoffman arrived in this place, last Monlay night, after having made the trip from his ome near Carlisle on a bicycle. His family joined him here, Tuesday evening, and they will visit Mr. Hoffman's parents for two weeks.

-J. M. Bower, E. L. Orvis, John M. Dale and John Blanchard were all passengers west, on Tuesday. They were on there way to Cresson t attend the meeting of the Pennsylvania bar assoiation and will return this morning.

-Miss Ella Twitmire, of Water street, left for visit to Lancaster, Philadelphia, Asbury Park and Millersville, on Tuesday morning. While at the latter place she will be a guest of her sister, Mrs. a right to be there, will be prosecuted and pired in the barn on the McKnight farm, Pickle. Her trip will keep her away for a month.

-Mrs. A. Lukenbach, of Willowbank street. ecompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Harry Rebersburg, Tuesday afternoon. They will visit relatives there for a few days

-Pat McCaffrey, of Lock Haven, visited his siser, Miss Anna, in this place, over Sunday and went home Monday evening. Mr. McCaffrey is almost as well known here, his old home, as he is the other men to go to the house. After in Lock Haven, where he is esteemed as one of necessary. Thompson is a resident of Howthe very best citizens. Ever since this paper was started he has been one of its readers.

> -James R. Hughes, associate principal of the Academy, left for Cape May, N. J., Tuesday even ing. He will spend the summer with his father and sister there. Miss Reed, who has supervision of the girls department at the same institution left for a visit to Scranton, New York city an-New England points, on Tuesday morning. -The venerable John F. Markle, whose cos little home on the back road to Roopsburg alway reminded us more of a Swiss chalet than a Centr ounty structure, was one of our pleasant caller during the week. Though well up in years M Markle is still active and conversant with

-Mrs. Ellis Evans, of Jackson, Cal., and her neice Miss Martha Evans, of Punxsutawney, were with the Masons at Hecla, last week, and visited Meek, of Virginia, whose father crossed the continent in a pioneer's wagon while she was a mere child. Her husband, one of the forty-niners was originally from this county and the tales she is able to relate of their experiences are entertaining and wonderful.

-Mr Will Furst Esq., one of the young Belle fonters who had no fear of striking out into a big field where competition knows no bounds and long illness. He was born at the toll-gate merit, alone, wins, spent last week with his parbetween this place and Milesburg, April ents in this place. Since entering the law in Philfelt he could leave his business so long, but as he is well established now as counsel for a very large corporation and things are "comin' his way," he can look after his friends at home a little more

-John Tonner Harris, youngest son H. P. Harris, of Howard street and a member of th class of '97 of The Pennsylvania State College, left for Baltimore, on Wednesday morning, where he will enter the employ of the White-electrical con White, a nephew of Gen'l Beaver, of this place and a graduate of State. He is recognized as on and a graduate of State. He is recognized as one of the foremost electrical contractors in the country and in addition to extensive work now in entire street car service of Baltimore

REV. RALPH ILLINGWORTH TO BECOME A LAWYER.—Ever since his graduation from Dickinson college Ralph Illingworth has been a character of more or less interest to residents of Centre county. It was during the holding of the conference in this place that he was ordained in the Methodist ministry. His first charge was the Pine Grove Mills circuit and in Ferguson township he met and married his wife. Besides these incidents he served the Penns valley circuit and, on the whole, is a pretty well-known young minister in Centre county. It was while on the Pennsyallev circuit that he registered as a law student in this place and began the study of law, both missed the east bound Beech Creek- presumably as an aid to a clearer conceppassenger train, at Hawk Run, on Tuesday tion of the gospel and a more argumentamorning, and as both were anxious to get tive way of presenting its truths. The real to Lock Haven before the night train, the reason for his study of the law has just come to light, since his announcement that talking of the possibilities of reaching there he is going to give up the pulpit for the bar and will soon be among the lawyers in this place.

Mr. Illingworth has given evidence of exceptional ability and he will doubtless hold no mean position in the army of young lawyers who are marching to the

AN UNFOUNDED REPORT. -For several days past reports have been circulated in Pittsburgh papers to the effect that the co-operative glass company is about to go into the hands of receivers. It is an absolute falsehood and we want to make the official announcement that the men are more than pleased with the result of their first season's work. Next fall the capacity of the plant will be doubled and that fact. alone, should be evidence that the co-operative plan has succeeded here after repeated failures under other management.

The steady, sober character of the men who are interested and their zealous determination to make it go, is largely responsible for the healthful condition of the busi-

In talking to one of our leading bankers, the other evening, he stated that he knew the business to be in a very healthful con-

The last blowing for this fire was made on Wednesday. Outside papers may put the plant into receivers' hands as often as they want, but we who live here and see everything that goes on will know how much truth there is in it.

BELLEFONTE PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS ELECTED-At a regular meeting of the school board, last Tuesday evening, the following teachers were selected to teach in the Bellefonte schools next year:

D. O. Etters, principal; A. R. Rutt. principal of high school, with Roy B. Mattern and Miss Ella Levy as assistants; John F. Harrison and Miss Anna M. Mac-Bride, senior grammars; Misses Carrie Weaver and Kate Hewes, junior grammars; Misses Agnes B. Curry, Rose Fox, -Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Green, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mary Underwood, Anna McCaffrey, intermediates, and Misses Millie Smith, Jennie Longacre, Bella K. Rankin and Bessie Dorworth, primaries. The salary list will continue the same as last year.

WILL BE SEVERELY DEALT WITH .-The Catholic cemetery in this place is being made a play ground for people, both young and old, and it is proposed that such trespassers be excluded from the burying ground.

It has been the practice to pull palings off the fence and use the cemetery as if it were a public common until those in authority have grown tired of such desecration and now warn the public that any trespassing, whatever, will not be tolerated. Those found within the cemetery, unless having punished to the full extent of the law.

HIS LEG AMPUTATED.-Dr. O. W. McEntire, of Howard, and Dr. Ball, of Williamsport, amputated David Thompson's leg at the thigh last Saturday. Last fall he had typhoid fever and the trouble apparently settled in the bones of the leg. Two weeks ago he broke it and amputation was

Bellefonte Grain Market

e	menty office with Mannet.
1-	Corrected weekly by GEO. W. JACKSON & Co.
r n	The following are the quotations up to six o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes press:
١,	Red wheat
d	Rye, per bushel.         30           Corn, shelled, per bushel.         30
	Corn, ears, per bushel
y	Oats, per bushel, old 20
8	Oats, per bushel, new 20
	Barley, per bushel
e	Ground Plaster, per ton 8 00
8	Buckwheat, per bushel
r.	Cloverseed, per bushel$6 00 to $7 00
t	Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Eggs, per dozen

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co

Potatoes per bushel..

Country Shoulders	6
Sides	6
Hams
Tallow, per pound
Butter, per pound	10
	Carrier processing the same
The Democratic	Watchman.
Published anom Fulders
Published every Friday m	orning, in Bellefonte,

Pa., at $1.50 per annum (if paid strictly in advance, $2.00, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance. A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter half year, or year as follows:

SPACE OCCUPIED	3m	6m	1y
One inch (12 lines this type	$ 5	$ 8	8 1
Two inches	7	10	1
Three inches	10	15	2
Quarter Column (5 inches)	12	20	3
Half Column (10 inches)	20	35	5
One Column (20 inches)	35	55	10
Advertisements in special column additional. Transient advs. per line, 3 insertion: Each additional insertion, per line Local notices, per line Business notices, per line Job Printing of every kind done w	š	20	ets ets

Terms—Cash.

All letters should be addressed to
P. GRAY MEEK, Proprietor